My dear Mr. Cohen:

Your letter of February ninth has been received and I beg to say that the President is not interested in the matter to which you refer. However, he is indeed grateful to you for your interest in his welfare.

Very sincerely yours,

I believe that riding a bicycle will not only be beneficial to you, but will be great pleasure when you are at Warm Springs.

M. A. LeHand,
PRIVATE SECRETARY so kind as to accept a 3-wheel bicycle to ride and enjoy yourself at Warm Springs. A bicycle that will be easy to ride - easy to handle and not very heavy?

Berry Cohen, Esq.,
114-16 Edgewood Avenue,
Atlanta, Georgia. If you will accept this bicycle, please let me know so that I can arrange to have same at Warm Springs when you visit there again. I would like to know when you contemplate visiting there again.

I am sure that you will enjoy riding this bicycle, however, if you don't find time to ride, you could turn it over to the Warm Springs Foundation to be used as they see fit.

Would like to mention that Mr. Hugh Howell, your Georgia chairman, is a very personal friend of mine, and I would like very much to present this little gift to you thru Mr. Howell.

Assuring you that your acceptance of this little gift will make me feel highly honored, I am

RE: Joseph S. Stringham -
Subject of letter February 20-1934.

Dear Mr. President:

Since writing you yesterday, it has occurred to me that you might be interested in

The Story of
THE U. S. S. "YOSEMITE"
IN 1898
Compiled from Available Records by Joseph S. Stringham.

I am therefore sending you a copy under separate cover.

These side lights on professional men are most interesting. They often reveal characteristics quite unsuspected.
This little book 'lifts the veil' on Mr. Stringham as a writer, not only of prose but of occasional verse. Perhaps more interesting still, he writes music, some of which I am tempted to send you but will refrain.

Music from the Hill, from all parts of our country, from all over the world, comes in upon you with too much of a blare to tune in on the voice of one who seeks and finds sources of enjoyment along the pathways of his professional life.

With the keenest appreciation of your efforts to bring harmony out of the discords which now prevail, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Roosevelt:

Please accept, with our kindest regards, this gift, as a token of our appreciation for the many good things you have done for us. This company of Civilian Conservation Corps workers, one hundred and ninety-two strong, is behind you one hundred per cent. Each man here is well aware of the great good you have done for him, and each man wishes you the best fortune in the big task that confronts you.

Just a word about the history of the cane we are presenting to you. This young Diamond Willow tree grew less than half a mile from our camp, located on Big Lake, near Cloquet, Minnesota. This young tree was cut and made into this cane by Mr. Adolph Tretsven, Local Experienced Man, from Duluth, Minnesota. Mr. Tretsven gave the cane to the Company, and we are in turn presenting it to you. We hope that the gift will cause you to give us a moment's thought during your very busy day.

Very respectfully yours,

The Men in Company 1760 CCC.

Dear President;—Please pardon me for making the liberty
My dear Mr. and Mrs. Councillor; I want to inform you that I am sending to you under separate cover, a small gift, you may count on it for you.
The President is in receipt of your kind letter of February fourth and has noted all that you say. He thanks you ever so much for writing and asks me to tell you how much he appreciates the small gold safe which you were good enough to send him. He is glad to accept this beautiful gift, and is indeed grateful for the thought which prompted you to send it to him.

Very sincerely yours,
M. A. LeHand,

I and my Wife, also our families, have always been Democrats, and always will be, so would you please inform us as to where I could put in application, for Rural Route mail carrier, or hauling, mail to and from Depots, or for a motor, from this City to towns
New Castle, Ind. do you think that they will make a change in Indiana. I can furnish the best of references. I am a Democrat.

Please keep this gold safe, as a keepsake, as we would rather you would have it than any other person in the world, we do not want any publicity, or anything in return, except a picture of you and your Wife, autographed; if you care to send us one as a keepsake, hoping that this small present pleases you, and wishing you the best of success, in all your

Dear President;-Please pardon me for taking the liberty of writing to you direct, I want to inform you that I am sending to you under separate cover, a small gift, you may count it as another Birthday present for you.

