President Roosevelt,
Washington, D.C.
Dear President:

~~Mr. Reeves~~

I am sending you a small packet of poppy seeds. They produce large, double, snow white poppies. They are so beautiful that I am sure you will enjoy them.

In this vicinity, between Galveston and Houston, they should be planted at once and will survive the winter and bloom in early spring. They are very hardy and easily transplanted. For growth in your climate, your own gardener will have to be consulted.

I hope you enjoy them.

Your sincere friend,
Mrs. J. L. Bodine

Hello President Roosevelt,

I am writing to you to tell you we are all voting for you. because a lot of people say if Governor Landan gets to be president we will have a war and I don't want us to have a war do you? My daddy might get hurt but he could beat most of them because he has big muscles. President Roosevelt will you tell Mr Landan we don't want him for our president we want you. I can't vote only in school because I am only 8 years old but I tell every one to vote for you.

I wish I would see you when you come to Detroit but I'll be in school then good-bye. Love

My dear Mr. McIntyre:

Mr. H. H. Blanchet, a friend of ours at Ottawa, recently called at the Legation to say that he had an interesting specimen in the form of a piece of oak from a beam of the roof of Westminster Hall, London. The roof was erected in 1397 and when the timber beams had recently to be repaired, owing to damage by the wood boring beetle, he secured a piece of the beam, and it is a portion of this in a specimen case that he would like to present to the President.

I explained to him that the custom in such cases was to make the presentation through his own Legation in Washington, but apparently he desires to make the presentation direct and is accordingly sending it to the White House.

I told him that I would write to you to explain that he is a reputable citizen of Canada, and that he is prompted to make this gift solely as a token of his esteem for the President.

I hope that all is going well with you, and with kindest regards, I am

Dear President Roosevelt,

I am sending you a good luck ring and please wear it through election day and keep it with you always.

It is made from the hair in the tip of an India elephant's tail and considered very good luck.

I wouldn't be without mine and it has brought me exceptionally good luck and it does for every one.

If I had just one wish in the world, it would be for your re-election.

You have been the Savior of our Nation and the people of the South are especially grateful for the miracles you have performed.

I am religious rather than superstitious but please wear this ring through Nov. 3rd for your good luck
means good luck for everyone in the United States.

May God Bless you.

Dear President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

It is with pleasure that we forward to you, under separate cover, a small shipment of East Texas yams. This half bushel of yams was awarded first prize in the Yam Show of the Second Annual East Texas Yamboree, which closed here Saturday.

The Yamboree is a three-day harvest festival staged here annually in tribute to the East Texas yam, one of Texas' largest food crops.

We believe you will find these yams quite delectable. They come to you as a gift from all East Texas, which participates in our celebration here.

With all good wishes, we are

M. H. McIntyre, Assistant Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. McIntyre:

I thank you for your letter of November 6. It is indeed kind of you to offer to receive my work on the President's behalf, but unfortunately I cannot avail myself of this opportunity.

Although this slab of black Belgian marble measures 18 inches by 14 inches, and is $\frac{1}{2}$ inch thick, I do not have the means whereby I can cover the expense of shipping, etc.

I ask that you authorize me to present this slab at the President's residence in New York City.

No, it is not personal vanity that prompts me to insist on presenting my work. It is rather, admiration for a truly honest man. I completed this work in 1934 and have always hesitated about offering it to the President. After this splendid victory, however, my enthusiasm and esteem for the President and the extraordinary work he is doing prompt me to express my regard and esteem in my own small way.

May God preserve this great man for his own happiness and the good of the people.

I will truly appreciate your arranging to have me present this work at the President's residence in New York City.

Sincerely yours,

President Franklin Delano Roosevelt,
Washington D. C.

Dearest President,-

I never meant to write you again until after election, but some how, it seems I find myself writing. after this is all over I'm going to give you a "breathing-spell" (I promise) after congratulations.
You're the bravest man I ever known a great man at the front of a great nation you're bound to win. I don't see how it can be other-wise. They have said so many nasty things they could have left unsaid. but your "tops" you know just how to take it. Governor Fandora came near a collapse its no wonder, he said so many nasty things that have done no one any good. his had done better had he made a clean fight, but you must remember no "sun-flower" has ever survived a freeze.
I know of no better time for a freeze than Nov. 3-1936. I guess I'm rather bold but this is just how I feel about it. however should the tables be turned I can take it too, and I'm sure you can. you must remember what I told you allways.

