Dear Mr. Early:

I was glad to have had the pleasure of meeting you at Winged Foot last Sunday.

You will recall that I promised to send you, for the President, three miniature books, which you will find enclosed. These books are reported to be the smallest ever made and you will be interested to know they were made in the largest book manufacturing plant in the world. We made them up more as a novelty to send out to our many friends and they have been so enthusiastically received that I thought the President might like to have copies for his library.

The little red book contains four of Abraham Lincoln's most famous addresses; the blue book with a "C" on the front cover is an abridged edition of Calvin Coolidge's autobiography; the third book contains Washington's farewell address.

If the President, or his family, or you, would like additional copies of these little books please let me know and I shall be very glad to send them to you with my compliments.

With personal regards,

Cordially yours,

WONDER CRYSTALS

WHERE THEY COME FROM—WHAT THEY ARE

More than 50 years ago there was discovered in the valley of the Palo Pinto mountains of Texas a mineral water that has since proven a boon to ailing humanity. When the great state of Texas was young, a man and his family by the name of Lynch decided to settle in the beautiful valley of the Palo Pinto mountains and make his home there. This was in the pioneer days of Texas and Mr. Lynch was a true pioneer. In digging a well to find drinking water for his family he unknowingly at the time unlocked one of mother natures greatest health treasures.

Through the use of the water which he discovered, the few natives living in the valley at the time were relieved of their various bodily ailments. The curative benefits of this wonderful water was so pronounced that its virtues quickly spread to adjoining sections, and soon great numbers of ailing people were journeying to the well, seeking and finding health merely by drinking the water.

As time marched on the virtues of this remarkable water became known throughout the entire country. At the sight of this well today there is a beautiful little city. For many years thousands of people from throughout America and foreign countries have been journeying to MINERAL WELLS, TEXAS, seeking and finding relief from their various bodily aflictions, such as:

RHEUMATISM	LIVER and BLADDER TROUBLE
NEURITIS	AUTO INTOXICATION
ARTHRITIS	EXCESS ACIDITY
STOMACH DISORDERS	CONSTIPATION
NERVOUS AILMENTS

WONDER CRYSTALS are the combined minerals present in this great mineral water, extracted from the water by scientific processes of natural evaporation. Conveniently and economically distributed throughout the United States, thus bringing the virtues and benefits of this, now world famous health resort to every home in the land that will grasp its health giving benefits.

Many of us have neither the time nor money it takes to go to the health resort, but no longer need any one be without the wonderful results to be found there. The standard size package of WONDER CRYSTALS is the extracted minerals from approximately 15 gallons of the water. Purchase this package of Crystals today and by merely adding the crystals to ordinary drinking water in your home, you will be reconstituting approximately the same water you would drink at Mineral Wells, and receiving the same benefits and results.

WONDER WATER COMPANY

Add Years to Life and Life to Years

The Mineral Wells waters are alkaline waters of excellent laxative and dieuretic qualities. They contain in hypothetical combination the bicarbonates of potassium, sodium, magnesium and calcium, physiologically perfect for alkaline treatment requiring these four important salts. It is without a parallel as a natural, thoroughly effective, but gentle and orderly eliminent devoid of the evils of drugging and so entirely without irritation of the intestinal systems as to be free from reaction, after-constipation and atonic effects.

To its remarkable efficacy in the elimination of toxines and poisons is attributable its great virtue in promoting relief from all of the great multitudes of ailments, the successful treatment of which demands the correction of faulty elimination; Disease of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder and liver, Rheumatism (Inflammatory, articular, arhtritic, or muscular) lumbago, gout, high blood pressure, sugar diabetes, neuritis, nervousness, faulty metabolism, etc.

Mineral Wells Mineral Waters is used and prescribed by hosts of leading American physicians. Dr. J. S. Abbott, formerly chief of the United States food and drug department pronounced it the best mineral water in the world. It is a noteworthy fact that of all the mineral waters produced and sold only two have ever passed the exacting laboratory tests to gain permission to be advertised in the physicians national directory and the Mineral Wells Water was one.

Among its unusual characteristics are that it is crystal clear, odorless and of all the effective mineral waters the most palatable.

WONDER CRYSTALS

HOW TO USE THEM

WONDER CRYSTALS is not a drug and should not be looked upon or used as such. Wonder Crystals is only the extracted minerals from the noted health waters of Mineral Wells, Texas. Nothing whatever is added.

Add Wonder Crystals to ordinary drinking water in your home as suits your convenience, proportions as follows: 1 level teaspoonful to one pint (Large Glass) of water; 2 level teaspoonfuls to one quart of water; 4 level teaspoonfuls to one half gallon of water; 8 level teaspoonfuls to one gallon of water.

Wonder Crystal Water may be drunk either hot or cold, and the benefits will be the same in either case. This water will produce a laxative effect and the only advantage in using warm or hot water is merely that, Wonder Crystals added to warm water and drunk 20 to 30 minutes before breakfast will effect elimination somewhat more readily than would be the case if used in cold water.

It is recommended that you drink Wonder Crystal Water freely during the day and evening (Not with or immediately after meals.) Begin the day by drinking one or two glassfuls in either hot or cold water 20 to 30 minutes before breakfast. In any event drink sufficient of this water daily to bring about and maintain full and complete bowel elimination.