I wanted to send it so it would reach you on your Birthday but as I was having it repaired, I was unable to get it in time.

It is a small gold safe, valued as a keepsake, and very, antique, if you notice the hinges on the door have been rebuilt by local jeweler, he states that he has never seen one like it. the hinges were worn into by the constant rubbing on clothing being worn as a watch fob.

I am a World War Veteran, disabled, service connected, and I formerly drew compensation, to the amount of Twenty five dollars per month, but recently received cut, I now draw Eighteen dollars & seventy five cents.

I am now employed, (myself & Wife) at the Indiana Village for Epileptics, as attendants, we are trying to own a home, we have a mortgage on it for the amount of Eight hundred fifty dollars, owe seventy five dollars, for taxes, and two hundred dollars for street assessments, we recently made application to the Home Owners Loan Corporation, at Richmond Indiana, but untill date have received no reply. Original price of property was twenty five hundred dollars, and we have put two thousand dollars in it for improvements.

I and my Wife, also our families, have always been Democrats, and always will be, so would you please inform me as to where I could put in application, for Rural Route Mail carrier, or hauling, mail to and from Depots, or for a route as they have now, by motor, from this City to towns south of here not reached by train. The Postmaster here is a republican, do you think that they will make a change in this office. I can furnish the best of references, from the best of Democrats.

Please keep this gold safe, as a keepsake, as we would rather you would have it than any other person in the world, we do not want any publicity, or anything in return, except a picture of you and your Wife, autographed, if you care to send us one as a keepsake, hoping that this small present pleases you, and wishing you the best of success, in all your dealings, we remain,

His Excellency
Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States,
Washington, D.C.

Honorable Sir:-

The good example established by the First Lady of the Land, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, in insisting that none but domestic wines shall be served at the White House table, should be emulated by every patriotic citizen of the United States.

That Mrs. Roosevelt and your goodself may have the opportunity of judging for yourselves, the merits of some of our California "Cordova" wines, we have taken the liberty of forwarding by express, charges prepaid, a case containing wines, as follows:

3 bottles Burgundy
3 bottles Chablis
2 bottles Port
2 bottles Sherry
1 bottle Mascat
1 bottle Angelica

with our compliments. The Burgundy is a product of Napa County; the Chablis from Sonoma County and the sweet wines were produced in Sacramento County, all North of the San Francisco Bay region, and celebrated in the past for the particular wines emanating therefrom.

It is hoped that the case will reach you in good condition and that the wines will be enjoyed as pure products of California's sun-kissed hills.

Wishing you continued success in establishing the confidence of the American people in the Government under your guidance, we remain,

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. President:

Under another cover, tokens of appreciation for Mrs. Roosevelt and you are being sent from many women who have been working these past few months on C.W.S. projects. These articles were made by the women on their own time, and from their own materials.

It would do your heart good to see that in the work centers set up by C.W.S., the strains have been lifted from the women to give place to a renewal of hope and courage to carry their own burdens. The women have been made happy to know that in the contemplated new program they will have work instead of a charity dole.

In our work centers we offer daily prayers for your safety and the preservation of your body and soul--and our beloved Nation.

The Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States of America,

My dear Dr. Chorley:

Your letter of February twenty-sixth has been received and I wish to thank you in the President's behalf for your courtesy in sending him the magazine to which you refer. I am very sorry indeed that because of the many similar requests constantly being received, the President finds it impossible to comply with them. The subscription blank is therefore returned herewith.

The President asks me to say that your kind expressions of confidence and approval are very gratifying.

Very sincerely yours,

The Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States of America.

Dear Mr President,

I am sending you a copy of the last issue of the Historical Magazine published by the authority of the General Convention and now entering on its third year.

Its purpose is to make available to students manuscripts relating to the history of the Episcopal Church and thus preserve it for future generations. All editorial work is done free of charge, but unless additional subscriptions are secured it will have to be given up. If you could see your way to enroll as a subscriber it would be a material help.

