December 2, 1933.

Dear Mr. Howe:

My dear Mr. Crouse:

The President was very happy to have the picture you sent with your note of the seventh and appreciates your thoughtfulness in sending it to him. I am sorry you do not like the two photographs we sent you but perhaps at a later date you will see something you think more "striking" that you can use for your portrait. Again thanking you for sending along the McKinley photograph.

Very sincerely yours,

LOUIS McH. HOWE
Secretary to the President

Mr. Louis McKinley Howe
Secretary to President Roosevelt,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Howe:

Recently I received the two photographs of President Roosevelt you so kindly sent me, from which I am to make the portrait I wished to produce.

I wish to thank you for your consideration and trouble, but I am afraid they are not the strong, contrasty type I can use. I think of the President in a much different manner than these photos portray him. He has a lot more character than these prints show and this photographer has gotten. The Photos appear to have been highly retouched thereby destroying the real character lines I need. The photographer has weilded his retouching quite too freely and attempted to improve on the fine features of Mr. Roosevelt.

All of my successful portraits have been made from photographs I have made myself, but naturally, in this instance, it is quite impossible to do. I would much prefer to deny myself the pleasure and privilege of making the drawing if I cannot have the President as he really is. My thought is a striking, strong side view with contrasty lighting.

I am enclosing an original photograph for you to present to the President with my sincere compliments and good wishes--a photograph I, myself, took some 40 years ago--(I was possibly 8 or 9 years old, I do not recall the exact date of the occasion)

It was made at the time President McKinley attended the funeral of General Sherman in Mansfield, Ohio. (my home)

President McKinley had just left his train at the depot and was being driven to the Sherman residence. This photograph has never been used and is one of possibly 3 in existence. It is interesting inasmuch as it was possible for me, as a small boy and with a very cheap box camera, to be able to get as close to make the exposure.

I believe the President will enjoy having this original and exclusive print in his personal collection--one he could not possible get elsewhere.

I am only sorry I cannot proceed with his portrait based on the photos you sent me, which I am returning to you herewith. If at some future time, he is photographed in some striking natural way & you remember my needs, I shall certainly appreciate deeply being remembered with a print.

I trust the President will receive with interest my photograph of the past President William McKinley,

My apologies to you for writing so long a letter.

Thank you, Respectfully Frederick F. Crouse.

Esteemed Sir:

As a New Year's Greeting to you, I have ordered to be shipped from John S. Weaver, Lebanon, Pa., a famous product which is made in this community.

Your friend of the past, Al Smith, has caused so much comment by calling the United States medium of exchange a "baloney dollar" that I thought you might be tempted to return the compliment by showing him a "dollar bologna".

It occurs to me, that a picture of you holding this dollar bologna in your hand, might be a fitting New Year's card for him.

May I also take the liberty to suggest that after your next cabinet meeting, which must be a serious affair these days, you have some of this bologna sliced and served to all cabinet members, with a glass of good, real beer.

Be assured that a great many good old Pennsylvania Republicans appreciate your constructive efforts and believe implicitly in the N. R. A.

A Happy New Year.

Dear Sir:

I have just returned home from Washington after delivering the cake to your residence personally, and regretted very much that I was unable to see and meet you as that was my main purpose in going to Washington. I sincerely hope that this emblematic cake meets with your utmost approval.

I left a copy describing the meaning of each individual feature of this cake at your home. I trust that you have acquired enough confidence in my being a faithful and honest citizen, who is exceedingly interested in your administration, that you will honor me by eating the Fruit Cake foundation of this cake at your Christmas Dinner.

I would like very much to put the picture of the cake in the Movie News Reel, but conditions are very poor. By doing this, it would show the world that the President of the U.S.A. has many valuable and true friends.

