Introduction

Of course there is only one "CHRISTIAN'S HANDBOOK" and that is the Holy Bible.

Few of us can carry our Bible around with us every minute of the day.

This little book has been designed so that every woman can carry it in her pocketbook and every man can slip his copy in a convenient pocket.

There is no situation or condition which we cannot find God's word applying. If we make it a habit each time we have a problem confronting us to IMMEDIATELY, that very instant, TURN TO GOD FOR HIS ANSWER OR INSTRUCTION, we will find our pathway smoothed out.

Health, prosperity, joy, peace are ours if we learn to turn to God with EVERY problem and act of our lives, instantly, and obey His word absolutely, with the perfect faith that we are His children, and through the grace of Jesus Christ, have all good things.

Dedication

This practical handbook has come to you through the efforts of splendid men and women who have given generously of their time and substance.

OUR GOAL is to place one in the hands of every person in the land.

This work is dedicated to those who have aided, are aiding and will aid the work of making the Lord's word available hourly.

We are humbly grateful to Him for this privilege of serving.

Achievement Through Confidence

Phillipians 4:13. I can do all things, through Christ which strengtheneth me.

Isaiah 43:18,19. Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old. *Behold I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth;—I will even make a way.

Isaiah 45:2,3. I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and will cut in sunder the bars of iron; *And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and the hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the Lord, which call thee by thy name, am thy God.

Isaiah 58:11 The Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

Micah 7:4. Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth.

Anger

James 1:19 Let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.

Ecclesiastes 7:9. Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

James 3:5. *behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth.

Psalm 37:8. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

Proverbs 29:22 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

Proverbs 14:17. He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly.

Proverbs 22:24,25. Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go lest thou learn his ways.

Matthew 5:22. But I say unto you, that whosoever is angry with his brother, without cause shall be in danger of the judgment.

Proverbs 25:23. The north wind driveth away rain; so doth an angry countenance.

Proverbs 27:3,4. A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.* Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous.

Anxious for Dear Ones

Psalm 107:6,10,14,20. Then they cried unto the Lord in their trouble and He delivered them out of their distresses. Such as sit in the darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron; He brought them out of the darkness and the shadow of death, and break their bands in sunder.* He sent His word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destruction.

Matthew 6:34. Take therefore no thought for the morrow; for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Phillipians 4:6. Be careful for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

Psalm 127:2. It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows; for He giveth His beloved sleep.

Psalm 37:5. Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in him, and He shall bring it to pass.

Psalm 55:22. Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee.

1 Peter 5:7. Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you.

Ask

John 16:24. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in My (Jesus') name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

Psalm 1:8. Ask of me, and I shall give thee—the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Psalm 3:4. I cried unto the Lord with my voice, and He heard me.

Psalm 118:5. I called upon the Lord in distress: the Lord answered me, and set me in a large place.

Matthew 7:7,11. Ask and it shall be given unto you.*—your Father which is in Heaven gives good things to those that ask Him.

John 14:13,14. And whatsoever ye shall ask in My (Jesus') name that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in My name, I will do it.

John 16:23. Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in My name, He will give it you.

James 1:5,6. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not;and it shall be given him.* But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering.

James 4:2,3. —ye have not because ye ask not. Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss.

1 John 3:22. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of Him, because we keep

1 John 5:15. And we know that we have—we know that He hears us, whatsoever we ask.

Matthew 6:8. Your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask Him.

Association With Others

Galations 6:2. Bear ye one another's burdens.

John 13:34. Love one another. ----

James 5:16. Pray one for another.

Hebrews 10:25. Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together.

Romans 13:8. Owe no man anything.

Galatians 5:13. —by love, serve one another.

Luke 6:28. Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

Collossians 3:13. Forebearing one another—forgiving one another.

1 Corinthians 3:9. *we are laborers together with God.

Proverbs 24:29. Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me.

Matthew 18:19,20. Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of My Father, which is in Heaven. *For where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them.

Mark 9:50. *have peace, one with another.

Luke 6:38. Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal shall it be measured to you again.

Psalms 37. Trust in the Lord, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.* Delight thyself also in the Lord; and He shall give thee the desires of thy heart.* Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass.* Those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.* A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.* They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.* I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.* The salvation of the righteous is of the Lord: He is their strength in the time of trouble. The Lord shall help them, and deliver them: He shall deliver them from the wicked and save them, because they trust Him.

Psalm 118:25,24. Save now, I beseech Thee, send now prosperity. This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Psalm 84:11. The Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly.

Colossians 1:10. That ye may walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work.

2 Thessalonians 2:17. Comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

Psalm 54:7. For He hath delivered me out of all trouble.

My dear Mr. Christie:

Your letter of November fifteenth, addressed to Mr. Early, has been received while he is absent from the city. I shall be glad to bring it to his attention following his return to Washington.