While I am thus writing would you permit a Hudson River neighbor of yours to say how closely we are following your plans and work for Recovery and how cordially we are rallying to your support in all your efforts. You have our unreserved confidence and affection.

Respectfully yours,

E. Clowes Chorley

Dear Sir:

Write you several weeks ago about work so I'm enclosing the letter I received which isn't very encouraging as you will note. I'm still living in hope I will find a job for it as I said in my other letter if the man still holds his job in the B.B.B. camp that I sent you the letter telling what type he was I no doubt will find work too. Even tho we do get discouraged trying.

I'm mailing in this same mail to you a tin can I made into sort of a plant, its work that helps me pass the time and I enjoy it.

If its foolish looking to you just destroy it as it cost very little to make dozens which I have and given to my friends.

Your letter to the President has been referred to this Office for reply. It is to be regretted that all of the 1900 people who registered could not have been given employment, but our quota was only 633, therefore approximately 1,260 people are still unemployed in this County. GOLD BEACH, OREGON

March 5, 1934

Franklin Delano Roosevelt
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Your Excellency:

There goes to you today under separate cover, a souvenir cane, fabricated of the rare Oregon Coast myrtlewood by our member Leo C. Davis and paid for by the free-will contributions of all the men of this company.

As you are no doubt aware, myrtlewood is found only here and in the Holy Land. We could scarcely help drawing parallels, in view of Your Excellency's humanity to man. Then, too, the vanishing Red Man, first inhabitant of this region, was of such sterling worth, so simple in his loyalties and direct in his regard - you will note the frank, direct demeanor of the First American, carved on the shaft of this cane.

Lest you misplace it and it become separated from you, we have carved in the end of the hand grip your initials. Some there are who will think they mean "For Democracy with in a Republic"; and that too will be quite appropriate.

Then, that you may never forget the identity of your men who happily present this to you, you will find, inconspicuously carved under the turn of the grip the legend: "Co. 1652 C.C.C." We didn't want that to be obtrusive, for all the world to see. You will know it is there, and we shall share a quiet confidence. If you weary in your labors for our Nation and for the World, you may lean upon it - and straightway you may hear, though ever so faintly, the booming of the surf along our coast, see the tint of morning rise over the hills on which sway and nod the green forest trees, feel beneath your hand the sturdy young shoulders of your men; men whose regard for our Nation and whose self-respect and faith you have retrieved through your unselfish wielding of the highest power to which your people can raise you.

We know you won't be able to use our modest gift in your discharge of your official duties. But when the captains and the kings have departed, and you have retired to your study for that quiet hour of peace away from the noise of the world, your eye may note our sturdy stick. May it then bring to your mind an increased confidence in the future, a mighty resurgence of strength, in the realization that you have with you a token of the proud, youthful faith which stands with eager hands to support you, with manly voice to ask simply: "God bless Your Excellency".

Leo C. Davis

My dear Miss LeHand:

I am in receipt of your kind letter of February 23, thanking me for the birthday gift and greeting. I am sorry to say this was not a birthday gift, nor a personal gift, but a belated Christmas gift from the workers on the C. W. A.

We were delayed in getting this small token sent, because we wanted something characteristic of this particular district. Finally our postmaster, Mr. James H. Cramer, who makes many different articles from this native cedar, donated this gavel. It was made from a piece of cedar from Theodore Roosevelt's old ranch in the Bad Lands of the Little Missouri River. We thought this might have particular meaning to the President, as it was here that his illustrious cousin regained his health.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Franklin:

I could hear your address of yesterday quite as clearly as though I had been in the front row of your audience. It was a great blessing that the radio was developed to such a point before you came in, for it carried to the slightest shade the rare qualities of your rich voice. Your mission is so important that the people can only take it directly from you and the world is moving at such a speed that that message has to be passed quickly. There is nothing the people are so much interested in at present as the words that come directly from you.