With the Season's Greetings for a Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year and many thanks for your past correspondence which I hope will prompt you to answer this,

I remain,

Very truly yours,

The cake in its entirety represents the United States of America. The base, upon which rests three upper units, is indicative of the mass of Americans, all blended into a harmonious whole. The 48 stars around the tiers stand for the 48 states, each separate and distinct, yet all contributing to make the perfected Union. The shaft represents the centralization of responsibility and authority, in the President and in the Capitol. The rough outer surface shows the impenetrable rights and safeguards which surround the President, and the Flag representing the Republic for which it stands.

To the Honorable President and Mrs. F.D. Roosevelt, Greetings:

This memento is presented as a token

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt

Dear President Roosevelt:

We have had so many favorable comments on our Christmas show window at this bank that we feel justified in sending you herewith some prints of the display. Except for our suggestions as to the identification marks of the presents in Santa's sleigh, the idea was conceived and executed by Mr. F. L. Clawson of this city, from whom a letter to yourself is likewise enclosed.

May we add that our entire organization is enthusiastic in its support of your entire program for recovery, including bank guarantee of deposits, which so many bankers, particularly in the east, are accepting with rather poor grace. Our president, Mr. M. S. Eccles, is chairman of the C. W. A. for Utah and has gained nation-wide recognition for his spoken views on the economic situation and the way to its improvement through governmental activity. Mr. E. G. Bennett, formerly our managing vice-president, is now a director of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation by your appointment.

Wishing you and your family a Very Merry Christmas and a Healthy and Prosperous 1934, we are

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. President:

I have just had the pleasure of re-reading Justice Brandeis' "Other People's Money" originally published as a result of the Pujo investigation. The lapse of years has only served to emphasize the truth and vision of the book and the man. If every citizen could read it today your position in your fight against the money power would be impregnable.

You may be interested in knowing that "Other People's Money" has just been re-published by the National Home Library Foundation in the 15¢ Jacket Library edition. I am taking the liberty of enclosing a copy to you.

If there is any way that the Administration can bring this book before the public, I feel sure it would result in a furtherance of the ideas and ideals you are so ably and courageously sponsoring.

Sincerely yours,

W. B. Clark

Your letter of November 13th has been received.

I also am very sorry that it was impossible to not be able to see the President while I was in Washington. Probably I was asking too much but it would surely have been a real thrill to have met the President. Thank you nevertheless for your kind letter.

The above letter head will explain the kind of business that I manage. We have just gone into production on hand made walnut picture frames. They are really beautiful and are sold to only the most exclusive shops in the country.

We want to present one of these frames to the President with his or Mrs. Roosevelt's picture mounted. As we would rather use a real photograph than a copy would you please do us the favor of sending us the photograph that would be desired in this frame. A seven by nine photograph should be sent.

If any of the record is not correct and you wish changes, or anything additional added, will not consider that the "Roosevelt Historical Bed Spread" is finished until you are entirely pleased.

The lace of Mitt's used is the old fashion "wheat head" design. The long and short stitches around the hem represent the President's words of "The long and short of things". The omitted square corners represent his words of "On the Square".

