Taken with Pres.

Referring to my letter of June 27 to you regarding the presentation to President Roosevelt of a mounted tarpon from the St. Petersburg Tarpon Club when a bunch of our boosters, under the leadership of Mr. W. A. Kenmuir, and accompanied by our Moses band, shall reach Washington, and your reply of July 3, I beg to inform you that this outfit is now en tour and is scheduled to arrive in Washington Sunday evening, September ten, and to depart Monday evening, September eleven, which would fix the date of the ceremony as September eleven; but, if found advisable for any reason, they could remain over Tuesday the twelfth.

The fish is being shipped to Mr. Nelson Poynter, Business Manager of the Washington News, who will keep it in hand ready for instant use upon call.

Now, Senator, a little matter of official etiquette. While this trip was organized by Mr. Kenmuir as a St. Petersburg advertising tour with our band, personally I am in doubt whether the band would properly belong in the picture with the President; it occurs to me that yourself and also other Florida representatives and friends, newspaper scribes, etc as would naturally be present would present a picture more dignified and suitable than the other plan. I am submitting this point to you for decision; if you think the Kenmuir plan all right, then it is all right with me, and if you think otherwise then some date other than September eleven or twelve would seem a solution. We are all very anxious to have this little performance go through, and personally I am anxious that it be done in the right way, and no other.

Won't you please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience, as the time is getting short.

Sincerely yours,

W. L. Straub

Dear Sir:

Trust in the unusual press of business you will pardon this letter.

I have read many press articles in relation to the now celebrated Roosevelt Bible, and its assumed date of issue.

I believe much is open to conjecture regarding the same.

I am in possession of a Dutch Bible with the board covers etc. in I believe perfect condition, the title page bearing the date of 1657.

The New Testament title however is dated 1646, and the Writing denoting family events starts at 1653.

Other dates range from 1597 down.

In my opinion the President is a man who would enjoy a little research to corroborate certain theories I believe these old Dutch Bibles to be rather or quite scarce.

If he would accept it I would very much like to present the President with this copy as he might like to look over and compare the dates at what few leisure moments he could spare from momentary economic problems.

It would afford me pleasure to let him have this volume as a companion piece to his own priceless relic should he elect to receive it.

Otherwise you need pay no attention to this missive.

Dear Mr. LeGrand

Your favor regarding the acceptance of the "old Dutch Bible" by the President duly received.

I am wondering about the best way of getting it to him.

There might be some place here in N.Y. City where I could leave it for him. I expect sending a package to him directly by mail might lead to some Red Tape.

As I am packing up here for removal to Hartford in the next 10 days would like to get it away and a word of advice would be appreciated possessions.

In parting with it he says: "President Roosevelt is doing a great work and I am only too glad to present this good-luck cane to him."

As a representative who supported you in all your programs at the last special session, I am glad to have a small part in presenting to you this token of esteem from one of my constituents. It represents the feeling of confidence that all of our people have in you.

I shall be pleased if you will write
Mr. Berger and thank him for his kind gesture.

President Roosevelt
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

This package of Elberta Peaches is sent to you to show you the great appreciation of what you, as president, have done during these last months since you have been in office.

I wish you luck in your future ideas for the farmers and the other people also.

I hope you will enjoy these peaches.

Yours truly
Joe D. Battaglia

My dear Mr. Brunel:

The President has asked me to thank you and Mr. Spencer for the trout. He ate them just before leaving on his cruise and they were delicious. He was very glad to have these fish from one of the Hudson River counties.

I am very sorry indeed not to be able to meet your wishes about the photographs, as we have found it necessary, on account of the tremendous pressure of the President's work, to ask his friends to excuse him from signing pictures, books and papers of various kinds. I am sure you will understand.

The pictures which you enclosed are herewith returned.

WASHINGTON D.C.

Dear Sir:

I sincerely hope you approve of the enclosed pastel portrait of yourself, and of the following poem, in which, I have sought to express the feeling of gratitude and admiration, that you have inspired in the hearts of your American people.

Because of the rapidly rising confidence, bestowed on the Nation by your N.R.A. the God of fear has been over-thrown, and the American people are moving forward,... forward to the heights of prosperity, with a new courage and determination.

