Mr. Stephen Early:

Dear Sir:

I have taken the liberty to send the President
a photo of a mural I have just completed - THE FOUR FREEDOMS.
It was inspired by his talk. X

Perhaps you will be so kind as to see that he receives it and that it will not be considered an advertisement.

The mural is for the Council Chamber in the new City Hall, Burbank, California.

INNES, Capt. W. C. C.
COMMITTEE FOR YOUTH SUNDAY
NATIONAL COUNCIL OF EDUCATION OF CANADA
Toronto, Ontario, Canada.
November 10, 1942.

Has received let. and cable in connection with Youth Sunday, which was held in Great Britain, U. S. and Canada, on April 29 last, from Major F. J. Hey, Exec. Vice-Pres., Nat'l Council of Education, who is at present on a speaking tour for the Ministry of Information. His Majesty the King has consented to accept a copy of a brochure being printed by the Nat'l Council of Education as a complete record of Youth Sunday, and the King is permitting the fact to be noted on the cover. Would appreciate it if the President would accept a copy, with a similar notation. The brochure contains an article on Youth Sunday, written by Major Hey, and the broadcasts from Westminster Abbey and Washington Cathedral.

. Referred by memo, 11/12/42, to the Department of State for appropriate handling.

Harry L. Hopkins,
Washington D.C.

Dear Harry;-

+289
Some twelve or fourteen months ago, a client of mine brought in to the bank a gold clean up for shipment to the United States Mint in San Francisco. This was gravel gold from the Occidental Mine, at Iowa Hill, Placer County, California. On top of the shipment I spied a nugget weighing exactly one quarter of an ounce which was formed into a perfect "v".

This nugget had been in the making in this buried river channel for probably several million years. (The nugget is in its original state as taken from the under ground channel.) I immediately asked that I might purchase it as a specimen piece. I had it mounted on a lapel button and have worn it during the year past with a great deal of pleasure. Lately, I have been thinking, that this Victory Nugget should go to our Commander-In-Chief. It is, so far as I know, the only one of its kind in existence.

So, I am imposing on you as an old Grinnell friend of mine, to present this nugget to our Commander-In-Chief, Franklin D. Roosevelt with my compliments. Tell him for me that it is my hope that the victory and peace which we will win from this war will be as enduring and as lasting as the nugget enclosed.

With kind personal regards and best wishes for your continued success.

Sincerely,

(signed) Guy W. Brundage.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Washington D. C.

Dear President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

Today I am mailing the book, "The Temples of the Most High" I marked a few of the passages, which I think refer to my own sad plight of suffering and annoyance in trying to house these poor defense workers, who are living in tents-last week with snow, sleet, heavy frosts. My brother-in-law, Dr. C. H. Jenson an M. D. of Ogden has been called to many patients he simply could do nothing for as they were living under such poor circumstances.

These tenants of mine have had since last February to house the themselves, and still have better ways and means, so far as I can judge of housing themselves than I have right now. High, while waiting to get to the rental director, Mr. H. J. Jenson
The rental director told me to go ahead with eviction proceedings now, as I returned with "The Temples of the Most High" in my hand, marking a few of the consoling things to me personally, which I ought to copy into my own book. I am confronted with an attorney, with a demurrer to my complaint. Now I guess I shall have to hire an attorney or what not, or let them down me with their lawless "Hitler" union shout, "You cant put us out, we will call the sheriff again, as they did last week, when I was peaceably sitting in my own room in the house at 2942 Pingree Ave, which I had never rented to them, but loaned to them as a special favor, three years ago Dec. 1939, as they begged so hard for their children. They were on unlawful strikes then, and spending so much for spring mattresses that I never could afford and get by with. to my complaint filed yesterday

I wish I had an Abe Lincoln in Judge Charles G. Cowley's seat, when I soon shall have to appear. Then he would take these bynky laws out of his hands in cases of righteous clients and give them justice.

