My dear Mr. Cudia:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of August thirty-first.

The President, as you know, has been working under tremendous pressure in launching his program for economic recovery and, therefore, since the beginning of the Administration it has been the policy for me to receive on his behalf all gifts, petitions and so forth. I will be glad to receive the N. R. A. emblem you wish to present at any time convenient to you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:-

In furtherance of the publicity campaign of the N R A movement in general, and of my part of it in particular,
I wish to suggest a public presentation of bronze replicas of my design of the N R A Emblem, to both President Roosevelt and to Administrator General Johnson. (photo of emblem in plaster

Publicity of this nature will unquestionably increase the sales of my plaster models, thus providing more men with more jobs and in turn giving this great national effort greater impetus from this source.

I am proud of my work; it has been proclaimed an object of beauty and art. It is substantial and dignified in appearance and esteemed by those who possess them.

The suggested presentation, in the presence of newspaper representatives and photographers should prove very helpful.

If my suggestion meets with President Roosevelt's

Dear Miss LeHand:

Last Saturday we had a very enjoyable visit from Mr. J. B. Shearer, of New York, and at his suggestion we are taking the liberty of shipping you a case of a brand new product, Warren's Selected Oyster (Puree Process).

This is the only article of its kind on the market, and under our special process retains the whole flavor of the oyster and its wonderful food value.

We hope you might have the opportunity of having this served to our President, and are positively sure he will like it. We hope you will try it, too.

Dear Mr. President:-

You are certainly our Grand Young Man - I do not say this because of my modest personal interest in the gold industry, but solely, believe me, because of my grateful appreciation of your wise understanding of the basic interests of our Country: Sweet Land of Liberty (?) of You I Sing (Frank Franklin Roosevelt) etc.

The volume and velocity of your activities for the best interests of the United States - all things considered - and the marvelous range of your vision and understanding, are stirring subjects with me. So pray pardon the liberty I take in thus unloading upon you, in safety valve fashion, my enthusiasm for your Greatest of Great Administrations, so splendidly characterized by intimate insight into issues, Great and Small alike of our Country's make-up and needs.

Sincerely,

Your admiring friend of the unimportant ranks.

P. S. Under separate cover I am sending you my father's little volume "Recollections of a Life" recording Poughkeepsie Memories among others of his First Congregational Church, Mills Street, during war days. It is a beautiful piece of English, if nothing more. Should your grand children chance upon the little volume in your library, they may also prize it for its historical value.

Dear Mr. President:

Twenty odd years ago Mr. John A. Young of Greensboro, this state, came to the mountains in search of a location for an apple orchard. In a cove, sheltered by the Great Blue Ridge Mountain, this orchard was located and planted. Protected from wind, storm and frost the trees bring forth fruit in abundance.

This man, a believer in God and a lover of nature and the great out of doors, was a Roosevelt Democrat. He died three years ago but with the hope and faith that you would be chosen to lead us out and forward into a New Day.

I am sending you by express a basket of Magnum Bonum apples from this orchard, which when allowed to mellow a few days will be found very palatable. With this small gift is sent the love and esteem of plain mountain folk away back in the Virginia Hills.

This letter is not written nor the apples sent in expectation of a reply for your time is far too valuable. It is hoped that you enjoy the fruit and it is for this that the shipment was made.

The writer is serving as Chairman of the Local NRA Committee and endeavoring to put it over 100 per cent in our City.

Sometime ago, I sent Captain Starling a Shady Oak Farm hat, which is soft, flexible and comfortable. The Captain indicated that you had admired the hat and recently, while in Washington, I asked Gus to give me the proper size of your hat so I could send one to you.

Gus informed me that your size was $7\frac{1}{4}$ and his size was $7-1/8$. So, I am sending both of them in the same box - one marked "For The Boss" and the other "Gus" - which I trust both of you will accept with my sincere best wishes and the hope that we may have the privilege, as well as the pleasure, sometime of having you pay us a visit in Fort Worth for a days outing at Shady Oak Farm, where we have some fine bass fishing and just the kind of a place which would give you a real days rest and recreation.

