Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

"A plague on both your houses" might well be changed now to "A plague on all your houses". All of the pressure groups will continue to plague whoever occupies the Presidency until we apply the formula "Reciprocal Benefits between all groups at the expense of none".

I have read the article "Your Job After the War" by Mr. Harry Hopkins. Some of his recommendations are in line in principle with the principles of the "SURPLUS-WAGES SYSTEM". His proposals seem inadequate and incomplete. And, anyhow, even they as well as my suggestions require unity of purpose and action by all of our people if we expect to gain a substantial measure of that "abundant life" which you are so ardently striving to bring about.

x4117
In these critical times you need the loyal assistance of every citizen. It is my hope and sole desire in writing this that I may collaborate with Mr. Hopkins to not only supply the assurance of your reelection but suggestions for the adoption of policies which will realize real universal social security.

Mr. Hopkins has a copy of my book "SURPLUS-WAGES" ("A New National Income") which I dedicated to you in 1942. I am sending you another copy under separate cover. Enclosed herewith are copies of two brochures published in 1943. I think I know how you can use at least some of the ideas contained therein to assure your reelection, your ideals for full employment and relief from the cares of postwar reconstruction with the aid of a united nation.

Now is the time to take action to mollify the opposition from all sides before election day. The demand for increased wages can be satisfied now through your announcement of a comprehensive plan benefiting all groups, and which will avoid inflation and discontent. It seems to me well worth considering before making other commitments.

I will consider it a great honor and my duty to serve in any way you designate.

Hon. William D. Hassett,
Secretary to the President,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hassett:

Thanks for yours of October 31st. We did it again. But We the People have in reelecting the President placed greater burdens upon him than ever. Hence, the need for unity of purpose and action by all groups to support him is paramount. Now the big question is, how can we quickly establish a national movement to realize his aims to provide 60 million jobs, minimum taxation and universal prosperity and social security through united action?

The "SURPLUS-WAGES'SYSTEM" literature I sent the President outlines some of the methods which may be employed in principle to assist him to accomplish his aims. I have reached this conclusion after conferences and correspondence with the leaders of several of the labor, industrial, financial and agricultural organizations. The consensus has been that the System is sound and comprehensive and that it will work if it is applied on a large scale. That the primary objective, reciprocal benefits for all at the expense of none, can be realized in this way.

Therefore, I believe a chat with you will establish whether or not I can be of assistance to the President in organizing such a national movement. If this suggestion meets with your approval I will present myself at your office at your convenience.

Thanking you for your courteous consideration, I remain,
with best wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

The tiny envelope contains the "Order of Saint Catherine of Melusin," an Armenian distinction awarded to my Father in the "gay nineties" which years, to my notion, were anything but gay especially for the Armenians.

My Father (non Germanic) was a very distinguished Mason, Belgian-American patriot, and Altruist.

Without mentioning my name, would you be so kind as to present this medal to President Roosevelt with a message that it is of good augury either to his desk, or to his person, or to his stamp collection---or wherever it makes contact; all of this without spagy-rism, I assure you.

I would love to do this anonymously, but have been afraid the medal might get lost. May I, therefore, depend upon your kindness for this attempt at anonymity promising you that at some future date I will send you a review of my Father's Masonic activities, delivered February 1943 in Washington, D.C., and not far from your office.

BERNARD, Mrs. Lauretta
Pittsburgh, Pa.,
Oct. 22, 1944.