A MIGHTY NATION LOOKS UP TO YOU, WITH A FAITH, SINCERE AND TRUE,
A MIGHTY NATION TRUSTING YOU,
KNOWING YOU'LL LEAD THEM THROUGH.

LEAD ON, ROOSEVELT, LEAD ON,
WE WILL BRAVELY FOLLOW YOU,
TOGETHER WE SHALL FIGHT,
TOGETHER WE SHALL FIND THE LIGHT.
LEAD ON, ROOSEVELT, LEAD ON,
WE WILL BACK YOUR N.R.A.
A NEW PROSPERITY IS ON THE WAY,
FOR THE GOOD OLD U.S.A.

LEAD ON, ROOSEVELT, LEAD ON,
WE WILL BRAVELY FOLLOW YOU,
OUR HEARTS ARE STRONG AND STOUT,
THE DEPRESSION WE WILL ROUTE.
LEAD ON, ROOSEVELT, LEAD ON,
IN YOUR CONFIDENT, JUSTLY WAY,
A GOD-SEND TO THE U.S.A.
THE BLUE EAGLE OF THE N.R.A.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

On August 29th we shipped a carload of grapes to be sold in New York City. In this shipment we put a package partially addressed to you--not knowing where you would be when the car reached destination--with the request that our representative, Mr. Leon N. Stoecklin, complete the address and send it on to you. We, however, instructed him to inspect the package to ascertain if it had arrived in good condition prior to forwarding as the variety--Girdled Thompson Seedless--sometimes does not carry well. The shipment is due to arrive on September 7th and your package should reach you either the 8th or 9th.

Incidentally a small news item in one of our local papers states that you are partial to grapes and we trust that these will be enjoyed by you and the members of your household. If a repeat order is desired just have your secretary drop us a note and we will be most happy to fill it. We anticipate another shipment the end of next week of the same brand.

With every good wish for the success of the NRA and assuring you of our appreciation of what you are doing for "all of us", we are

Sir:

I am sending herewith book describing the CHALICE OF ANTIOCH which is now at the Century of Progress in Chicago.

If you will look on the fly page and also on page six you will find that directly under the figure of the Master is an eagle perched on a basket filled with loaves of bread. On page eighteen is also a picture of the Master.

Trusting this may be of some little inspiration to you.

September 27, 1933.

Dear Louis:

There is an old New England character named Ralph Burnham of Ipswich, Massachusetts, who lives not far from me and who has made an N. R. A. rug at his shop to help the unemployed in the neighborhood. He is now very anxious to present it to the President as he says he is now one hundred per cent behind the President's N. R. A. program. My wife, who has been permitted to see the rug, says "it is not very ugly." The old gentleman would, I know, be immensely pleased if the President would be willing to accept his offer.

Will you let me know what to do and whether I may encourage Burnham in his ambition?

Dear Sir:

I trust that I'm not trespassing on your good natured Time now as when I asked permission to see the President; for I will always be glad to know he is well; and do tell him to take care of himself, for his own and the Country's sake.

There never before in the history of the world was an executive, be he King Emperor, Tzar, Prince, President or Pope who had courage comparable to our President: probably he does not realize how esteemed he is by the people of this and other countries.

I am sending to your address a couple of pieces of glassware made in Swissvale an eastern suburb of this city, and that you give them to the First Lady of the Land, with my best wishes, I had intended larger and better ones, but they quit making such a few years ago, as the Big Stores would not even pay the cost of making. However when I get down to Flemington New Jersey, to the Fulper Pottery, one of the oldest in this country I'll surely find something worth while sending to her.

Once speaking to the President of a Trenton Pottery I asked Why the stores had so much foreign ware, but no native products; he said the buyers preferred a trip to Europe where it and Asiatic ware was so much cheaper.

There is Ritsy ware made in this country, backed up by the social elite, that half its retail price, is spent in advertizing it in the popular magazines as the only artistic ware made in this country. Which of course is not true,

I'd better explain why my judgement is worth while; Fifty two years ago, I at the Cooper Union in New York Studied Drawing and Modelling, the latter under Nicholas Rossignola, who years before taught Augustus St. Gaudens in the school, and we indeed were proud that our school and instructor produced so able a sculptor. P.S. I had better own up to having my seventye~~t~~seventh birth day on the 14 th. of Sept. which will excuse my garrulity Sincerely

Mr. M. A. LeHand, Pri. Sec.,
The White House,

Dear Mr. LeHand:

I have your letter of Sept. 21st, and am very glad that the President received my gift, and I trust and hope it may be of some value to him.