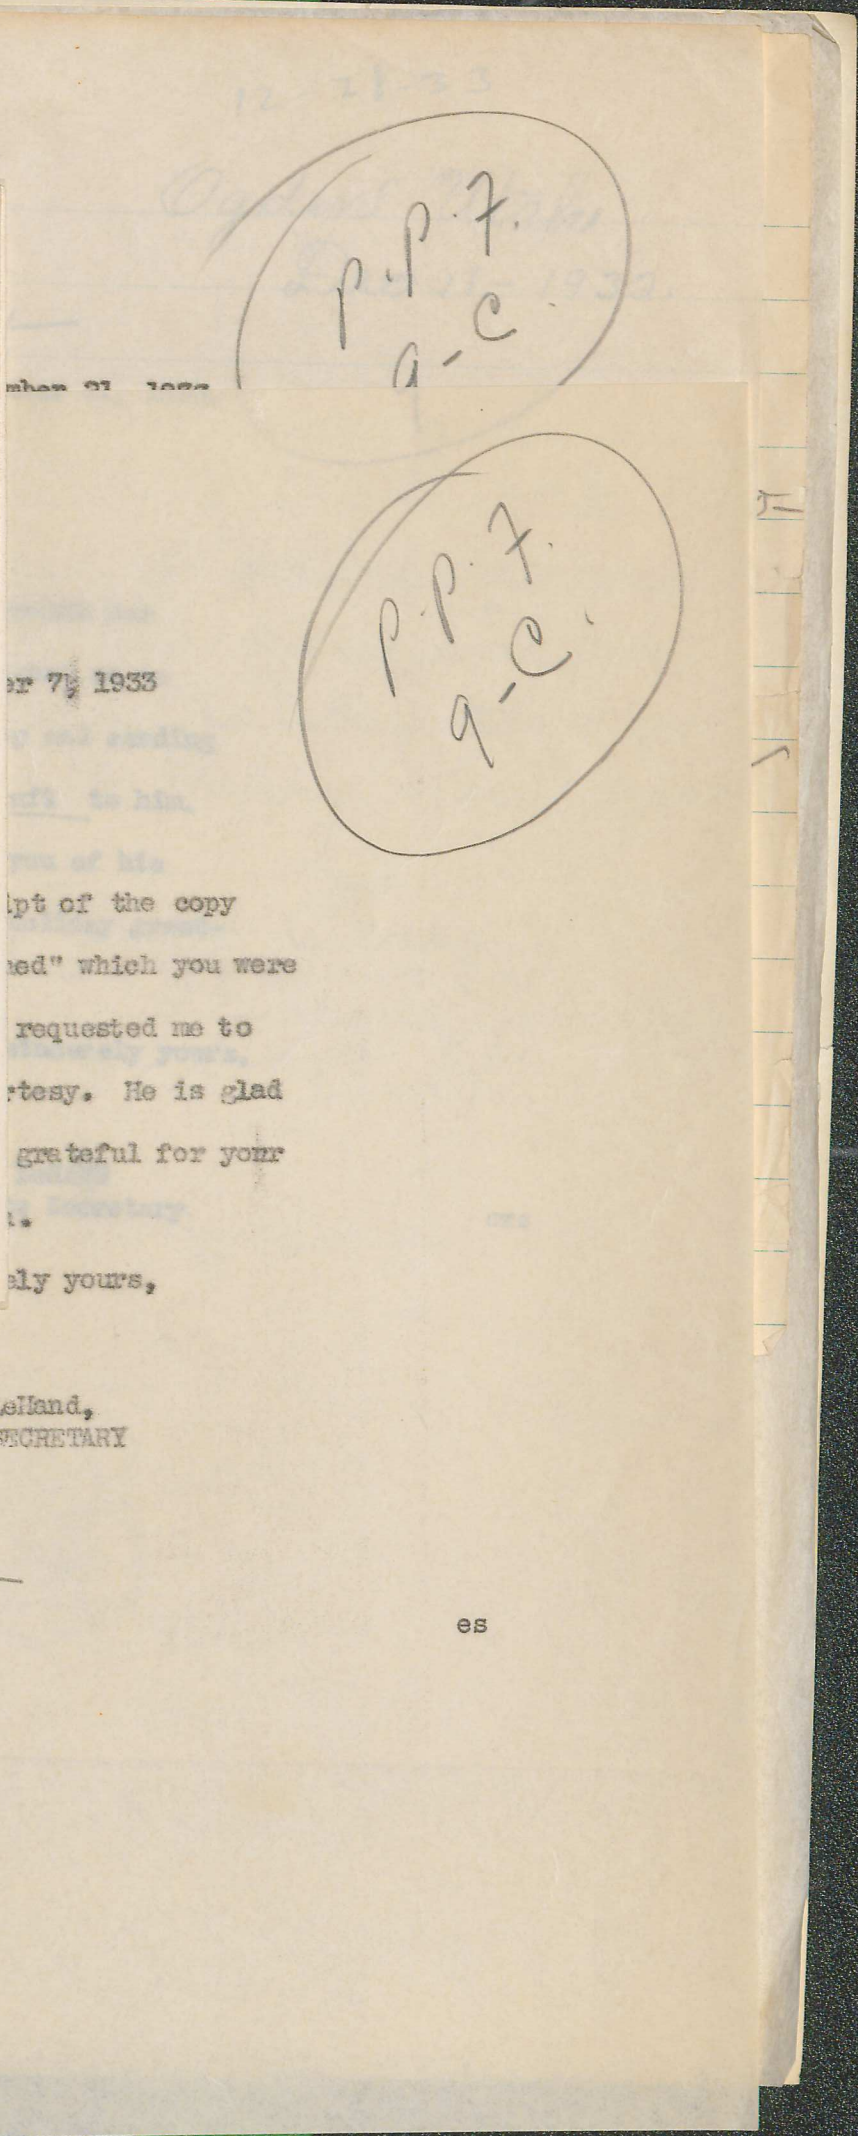

The center circle represents the Sun, and according to old sayings the halo around the Sun means "stormy weather" (which we knew would be when the Pres. backed his policies in favor of the forgotten man against the financiers).

The full appearance of the Sun represents the President in the heights of his career.

The golden streamers represent the rays of the Sun, and between those rays, the Sun throws the light on the President's popular votes by States. Each State that given him the majority has a star in light gold, and the 6 States that gave Mr. Hoover the majority has Blue Stars. In the center of each star is a Capitol letter and by assembling them you will notice that they read Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President of The United States.

The open book represents the President's open record.

The material & threads are a Georgia product, made by a Georgia woman, having lived of Miss Nelle Franklin, Administrator

I extend greetings to you our President, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in behalf of the Civil Works Administration Sewing Room of Columbus.

Through your generosity this project was made possible. With Miss Nelle Franklin as director of all Civil Works in Muscogee County, we cannot fail. Miss Franklin is not only a trained Welfare Worker, but is a conscientious christian who is ever ready to assist in any possible way. With you in Washington as our President, Miss Franklin in Columbus as director, and a most worthy group of women in the Sewing Room, I do not hesitate to say it is and will continue to be a success.

My dear Friends:

The President is in receipt of the copy of the book "America Self Contained" which you were good enough to send him, and has requested me to thank you cordially for your courtesy. He is glad to have the volume and is indeed grateful for your thought of him in this connection.

This sewing project has meant much to this group of women. Where distress and sorrow were only written, you now see smiles, but often mingled with tears of praise and appreciation to you, our most beloved President and inspired leader.

