RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY

INCORPORATED

UNIFORM EXPRESS RECEIPT—NON-NEGOTIABLE—TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of this receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment and shall apply to any reconsignment, or return thereof.

2. In consideration of the rate charged for carrying said property, which is dependent upon the value thereof and is based upon an agreed valuation of not exceeding fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less and not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of 100 pounds, unless a greater value is declared at the time of shipment, the shipper agrees that the company shall not be liable in any event for more than fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less, or for more than fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment weighing more than 100 pounds, unless a greater value is stated herein. Unless a greater value is declared and stated herein the shipper agrees that the value of the shipment is as last above set out and that the liability of the company shall in no event exceed such value.

3. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for—

- a. Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage, or evaporation.
- b. The death, injury, or escape of live freight.
- c. Loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers, or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt.

4. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by—

- a. The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- b. The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- c. Improper or insufficient packing, securing, or addressing.
- d. The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in customs warehouse.
- e. The examination by, or partial delivery to the consignee of C. O. D. shipments.
- f. Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

5. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

6. Goods consigned to a place at which the express company has no office, shipments must be marked with the name of the express station at which delivery will be accepted and be marked with forwarding directions if to go beyond the express company's line by a carrier other than an express company. If not so marked shipments will be refused.

7. As conditions precedent to recovery claims must be made in writing to the originating or delivering carrier within nine months after delivery of the property or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof.

8. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper the company may at its option return the property to the consignor.

9. Free delivery will not be made at points where the company maintains no delivery service; at points where delivery service is maintained free delivery will not be made at addresses beyond the established and published delivery limits. Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded by Vessel from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

10. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations, and customs of overseas and foreign carriers, custodians, and governments, their employees and agents.

11. The company shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States, which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations, or customs. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the port of export or to the carrier issuing this receipt within nine months after delivery of the property at said port or in case of failure to make such delivery then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and claims so made against said delivering or issuing carrier shall be deemed to have been made against any carrier which may be liable hereunder. Suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof. Where claims are not so made, and/or suits are not instituted thereon in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the carrier shall not be liable.

12. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depositories, and there hold pending examination, assessments and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the company shall become a lien on the property.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

I want you to have a copy of my latest book, "The Boy's Book of Strength". It is part of my general effort to influence the adolescent boy of the Country, for his own good. ||

James E. West has written a good introduction. Alexis Carrel, George H. Payne, and others, think it is of national interest. They feel that the method of attack which I have used may be followed through, and enormously developed.

Perhaps, - I hope so. We shall see.

Meantime, I think you will enjoy reading it, and that is a good deal.

With renewed appreciation of your understanding of boys, and your great leadership in their welfare, I am,

I have sent, for the use of the President, a few cans of our choice olives, which is in appreciation of his good cooperation relative to local projects. ||

After sending these olives I learned that he requested that a case be placed aboard the Houston which took him to the East Coast.

A great many people do not like these ripe olives, but if you will verify the statement that he has a special liking for this choice fruit, I will be glad to send him a case at a very early date.

I realize that you have to be very careful about the acceptance of food, but if you will phone to Admiral Stanley, or Admiral Norman Smith, or General Markham, they will inform you as to my identity and that they have received similar packages. |

As a remembrance of your unprecedented electoral victory as well as a token of heartfelt gratitude to the more autonomous government which we filipinos are now enjoying and as my christmas gift to you please allow my poorself to present to you under separate registered package a "Mahogany Cane", a particular typical filipino product.

I hope this cane and the one I gave to late Secretary Dern will boast our Philippine Cane Industry, and will at the same time attract and promote American or foreign capital. As it is, this industry workmanship is done in a crude and primitive way, such that the proceeds which may derive from it, is not even sufficient to support for my son who is now taking "Mining Engineer" in Mapua College of Technology.

Hoping that you give the first impetus to this promising industry, thus adding a new item to the list of Philippine exports, I am.

My Dear President,

I am sending
to you to day by Express a Bantam Rooster that our little Girl Cilida raised this summer. She was 6 years old 3rd of last May and she said I could send you one I asked her who she wanted me to vote for she said Vote as you Please it is you that is going to Vote. I remember when I voted for my first President it was Grover Cleveland and the Democratic Emblem was the Rooster so I thought I would send this Bantam to you. Respectfully
L. F. C. Cook

of ones family appeal
to ones family more than to others, I thought it would be a need for him to send it

Has an odd cane used by her father and grandfather.
decorated with the name "General George Washington"
over 100 years old. Offers it to the President, as a gift.

December 20, 1933.

My dear Mrs. Crowther:

Your letter of November twenty-seventh has been received, and I want to thank you in the President's behalf for the friendly interest which prompted you to write to him.

While he does not feel that he should deprive you of the possession of the cane you describe,
he does want you to know how much he appreciates
the kindly thought which prompted you to make the offer to him.