115
2. your own master. always remember regardless of how this election should return, you always loose - (so don't forget) (what they think or what they say can never signify) I've learned from sad experiences to take any thing that comes my way. (be brave) "ask and ye shall receive" forgive and soon you'll forget. just as soon as the fire has died out and the smoke has time to clear away. I want to see "your wonderful smiling face" come smiling through. don't ever forget to smile when you do this, we're all smiling with you, we're grateful to you for what you've done for us, and not only what you've done, but what you'll grow to do. I'm not afraid of what you've done, or will do.
I have faith in you, as many others "in silence" will be waiting for the return.
I'm so glad you're going fishing when this is over. I hope you have a wonderful time, forget every thing as much as you possible can. "relax" catch a big fish and forget all your worries and come home happy and Cristed.

Wednesday Nov. 4-1936.

I've never been so happy since I was a child, before I learned who Santa-Claus was; on the morning of the third, I woke up that morning "day dreaming"; I lay in bed even forgot to get up and tune in for the early morning news as I always do, (when I found myself) time for the news had passed, so I got up with that feeling I used to have when a child, on "Xmas Eve", before I was to hang up my stocking the following night.
I was just that sure "Santa-Claus" was coming, the only difference the next morning my heart was full - and not my stocking - See; you will never know just how happy I am, if I haven't had another prayer answered, it has turned out so far, just as I have prayed since "1933" even your health has improved wonderfully.
I'm going to tell you what my husband said this morning. he says now we have a good chance to have our Vice President for President he says you, in the shape you are, may not last another four years, here was my ans-to him, I said, oh, yes he will, I said

2. your healths had improved every day since you've been President now this is talking rather plain to you but you know yourself what has happened to our "past Presidents"; but it doesn't mean its going to happen to you. This has always been included in my prayer that God may stand by you both in health and protect you against any harm that might come your way. so here's hoping you open up your heart to my prayers and take every precaution to take the very best care of yourself possible.
"in every way." I have a long happy life planned for you, for when your hair has turned to silver I will love you all the more. God bless you I forgot to say "Thank's a million" for the letter of Oct. 26. my heart was hard to controll when this letter came I was afraid you had gotten tired of my worrying you and had asked me to please stop these letters. as I had asked much respect for you. I'd never bother you again, however, I'm sure my poor heart would suffer for I love you and I can't help this, that has been one thing I've had no control over so far. I don't know why I love you so, it has just happened that's all I know, but you must remember. I am prepared to take life as it comes to me from here on, so I'm honest when I say should you tire of my letters all you have to do is tell me so, or have your secretary do so.

I'm sending with greetings to you a letter for I had these few things I wanted to say and I'm sure you are going to receive many many greetings in different ways and I don't want to bother you soon again at least a month or near should. Hence I may write you.

I'm sending the first sheet of a letter I wrote you on the 29 of last month but decided I'd better not bother you. So just wanted you to see some of the last words I had for you before election - I have also sending a handkerchief just a gift ^{or token} of love, and to feel that from my own hands to yours it will go. SEHNUT, Mr. Pierre
Paris, France
11-17-36.

November 17, 1936

Asked permission to send to the President the first biography published in French, for the youth, of Abraham Lincoln. Said that his friend and he hoped "to contribute in this way to strengthen furthermore the franco-american friendship" for which the president has done so much. Said that he is a newspaperman who four years ago wrote articles about the President in the Parisian press and received a letter from the President about them. My dear Mr. President:

I am sending you by express a sample of Utah celery which I hope you will enjoy. If this sample seems to be all right, please let me know as I should like to send you some for your Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners.

To say that we are pleased by the results of the election would be putting it mildly. Every Democrat in our state is filled with enthusiasm and even the Republicans are not at all downhearted as far as the outlook for our country goes.

We, of course, give you the credit, with Jim Farley running a close second to you on account of his wonderful organization. We feel very happy to be even a small part of this fine organization.

The final score shows that you carried Utah by 83,000 and Governor Blood by 32,000.

Anything that we can do in Utah to uphold your hands will be done.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

A. S. Brown

Dear Mr. President

Although I am only thirteen years old and a Freshman in High School I should like to congratulate you on your victory in the election.

