My dear Miss Bark:

Your friendly thought in sending the President that nice note of Father's Day greetings is gratifying to him. Your generous act is indeed appreciated, but since the President does not feel that he can accept gifts of the kind you enclose, I am returning the $1.00 to you. Thank you, nevertheless, in the President's behalf, for your kindness.

Dear Mr. President:

Please accept this scarf, made by me, as it is the only way I have of expressing my feeling toward you.

I am a prisoner and have served eleven and one-half years.

It is my sincere desire to be of some service to my country after I have served my remaining sixteen months.

This is my first offense and I understand
I am still eligible for service in the Marines.

I hope you will enjoy this present as much as I did while making it for you.

Very sincerely

WASHINGTON

23 May 1942

MEMORANDUM FOR CAPTAIN JOHN L. MCCREA, U.S. NAVY:

Subject: Gail Burkett, inmate at Iowa State Penitentiary, applicant for enlistment.

Reference: (a) Captain McCrea's memo dated 21 May, 1942, re same subject.

Enclosures: 2.
(a) Letter from Gail Burkett to The President,
dated 6 May, 1942.
(b) Reference (a).

1. Investigation discloses that the subject-named man was convicted in 1930 of aggravated robbery and sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary. In 1938 he was moved to an Iowa reformatory, and escaped from there, and when recaptured was given an additional 5 years sentence.

2. In view of the facts in this case, Gail Burkett is not eligible for enlistment in the Marine Corps even after discharge from the Iowa State Penitentiary.