Very sincerely yours,

LOUIS McH. HOWE

I am writing a few lines and at the same time I am asking that you will not get offended at my offer to you, I have wrote two letters before this and destroyed both so at last I picked up nerve to write again, Mr Roosevelt I have a very odd cane that my daddy used for years. this cane was formerly my Grandfather's and is over.

100 years old. how much older I cannot say. I have prized this cane highly, please do not think I am offering you this just to give it away. my Daddy asked me to always take care of it and if I ever gave it away to be sure it was a worthy person, so I have felt as if you was the one to get it. now my Daddy was a cripple from the time I was 3 years old. and never walked without the aid of a cane. this cane I was speaking of. is very odd. was made for my Grandfather & has little knots that protrude out from the cane. and there is just enough knots to spell. Gen. George Washington, Daddy always called it his Sunday cane and only kept it for Sunday. he has been dead 27 years

last June and I never gave it a thought to ever give it away, when I offer this to you I am saying it may not mean much to you but you can't imagine how I loved it because he used it so many years, I feel as if you have been such a God
send to the whole world, I do hope you will accept this small gift from me and tell me how I can send it, I am sure you would agree it is the oddest case
you ever saw. no one in this whole wide world would ever get this but you so you know how we all feel about you.
Respectfully Mrs J. F. Crowther

My dear Mrs. Crowther:

This will acknowledge your letter of January twentieth, addressed to the President, and thank you for your kind offer to send him the cane about which you had previously written.

Although your generous offer is greatly appreciated it is thought that you should not give up an heirloom which has been in your family so long. In the circumstances the President would not feel justified in accepting it.

Please accept our good wishes in the beginning of your next four (4) years.
May you have the best of health.

We heard your talk over the Radio to-day and it was wonderful, may I say the sound of your voice or the mention of your name over the air always brings tears to my husband's ^{eyes} he usually cries like a child he gets so enthused over you.

I must tell you he always voted a Republican ticket
all his life until he voted both times for you.
He will be 61 years old.
Sunday Jan 24. and is still living in the same house
that he was born in.
He never drank anything
intoxicating in his life
and is a wonderful man.
We think so any way.
He have one child a girl 21 last April has been married 8 months. she worked for the Wd Library
for the H.P.A. until they found she was married and laid her off.

3.

Her Husband is in the Army.
and doesn't make a large
salary. this is his 4th enlistment.
She worked to help her Dad & I.
Her Dad has had 3 bad operations and is not able to make much of a living without her help and we miss it so much.
But the H.P.A. couldn't understand
even when I explained it to them.
So we are still trusting in God
for better conditions.
If you recall I am the lady that wrote and offered you a cane belonging to my Father who passed away 31.
years ago. You said I should keep it in his remembrance

I would rather you have it than any one on earth I know of.
I told you it was made with knots to spell Gen Geo. Washington and is a curiosity and is over 70 years old, My. Had was a cripple and always used a cane
but kept this for good only.

If you will accept it will you let me know how to send it to you. I have had lots of people asking me for it but I would never part with it.
but you are the one I want to have it please accept it?

Good Luck & God Bless You

Wrote the President that he is shipping to him via express his newly patented chair and cot, to be given to the Warm Springs Foundation. Letter which accompanied this gift is attached. -- The President wrote Mr. Kruse on January 29 and thanked him for this gift. -- On January 28, Miss LeHand wrote Mr. Henry Hooper of the Warm Springs Foundation, enclosing picture of the chair and stating that they are sending this article to Warm Springs so that it will be there when he arrives in March. Asks Mr. Hooper to see that it is sent over to the President's cottage. -- Mr. Hooper acknowledged receipt of the chair on February 3.

President:
Franklin D. Roosevelt,
The White House,

Dear President Roosevelt:

I cannot allow the day to close without making an attempt feeble, to express the delight I have experienced in your Re-election. it was my active interest in your land-slide re-election as of the millions of others. and with the continued cooperation of the great masses of American people may I say this- we will have the greatest Country in the world. PROSPERITY for every one, you can count on each and every one for a continued support.

Believe me, every word I say is true and I wish to thank every American for the spirit of cooperation that every one displayed in the RE-ELECTION and I pray for this work that it may continue to go on and that it will increase in power and blessing.

Mr. Roosevelt, I am a personal friend of yours, you may not think so: you may not remember me two years ago in the land of PARADISE, Honolulu, Hawaii.

In this letter I have some snapshots from Honolulu, look them over and you may remember me, I was in the Army at the time you visited the Island, will these snapshots be of any use to your collection? I have more for you: If you are interested in them.

I was discharged from the Army on June 12, 1936. with an 'Excellent Honorable Discharge. and I am now employed by a private Industry, which millions more will be in the next month or so.

And now again you can count on me for a continued support toward a speedy National Recovery, and may I again repeat my appreciation for the wonderful work your Administration is doing:

Mr. Roosevelt, if at any time I may be of service to the new Administration, or any other way, please call upon me at any time;

Yours very truly,
A personal friend from the Isles of Paradise.
ALOHA from the bottom of my heart,

Mervin W. Carvell,