Those suffering from such ailments as Arthritis and severe rheumatism in any of its forms should drink as many as eight to twelve glasses of Wonder Crystal Water daily. Enough to keep the bowels constantly and freely flushed.

There is no man made chemicals in Wonder Crystals. Only natures own product produced in natures own laboratory. The effect of Wonder Crystal Water upon the system is a natural effect and will not produce irritating effects caused by many drugs nor has it a tendency to form habits of the need for increasing volume such as would be the case with most medicines or drugs.

Sent to Home

Dear Mr. President:

We would feel it amiss not to include you with our fellow Texan, and your running-mate, Mr. Garner, as a member in the Gravy Soppers' Club of America, a very rapidly growing organization which originated in Texas. We are, therefore, enclosing Charter Membership card which carries with it certain privileges that may prove useful on certain occasions. Down here in Texas, we are "sopping our way to Democratic Prosperity and Health" with BEWLEY'S BEST, by means of those light, fluffy biscuits which Bewley's Best bakes better, and the "lumpless gravy" it also prepares.

In order that you may enjoy the best, and be reminded of your sojourns in Georgia, we are sending to you with all charges prepaid, to the White House, a 48-lb. sack of BEWLEY'S BEST Flour which we trust you will accept with our compliments. In this sack, is a recipe for Ice Box Rolls and Sour Milk Biscuits which we trust you will prevail upon the First Lady to try, as we think they are most excellent.

Yours for more, and continued,
DEMOCRATIC PROSPERITY,

Offers to send the President a jar of some clay she discovered 35 years ago and has used ever since as a beauty clay. She has also discovered that it is youth preserving and health preserving. Says she feels very young at 75. She has kept the clay a secret all these years but now wants to do her bit to preserve the President's health. Offers prayers etc. Encloses clipping which tells of the donations to the White House swimming pool.

President-Roosevelt.

Dear Sir -

After reading the enclosed statement clipped from the Dallas Morning News, prompts me to assume the priviledge of addressing you. I prepare a clay that I have used for thirty five yrs. as a beauty preparation. This came to my knowledge by accident. I held the secret for fifteen yrs. Since then I have had a most wonderful experience which leads me to believe that it would benefit the weakness refered to in the enclosed article. I was forty yrs old when I first used it and am now seventy five and have retained the same activity as when a girl and attribute it all to the clay. With your permission I will gladly send you a jar with explicit directions. The clay is applied while wet is dry in a few minutes and removed with cold water. No bandage is required. My prayer is that God will give you health and strength to carry out your wonderful plan for His distressed people. Who shall say that God has not inclined me to write you this letter. private life. His leisure has been so circumscribed he has had no time for even a brief ride around town. Yet it was exercise, unremitting determination, never-failing will power, that saved him from complete surrender to the paralysis that laid him low a few years ago. The legs of the lame are unequal, we read in Holy Writ. Mr. Roosevelt's legs are equal in their lameness, but his mind is more than equal to both of them. They called a halt, but his mind pushed forward. He heard of a warm spring in Georgia where others had been benefited by laving themselves in its flood. He went there and took up swimming. He improved slightly and found week by week that he could swim a little more confidently. In two or three years he became a good swimmer and has continued for years to go to that spring at frequent intervals to bask in its waters. It is said that he is not sensitive over his disability, but seldom or never mentions it. It is another case of the mental triumphing over the physical.

MENTAL VS. PHYSICAL.

Sherman Democrat: Several large newspapers have banded together to collect donations to install a swimming pool in the White House for President Roosevelt at a cost of $10,000. This will be done to afford the President opportunity to exercise. Last week his only recreation was a fifty-seven-minute drive into Virginia and return. No doubt those who helped Mr. Roosevelt with his swimming pool treatment for infantile paralysis will join others in making this venture successful.

Since his inauguration, March 4, President Roosevelt has been the hardest worked man in America. He has had more things to think about, more conferences to call, more opinions to digest, more responsibilities to weigh, more documents to read and sign—in short, more big business to transact than any man in public or

Dear Mr. LeHand:-

I wish to asknowledge receipt of your letter of April 11th, 1933 and wish to take this opportunity in thanking you for acknowledging my sketch of the Honorable President Roosevelt.

In as much as I appreciate your acknowledgment and realize that the Honorable President is a very busy man however I would have been much obliged if the President would have taken the time to acknowledge the letter in person.

The reason for this is that I have submitted sketches to the Late Presiden Harding, Late President Coolidge and Govenor Smith and have had the pleasure of receiving their responses personally. I have framed these letters and am very proud to have such autographs in my possession, therefore being a great admirer of a remarkable man as President Roosevelt would esteem it a great honor to be the recipient of his Honorable signature.

Trusting to be favored with this request, and thanking you, I am,

My dear Mr. President,

We, the children of the Bradford Lord Memorial, are sending you a copy of our paper, "Contact", which we hope that you will enjoy. We have been interested in you ever since you were Governor of New York State.

During your campaign we heard your speeches and read accounts in the papers. When you were inaugurated President, we listened to every bit of it over the radio.

You have been an inspiration to us because of your achievements and we feel that we have something to work for by doing our school work although we are physically handicapped.