May I explain, with regard to your desire to present a copy of the limited edition of the book by Jacques and Helen La Grange to the President, that General Edwin M. Watson has complete charge of the President's appointments. I would suggest that you get in touch with General Watson when you are in Washington regarding the possibility of seeing the President for the purpose of making the presentation.

Also, if you will telephone me when you arrive in the city, I will endeavor, at that time, to arrange for you to see an official at the Social Security Board.

Mr. Stephen T. Early,
Executive Offices,
White House,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Early:

I have been thinking of writing to you for a long time, but by the exercizing of great will power I have subdued that impulse. But now the embargo has been lifted, so here goes.

Down in Washington a lot of you are really clever. I read the New York Times daily and watch for the various exhibitions of acumen displayed. But I cannot help seeing that in many respects you are all very, very dumb. Of course this does not apply to you personally, or to any other person.

While your old friend, Moley, was writing his articles in the Saturday Evening Post, I said to myself, after looking at his smirking countenance, "Just how dumb are those people in Washington?" Anyone with an atom of brains should have seen that he would turn out to just the kind of person that he has turned out to be.

Then there was another of your mistakes--our good friend, Hugh S. Johnson. I have unfortunately had to listen to his speeches once in a while, and once in a while also I have glanced at his articles in the Telegram. For his speeches he gets a minimum of $500.00 plus expenses for himself and secretary. And just exactly what is he anyway? If you ask me instead of me asking you, he is an educated monkey with the fellows who buy his peanuts pulling the string.

As for Moley, how could you ever take him seriously? One of the things which struck me as funny was the high blood pressure he acquired while doing something to help President Roosevelt write his speeches. Now I don't know how much help Franklin Delano gets in the preparation of his speeches, but I have listened to what he has said once in a while when Moley could not possibly have helped him and it was every bit as good as any speeches he made with the help of Moley's massive brain.

As I say, I have listened to a lot of Roosevelt's speeches and I love his radio voice and we all love what he has to say. But I have never listened to one where what he had to say was so abstruse that he couldn't possibly have written it himself.

Of course, as I said in the beginning, you don't have to read this letter, but I am having a little fun writing it and you are not going to be able to deprive me of the fun I am having.

I remember a few years ago my good friend Morgan Larson got himself in a jam while he was a candidate for Governor. All the big heads in the Republican leadership worked hard to get him out of the jam. I had agreed to do publicity for Larson at so much per and so I wrote the kind of a key note speech which I thought he should deliver and which he finally did deliver. I drove down to Newark with him and we went to the Robert Treat Hotel. He asked me if I minded if he did not deliver this particular speech at this particular time, and I said, "Why should I? I wrote it for you. The thoughts are not mine, they are yours. Use them or not, as you please. Why should I care about it?"

Anyway he took the speech and went into a room where Walter Edge and Senator Pierson of Union County and Edge's secretary--Zachary I think his name was--had been working for about 24 hours, trying to write the speech that Larson should deliver that night.

After a little while, Larson came back. He said, "Well, Sam, we are going to use your speech. Edge read it over and as soon as he had done so, he swept everything they had done into the waste basket and said, 'This is exactly what we want.'"

I just mention this little incident because when I read what Moley has to say about the headaches that he and the other persons he mentions got in preparing speeches for the President, when I know in my heart that Roosevelt can write a better speech than any of them, it just gives me one of those dull pains in the base of the neck that are still hard to describe, although that expression was used many, many years ago.

But to go on with the story. I have in this business here an investment of $75,000.00 which so far has paid me no dividends. We got behind on our social security taxes and our unemployment compensation taxes because we were running the business at a loss which showed on our auditor's figures month after month.

Of course, we expected to make some money some time and eventually we did. I saw the Federal man in the local Post Office here and gave him a check for $350.00 that day and told him that I would be able to pay the balance owing on the social security tax within two more days. He called up Newark and stated the proposition. He said the young woman who knew the details of my indebtedness to the Social Security had to go to the women's room and I would get additional information within five minutes. I waited for half an hour. Nothing happened. I had some business to attend to so I left. Sidney Goldstein, who had personally been in charge of this matter, waited for another half hour. Nothing happened so he also left, having business to attend to in New York. At 3:30 this Mr. Brown, acting on instructions from someone in Newark whose name is Smith--possibly he spells it Schmidt--said that unless he got an additional check for $500.00 or more by four o'clock, they would levy on our business that day. The treasurer of our company called me up and asked me what he should do. I said, "Well, there is nothing you can do except take the money out of the treserved for the payroll, and I will personally dig up the money for the payroll." So that is what we did. In addition to paying a tax on the payroll of a business which has shown a loss for years, because we employ members of three labor unions and pay the highest wages, we had to pay penalties for delinquency amounting to over $200.00.

