My dear Mrs. Baker:

Mr. Early has referred to me your letter of January twelfth and I want to assure you that your generous thought is very much appreciated.

While the President is grateful to all those who desire to present gifts to him, he feels that his acceptance of them should be limited to tokens of small intrinsic value and that he should not accept articles of considerable worth or gifts of handwork on which the donor has necessarily spent a great deal of time and personal effort.

Please be assured that your friendly interest is nonetheless most gratifying.

Very sincerely yours,

Sir

Mrs. Stephen T. Early.
Washington D.C.
White House Press Sect. Dear Sir:-

This letter will be quite a surprise to you I know. but hear is my reason for writing. I have a very interesting piece of work I've made for our great President.
It is a quilt. Very historical. It is from the time
Geo Washington was elected up until now.
I can't hardly tell you how it is. you will have to see it before you can pass your comments on it. What I want to know is must I send it to Mr. Roosevelt or Mrs Roosevelt. If you are the one to open it. I wish you would see that it doesn't get soiled before she gets it. He can read it all by putting it on a bed and stand at the foot of it. I've been made several offers on it. A Million dollars ^(to me) was a small offer for my whole heart is in this work. All I ask in return is an autographed colored photo of that one and only leader. I make my living for myself and 2 boys by sewing but this is a piece of work I have been planning since 1932.

at last my dream is almost true
I'm planning on having it finished by his birthday Jan. 30th

You can let me hear from you.
I'll be waiting to see what you have to say. I can't hardly wait until you + Mr Roosevelt see it. I have more new admirers every day.

yours truly

My dear Mrs. Baker:

Mrs. Roosevelt has handed to me your letter of January twenty-fourth, with the request that I acknowledge it and advise you further about the handmade quilt you wish to present to the President.

I deeply regret that there is nothing more I can say, except to reemphasize the statement in my letter to you of January twenty-first. However, I do want you to know that it is not a question of the lack of appreciation by the President of your fine spirit and goodness of heart in making this quilt for his birthday. He is always deeply touched by the generosity and kindness of his many friends from all parts of the country in wanting to present gifts to him, but if he were to accept all of them -- particularly large articles -- there simply would be no space in which to use and enjoy them, and it has been necessary to adopt the policy of accepting only very small tokens. I am sure that with this further explanation you will fully understand our position.

Very sincerely yours,

Was advised that Pres cannot accept valuable articles, but says quilt cost only about $3.25, and she can see no reason for its refusal. Asks to be advised as to whether or not she may send it on.

Thank you for your letter of February 5th. It was indeed a pleasure for American Airlines, Inc., to cooperate with the local Birthday Ball Committee by transporting the Boston birthday cake to Washington.

The Boston Birthday Ball arranged by the Committee under the chairmanship of U.S. Atty. Edmund J. Brandon, assisted by Mayor Maurice J.