We should enjoy a visit from you if you come to Binghamton to the American Legion Convention.

We should appreciate it if you would comment on our paper, and if possible send an autographed picture of yourself to hang in our ward.

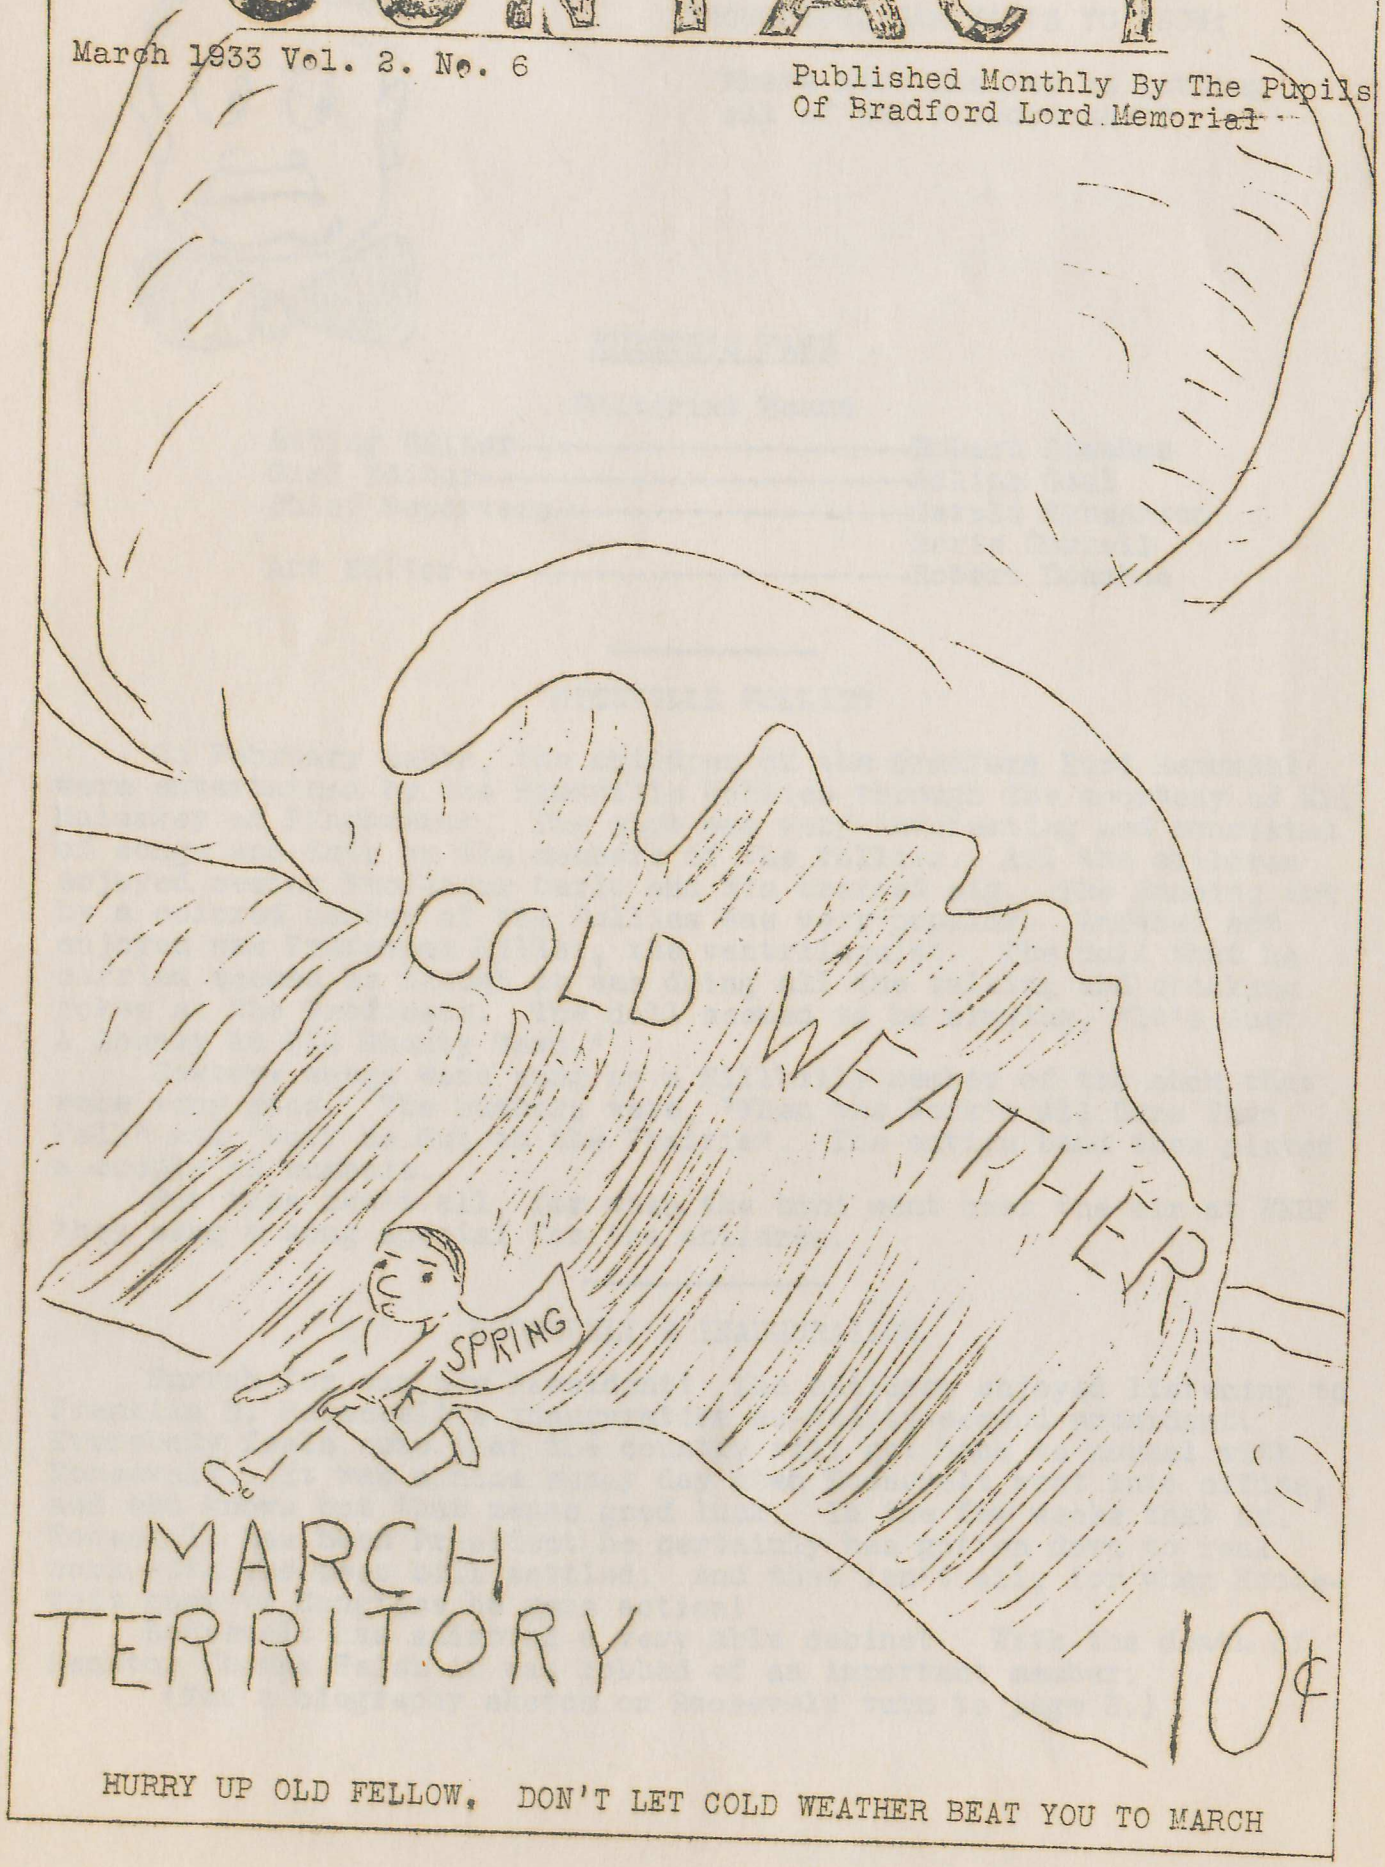

Respectfully yours,

HICKVILLE FOLLIES

On February tenth, the children of the Bradford Lord Memorial were entertained by the Hickville Follies through the courtesy of Mr. Malarkey of Binghamton. The show was very interesting and consisted of songs and acts by the members of the follies. All the children enjoyed seeing Professor Carlo and his trained pig. The dancing act by a colored member of the Follies was very popular. Another act enjoyed was Professor Miller, the ventriloquist. The doll that he carried seemed as though it was doing all the talking and cracking jokes at the Professor. The doll seemed to be singing, "It's Just A Shanty in Old Shanty Town."

Cowboys songs were sung by a Hillbilly member of the show that were very good. The numbers were, "When the Work's All Done This Fall" and "Bury Me Out on the Prairie". The entire band then played a couple of numbers.

But this isn't all, for when the band went over the air at WNBF they sang a song special for the children.

ROOSEVELT'S INAUGURATION

Hurrah for our new President! The children enjoyed listening to Franklin D. Roosevelt's inauguration as thirty-second president. Everybody feels sure that the country will get back to normal with Roosevelt. It was a nice sunny day when Roosevelt went into office, and who knows but that means good luck. In the few weeks that Mr. Roosevelt has been President he certainly has gotten down to real work with the beer bill settled. And that isn't all, for when Roosevelt goes to Congress he gets action!

Roosevelt has selected a very able cabinet. With the death of Senator Thomas Walsh it was robbed of an important member.

Dora Fuller, the girl reporter, is another one that will be missed. Dora had back trouble and was under the care of Dr. Allaben. Dora was in the ninth grade and she will be able to continue her work. Before she went home she was fixed up with a brace. She didn't have much trouble after she got out of bed. Her work as reporter will be missed.

Adline Gaul has arrived from the Ideal Hospital in Endicott. She likes the Memorial and hopes to be able to stay till she goes home. Adline may take one of the vacant places on the editorial staff. She is in the Seventh Grade.

