President Franklin D. Roosevelt
White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear President Roosevelt,

I am sending with this letter a package containing a poem written by my daughter and sewed by me. It is a sincere prayer from the depths of our hearts. It is the only way we thought we could show you how much we thought of you, and how truly gallant we know you are.

It is with unbosomed sincerity that this work was done. I hope this tapestry will find a place in your home on some wall where everyone who reads it will be saying a prayer for the president we all love.

I want you to know, too, that not only my daughter and family and myself think you are as great a president as Abraham Lincoln, but there are many people who regret the thought that you will not run for the presidency again in 1940. Indeed, we do not know what will come of America when you step out of the chair. We hope you will continue to be our leader until the country is in such a position as to be put into the hands of less capable persons.

I hope you will accept this prayer from us, and know that with it comes deepest respect for a kind, intelligent, gallant president, one who will be remembered for freeing white slaves, just as Lincoln was remembered for freeing the dark slaves.

When you were mayor of New York, you gave a talk at the Western Washington Fair grounds here in Puyallup. I heard you speak then, and knew that your words were spoken with deep-rooted truth and sincerity. I am looking forward to the time when you and your family will once again honor the Northwest with your visits.

I should like to ask, Mr. President, if you would be so kind as to write me a note telling me that you have received this package, for I want to be sure it is given to you in person.

With best wishes for every success in health, happiness and peace, I remain

Mrs. Malvina V. Bullat

BOARDMAN ILLUSTRATED SWIMMING CHART

JUST REVISED with the aid of Leading Experts and Swim Champions. Now used by Universities, Colleges, Y. M. C. A.'s, Y. W. C. A.'s, Camps, Playground Swimming Pools and Public Schools.

TO THE SWIMMING INSTRUCTOR:

The BOARDMAN ILLUSTRATED SWIMMING CHART has just been revised with the aid of leading coaches and champions. The last edition was exhausted over two years ago.

This NEW EDITION shows by clear illustrations and short explanations the latest scientific methods and improved technique of both the speed and pleasure strokes. You will find it accurate, well illustrated, giving at a glance to the beginner or advanced swimmer a careful explanation of the proper technique.

Many of the leading universities, colleges, YMCA's, public schools and playgrounds in the United States, Canada, and South America are using this chart. We have received many unsolicited letters telling how much the chart has improved pupils' technique and augmented the programs.

The chart is 22 x 32 inches, with 36 illustrations of the ten strokes; also for correct breathing. It is printed in bold face black type, easily read, on tough poster paper ready for framing or tacking up in the pool or dressing room. Your swimmers can see instantly the correct technique, to the minutest detail, and it will save you much time and explanation.

We are receiving many orders from colleges, universities, YMCA's and playgrounds.

Fill out the blank below, slip it and a dollar bill into an envelop, or a C.O.D. request, and MAIL TODAY.

Your order will receive immediate attention.

Very sincerely,

The Newly Revised Swimming Chart

A few of our many customers are: University of Minnesota; Harvard; University of Indiana; Chicago Public Schools; Springfield College, Springfield, Mass.; Chicago Y College; 63d Street, Y. M. C. A., New York City, the largest Y in the world; Boston University; Notre Dame; Ohio State; Wellesley; Mt. Holyoke; University of Maryland; many open air pools; playgrounds; Boy Scout Camps; Athletic Clubs.

FROM ONE OF THE MOST FAMOUS COACHES IN THE U. S., Robert J. H. Kiphuth, Yale University: "Your swimming chart is most interesting; it has already been placed in a conspicuous place."

FROM THE NATIONAL HEAD OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION FOR Y. M. C. A.s IN THE U. S., John Brown, Jr., M. D., New York City: "In this chart you have visualized the proper technique for the various swimming strokes in a way which ought to make it of practical help to physical directors, swimming instructors and coaches in teaching swimming not only to beginners but also to advanced swimmers."

FROM THE NATIONAL DEPUTY HEAD OF BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA., Dr. George J. Fisher, New York City: "I had our specialist, Captain Mills, go over it and he likes it very much."

FROM THE NATIONAL HEAD OF WATERFRONT, SAFETY AND HEALTH FOR GIRL SCOUTS OF AMERICA, Olive McCormick, New York City: "I am delighted to recommend it to our camps and feel it is one of the real contributions toward helping us get the proper swimming technique over to our swimming counselors and camps. I am reviewing it and recommending it in our monthly publication, 'The Leader'."

FROM THE SARGENT SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION, OF BOSTON UNIVERSITY, Mr. Ernst Hermann, Director: "I think it is splendid. I shall have it properly mounted and posted. I think that I shall have one at the school and one at the camp."

