My dear Nick:

Pardon my delay in replying to your letter of July "Thirst". The real reason was not to thank you until Holly delivered.

It has arrived safe and sound and I have made the disposition you suggest. Both the President and I are very appreciative and will have a reminder of you very frequently, I hope.

Wilson Brown just came in and said to ask you why you left him out. Don't bother about that, however, for now that he knows, he will raid my shipment.

Will let you know a little later on just what the verdict is as to quality, etc. Many thanks.

My dear Mr. President:

Knowing that you are a lover of dogs and a collector of prints, I decided upon the idea to let you be the judge of my work, and under separate cover I am mailing one of my original etchings, which I beg you to accept with my compliments. To make it of more personal interest I have selected the print of Rolf, Champion Clumber Spaniel, owned by Mrs. George B. St. George of Tuxedo Park, N. Y. I still have in my files her letter, written at the time I made this etching, starting with these words: "I am entirely delighted with the etching of Rolf."

I would like to ask how it is possible to get in contact with the CWA. I have tried many angles but all my efforts have remained without response. My special line is animals, any medium in the black and white. Also, I would be very happy to find an outlet for my collection of etchings of dogs, represented by most every breed.

I want to continue in my belief that you, dear Mr. President, will yet pull us all out of our present troubles. Trusting that you will find a way where I too may benefit by the appropriation which has been set aside for unemployed artists, I am

My dear good Mr. McH. Howe,

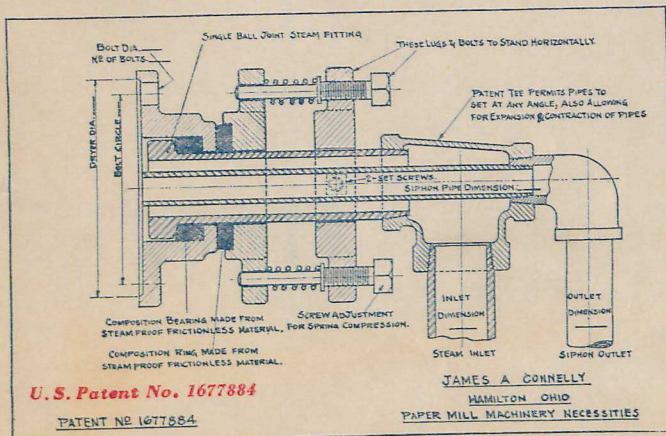

You do not know how happy your letter of July 10 made your friend Jim feel to know that you're feeling much better and will be back with our dear good President again, and I hope that illness will not befall you again, and that you will be back with our good President real soon, as I am sure that he needs you in these trying days. And tell him for me, Mr. McH. Howe, that he need not worry about his majority in 1936 for it will be larger than in 1932. I assure you that many critics will vote for him and would vote for him twice if they could.

Now Mr. McH. Howe, I am sending you (under separate cover) a little remembrance of your friend Jim, in Ohio and you can give it to your chauffeur and he can use it on the magneta. It's a 4 in 1, and the other is to keep your windshield in case sand or dirt gets on it. You will find both of them very handy for the automobile. I am sure your chauffeur will like them very much. Also be sure to give the other two to our dear good President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and tell him they are from his friend, Jim, in Ohio also.

Again wishing you and the good President that our good Lord will send you both his blessing, and that he will always be our good President's gaurdian angel and yours also, I beg to remain

August 8, 1935

Dear President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

It is a privilege and a pleasure to present to you the millionth box of calavos packed by our members this season. This millionth box has special significance.

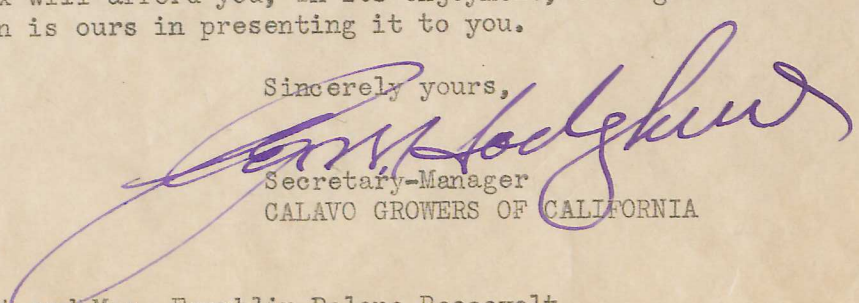

When the growers of Southern California organized in 1924 to build a new industry in this country, they hardly dared think in terms of millions of units. It took over nine years to pack our first million boxes. This season, with its tremendous crop, sees the millionth box packed in slightly over ten months.

At a time when American agricultural producers generally are treading their way back to prosperity, our growers find much of optimism as to their particular industry. A new commodity has found a place in the American dietary--yet not displacing other domestic commodities needing home markets. Land devoted to our fruit serves to relieve the pressure of surplus production of other commodities which might otherwise be grown on such land.

Our growers feel they are cooperating with and assisting the Administration's agricultural policies in their own small way and they are happy to be able to do so.

It is the hope of our two thousand growers that this millionth box will afford you, in its enjoyment, even greater pleasure than is ours in presenting it to you.

Sincerely yours,

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,

My dear President:

By express Sunday we are sending a box of the famous Grand Valley tree-ripened peaches. We realize that peaches are not a novelty to you, but those we are sending at least have the distinction of having been produced on the orchard mentioned by Ripley in 1934. Naturally we feel that ours are just a little more luscious and juicy than ordinary peaches.

The booklets, which accompany the peaches, will give you some idea of the beauties of the remarkable district of which Grand Junction is the center.

May we repeat Congressman Taylor's invitation to visit Grand Junction, at least for a few minutes, on your trip to the west - a privilege that will be sincerely appreciated by all our people.

Respectfully,

Secretary