In token of our love and appreciation, I present to you this crocheted bed spread made by the employees of our Sewing Room.

This is indeed a Georgia product. The cotton was grown in Georgia, thread spun in Georgia and at no other place than our own Swift Spinning Mill of Columbus.

As supervisor of this sewing project, I personally thank you for your generosity and pray that God may see fit to spare you as our leader for many years to come.

Dear Colonel Howe:

Under separate cover, I am sending you a calendar which, because of its national interest, what the establishment of Maryland signified and commemorates, and because of the beauty of the work itself, the President might like to see. Perhaps Mrs. Roosevelt might like it. If it is impossible to unload it on either of them, you may keep it. I hope you understand this last statement.

Altho my contacts were more or less limited in number, they were rather representative, and you may be interested to know that Canada is watching the Administration and, particularly, the President personally, with great interest, confidence, and a strong hope which, among a large number of people, results in criticism of what I understand to be the current conservative government there.

There are so many things I might wish you that I am just going to say, "My Very Best Wishes for the New Year."

In the past, Texas has developed and perfected the finest grapefruit, watermelons, pecans and many other eatables too numerous to mention; however it seems that we have held back the best for the last.

The rarest delicacy to come on the market from this section of the country is the smoked turkey - grown, raised, tutored and smoked at Shady Oak Farm. I am sending you by todays prepaid express a "sample copy" which I hope will arrive in good condition. If it is not entirely satisfactory, your money will be refunded.

December 19, 1933.

Mr. Marvin H. McIntyre,

Washington, D.C.