Jean Rienti who used to be here has arrived from the Binghamton City Hospital. She is a patient of Dr. Allaben.

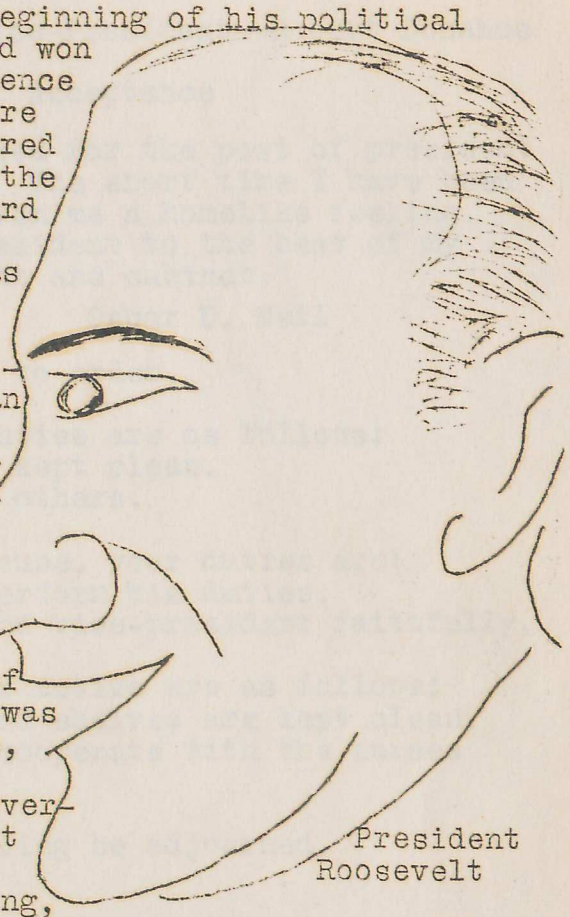

Esther Kolanda and Jack Vivona both came on the same day from Ideal Hospital. Both enjoy it here. Jack is picking up and beginning to get color in his cheeks.

Mrs. Carr, one of our nurses, left for a few weeks to take care of her mother who was very sick. While she was away Miss Lush took her place. Mrs. Carr is back now and the children are very glad that her mother is better.

MINUTE BIOGRAPHIES

OUR PRESIDENT:

Franklin Delano Roosevelt from the beginning of his political career has fought more hopeless fights-and won them-than any man who has achieved prominence in American public life. He has been, more than any other public man, decently interred by his opponents by circumstances and by the hand of fate itself, in that vast graveyard where sleep the political ambitions of worthy men; but, unlike the others, he has refused to remain buried and has, as it were ridden back with the driver of a hearse from each political funeral, a better known and more dangerous opponent than before.

President Roosevelt

At the very beginning, his first experience in politics was when he received the Democratic nomination for state senator in a district so hopelessly Republican as to reduce the Democratic nomination to a mere friendly compliment for a nice young man whom everybody liked. To make the absurdity of any attempt at winning more manifest, it was the home district of the famous Lou Payne, chief lieutenant of the Hon. Thomas C. Platt, at that time absolute master and overlord, not only of the Republican party but of the entire state of New York, and Lou Payne took particular delight in delivering, at each election, his own district, tied up in a neat package, with enough surplus votes to have elected several more Republicans in the adjoining district as well. It was a perfectly hopeless fight--and Roosevelt won.

Roosevelt was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Navy by President Wilson. It was a combination which, of course, according to all wise politicians ended Franklin D. Roosevelt's political life; but at the close of eight year's service he was nominated as the party's choice for Vice-President. This according to all sane political judgement, turned out to be merely stepping from one grave to another, for he and the head of his ticket were swamped by an avalanche of Republican votes, and once again his own state repudiated him with Cox by a million majority. Everybody thought Roosevelt was through as a politician when he was stricken with infantile paralysis, condemned apparently to spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair--that was emphatically and beyond the possibility of any doubt the political finis of Franklin D. Roosevelt, and yet this was not so, for he was elected Governor of New York State.

After he served two terms as Governor of New York State, he was nominated for president by the Democrats at the Chicago convention. After several months of hard campaigning, during which he made several interesting speeches on the problems facing the United States, he was elected president by a large majority over Herbert Hoover, the Republican candidate. --Saturday Evening Post

He took the oath of office on March fourth. The oath was given by Chief Justice Hughes of the Supreme Court of the United States.

"Why didn't you fix it when it wasn't raining?"
"Didn't leak then."

"Aw, you're afraid to fight!"
"No, I'm not, but if I do my father'll find it out and stop my allowance."
"Oh yeah? How'll he find it out?"
"He'll see the doctor going to your house."

The secret of health lies in eating onions. But how can it be kept a secret.

An income-tax blank was returned with the following remark:
"Sir, I belong to the Elks and don't wish to join the Income Tax."

"Wonder what time it is? I'm invited to dinner and my watch isn't going."
"Why, wasn't your watch invited!"

"What do you mean by waking me out of a sound sleep like that?" growled a man.
"My dear," replied his wife, "it was such a distressing sound."