EDITORIAL from "The Daily Statesman," Salem, Oregon. A leading Northwest daily. Owned and edited by Charles A. Sprague, Governor of Oregon: "Swimming, like golf and billiards, has been reduced to a known science. It remained for Bob Boardman, physical instructor, to catalog the strokes and make correct swimming known to everyone. Boardman has just gotten out a chart showing the correct technique of the eight basic and standard strokes. It makes such things as learning the trudgen stroke as easy as learning to do the polka step by correspondence. It all comes back to the same idea: 'count 1-2-3, glide.' The chart is one of the unique things in print. The various positions and movements of the limbs are illustrated and appropriate directions given. It is intended for posting alongside a swimming pool for the benefit of learners and teachers. By reference to this chart they can tell whether they are doing the stroke correctly or not. Boardman's chart should receive a real welcome from all who are interested in the swimming art."

Frame the Newly Revised Pictorial Swimming Chart and have it placed where your swimmers, pupils and customers can see at a glance how to swim correctly all the strokes, even to minute detail.

They will appreciate it. This chart is accurate and dependable. It is made from the study of hundreds of swimmers with the advice of the best coaches and champion swimmers.

The Boardman Swimming Chart is receiving national recognition from leading swimming authorities in the United States, South America and Canada. It is the result of a scientific study made in consultation with the best swimming coaches and experts on the latest swim technique.. It explains and shows by many illustrations how to swim the strokes correctly.

News Item:

Bob Boardman is one of the leading physical educators in the Northwest. Himself a good athlete and graduate of the famous Springfield (Mass.) College, his teams in volley ball, wrestling, swimming and boxing carried off northwest championships for years. He has also contributed technical and research articles to the leading magazines and periodicals. He taught over 5000 boys, girls and adults to swim. Many of his swimming proteges, while in universities and colleges, became both state and coast champions. . . .

President Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Washington, D. C.

My Dear President:

I am mailing to you, under separate cover, a walking stick, which is made from a small cedar tree grown in Henderson County, and made by a poor farmer, named Kelly. I put the finish on it.

When I decided to send you the stick, I told my Chancellor, the Hon. Tom C. Rye, who was twice Governor of Tennessee, my intentions and he said to me, "Alright Bill, send it to him and tell him to lean on it", and I added, as we lean on you.

I am sure no money could buy a better walking stick, and I do hope that you will really use this one, at least a part of the time.

When you were Governor of New York I had occasion to write to you and in your reply you said, "Thanks to my good secretary, your letter reached me".

Now for my own history; I am past 81, practically blind and my seven living children are scattered to the four winds in the U. S. In 1884 I established the Lexington Progress which is still running and I am carrying a column in it, in spite of the fact that I am 75% blind, and use the "hunt and punch" system on the typewriter. In August 1911, I was appointed to the small office of Clerk of the Chancery Court, by the late Chancellor E. L. Bullock, which office I still fill, but my deputy does all the work, necessitating the ability to see. It happens that my family is the only one ~~xxxx~~ of the Catholic faith in a town of 2000 population, but I have no complaint to make against my non-catholic friends. I am very much inclined to hope that the call will be made for you to run again, but that failing, our own Cordell Hull is my next choice.

I hope this letter will get to another good secretary, that you will read it and answer it.

Respectfully,

W. V. Barry

ADAMS, Frederick B., Jr.
New York City
July 7, 1939

The President wrote Mr. Adams that he is deeply interested by his work on "Radical Literature in America". Suggests that if he ever has a chance he should run up to Oneida and talk with Pierrepont Weyes, who has been the Chairman of the Saratoga Springs Commission since he was Governor, and he is one of the original children of the Oneida Community. President expressed belief that "We modern 'radicals' compare favorably with the old boys of a hundred years ago!" -- On July 6th Miss Leland wrote Frank Altschul of The Overbrook Press, Stamford, Conn., thanking him for the copy of Mr. Adams' book "Radical Literature in America" which he sent the President.

Says that in November the City of Fayetteville, North Carolina, is planning an extensive celebration in commemoration of the settlement of the Cape Fear River valley. Most of these settlers were Scotch Highlanders who sought a new home on the shores of America after the battle of Culloden and the persecution of the Highlanders who supported Prince Charles Edward Stuart in his effort to retain the throne of Britain. Mr. John A. The President sent a memo. asking for a draft of reply for the President's signature to Justice Evatt. Letter from Benjamin V. Cohen, National Power Policy Committee, Interior Bldg., Washington, D. C., 7/28/39, to the President, with attached copy of "Rum Rebellion" by The Hon. Mr. Justice Herbert Vere Evatt, Justice of the High Court of Australia; Justice Evatt has asked Mr. Cohen to present to the President his book on Governor Bligh. Mr. Cohen states that Justice Evatt has written that there is a chance of his being invited to become the Australian Minister to the U. S. for a year or year and a half without his having to resign from the High Court; Mr. Cohen states it would be a fine thing to have Evatt, who is so sympathetic with what the President is trying to do at home and abroad, in Washington.