I realize that the President undoubtedly receives thousands of gifts, especially in view of the fact that his many endeavors have achieved such a remarkable degree of success. I, therefore, tried in a small way to make my little token unique, and hope that I succeeded.

My ambition was to receive an acknowledgment signed by the President, not for any personal gain or publicity, but merely as a keepsake to be handed down to my children, - in short, as a family heirloom. However, I realize how deeply engaged in matters of State the President is, and that this might not be possible.

I was just wondering if you could arrange this and help me to attain this wish, - without letting the President know I desired it. For, I would not have the President think for a moment that my token was other

Dear Mr. President:-

Just to show in a small, yet concrete way, how much I appreciate what you have done for us, the textile workers of King Mill, Augusta, Georgia, I have designed and made a little ornament which I want to present to you. It is to be sent in a specially constructed case with lock and key and I am sending you the key herewith to be sure that you personally know about it and delegate some one to open and inspect it should you so wish. The ornament will go forward on receipt of advice from you how to send and after it has been inspected by the local postmaster and notation to that effect made on face of package.

It is a pleasure to send this little token with the best of wishes from,

Yours respectfully,

Under separate copy I am sending you in care of your Secretary Col. McIntyre, to whom I spoke to-day at his Hotel opposite your residence in New York, a replica of a smaller one I left with him to show you.

This is a small insignia, emblematic of your efforts to stimulate trade and ultimate recovery. It might be used to great advantage. If you think so, kindly let me have a line on the subject. The idea and design were mine.

Obediently as ever.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President:

No doubt you are surprised <sup>16</sup> watch chain.

The world not only our wonderful country needs you and God was so good to enable us to have such an inspired and marvelous man for our President at this trying time of turmoil everywhere.

616

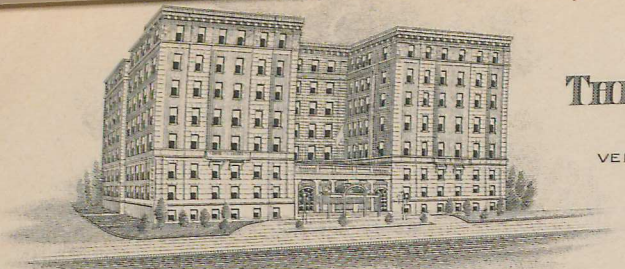

You are so very busy Mr. President helping the world, you do not have much time for your own needs.

I thought sometimes a good seed or suggestion bears good fruit, if planted in good soil.

I am venturing to suggest that you try the way I was inspired to do, to cure my good husband who was paralyzed from waist down. He could not stand on his feet. The doctors said he would be an invalid the rest of his life.

es

I always had great faith in God, so, one day I said to my physician, doctor, when I use to bathe my babies, I use to rub their limbs with alcohol to

To strengthen them. Why not use that for Mr. Brooke?

The doctor said alcohol is fine for any sick person. He said I think that is an inspiration, try it, and I will show you how to use it.

He said get a large sponge and alcohol. Saturate the sponge with alcohol and start at the base of the brain with the wet sponge down the spine and each leg and follow the strokes with your left hand down all the way to the toes, and keep repeating it for quite a while.

Of course my love for my husband, faith in God and my prayers for God to cure him were rewarded.

In four months, my dear husband walked and got strong enough to walk for miles.

He died in 1895 of galloping consumption and typhoid fever, leaving me with three little children, two of them are dead.

Every stroke I made while treating Mr. Brooke I prayed with absolute faith.

I thought maybe Mrs. Roosevelt would be glad to try my method for you.

I sent word to Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater of Alexandria, Va., by my dear daughter Gladys, to try it, when her husband was paralyzed. She had the trained nurse try it, and Mr. Leadbeater regained the use of his limbs and is still <sup>able to</sup> walk.

