Dear President,

The are sending you this quilt for a birthday present. If you wish to keep the quilt, keep it, in case you wish to sell it to help the Red Cross or other organizations you may, just do as you please.

We wish you many happy returns of the day.

We know that you wish to get the Japs licked soon. We think you know how to handle things. We are a great booster for you. Always keep up the good work. Answer and let us know if you receive the quilt

Very Truly Yours,
Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Baldwin, Four Daughters and one Son.

Dear sir ;-

I have been hopeful enough to presume that my admiration of the President and my hope of doing something in an original way to help people understand, by comparison, the position of our great leader, will give me the pleasure of having you see these prints

General Washington helped to "have" our freedoms but to our Commander has come the heavier duty to "hold" them.

These drawings took about a week each to make. They are just off the press.

Knowing the pressure of these trying times, hope may still offer a slight chance that you will see them.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. Borresen:

I have received your letter of February twenty-eighth and wish to thank you for your courtesy in sending me the enclosed prints.

I am sorry to advise, however, that a long established White House policy prevents me from commenting on or endorsing the many publications, literary and art works brought to my attention daily. I am sure you will appreciate the difficulty of making an exception to this policy and will understand why I cannot comply with your request that I "critisize the captions".

Dear Mr Early ;-

My pleasure from your kind letter of the 14th, instant is beyond words,

Starting this work with a sincere desire to do a bit to stimulate interest in our great effort for world freedom and appreciation of the workers behind our great President who saw the future so clearly in his speech on our lake front years ago, I have been sickened by the lethargy and the often traitorous remarks which I have met with in promoting these pictures; even among merchants, tho most of these were enthusiastic, putting them on sale as high as $2.25 each.

It was heartening to hear of Congressman effort McCormack's ~~to~~ curb this sort of treachery in the House.
Those members should be called Vipers; civillians might be called Snipers.

On your suggestion that the one line portraits might be put on file, I am preparing more permanent prints which I will forward to you shortly, including a Lincoln.

✓ I am enclosing a rough print; could you find time to critisize the captions?

These are intended for young school pupils who seem much interested in the one line technique.

Because of the lack of enthusiasm for patriotic pictures I may starve before results can be had from talks and other efforts I make for more patriotic co-operation; they should go very well in Washington.

We are threatened with commissions to make portraits of former Chicagoans which might prove a ~~new~~ lease on life. We may make one of our hero, General MacArthur if his popularity continues as we hope it does.

Possibly you might turn my impositions over to some one less busy than you are.

Gratefully yours,

Charles Borresen

Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt President of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:-

To wish you a happy birthday and the greatest success in the cause so dear to your heart, we were advised by Mr. Sam Whitaker who communicated with Major Edgar M. Watson, that we might send you a present. It consists of two canned hams; one is a Polish picnic bought by us three years ago before that country was invaded by Hitler; the other is a Danish ham bought about the same time. We believe these to be about the only ones left in our country, and want you to have them. Despite the rusty tins, we are certain they are in good condition, for we have never found them otherwise. Inclosed are our directions for one good way to prepare them for serving.

Once when you passed through our city, we had the privilege of furnishing your private car with some chicken livers. We are indeed happy to again find even so small a service to perform. May it

My dear Judge Whitaker:

I have before me your letter of January twenty-fourth addressed to General Watson with the enclosed communication from your brother, Mr. Phil B. Whitaker. The President would be delighted to have the Polish ham and is most grateful for Mr. Earl Bostain's kind offer.

My dear General Watson:

The President wants you to know how much he appreciates your courtesy in the matter.

Very sincerely yours, Mary.

I also know Mr. Bostain and know

Judge Sam E. Whitaker
U. S. Court of Claims
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sam:

Earl Bostain, who runs the City Meat Market on West Ninth Street and who is a good friend of mine, called me this morning and said he had a few Polish hams which he received from Poland shortly before the German invasion. He wants to send one to the President for a birthday present, but said he was sure the President wouldn't eat it unless he found out from some reliable source that the ham is all right, especially that it is not poisoned. Earl asked me to write you and tell you what he wanted to do and have you communicate with the White House, notifying them that the ham is coming and that it is all right. He will not send it until he hears from you. You can write either him or me.

Paul Shepherd told me this morning he had sold your house to Mr. Sherman. Congratulations.

Devotedly,

Letter addressed to Mr. Clauch, that Carl Sandburg was requested to write a message in Lincolnnesque language for the large Navy-U.S. Treasury Rally to be held in the Medina Temple in Chicago at six o'clock tomorrow evening. Says that for some reason he did not do so and James Mangan of the Mills Novelty Co. undertook to do the job. Encloses a copy of his efforts bound in the Extra Bindery of the famous Lakeside Press, and personally executed by Harold Tribolet, who is one of the great fine bookbinders in America.

On 2-12-42, the President acknowledged and thanked the Mills Novelty Co. for that message written by Mr. Mangan, as a tribute to Lincoln's birthday. (Booklet given to Mrs. Eben to go to Library.)

Dear Mr. President

Many happy returns of the day & please accept this little token of esteem from me it is something I made myself by hand, I know you like ships so I decided on the ship altho I have different designs it can be framed if you wish to have it framed

Please accept my best wishes for a happy Birthday & & many more to come & may the March of dimes continue to be an overwhelming success forever

My dear President Roosevelt,

I have been detained at home not so well; or I certainly would have sent you Birthday Greetings.
So now in a few days shall send you a little hand made token.
They show more things.

Something greatly surprised about troubles me. A short time ago there was a piece in the newspaper,

P. P. 7.
9-13 that the Navy Yard had been investigated & be sure there were no foreigners working there. Only full American citizens were allowed also when aliens applied for work, not even enemies, they were told, only Americans could work for City or Government, except the English.

This was right. Americans should be given first choice.
Also if aliens were not allowed they could not pick out aliens who were friendly, one Lawrence for all aliens.
Also you do not know what great harm the Germans or enemies may do to the country. Not much Defense, if we put the match in their hands, so to speak.

We are greatly to blame if they do harm. I really think the bunkum started by all these big fools, were very likely enemies, who did it intentionally! How dreadful!
Yet the other evening I heard of the Radio, that a German who has worked a long time at the Navy Yard, and begs to continue is allowed to do so.
Also in the paper it said there was an amendment passed, no one could be naturalized now, the War has started; and many were sent away, without their full Naturalization papers.

How can aliens be received in the Army? The other evening I also heard on the Radio, the question asked, if it made alien citizens, do be admitted in the Army? The answer was No. How can aliens lawfully join, or be drafted into the United States Army? Surely we are not so weak; we can not have a true American Army, not a false one. Our Nation should be too proud to allow such a weak thing. Why do these foreigners wish to join it?
I also noticed New Jersey will have a strict physical examination.
