Wrote to the President sending him copies of his books, "Emigres in the Wilderness" and "The Bloody Mohawk". --- Calls attention to Le Ray Mansion which is most important historical landmark in Northern New York. People in N. Y. State disturbed over news that it is to be included in Pine Plains Camp and that the owner, Mr. Harold Remington, is to be evicted. Feels that, if possible, without interfering with usefulness of Pine Plains, he should be allowed to keep it. Condemnation proceedings have been started and he is to be moved out on October 15th - thus prompt action to save him is necessary. Dear Mr. President

In ancient times it was customary for those who sought a ruler's favor to present themselves before him with such things of theirs as they deemed worthy of his greatness. Thus we read of rulers and princes having been presented with richly wrought armour - splendid horses - precious gems - such costly gifts being alone considered fit to honor a prince.

Desiring in a like manner to approach the foremost American of the age with a token of admiration I am enclosing a pencil sketch of that grand American Lady - your mother.

Drawn from a small picture which appeared in the newspaper at the time of her death I am aware of its deficiencies as a portrait and regret I have nothing better to give. Yet I believe your courtesy will dispose you to accept it in the spirit in which it is given.

Sincerely

Michael Parthell

October 29, 1941 M. E. Egan

Dear Mr. Brush:

The President has your very nice note of October twenty-first, telling of your desire to send a turkey to him and Mrs. Roosevelt for Thanksgiving Dinner.

As you may know, the President
usually spends Thanksgiving at Warm Springs -- and he expects to be there this Thanksgiving.
He would be most grateful to you if you could send the turkey here by the fifteenth of November and then he could take it to Warm Springs with him.

He asks me to tell you how much he appreciates your kind thought of him and sends you his best wishes.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear General Watson:

Both Mr. J. Bernstein and myself thank you for your courtesy in looking at the illuminated testimonial for President Roosevelt executed by Mr. Bernstein's father, the noted artist, Rabbi A.D. Bernstein.

This beautiful hand painted testimonial was begun immediately upon news of the President's re-election, and was completed only after more than six months of painstaking and unceasing toil. The artist has presented other testimonials of this nature to the late Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria, to Baron Rothschild and others.

I am sure you recall the exquisite coloring, and the remarkable detail which entered into this work, and am confident that the tribute from a highly gifted artist, a lover of liberty and a religious soul, will appeal to the President.

I shall communicate with you again shortly when the testimonial is framed and I hope the artist's many months of toil will then be amply rewarded by the great privilege of presenting it to the President in person.

Very truly yours,

Carl Alpert

My dear Mr. Alpert:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of October fifteenth.

I am sorry that we cannot arrange for Rabbi Bernstein to present the illuminated hand-executed testimonial direct to the President as you request. The President is so pressed for time during these extremely critical days that, for some time past, I have been acting on his behalf and receiving all gifts, testimonials, et cetera. If Rabbi Bernstein cares to come to Washington and leave the testimonial here in my office, I shall be glad to see him. I will, however, await your further advice.

Sincerely yours,

Dear General Watson:

You may recall that several months ago I visited you and displayed an illuminated hand-executed testimonial for President Roosevelt, made by the noted Palestinian artist, Rabbi A. D. Bernstein.

The artist, who now resides in New York, seeks the opportunity of presenting the testimonial, in finished form, to the President. He would be accompanied by perhaps two or three other persons.

I would appreciate your informing me of any suitable time (except Saturday, the Jewish Sabbath) when he may take no more than a few minutes of the President's time. I hope the artist's many months of toil on this beautiful piece will be thus recognized.

Sincerely yours,

Dear General Watson:

Thank you for your letter of October 21st. As I wrote you earlier, Rabbi Bernstein, who has spent many months of arduous work on his illuminated testimonial to President Roosevelt, is most anxious to make a personal presentation. Circumstances obviously do not permit. I believe that were Mrs. Roosevelt to accept it on behalf of her husband, Rabbi Bernstein would not feel so keenly disappointed. I am accordingly writing to her and I trust she may find the occasion to see Rabbi Bernstein for a few moments and accept the gift.

My dear Mrs. Boyer:

Many thanks in the President's behalf for the copies of your books of verse. It was kind indeed of you to send them to him.

The President is deeply grateful to you for your expression of sympathy in his great loss.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Franklin D. Roosevelt:

Not long ago the
"middle" one of my three daughters
read an article to me about your collection of books. I wondered at the time if my books would be worthy to be admitted in that collection. At any rate I have at last mustered up courage enough to send along to you a copy of each of my books of verse -
Wind Chimes and Heart's Healing.
And I must tell you what helped me to make the decision:
"fan mail" from a poet in Scotland -
a gem of an autograph book with comments on nearly every poem are yours at this time. We know that God helps you to make your decisions. If only you had the full support of everyone.

I sympathize with you in your recent loss - your mother. My mother and father left us last year - Mother in May, Dad in October - for the Land Beyond.

May God bless you and keep you safe.

Sincerely,

in "Hearts' Healing." And the Scotch poet, Mr. John Gillespie wrote:

"The book arrived at a time when with war-time conditions prevailing the title alone, without opening the pages, brought a certain amount of solace. So the title is well chosen particularly so at a period such as we are experiencing in the world today. Many nations and individuals need 'hearts' healing'."

I am hoping that, if you do me the honor to read my simple books, you will find something in what I have written that will strike a comforting note.

I want to tell you that you have the sincere wishes of this family. We fully understand the terrific responsibilities that

Dear Miss Le Hand:--

In December of 1938 you graciously acknowledged receipt from me of photographs of a model of the U. S. Ship PORTSMOUTH which I made here during the previous three years. I hope that it has been an understood part of the President's collection of navyana.

To that collection I would like very much to add a copy of my book, BLUEJACKET, which is being forwarded under separate cover. It may interest you personally to be informed that all the characters in the book are represented in the carved figures of officers, men, and boys you see engaged in work on deck and aloft on the photographs of model of the U. S. S. PORTSMOUTH.

Very sincerely yours,

you a pair of socks. I meant to send yours the time I sent Prime Minister Churchill's to him but I had to go to the Massachusetts General Hospital about my eyes. I have been in this country
for 26 years & I thank God that I am here. I have been under five major operations
in the Massachusetts General Hospital. I knit these socks myself. If they shouldn't fit you please give them to one of your sons as I told Prime Minister Churchill if they didn't fit him to give them to King George. They will be excellent for you to wear