Augustus-"Well, there's one comfort; they say at forty a man is either a fool or a physician."
Angelina-"And are you a physician?"
Augustus-"No."
Angelina-"Oh!"

Elderly lady to druggist-"Are you sure you fixed that medicine right?"
Druggist-"No, ma'am; but I fixed it the way the doctor ordered it.

Sympathetic old lady-"Have you lost yourself little boy?"
Tearful Tommy-"No-boo-boo-but I've found a street I don't know."

Musical Mother-"If baby won't go to sleep bring her here. I'll sing to her."
Nurse-"Oh, madam, it won't do any good. I have already threatened her with that."

Johnny-"What's Bill's social standing?"
Pop-"He begins to wobble on the fourth beer."

Marks-"I married my wife a month after she accepted me."
Parks-"I married mine three days after she refused me."

BRIEFS HERE AND THERE

::::::::::::::

Dr. Mungle has been added to our list of friends. He has taken a year's subscription. With only one copy that he has seen, he forwarded a check to the editor telling him of the subscription. We wish to thank Dr. Mungle for taking an interest in the children of the Bradford Lord Memorial.

At the Bradford Lord Memorial the flowers are blooming already. The names of some of them are Snowdrops and Crocus. The tulips are peeking up too. We expect to see them in blossom soon.

The children have seen birds which mean a sure sign of Spring around the corner. The birds seen were Robins, Song Sparrows, and a Red Winged Blackbird.

Two new desks and blackboards have been added to the furniture at the Bradford Lord Memorial. The desk can be moved up and down to assure comfort to the user of it. At the bottom of it is a shelf where books may be kept. The blackboards are very handy and the children enjoy using them. They can be moved to each bed. They think their Arithmetic is fun when the teacher tells them to write the answer on the blackboard. Mr. Adams of the Department of Education made them. Everybody joins in thanking Mr. Adams for them.

The boys in the fourth and fifth grades are making a Dutch village. We had a dyke to keep the sea out. A windmill and a few houses help make the picture. The village was made in a box cover filled with sand.

Three of the boys, Gerald, John and Carl, painted Dutch posters to go with the village. They were done in water colors and looked very pretty when done. One went over so big that he had to paint another for the head nurse. The work was done with their school work, but the boys all thought it fun.

During the month of March the girls had four birthday parties. Clara Rhodes and Adline Gaul had theirs the same day. They both received a birthday day and presents which were enjoyed by both girls.

Ellen Milo and Marie Avery were the other two girls that had birthdays.

Last week two members from the City Rescue Mission visited the children of the Bradford Lord Memorial. They sang several songs to the children and passed out books.

We want to thank them for coming down as everybody enjoyed their singing.

St. Patrick's day was celebrated at the Bradford Lord Memorial. Green was seen on the children's clothes. Even the little children had their green to celebrate. They seemed quite proud to wear it.

Mrs. Hess sent candy for the holiday which was enjoyed by everyone. We want to thank her for it. We also want to thank Mrs. Hess for the little red, white, and blue hatchets she sent us for Washington's Birthday.

FATHER'S BIRTHDAY PRESENT

Joan's face was pressed against the window pane. It was raining outdoors and the next day was father's birthday. Joan went to bed sad that night. But Mother made her feel better by telling her she would help her. Then she gave her a lot of small pink papers.