*President Franklin Delano Roosevelt,
White House,
Washington, D. C.*

My dear Mr. President: -

In 1933, immediately after you delivered your Inaugural Address, inducting you into the Presidency of our United States, I began inscribing your Address in a small space, surrounded by the American and Presidential flags, your picture, governmental buildings and a border. This was all done in pen and ink and required thirty-two (32) hours.

Knowing our then Senator and now Congressman, William F. Byrne, very well, I naturally visited him with the expressed purpose and desire of gaining his advice and wise counsel as to how best I could present you with this token. My good friend advised me to personally visit you in the White House, giving me his own Card to gain admittance, in order to present my token to you in person.

Unfortunately, Mr. President to be perfectly candid, I have never at any time had a sufficient amount of funds to make a pleasant journey to Washington as much as I would have desired to, never for one instance, divulging this to my good friend Congressman Byrne.

With absolutely no intended disrespect towards you, I had duplicates made of your 1933 Inaugural Address as inscribed by me, and distributed them to my intimates, one of which is in the possession of my good friend Congressman Byrne, meanwhile always hoping and praying that the day would arrive, and my dream realized of personally having the distinct honor of making the presentation and meeting my President face to face, but now, after a lapse of six (6) years, I see no hope of accomplishing my objective, so if you, Mr. President will accept my token of esteem I shall most gladly and willingly entrust it to the mail to you direct, providing I receive word from you of your intended acceptance. Thanking you for your patience in reading this lengthy communication and hoping to receive a favorable reply, I close with best wishes and remain,

Apologetically yours

By so doing, you have kept this country from a revolution is my guess. However, the "yes-buts" (and they are honorable men) call it creating class hatred and interfering with business. As if class hatred were not already created and seething and boiling to the bursting point before you became President, and as for business, weren't they happy to have you interfere with business in 1933?

How you have had to fight every inch of your way, against corruption and greed and all the host of undemocratic principles and practices!

Only wisdom and courage of the highest order plus an unflinching faith in God and your fellowman, could have made so glorious a fight against such powerful odds.

You are determined to give us all the pure democracy our votes will take, - to quote an old mountain woman, who recently said to me regard-

Dear Mr. President:

In today's mail I am sending you a cartoon which was drawn originally for the Variety Dinner held in Philadelphia in support of the Warm Springs Foundation. Subsequently it was used in the News here and attracted some attention on display at the Womens Division Headquarters, New York Infantile Paralysis Fund, 1939.

I trust you will not think me impertinent in sending it to you for I have the hope that it may be thought by you appropriate to hang in the Warm Springs Foundation where it may hearten a sufferer.

In any case it is sent to you with entire good wishes to you in your great work for our country.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Early:

In this mail I am sending a cartoon for the President which I wish him very much to possess but I feel that credit for sending the same should in part be attributed to Miss McClary of the New York Infantile Paralysis Fund, 1939,
Woman's Division who strongly urged me to do this.

I thank you very much if you can find it in your desire and power to give this drawing to the President.

INCORPORATED

NON-NEGOTIABLE LIVE STOCK CONTRACT. (IN TRIPLICATE)

hereinafter called the SHIPPER, party of the second part, for the transportation of the shipment described in section 4 of this contract, consigned to Maiden & Son, Ltd., London

When more than ten such birds, reptiles, or small animals comprise one shipment, the maximum value per shipment will be $50.00 if weight is 100 pounds or less, or 50 cents per pound actual weight, if weight is in excess of 100 pounds, but the maximum value so ascertained may not exceed $5.00 per bird, reptile or small animal named.

Bulls and Zebras.....	100.00
Burros, Dogs and Ostriches.....	50.00
Calves under six months, Deer, Elk, Goats, Hogs, Monkeys and Sheep.....	25.00
Calves six months or over, Cows, Oxen and Steers.....	75.00
Camels, Giraffes, Hippopotamuses and Rhinoceroses.....	200.00
Colts under one year and Ponies N. O. S.....	75.00
Elephants	250.00
Horses, Jacks, Jennies, Mules and Polo Ponies.....	200.00
Poultry, per fowl.....	10.00
Wild Animals N. O. S.....	50.00

When the declared or released value exceeds the maximum value stated above, the charge will be increased as follows:

Between points where the First-Class Rate
Is not over $2.00 per 100 lbs.	1 per cent. of excess value
Exceeds $2.00 per 100 lbs. but not $3.00 per 100 lbs.	1½ per cent. of excess value
Exceeds $3.00 per 100 lbs. but not $5.00 per 100 lbs.	2 per cent. of excess value
Exceeds $5.00 per 100 lbs.	2½ per cent. of excess value

Section 4. The Shipper now declares the value of said animals and of the paraphernalia constituting this shipment to be as follows:

[illegible]

Section 5. The Shipper agrees that the Company shall not be liable for the conduct or acts of the animals to themselves, or to each other, such as biting, kicking, goring or smothering, nor for loss or damage arising from the condition of the animals themselves, or which results from their nature or propensities, which risks are assumed by the Shipper. The Shipper hereby releases and discharges the Company from all liability for delay, injuries to or loss of said animals and paraphernalia, from any cause whatever, unless such delay, injury or loss shall be caused by the Company or by the negligence of its agent or employees, and in such event the Company shall be liable only to the extent of actual damage sustained, but in no event to an amount for an animal or paraphernalia in excess of its value as declared above.

Section 6. If any sum of money besides the charges for transportation is to be collected from the consignee on the delivery of said animals, and the same is not paid at once, the Shipper agrees that the Company may, at its option, retain said animals with ordinary and reasonable care, at the risk and expense of the Shipper, or may return same to the Shipper, the Shipper to pay charges for transportation both ways and all other expenses.

Section 7. Where said animals are accompanied by the owner or an attendant in his employ, the following further conditions shall apply, viz.: The Shipper agrees to load, transship and unload said animals at his own risk, the Express Company furnishing the necessary laborers to assist. The Shipper shall take care of, feed and water said animals while being forwarded or transported, whether delayed in transit or otherwise, and the Express Company shall not be under any liability or duty with reference thereto except in the actual forwarding thereof. The Shipper further undertakes to see that all doors and openings in the cars in which said animals are shipped are at all times so closed and fastened as to prevent the escape of any of said animals or injury thereto, and the Express Company shall not be liable on account of the escape of any of said animals or any injury thereto resulting from open doors or defective ventilation.

Attendants when transported free will be permitted to ride only in the car in which the animals are transported or in smoking cars, or second-class cars of the train, when furnished.

EXCEPTION

Attendants with carloads shipments of race horses, polo horses, or show horses will be permitted to ride in standard or tourist sleeping cars on Lines west of Chicago, Ill., Danville, Ill., and Mississippi River crossings, including Chicago-St. Louis Lines upon payment of tariff charge for accommodations occupied.

Section 8. The Shipper agrees that as a condition precedent to recovery hereunder for loss or injury or damage to or delay in delivery of this shipment, such loss, injury, damage or delay shall be proved by the Shipper to have been caused by negligence of the carrier, and in consideration of the free carriage of a person or persons as his agent or agents in charge of said animals where permitted under the official Express Classification in effect on date of shipment to indemnify and save harmless the Company from all claims, liabilities and demands of every kind, nature and description by reason of personal injuries sustained by said person or persons so in charge of said animals whether the same be caused by negligence or otherwise.

Section 9. Upon the arrival of said animals and paraphernalia at destination, the Shipper or consignee shall forthwith receive said animals and paraphernalia and pay the charges due thereon, and if the Shipper or consignee shall fail or refuse to duly receive the same and pay any such charges, the Company or the connecting carrier having said animals and paraphernalia in charge, may, as the Agent of the Shipper, have said animals and paraphernalia put and provided for in some suitable place at the cost and risk of the Shipper or consignee, and at any time or times thereafter may sell the same or any number of them, at public or private sale, with or without notice, as the said agent may deem necessary or expedient, and apply the proceeds arising therefrom, or so much as may be needed, for the payment of any freight or charges that may be due, and other necessary and proper costs and expenses.

Section 10. As conditions precedent to recovery claims must be made in writing to the originating or delivering carrier within nine months after delivery of the property or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof.

Section 11. The provisions of this contract shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment, and shall apply to any reconsignment or return thereof.

Dear President:

I am enclosing a picture of yourself today that I am sketching it for you. I hope you will like to see it so good.

I am a deaf boy, 20 years old and sketching many kind of cartoons at my home.

I received a letter from Governor E.D. Rivers of Georgia one day last week and saying that it was mighty fine of me to sit down and draw his picture, and he wanted me to know that he appreciated my efforts along this line a great deal. I should be encouraged to keep on with my drawing.

I hope I will be anxious to hear from you as soon as possible, when you write.

With best wishes in regarding to you,

Sincerely yours,
