My dear Mr. Borden:

It was splendid of you to write me that letter about your wood carvings and to enclose the postcard pictures of them. It must have required a great deal of painstaking care to make them and your generous thought in wanting to present them to the President is more than appreciated. However, it is felt that we should not accept them as they really are not just the type that would fit in with his rare collections in the Hyde Park Library. It is suggested that you make your work available to some school or museum near you, as an example of fine service to your own community. The postcards are returned herewith, and I also have pleasure in extending the President's very best wishes to you.

Dear President Roosevelt:

It gives me great pleasure to present to you this gift, which has a deep meaning and I have worked many weeks getting this gift ready to present you on your birthday anniversary, and selected this design because it represents the star which shone over the birth place of our Saviour.

I hope that you and Mrs. Roosevelt will accept this gift in the spirit in which it is sent.

I will soon be eighty-one years of age, and was afraid if I did not make this gift now, I might not be able to do so later. I am a widow, and live from an old age assistance check.

Yours Truly,

Nancy A. Bennett

P. S. The quilt comes by parcel post.

This star is the star of Bethlehem which led the wise men from the east and stood over where the Christ Child lay in the manger, and when they had opened their gift chest, they presented unto Him gifts, and departed into their country another way - the gifts were gold and frankincense and myrrh, and so, I present to you, ^{the} resident Roosevelt, on your birthday, this Star of Bethlehem, wishing you many more Happy Birthdays.

We are sending in this cover a picture of one of our number, only because it happens to be the picture most recently made and applicable to the present activity of our people.

Margaret Ann was stopped in the act of purchasing defense stamps for her father, mother and all of her brothers and sisters, as well as herself, to be awarded to them by Santa Claus at Christmas just past.

This picture was intended to be a picture of Mr. Hergenthan and Margaret Ann as he was a hotel guest on that day and failed to return, we believe, only because the meeting which he addressed at the Hotel Lagoon Club occurred on each of his times that he was obliged to send to the hotel for his baggage rather than to come personally for his baggage. . . - Margaret secured

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States of America,
Washington, D. C. . . -

Dear Mr. President. . . -

I am privileged to be a member of a family consisting of mother, Winifred A., who is an inspiration to her family of six sons, three daughters, to everyone who knows her and myself. . . -

All the members of our family whose mental faculties are sufficiently mature to express judgment are convinced that the war in which we are engaged demands the attitude of a man who will kill an intruder in his home. . . - There is just a bit of a chance in that, but we gladly take it. . . -

We are inspired by the leadership of your good self and are over-joyed to observe that we are one united nation now behind the present purposes of our President. . . -

There is much in this present situation to ponder on, but the principal things are that we in this family are as one in the conclusion of the poem quoted below. . . -

We are sending in this cover a picture of one of our number, only because it happens to be the picture most recently made and applicable to the present activity of our people. . . -

Margaret Ann was snapped in the act of purchasing defense stamps for her father, mother and all of her brothers and sisters, as well as herself, to be awarded to them by Santa Claus at Christmas just past. . . -

This picture was intended to be a picture of Mr. Morgenthau and Margaret Ann as he was a hotel guest on that day and failed to return, we believe, only because the meeting which he addressed at the Union League Club consumed so much of his time that he was obliged to send to the hotel for his baggage rather than to come personally for his baggage. . . - Margaret secured leave from her high school classes to come to the hotel to carry out her purpose and waited until it was found that Mr. Morgenthau would not be there. . . -

The spur to write this letter came from Joyce Kilmer's poem, "The Peacemaker". . . - I quote. . . -

"Upon his will he binds a radiant chain,
For Freedom's sake he is no longer free.
It is his task, the slave of Liberty,
With his own blood to wipe away a stain.
That pain may cease, he yields his flesh to pain.
To banish war, he must a warrior be.
He dwells in Night, eternal Dawn to see,
And gladly dies, abundant life to gain.

What matters Death, if Freedom be not dead?
No flags are fair, if Freedom's flage be furled,
Who fights for Freedom, goes with joyful tread
To meet the fires of Hell against him hurled,
And has for captain Him whose thorn-wreathed head
Smiles from the Cross upon a conquered world."

The children are:

John F. Bowman, Jr., age 26 years, an Insurance Solicitor who was married last September;
Ida Mary Bowman, age 24 years, who is in charge of the Art Department in the Amundsen High School in Chicago;
David J. Bowman, S.J., age 22 years, who is studying for the priesthood in his fifth year at West Baden College, West Baden, Indiana, with nine years of study ahead of him;
James A. Bowman, U.S.N.R., age 20 years, who is a junior at Loyola University, Chicago, Illinois;
Winifred A. Bowman, age 18 years, who is a freshman at Rosary College, River Forest, Illinois;
Margaret A. Bowman, age 16 years, who is a Junior at Trinity High School, River Forest, Illinois;
William George Bowman, age 14 years, a freshman at Loyola Academy, Chicago, Illinois;
Robert Peter Bowman, age 12 years, who is in seventh grade at Ascension School, Oak Park, Illinois; and Raymond Gregory Bowman, age 10 years, in fifth grade at Ascension School, Oak Park, Illinois. . . -

STEVENS HOTEL-CHICAGO

#3 - Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt. . . -

This is the story of an ordinary American family doing the ordinary things at all times and being consistant, we believe, in assuming the obligation of our several stations in times like these. . . -

Again we refer to the spur that caused this letter to be written and we join you in your high and holy purpose to rid the world of those who try to force their diabolical designs on their own people as well as the peoples of other nations on the earth. . . -

Yours very truly,

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:—

I have the honor to transmit to you on your birthday a letter and a package from Mrs. E. S. Bertram of Stillwater, Oklahoma. This framed piece of handiwork produced by Mrs. Bertram effectively portrays a patriotic motif in filet crochet most excellently executed. Mrs. Bertram, who traces her paternal ancestors to William Pitt, sends this token to you on your birthday as an "emblem of loyalty and faith in our Native Land and to our President".

May I also take this opportunity to add my own greetings and heartiest good wishes to you on this anniversary occasion.

Sincerely yours,

Arthur Capper

U. S. Senator Arthur Capper.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr Capper. Today I have sent you by express a package that I hope you will open and take to our President for his birthday. I hope it will be accepted for what it represents, an intense loyalty to our America.

It has meant a great deal to me, for my father's ancestor, William Pitt of England sent his two nephews to America. Pitt was named for him by personal request by President Washington.

May I thank you very much for presenting my work in this emblem of loyalty and faith in our native land to our President.

Very Truly
Mrs. E. Bertram