Dear Marvin:

Sometime ago I wrote you to tell the President that I would send him two milk fed turkeys for Christmas and asked you to be on the lookout for them and one for your own Christmas dinner. Through some misunderstanding there has been a slip-up in having the turkeys prepared. In other words, they should have been feeding them on a milk diet for the past two weeks - during the time I was on my hunting trip in Mexico.

I was greatly disappointed when I returned and found the turkeys were not ready - not that it will make any particular difference to the President as I am sure he will have many turkeys sent him, however I was exceedingly anxious to have him eat a Shady Oak Farm turkey for Christmas and that you and Mrs. McIntyre should enjoy one also.

In lieu of the live turkey I intended to send you, I will send within a few days (Perhaps not in time for Christmas) a real smoked turkey, a rare delicacy I think you will enjoy. I trust it will be acceptable even though Christmas may have passed before its arrival.

I had two weeks of real hunting in old Mexico, killing three bucks, three wild turkeys, a wolf and crippled a bear. Believe it or not, I shot his "pa" and he did not seem to care. We had a nice time - traveled about 1,100 miles by automobile, road fifteen or twenty miles horseback in the mountains and walked about sixty miles. When I crossed the border at Del Rio on my return the Custom Authority insisted that I should either be dipped or sheared as I had two weeks growth of beard.

I received your measurements for the suit which will be made up sometime in January or early part of February, depending on how soon the Texas

TRANSMITS AND DELIVERS THE WITHIN MESSAGE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unrepeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, THIS IS AN UNREPEATED MESSAGE AND PAID FOR AS SUCH, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the UNREPEATED MESSAGE rate, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any message received for transmission at the REPEATED-MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the SPECIALLY VALUED MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum at which such message shall be valued, in writing, by the sender thereof when tendered for transmission and for which payment is made or agreed to be made of the amount of the repeated-message rate and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such written valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company or by any other means of communication when necessary to reach its destination.

3. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the Company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

4. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

5. The Company shall not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

6. It is agreed that prompt and correct transmission and delivery of this message shall be presumed in any action for recovery of tolls thereto; subject, however, to rebuttal by competent evidence.

POSTAL TELEGRAPH-CABLE COMPANY

TRANSMITS AND DELIVERS THE WITHIN MESSAGE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the un-repeated message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, THIS IS AN UNREPEATED MESSAGE AND PAID FOR AS SUCH, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this Company as follows:

1. The Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the UNREPEATED MESSAGE rate, whether caused by the negligence of its servants or otherwise, beyond the sum of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any message received for transmission at the REPEATED-MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the SPECIALLY VALUED MESSAGE rate, beyond the sum at which such message shall be valued, in writing, by the sender thereof when tendered for transmission and for which payment is made or agreed to be made of the amount of the repeated-message rate and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one per cent of the amount by which such written valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages.

2. The Company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company or by any other means of communication when necessary to reach its destination.

3. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the Company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the Company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.

4. No responsibility attaches to this Company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

5. The Company shall not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

6. It is agreed that prompt and correct transmission and delivery of this message shall be presumed in any action for recovery of tolls thereto; subject, however, to rebuttal by competent evidence.

7. Special terms governing the transmission of messages under the classes of messages enumerated below shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all foregoing terms.

8. NO EMPLOYEE OF THIS COMPANY IS AUTHORIZED TO VARY THE FOREGOING.

A. H. GRISWOLD, EXECUTIVE VICE-PRESIDENT

CLASSES OF SERVICE

DOMESTIC MESSAGES

FAST TELEGRAMS. A full-rate expedited service.

DAY LETTERS. A deferred day service at rates lower than the fast telegram rate. One and one-half times the Night Letter rate for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of the initial rate for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO DAY LETTERS. In further consideration of the reduced rate for this special "Day Letter" service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

(a) Day Letters may be forwarded by the Telegraph Company as a deferred service and the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter is, in all respects, subordinate to the priority of transmission and delivery of full rate telegrams.