That was six or seven years ago. The nurse did the rubbing of the alcohol, but I did the praying. I think if a wife used this method it would be better than a nurse, because she has the love touch, and sincere desire to cure, greater than a trained nurse. Don't you think so?

During your unusual amount of brain work these trying days of turmoil, it would be fine for you, as the blood leaves the lower limbs when there is so much mental work, and causes cold feet etc, even under ordinary conditions, it affects the circulation.

It is helpful to realize that this method makes the circulation perfect and every nerve and cell is being strengthened and functioning perfectly and that your unconscious mind is destroying every harmful thought that caused this inactivity of the lower limbs, and restoring the constructive thoughts that enable the limbs and the entire body to function perfectly, quieting the nerves and calming the mind.

The application of suggestion during sleep is the most drastically effective method known for planting in the unconscious mind whatever images it is desired to plant there, and by this method a person can be healed.

It is the greatest healing method that exists because it is the unconscious mind that in all cases must do whatever rebuilding is possible in the human body, and there is no greater healing power for any form of illness than to impress the unconscious mind with the image of perfect health. The effective factor lies suggestion - The planting of the belief that you will be healed. In fact you are now in reality perfect.

Of course I had marvellous faith in God. Nothing is impossible to God.

Nothing is hidden from God.

I believe any sincere desire for your recovery will be accomplished.

They say "desire is the thing itself, in its incipency": i.e. the thing you desire is not only for you, but has already been started towards you out of the heart of God:
and it is the first little approach of the thing itself striking you that makes you desire it, or even think of it at all."

Desire in the heart for anything is God's sure promise sent beforehand to indicate that it is yours already in the limitless realm of supply."

Last March I had a <sup>complete</sup> cure of your limb healed perfect, and I believe it will be -

I hope you will try right and my husband, even if you have other remedies This one will not clash with any kind of treatment.

Of course through metaphysical treatment without herbs you can be cured, but prayer combined with practical ideas, is also powerful.

Start now to use my method that I used for Mr. Brooke, because it will help you.

From now on the planets predict you are going to have a very trying time and you need to guard your health against colds especially during December.

Dear Mr. President there is no one who can lead us out of the wilderness but you.
The whole world has their eyes on you
The only hope of glory and freedom from depression.

God was so good to endow you with such wonderful mental gifts to enable you to be equal to undertake such a gigantic task as to adjust not only our country problems, but the whole world is looking to you to be the salvation of the world.

Your planets show you are exceptionally qualified to fill with unusual distinction the highest office of our glorious country.

The planets showed that you would be under a great mental strain before your illness and that you are fearless but sometimes imprudent.

You are truly noble and fearless and were surely imprudent to sit on porch wet and read letters. The planets show you are subject to colds and trouble with lower limbs: these also have been proven true, it also shows restriction which causes circulation to be affected by the terrible mental strain while in Europe during war and after you returned the strenuous time of Campaign and the disappointment of the outcome of the election, then cold plung, and sitting on porch wet was too much for any constitution, that was depleted.

616

Then the cold, then the fever turned to fever, then the worst of all was the shock of the diagnosis.

65

The name of the disease registered upon your unconscious mind, and it has never had any one to erase that mental idea and and the depressing thoughts created at that terrible moment -

As soon as these thoughts are destroyed in your unconscious mind and the true constructive thoughts <sup>supplanted</sup> that you are in reality now perfect, and have perfect use of your limbs, and your entire body and mind is functioning perfectly.

Your nerves are strong and calm, your circulation is perfect and you are in reality now in perfect health.

When these thoughts are impressed upon your subconscious mind then you will be restored to perfect health.

The whole trouble is you never through auto-suggestion or any other method destroyed the <sup>real</sup> cause of your inability to use your limbs.

The subconscious mind uses whatever pattern given positively to it, deliberately or unconsciously, and keep on repeating year in and year out, the same suggestion, until, you tell it to destroy those harmful thoughts and supplant the healthy happy constructive thoughts, & that you now, have perfect use of your limbs, and your entire <sup>and mind</sup> body is functioning perfectly and the blood circulating perfectly.