Writes the President that she is 82 years old. Is praying that he will be elected for a fourth term. Is sending enclosed a crucifix to help the President.—Miss Tully, on Oct. 26th, wrote Mrs. Bernard thanking on behalf of the President and saying that it is indeed gratifying to the President to know that she is praying for him during these trying days. Miss Tully said it is noted that she has attained the fine age of 82 years and that the President expressed the hope that peace and happiness would fill the days ahead of her. Wrote the President giving him an interesting account of the work the above organization has done in the past year, and reports that Admiral Land seems pleased with their work. Presents the President with a copy of the 8th Edition of the "Seamens Handbook for Shore Leave," a pocket size director of 440 of the principal ports of the world. Writer says that she is now working on the 9th edition and would appreciate an endorsement from the President which can be used in it. - - Mr. Blake on Oct. 13, 1944, referred the above letter to Admiral Land asking for his advice. Should the President send an endorsement. - - Letter to Mr. Blake from Adm. Land dated Oct. 24, 1944, stating that the above organization is a non-profit organization and it would seem appropriate for the President to give Mrs. Howard a note of endorsement. Suggests a draft. - - Mr. Early on Oct. 30, 1944, wrote Mrs. Howard enclosing a message which the President has been glad to prepare for inclusion in the 9th Edition of "Seamens Handbook for Shore Leave." - - Message dated Oct. 30, 1944, To The American Merchant Marine Library Association signed by the President, wherein he said "During this war the officers and men of our Merchant Marine have rendered outstanding service. Our nation can be truly proud of them. In the peace to come our merchant vessels will take the American Flag to the ports of the world and our merchant seamen will be emissaries of good will to our friends and neighbors of other countries. This volume should aid our seamen to become acquainted with the better things of the ports they visit on our American flag vessels. It should materially aid in making sea service a more interesting avocation."

Dear Mr. Early:

The tiny envelope contains the "Order of Saint Catherine of Melusin," an Armenian distinction awarded to my Father in the "gay nineties" which years, to my notion, were anything but gay especially for the Armenians.

My Father (non Germanic) was a very distinguished Mason, Belgian-American patriot, and Altruist.

Without mentioning my name, would you be so kind as to present this medal to President Roosevelt with a message that it is of good augury either to his desk, or to his person, or to his stamp collection -- or wherever it makes contact; all of this without spagy-rism, I assure you.

I would love to do this anonymously, but have been afraid the medal might get lost. May I, therefore, depend upon your kindness for this attempt at anonymity promising you that at some future date I will send you a review of my Father's Masonic activities, delivered February 1943 in Washington, D. C., and not far from your office.

Yours very sincerely,

New York, N.Y.
Sept. 10, 1944.

Writes the President sending by separate mail a copy of "The Great News" by Charles Ferguson, which the writer published in 1915. Believes it was the first book about Cartels published in America. Was written as a result of an assignment given to the author by President Wilson and may interest the President at this time. Thinks that the President may not have heard that the collection of the President's letters gathered together by the American Autograph Shop and catalogued by them in 1934 is to be sold at auction in New York Oct. 28th. This reminds the writer of the sale of the President's discarded books and duplicates under the writer's management in 1925. ---Miss Tully, Sept. 25th, wrote to Mr. Kennerly thanking him on behalf of the President and saying the President well remembers the very successful sale of his duplicate books which Mr. Kennerly conducted in 1925. LETS DREAM

In His all encompassing Wisdom,
He blessed us with the joy to Dream,
Of Massive Towering Mountains,
And many a foam drenched stream.

Lets Dream that the World is full of beauty,
That everywhere there are Roses in bloom,
Know that there is pleasure in duty,
Sunshine where we thought there was gloom.

Lets Dream we have done with all repining,
Embrace the joy that our longings are still,
Wander where the Sunshine is shining,
To guild the green slopes of the hill.

Lets Dream where the birds are flinging,
Their songs of delight upon the air,
Lets be where the World is ever singing,
Reverently Pray for unending Peace Everywhere.

Registered Communication to the President. A book entitled, FLORES Y FRUTOS, by Ricardo Daniel Gonzalez -- Under date of July 27, 1944, the author has written the following on the flyleaf: "To the first citizen of the United States of America, Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Esteemed Sir: I take pleasure in sending you cordial and fraternal greetings. RICARDO DANIEL GONZALEZ. P. S. The sole aim which guides me in addressing you is that of improving relations between your country and mine. In the statement last night of the Minister of Foreign Relations of Argentina, General Orlando Peluffo mentioned George Washington. I, too, mention him on page 34." -- the subtitle of the book indicates that it is a "reader for children."