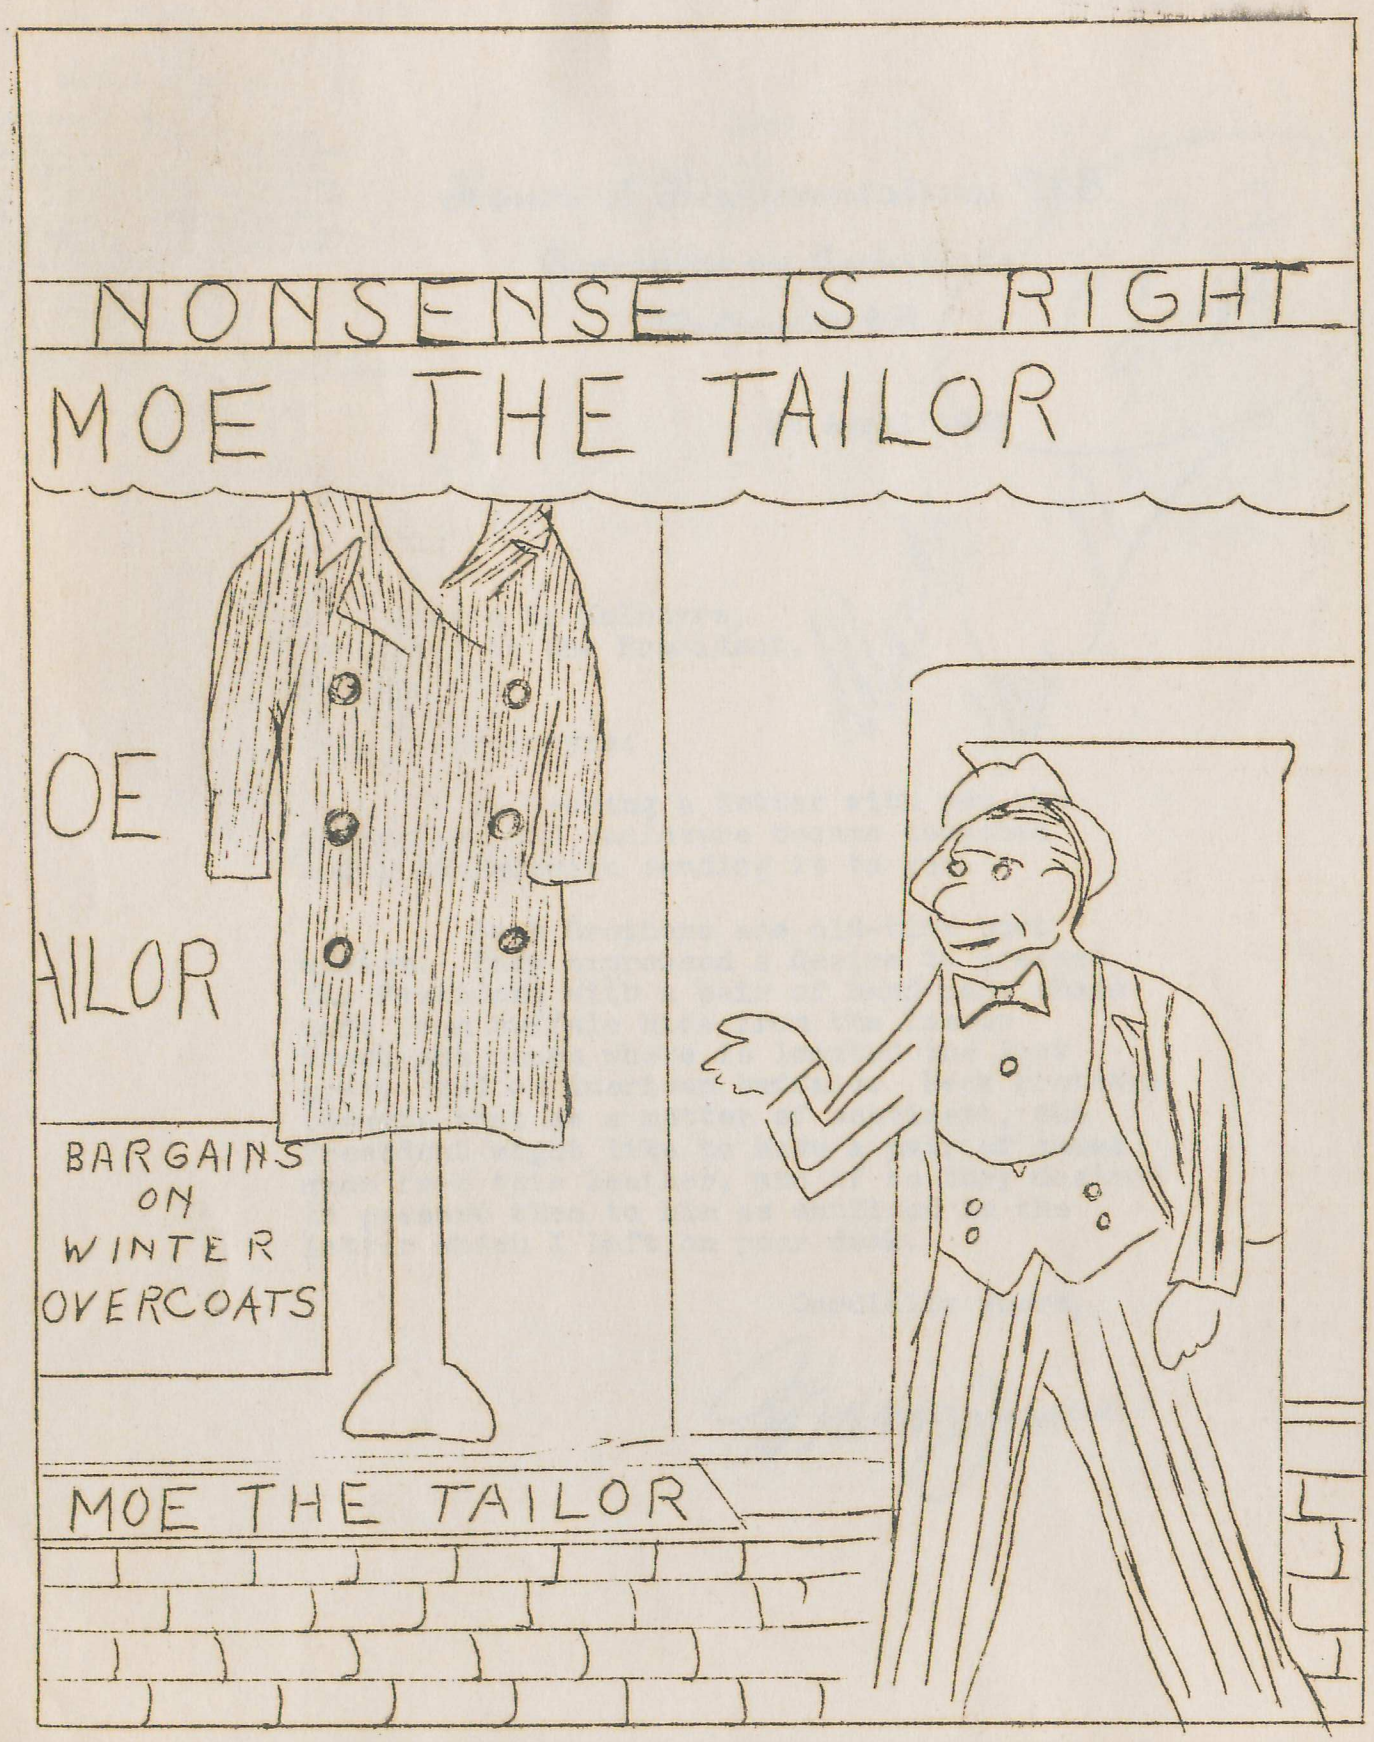

Joan was happy all day from the time she woke up until she went to sleep the next night. First father came to eat. His water was ready and there was a clean towl and wash cloth. On the wash cloth was pinned a pink paper. It said, "Wash and get clean; you're sure to look like a king."

Father smiled and sat down at the table. He was eating when all of a sudden he tasted paper. He took it out and read it. It said, "This little token tells you of my little joke. I hope it won't make you feel blue. But I love you." Father liked little jokes. He laughed so hard he almost choked.

Father said that he would go out and wash his car soon. He asked Joan if she wanted to help, and for the first time she said, "No". So father went out alone, but when he got there the car was clean as could be. He saw another pink slip. It said, "Your car is as clean as it can be, Joan did it, don't you see?"

Father went to sleep that night happy, but he woke soon. A pink paper was tickling his ear. It said, "When you wake up at twelve o'clock, look at the clock as it says tick tock." He said, "I will feel around the clock." He did and found a little box. In the box was a wrist watch and another pink paper which said, "I wish you a happy birthday from Mother and Me."

Dear Mr. McIntyre:

In leaving a letter with you the other day, the enclosure became detached and I am herewith sending it to you.

Beck Brothers are old-time boot makers. They expressed a desire to present the President with a pair of hand-made shoes made from buffalo hide from the famous Goodnight ranch where is located the last great herd of American buffalo. Beck Brothers thought that as a matter of sentiment, the President might like to have a pair of shoes made from this leather, and if so they desired to present them to him as outlined in the letter which I left on your desk.

Cordially yours,

Marvin Jones

Congressman Marvin Jones,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir and Friend:

We have secured some Buffalo Calf Skins, and have been reliably informed that they came from the famous Goodnight herd, with which you are familiar. We consider thse skins something out of the ordinary, in fact, they are the first ones that we have ever been able to get. We would like to make yourself and President Roosevelt each a pair of oxfords, or shoes, as you prefer.

So if you will kindly present this to the President for his consideration, send us measurements, with style of shoes you wear, we shall do our very best to make them to specifications. If you are accustomed to a certain style, perhaps it would be advisable to send an old shoe so that we might duplicate, however, we also need measurements, even though you send shoes. We are enclosing some order blanks with instructions for measuring. What we want to do is to make a shoe that you can wear, and appreciate the comfort of a hand made one.