Now it takes the Shepherd to restore your soul by the renewing of your mind, and destroy the idea of the diagnosis, and supplant constructive thoughts to restore the mental harmony and cause perfect circulation and activity of every cell and nerve and strengthen all the muscles, and up build every tissue and cause a perfect harmonious condition of mind and body to become manifested as it now is, in reality.

616

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name sake. Through his wisdom and power he takes the candle of the Lord (law) and searches our hearts and minds to find the harmful thoughts that caused, trouble, sorrow, affliction, and finding them he destroys the harmful thoughts and supplants the thoughts that lead to health by right thinking.

and power. The harmful thoughts are destroyed and the constructive thoughts are supplanted, thereby making it possible to regain our health.

Thou prepareth a feast for me in the presence of mine enemies: He prepares a feast (a cure) for us in the presence of our enemies (harmful thoughts.)

Thou anointest my head with oil, with rich healthy thoughts; he fills our subconscious mind (cup) full of constructive thinking, a correction of recovery and health overfloweth, washing away every trace of harmful sick thoughts.

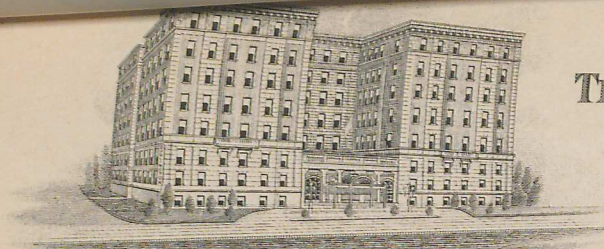

I am confident dear Mr. President you can be enabled to have perfect use of your limbs and I pray God to hasten the day for it to be accomplished.

There is nothing impossible to God or the subconscious mind under God's direction -

God is a rewarder of those that diligently seek him and believe that he is.

Dear President Roosevelt:

Truth has a way in delivering her own messages. Looking over some old newspapers I came across the article "See Loss of Dr. Philip Fox as Head of Planetarium," in The Chicago Daily News, Thursday, March 7, 1935.

As I read it the thought came to me, to write you and tell you, that the oil painting sent to you last year by Mrs. Luellyn Brent, from Chicago, Illinois..was in reality the gift from Lydia Dunham Fabian, the artist, who is a cousin to Dr. Philip Fox.

All things have their rightful place on this beautiful planet of ours. Why you received the oil painting as you did and why I am now writing you has a meaning all of it's own. So in the Hands of Him who knows all things, I leave what I have written herein.

Wishing you and yours the best ever.

Most sincerely,

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

I am taking the liberty of sending you my latest book in the hope that it may perhaps be more than the passing of an hour or two of such time as you might care to give it. In the first place I should like you to enjoy the little story of so long ago. But, in the second I have tried to make practical the thing that has been said over and over since 1928 - "If Francis of Assisi could walk through the streets of America today, he'd bring peace and the vision he brought to Italy under precisely the same conditions of over abundance, and disorganize poverty in the 13th Century." Through my hero's and heroine's eyes I've tried to show him visiting the classes of his day, and making quite clear the situation between the rich and poor of them - capital and labor today.

The problems of our country are our problems. We've had our feet on American soil since 1635 and we feel we must uphold the arms of our President in order to restore that peace and security for which we were for so long an example to other worlds.

Very sincerely and loyally,

The Liberal Viewpoint

By DR. HARRY ELMER BARNES

THE Roosevelt regime will probably furnish the final and decisive test of whether democracy can measure up to the responsibilities imposed by the twentieth century. In more than half of the States in the Western world the trend is already in the direction of dictatorship. We have here a number of important books which deal trenchantly with diverse phases of the democratic experiment.

Of all leading American political scientists, the one whose spirit is the most thoroughly embodied in the conceptions of the New Deal is the late Dr. John William Burgess ("The Foundations of Political Science." By John W. Burgess. Columbia University Press. $2.25), long dean of the faculty of political science at Columbia University.

In his views on democracy he held that the fundamental test is economic rather than political. A genuine democracy must go further than universal suffrage. It must bring about an equitable distribution of wealth. There is no proof that Mr. Roosevelt ever read a line written by Dr. Burgess, but his policy and program represent an adoption of Burgess' doctrine to a degree which the latter could scarcely have foreseen.