(b) This Day Letter is received subject to the express understanding and agreement that the Company does not undertake that a Day Letter shall be delivered on the day of its date absolutely and at all events; but that the Company's obligation in this respect is subject to the condition that there shall remain sufficient time for the transmission and delivery of such Day Letter on the day of its date during regular office hours, subject to the priority of the transmission of full rate telegrams under the conditions named above.

NIGHT MESSAGES. Accepted up to 2.00 a. m. at reduced rates to be sent during the night and delivered not earlier than the morning of the ensuing business day. Night messages may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressee, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Messages at destination, postage prepaid.

NIGHT LETTERS. Accepted up to 2.00 a. m. for delivery on the morning of the ensuing business day, at rates still lower than night message rates, as follows: The fast telegram rate for 10 words shall be charged for the transmission of 50 words or less, and one-fifth of such rate for 10 words shall be charged for each additional 10 words or less.

SPECIAL TERMS APPLYING TO NIGHT LETTERS. In further consideration of the reduced rate for this special "Night Letter" service, the following special terms in addition to those enumerated above are hereby agreed to:

(a) Night Letters may at the option of the Telegraph Company be mailed at destination to the addressee, and the Company shall be deemed to have discharged its obligation in such cases with respect to delivery by mailing such Night Letters at destination, postage prepaid.

CABLE MESSAGES

FULL RATE MESSAGES receive regular and prompt service in their order of filing. Code language permitted.

DEFERRED RATE MESSAGES at one-half of the full rate to follow full rate messages. Must be in plain language of country of origin, or of destination, or in French. Full particulars as to countries where this class of service is effective will be furnished upon application to any Postal Telegraph office.

NIGHT CABLE LETTERS at reduced rates. Must be in plain language of country of origin, or of destination, or in French where transmitted by telegraph to destination. Subordinated to the priority of transmission of full and deferred rate messages. May be posted, when sender so directs, to countries where this service is not available, at tariffs to countries from which such messages are posted. Under latter circumstances, messages must contain complete mailing address including chargeable posting instructions (i. e., "Post London," etc.). Minimum word basis of twenty to twenty-five words applied. Code addresses may be used except for messages delivered by post. Figures explained by text admitted. Indicator "NLT" required and charged for as one word. For further particulars apply at any Postal Telegraph office.

WEEK END CABLE LETTERS at exceptionally low rates. Accepted under conditions applicable to Night Cable Letters, excepting that Week End Cable Letters will be accepted during the week up to midnight Saturday for telegraphic delivery on the following Monday morning. Indicator "WLT" required and charged for as one word. For further particulars apply at any Postal Telegraph office.

My dear Mr. Carpenter:

The President has read with much interest your letter of December eighth and is very glad to know that the Code is working out so nicely with the Northwest Fruit Industries. Thank you ever so much for writing him.

The box of delicious pears sent from Medford arrived in fine condition and I am sure the President and his family will greatly enjoy them.

Very sincerely yours,

my dear Frank:

a box of Comice pears was sent to you from medford last Monday. I planned to have them conditioned in New York because they really are of superb quality when properly ripened but the office was so excited when I ordered them that the plan was overlooked.

It will interest you to know that we are operating in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana most successfully under our Northwest Fruit Industries code. Prices to the growers are already higher and more important still is the fact that the consumer is getting a more honest pack and more value for her dollar. Also export demand is again making itself a factor in spite of tariff and quota restrictions.

I believe that practically all of us who live West of the Hudson River rejoice in your leadership.

The merriest of Christmas and the Happiest of New Years to you.

Sincerely Yours

Donard Carpenter

My dear Sir:-

Referring to your letter of October 21 last:-
I was tickled to see the Steel men had to scale down their figures- $40.00 - $37.50 to lower still; they did not want their books examined- indeed no.

Reading that the President has a collection of miniature volumes, I enclose a little Almanac which he might like to add; it has been in my family around 60 years. Will you kindly hand to him with my best wishes for his health and happiness in the coming year.
And the same good wishes for yourself.

Yours very truly,

F. S. Cahill.

Many thanks