I know many well to-do people who would gladly fix up their places and homes, if they did not have to deal with this striking undertoe, and make room for any good tenants. My own relation-in-laws, are owners or managers of lumber companies tied up because they cannot sell sufficient to help in this housing situation.

Now, you might be partially repaid if you knew how many mother's hearts were gladdened over your drive on the African front to Palestine. In fact, you already know how very much pleased the whole world is. And I think, I even have the First Presidency looking up Orson Pratt's prophecies, but I am quite sure they have revelations now that would startle the world, but the world would not believe it, even if they told them, no more than the world believed the Savior, is your, on several occasions

Judge Cowley set the order (now I havent the words before me) giving them only three days in which to reply. Aha, they have plenty of money to hire attorneys, this is the second, and have filed a demurrer, so I shall have to hasten to look up the statutes with my worn out eyes.

Dear Miss Le Hand,

I am publishing this week a Memoir of "PADDY" FINUCANE (Wing-Commander Brendan Finucane R.A.F., D.S.O., D.F.C.) by James Reynolds. I desire to present a copy of the Limited edition to President and Mrs. Roosevelt, should they care to accept it.

Lord Halifax has sent copies for me to Mr. and Mrs. Finucane, to Miss Jean Woolford ("Paddy's" fiancée). I seek no publicity and I am sending the book to the King and Queen of Great Britain, President and Mrs. Kiang Kai Shek, President and Mrs. Stalin.

This book is a symbol of gallantry and as such I want the leaders of the United Nations to see this fine study.

Believe me,

Faithfully yours,

WING-COMMANDER

"PADDY" FINUCANE

[BRENDAN FINUCANE, R.A.F., D.S.O., D.F.C.]

A MEMOIR BY JAMES REYNOLDS

WHEN last July 17th a German machine gun found its billet in the engine of the Spitfire "Flying Shamrock" of Paddy Finucane (FIN-YOU-KIN) over the English Channel off Point l'Touquet, the gunner who fired that fatal shot probably never knew that his Führer was rid of a redoubtable enemy and that the King of England had lost a most gallant soldier.

Paddy, born, bred, and educated in Dublin, was unqualifiedly Irish, of Catholic antecedents—steeped in the Irish tradition, a passionate lover of Eire's green hills and purple valleys, as James Reynolds with fine sympathy describes in this Memoir. Paddy fought for right and justice as he saw it, as the "Wild Geese" his ancestors had fought before him on every battlefield of Europe. Paddy gave his life freely and even as his machine plunged him towards his nameless grave, his last words, "This is it, Chaps" showed he knew death claimed him as inexorably as he had claimed the same dread fee from his brave foes: for he was credited with thirty-two "certains" as well as many "probables." For these and for other brave services the King of England awarded him the Distinguished Service Cross and a two-bar Distinguished Flying Cross.

James Reynolds, widely known artist, traveller, and horse-lover, enjoyed the intimate friendship of Paddy. They tramped the old hills and explored the ancient castles of Ireland and walked as well the pavements of London Town. Reynolds, with his perception trained for the beautiful, saw in Paddy the stuff of which heroes are made, and a unity of ideas and ideals between the two men made Reynolds the proper chronicler of this brief Memoir. It has the authentic quality of spirit which even great books all too frequently lack. Competent critics will ask themselves, is this brief work not as much an achievement in biography as it is a spiritual triumph?

There are two editions:

LIMITED EDITION, two hundred and fifty copies on rag paper, numbered and signed by the publisher; with a study of "Paddy" in sanguine by James Reynolds reproduced by lithography, signed by the author-artist; and three other half-tone illustrations, octavo, boards. Price $5.00 net.

REGULAR EDITION, contents similar to limited edition (lacking the signed portrait). Price $1.25 net.

My dear Miss Tully,

Thank you for your gracious note of November 24th. The copy of "PADDY" Finucane by James Reynolds went forward in your care addressed to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

I shall be most happy if the book gives them pleasure, for all my family have been ardent admirers of both these noble Americans, and have never wavered in our loyalty.

Believe me,

Faithfully yours,

E. Byrne Hackett