It happens that for several years back I have been making a study of the relative value of the messages of the great religious leaders as they come directly and as they are reinterpreted by the most devout of followers. So it is fortunate that you have so rapidly acquired this art that means everything just now. Your voice is perfect; you seem to feel all the millions who are waiting so ardently for your words; you have the picture clearly in mind that you have to pass over and your language is biblical in its presentation. I got this impression in the message before this one in talking with a porter on the railroad who was so delighted that he could understand every word of it. Although, generally, people are concerned about the immediate material results of The New Deal, it seems to me much more important that you are working out The New Deal within the framework of the Constitution and American ideals and traditions. After the people get the idea that that is possible, whether the immediate result is small or great, and they do not need to go searching after false gods, their hearts will come back and they will make it work.

I am sending you a few specimens of a New Deal out here, of an art that is as old as Democracy but has reached an entirely new stage in this beautiful Coachella Valley, for from now on this Valley is going to be able to deliver fresh, clean dates kept all the year round. When a group of Americans gets started in a new art it just has to move along and in cooperation and under the wise, understanding direction of the Agricultural Department, such a group of Americans took up date culture and more progress has been made here in the last ten years than has been made in the outside world in the last five thousand years.

1 Reply Jesse Clark.

I don't know whether or not you keep a cow at the White House but if you don't you might have your Military Attaché lasso the first one coming along Pennsylvania Avenue, have Secretary Wallace milk her, if he knows how, and try a half dozen of these dates and a glass of milk to see if you know of anything better. It requires no preparation, is delicious, digestible and nourishing--quite a perfect food and not an expensive one. Ibn Saoud, the great Arab leader, and there is no more vigorous a man in the world, has this combination for his first meal every day.

All kinds of good things to you and to your Cabinet. Come and have a sail again next year in Buzzard's Bay. I think the little one there last summer may have had much to do with the amazing way in which you have carried your very heavy load so cheerfully ever since.

Yours always faithfully,

Charles R. Crane

Dear Mr. President,

I am taking the liberty of sending you, with this, a portrait of you made some months ago by our photographer - Edward Steichen.

It occurred to me that Mrs. Roosevelt might like to keep this. I am bound to say that the print could be matted a good deal more effectively. You will note that the print is an enlargement.

Believe me,

My Dear Mr. President:

I appeal to you in behalf of the poor authors and inventors of the United States of America. Many good books and inventions never come to the people, because their creators have not necessary money to print or patent them, and cannot borrow the money. Please have a fund set aside, from which this good class of citizens may draw, giving the products as security. You could appoint one to judge as to the merits of books and inventions, for which help is needed.

It has seemed to me since before you were nominated that God has raised you up for this time. May He protect and bless you! The best qualities of both Democratic and Republican parties head up in you; therefore, I have made the head of a mule and of an elephant in one in the souvenir that I carried for you and send herewith. It is yours, gratis.

I sent a little home-made rule to the Governor of every State in the Union, with a letter like that on the reverse side of this sheet. Some of the souvenirs came back, with asseverations of kindness, but not one cent of money.

Most respectfully yours,

Rufus Jesse Clark.

DON'T DESTROY THIS WRAPPER.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Washington,
D.C.

Dear Brother:

I send to you herewith a California souvenir letter opener, to attract your attention. The copy for a little book, titled "The Goodmessage," assembled and collated from ^{in Naz. Pub. House, K.C., Mo.,} the Bible, is ⁷²ready for the printer. I haven't the money ^{$3.10,} to pay the printing bill for the first issue. I decided to go to the forest, gather manzanita limbs, make them into letter openers, varnish them and send them to my co-workers. (I am an old preacher⁷²). If you will, please keep the souvenir and send me a piece of money for it, to help to pay for printing "The Goodmessage." If not, please hand this wrapper and the "stick" to some one who may do so. The book contains the message that should go to every human being on earth. I very much desire to publish it at once. Your co-operation will receive an appropriate reward. Act quickly, for the service and glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Fraternally yours,

Rufus J. Clark,