Enclosed is the picture that hung in our window during your campaign. I drew it as the best way I could think of to pay my respects to a great leader.

I have had no training in Art until a little over a month ago when I started in the Lake View High School. My highest ambition is to become a famed artist and I shall grasp every opportunity I get to achieve my ambition.

I am hoping you will like the picture.

My dear Mr. President:-

As one of your admirers and proud citizen of our great country, I am sending you a token of my admiration for your peerless leadership and unprecedented beneficial legislation, that you have proposed for the welfare of our people.

You will notice that the cork or top of the bottle has two spheres, one inclosed in the other, which symbolizes the two terms of your office; one eclipsing the other. I hope that your second term will surpass the first term in constructive and beneficial legislation for our great and glourious Nation.

The lion represents the strength and courage which you posess in carrying out your plans with out fear or favor, and may you continue to have those qualities which makes you one of our greatest Presidents, if not the greatest President since the birth of our Nation.

Wishing you perfect health and long life, I remain,

Yours very respectfully

Nov. 25, 1936

Writes to Mr. Early asking if he thinks there will be any possibility of the President's being able to come to the Woodmont Club to shoot with him before December 22nd. Expresses the hope that the President, Admiral Grayson and Mr. Early might be able to run up one afternoon in time for dinner, and spend a day or two shooting. Asks Mr. Early to tell the President that he wants the pleasure of sending him his "Christmas game", consisting of wild turkeys, pheasants, Mallard ducks and venison.

MEMORANDUM

Filed Nov. 25, 1936.

Memorandum for Mr. Early, that Randolph Preston, one of the Special Assistants to the Attorney General called and would like to have a talk with Mr. Early between 12:30 and 2 o'clock. Mr. Preston has been aiding Mr. Fred Taylor Wilson in preparation of sketch of the President for Mr. Wilson's second edition of his book, "Pen Pictures of Presidents". Mr. Wilson left first draft of proposed sketch with Mr. Early, and requests that he deliver copy to Mr. Preston today, if convenient.

Under date of Nov. 19, 1936, Miss Shannon returned the above mentioned manuscript to Mr. Wilson.

Memorandum to Mr. McIntyre ^{from TOI} dated June 9, 1937 that Mr. Fred T. Wilson was in yesterday and the second edition of his book "Pen Pictures of the Presidents" will be out in the next couple of weeks. He wants an appointment to present to the President this book and "Our Constitution and its Makers", sometime within the next two weeks. At the same time, he wants Secretary Hull, who wrote the introduction to the book and Mr. Preston who wrote introduction to "Our Constitution and its Makers" present. Would like to have pictures made at the same time for his own personal use. (Notation "Steve - Some Nerve - How About?")

On June 10th, Mr. Early's memo to Mr. McIntyre states that the above seems to be primarily a question of an appointment with the President, and suggests that if he grants the request he give him two or three days notice, so that - "I can have the Army, Navy and Marine Corps with their brass bands massed".

Dear Mr. President -

It is rather late to offer my sincere congratulations to you at your re-election; but I am just recovering from having a tumor removed from my right for-arm. Nevertheless I was at the polls at 6:30 A.M. on Tuesday of last week with my hand nicely bandaged to vote for you. I also want to say that I voted straight ² Democratic. We have only one regret, and that is my son. He wanted to vote for you, but will not be twenty-one until Feb. 17th of next year. However; we are all very happy that you are in again, as we all have faith in you. I am a widow, and have been since my son was only 5 1/2 months old, so have gone through a lot in all these years. We know what you have done in the past four years, and know that you will continue in the four years to come.

I am a saleslady at the Frank and Seder store, and can see decided changes for our good. My son had been working, but was layed off last week. However he will be called back soon.

Now I want to tell you of another reason why I am sending this letter besides offering you our very best wishes to the Presidency of the United States. I am sending you a handkerchief that I bought when you were first elected, and put it away after you were in office, until this year when I took it out again. I know it sounds foolish and child-like, but nevertheless it just seems as though it helped. I am sending it to you, and at the closing of your term in the White House I wish you would give it to your son James, as we are hoping that he will follow in his wonderful father's footsteps.

"In closing, all I can say is, God be with you". We are.

With most sincerely,
Jean Broudy.