IT was a favorite dogma of the early Democrats that if the people are not all equal in ability, at least the masses can be trusted to recognize superior men and put them into office. Such was the underlying doctrine of Jeffersonianism. Strikingly enough, however, during the last century—the one in which universal male suffrage has been in existence—not a single outstanding man has gone into our White House as a result of a clear popular majority under normal circumstances.

Mr. Agar has rendered a very great service in writing a book ("The People's Choice." By Herbert Agar. Houghton, Mifflin Co. $3.50) devoted specifically to the proof in actual experience that the people have thus far been incapable of choosing able Presidents.

Some may quarrel with particular estimates, and he certainly rates Buchanan and Taft too low and Tylor and Taylor too high. But few informed historians will quarrel with his general thesis and the interesting manner in which he has sustained it. If democracy cannot do better in the future in assuring competent leaders, some other method will be devised to produce them.

OF all the examples of the ox-cart in the airplane age, so far as politics is concerned, nothing is more striking or absurd than the perpetuation of the ancient county units and activities from the Colonial and early national period into our urban and industrial age.

Local government will have to be adapted to existing relatives. The county incubus in New York City is only the most striking example of this anachronism in modern political life. The facts are admirably presented by Professor Bromage ("American County Government." By Arthur W. Bromage. Holston House. $3.)

Mr. Finegan gives us a thoroughly up-to-date analysis of Tammany Hall and its operations in State and city politics ("Tammany at Bay." By James E. Finegan. Dodd, Mead & Co. $2.). It is a very valuable supplement to the histories of Tammany Hall by Myers and others. It is especially valuable in destroying the myth of the "New Tammany" discovered by Al Smith, Walter Lippmann and others.

Incidentally, Mr. Finegan completely wipes the ground with the once pleasant fiction that Mr. McKee might serve as the "great white hope" of the anti-Tammany cause. Mr. McKee has apparently obtained just about the sort of position for which his talents fitted him.

An important phase of the reconstruction of city government may be the growth of the municipal home-rule movement. Just now this tendency has suffered a marked decline in exuberance and popularity. What its future will be, only time can tell. Dr. McGoldrick has brought out a scholarly supplement to the standard work on the subject by Professor McBain, of Columbia University ("Law and Practice of Municipal Home Rule: 1916-1930." By Joseph D. McGoldrick. Columbia University Press. $4.50). It measures up thoroughly to the high standards set by the original volume, and has the additional advantage of having been written by a man technically trained in law and with thorough practical knowledge of the problems of municipal government.

Dear Mr. President:-

Ever since the first appearance of the N. R. A. emblem I have felt the urge to work it up by hand on cowhide for your Excellency. A portfolio is the result which I am venturing to send under separate cover as a token of my admiration and esteem.

May I hope to receive an autographed likeness of your Excellency? With every good wish for success in your high endeavor I am,
Very truly yours,

The President has received your letter of October twenty-third and has asked me to assure you of his appreciation of the kindly thought which prompted you to send the old document to him. He is very glad indeed to have it for

Dear Sir:

Recalling, with pride, past correspondence with you on various topics, such as deposit insurance, new taxation, etc. while you were Governor, I take the liberty of this letter.

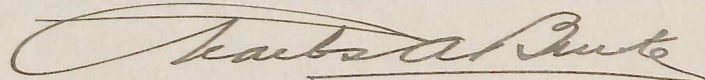

I read in yesterday's newspapers of some old documents which you purchased some time ago, bearing the signatures of Jacobus Roosevelt and Isaac Roosevelt, (quote) "some dating back to 1758."

Enclosed I am sending you a bond executed by Jacobus Roosevelt and his sureties in 1737, for the faithful performance of his duties as loan officer of the City and County of New York.

I trust this will find a place in your collection, and as one of your most loyal and devoted admireres I am sending it with my compliments.

With deepest regard, I beg to be, Sir,

Respectfully yours

Charles A. Burke

My Dear Mr President:-

These few lines are to advise you that your Portrait was deposited with the Railway Express Agency at Wash. Philadelphia this 21st and I do hope you receive some contact to enjoy with me the untold pleasure.

In conclusion permit me to suggest a method of removing foreign substances from this portrait dip silk rag in Linseed oil and apply lightly to surface. The above can be done from time to time as you may see fit.