Incidentally, Mr. Garner, Mr. Farley and part of your official family are expected to be our guests in Fort Worth on October 18th. We are extremely anxious to have Marvin McIntyre and Frank Walker come along with the crowd. Frank can meet some of his contributors and Marvin, as your representative, can maintain the dignity of the occasion. Naturally we are looking forward to this visit with anticipated pleasure.

As I recall, you previously stated that you would like sometime to make a trip to Texas and I assure you nothing would make "us" country folks happier than to have the privilege of having you with us at some future convenient date. Dear Amon:

Thanks for your letter of the 15th. You are very thoughtful, as usual. The hat fits me beautifully and I enjoy wearing it, being keenly aware of the sentiment.

However, you cannot bribe me to let Mac go. We are much too busy, and I am afraid we will have to sacrifice dignity at Fort Worth, in order to maintain it at the White House, in exactly the degree consistent with Democratic ideals.

With kindest regards,

Very sincerely

A check of 905 questionnaires returned to date by Fort Worth employers to NRA headquarters here shows:

An increase of 3,555 new employes.

Monthly payrolls increased $304,353, or $3,652,241 a year.

An increase of 3,555 employes by 905 Fort Worth firms under NRA is shown to date in a check of questionnaires sent by these concerns to headquarters here. These same firms reported an annual payroll increase of $3,652,241.

H. S. Foster, executive secretary of the recovery committee, said there has been a total of 4,104 firms which have returned their questionnaires to headquarters and that there are approximately 1,000 more concerns yet to be heard from. There were approximately 6,500 questionnaires mailed altogether two weeks ago, but many of them were sent to firms now doing business under new names. Others were sent to employes and not to employers and there were still other reasons why no answer could be expected from some other concerns.

A final checkup now is being made of the 1,000 firms still considered live prospects. The NRA office force is narrowing this list down and Thursday a second campaign to get questionnaires from the remaining employers will be waged. This is expected to be completed within one day. Foster expects the figures on employment and payroll increase will be made larger when the final check is made.

R. E. Harding, chairman of the recovery committee, and A. A. Luyd, vice chairman, as well as members of the recovery committee of more than 200 who recently made the questionnaire canvass, are encouraged over the showing made by Fort Worth employers. They point to the employment and payroll figures as concrete evidence of the success of the recovery movement in this city. Walter McRae, the 16-year Polytechnic high school student admitted sending a $500 extort letter to Dr. Tom W. Brabham, president of Texas Woman's College, yesterday pleaded guilty before Judge Young.

He was given a suspended sentence for the remainder of his mine. McRae, who lives at 3322 G, came to court with his father, T. McRae. The youth showed emotion during the trial. When asked by Judge Young why he had written the letter to Dr. Brabham, he replied he did not know.

AUTHOR & PUBLISHER OF BOOKS POINTING THE WAY TO BETTER GOVERNMENT

★ Socialized Money — Remarkable as a beneficent social invention no less than for its fearless analysis of the existing money-credit monopoly.

★ The Net-Worth Tax — A system of direct taxation designed to make all wealth contribute to the cost of government, and for the more equal distribution of wealth.

1525 FORTY-FIFTH AVENUE SOUTHWEST
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

August 28, 1933

Franklin D. Roosevelt,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

There will be sent you soon after the first of September one of a complimentary edition of twenty-five copies of my new book, "Socialized Money".

This work analyzes, quite independently, the giant phenomena of unemployment and indebtedness and their relation in cause and effect. It develops also the theory of a divided field of wealth — half of it receiving interest, the other half paying interest. With incidence of both interest upon governmental, industrial and commercial indebtedness, and of taxes to support government, falling to wealth under interest, and with the masses being obliged to live out of wealth under interest, the principal cause of unemployment and consequent underconsumption and diminishing production is clearly apparent.

It is demonstrated also that the present monstrous indebtedness has its source in the nation's non-social money and credit monopoly.