This is only a small way we have of showing our appreciation of the wonderful and unselfish service you have rendered this great Panhandle of Texas, and the marvelous accomplishments of the President in restoring prosperity and happiness again to these United States.

Sincerely yours,
BECK BROTHERS.

Dear Mr. President,

I am sending you today a charcoal portrait which is an enlargement of a picture of yourself published by the "Makers of History."

I am not an artist but I hope to become one in time. Perhaps you may be glad to know that I am just twelve years old. I am a student of Junior High School No. 73 - Queens - grade RB1 (special course) and every evening I go to the "Leonardo da Vinci" Art School in New York.

I have made this picture during my spare time with the full intention of presenting it to you on the day of your inauguration as the 32nd President of the United States of America - with my sincere good wishes.

I have seen you several times in the motion pictures, also in newspapers and reviews; and I always found you to possess a most pleasant personality.

In later years, when I will be older and more advanced in my artistic career, I hope that you will allow me to make an oil painting of you - from life.

Would you grant me this favor?

Yours very sincerely -
for prosperity,

Dear President

Am sending by mail an Easter egg which I have decorated with my pocket knife and which will keep indefinitely if not broken and you should chose to keep it.

On same I have tried to mark an ocean liner, light house with the moon and stars, two sailing vessels, our flag, jar of lillies, two indians and their tents, a locomotive and coach with the poles and wires and overhead a few air planes etc.

The date 1933 the year of your inauguration and a year that will live long in the hearts of the American people.

Could and would like to write more, but brevity being your motto and knowing you are busy with a lot of work ahead am signing off with very best of wishes for a long continuance of good health and success

Yours sincerely

The White House, Washington, D.C.

Honorable Sir;

Through the columns of the Press, we note that you and Mrs. Roosevelt have recently given a luncheon, at which the lowly Prune occupied the place of honor on the menu!

Having been raising and packing prunes for many years in Santa Clara Valley, Santa Clara County, California, we have developed a grade of prunes (Imperial) which for size and food values are second to none raised anywhere in the world.

Packed under sanitary conditions, containes spick and span, and now to show you what California can do. I am sending this box of prunes with my compliments and together with the thanks of the many, many growers of California who appreciate the White House boost for our valuable product.

Respectfully Yoyrs,

A. M. Barker