Socialization of the Monetary System of the Nation — through employment of a hitherto unusual fiscal resource, bringing into reciprocal and compensating relationship the wealth of the people, revenue derivable therefrom and the medium of exchange — is so incomparably superior, from the standpoint of society, to any non-social system as to cause one to marvel that it has never before been discovered and put to use. This is all the more evident from the fact that power to stabilize the price level is inherent in the system itself.

With the assurance that an expression from you upon the merits or demerits of this work will be appreciated, but leaving that entirely to your own pleasure, I am,

Respectfully,

H. C. Campbell

Dear Mr. President:-

I enclose as a gift to you a plaque which represents my conception of what is partially wrong with the Country at present, namely, the refusal of the people to "THINK"; hence the lack of confidence either in themselves or in the future prosperity of our Country.

As a good sailor and a good Christian, this may serve as an inspiration to you in these distressing times.

Your far sighted, humanitarian policies makes me doubly proud to be an American citizen under such a President.

Dear Mr. President

I admire your courage very much in trying to preside over our vast amount of people in the United States.

I am learning to be an artist and the first sketch of you. I am sending to you hoping to do better next time.

I hope you appreciate the drawing as I was proud of my first sketch of one of our President.

I wish to do a painting in colors of you but will have to take more lessons before attempting to try it.

My greatest ambition is to be a painter. If you appreciate my picture I will send one done in colors for you, you will.

Dear President Roosevelt, all 9-29-33

You will you receive an eagle made out of reed that I am sending you, which will arrive soon. I began to construct this eagle early in March for, not having worked for two years I had no method of occupying my manual mind. Though, when I started my art I had the slightest notion that America would adopt the eagle for their recovery symbol. Thus, as a good citizen of United States I immediately decided to send my treasure to you, dear President, so that you may have an imitation of one in natural reed, instead of the paper eagle.

I firmly desire, dear Chief, that with the coming of the natural eagle may come the immediate comeback of Prosperity.

Louis McH. Howe, Esq.
Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

On September 22, 1933 my client, Vincent Cammarano, of this City addressed a letter to President Roosevelt informing him that he was sending him an Eagle and a stand which he had made out of reed.

On September 29, 1933 in a letter you acknowledged receipt thereof and the letter of September 22, 1933.

Subsequently and in the issue of the week of November 20-24, 1933 of Current Events on Page 58 thereof appeared what seemed to him to be the reed Eagle that he sent to the President.

When he came in to me I advised him that he probably was in error and that the Eagle that he had sent to the White House actually was received and there put to some good use.

However to satisfy his curiosity I told him that I would communicate with you to determine whether or not the Eagle and stand that he sent was the one shown in the picture on Page 58 of the Current Events.

Trusting that this will not put you out in any respect, I beg to remain,

Yours respectfully,

Nelson Harris

My dear Miss Cacich:

Your letter of September sixth has been received and the President requests me to thank you warmly for writing and for the scrapbook which you were good enough to send him. He is pleased to have this book, and deeply appreciates this evidence of your friendly interest and good will.

Very sincerely yours,

M. A. LeHand,
PRIVATE SECRETARY

Dear president Roosevelt as a token of appreciation for what you have done for our country since you have entered office, I am sending you a scrapbook containing pictures of you, your family, your cabinet and your followers etc.

although I am only sixteen years old it may be surprising that I should take such great interest in this political world of ours. I have been your follower and supporter since you were governor of New York. Never have I failed to listen to one of your speeches if in any way

Yours Very Respectfully

Dear Mr.

Our country needed a great leader and the people certainly chose wisely when they put this almost ruined country of ours into your strong capable hands. I admire your patience and courage for I know it is no easy task for you to put good old Uncle Sam on his feet again.

You have swept the country with your rapid succession of remedies to help us one & all, and I heartily agree with Will Rogers who says "Is there anything that can stop this man, Roosevelt?"

Thanking you for taking part of your valuable time to read my important letter. I will close hoping you will keep this token of loyalty, respect and love as one of your many souvenirs I remain, secret and the people certainly choose wisely when they put this almost ruined country of ours into your strong capable hands.

I admire your patience and courage for I know it is no easy task for you to put good into it. I wish you had put it into it.

P.S

I would appreciate some souvenir from you even though it be a few words in response to this letter.