Perhaps interest and penalties and double payments are a legitimate price that we will have to pay for being poor, but I still feel that there was no reason why that levy had to be made that day, since we had shown our good intentions and our ability to pay by giving them half what they claimed we owed. When I went to the local federal office, they did not even know how much we owed, but had to wait two or three hours to get the story from Newark.

After all, this money which we have to pay and this trouble to which we have been put are a serious handicap to doing business and to hiring help.

Without burdening you any more with my troubles, this is what I would like to have you do if it is possible. Some time next week, I am going South to see if I can grab a little sunshine. In passing through Washington, I wonder if you could make it possible for me to talk to someone in the social security department who might lend a smypathetic ear. After all, we are not living in Russia or Prussia. The money which I had to pay out we earned, and no one else.

There is just one other thing I have in mind. I almost forgot about it. The President has book Number 1 of my book, "Drama and Color in the America's Cup Races." Jacques LaGrange, who was the artist making the wood cuts of that book, has given me one of the 300 copies of the limited edition of his and Helen LaGrange's book on clipper ships with the thought that I might sometime have an opportunity to give this to the President. This book on clipper ships which ran into several editions is really a remarkable book from the standpoint of art and detail. Helen LaGrange and Jacques LaGrange work harder than any other two persons I ever knew. Would it be possible some time for me to present this book to the President personally? If not, I shall have to send it to him through Bill Sutphin or Senator Barbour. It is possible, of course, that the President has one, but if has not purchased one, I know that he will be very glad to have it in his collection.

By the time you reach this you will have read the letter and so it will be unnecessary to close by saying you really don't have to read it.

Very truly yours,

S. M. Christie

My dear Mr. President:

My friend Governor Kump of West Virginia sent me three grouse the other day. I advised him that I was going to turn them over to you, whereupon he immediately went out and shot four more, hurrying them down, which arrived this morning, stating his happiness in the prospect of your eating grouse that he had shot.

These have all been quick frozen, four ready for the table, and three drawn only.

I am also sending the big bass that I told you about last night, which is evidence of what our artificial lakes in this section can produce.

I am including some Blue Springs quick frozen blueberries, which can be eaten fresh or made into pies.

It will probably take several hours for the fish to thaw out, since it has been at zero, but I believe it would be just right for dinner tonight.

We are having our Warm Springs friends for lunch at one-fifteen Sunday. Of course, all of us will be made happy if you can be with us.

Sincerely,

Cason -

Dear Mr. Earley:

Mr. J. Allen Clark of Atlanta has recently invented and patented a unique fish hook. I am told that it is the only improvement on a fish hook in many years.

He has had a variety x P.P.F 9-F of these hooks made and placed in a case to be presented to the President.

These hooks are designed for all kinds of fishing from the minnow to the largest of game fish.

We have presented a variety of these hooks to the Honorable E. D. Rivers, Governor of Georgia. It was suggested by Mr. Downing Musgrove, Executive Secretary, that I write you and ask you if you could arrange for us to see the President during his stay at Warm Springs for the purpose of presenting these fish hooks to him.

I am satisfied that the President, knowing that one of his favorite sports is fishing, will be delighted to receive this unique hook. We would not ask for more than three minutes time to show and present these hooks to the President.

If this can be arranged, I would appreciate you letting me know at your earliest convenience just when we could come to Warm Springs for this purpose.

I know that the President is continually approached on various ideas and things, but I feel confident that he would appreciate a presentation of this kind.

Kindly let me hear from you.

Dear Mr. President:

Hendrik van Loon tells me that I am to venture to send you a copy of my book "Story of the Political Philosophies", and I have so told the publishers.

I do not know that the pleasure of a meeting in the Albany days on the introduction of the then Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster or twice since under the aegis of Ernest Lindley is any excuse for inflicting my works - not the less as, when I had the honour of lunching with Mrs. Roosevelt on the 30th November, a volume was duly inflicted on her.

In order, however, that somebody may derive pleasure and profit from the transaction, I wonder whether it is in order for me to steal one of your press photographs to put beside my little etching of Jefferson in my study which (Nehru) when he was my guest was good enough to autograph for me. Dear Mr. Scoville:

Please accept the President's thanks for your letter of December ninth accompanying the copy of The Christian's Handbook inscribed with the prayers of all of the members of The Christian's Handbook Foundation. The President greatly appreciates your kind thought in sending the book.

I regret to advise you, however, that ever since the President has been in his present position he has adhered strictly to a course of not commenting in any way upon works of any kind that are submitted to him. As he has not deviated from this course I am sure you will understand how difficult it would be to make an exception in this instance.

Dear Mr.President:-

The writer has had the honor of meeting you on several occasions and also holds your signature on his assignment to inactive duty in the United States Navy.

Knowing you to be an Episcopal Christian he feels the enclosed copy of our little CHRISTIAN'S HANDBOOK will find a place in your pocket, ready for instant use to comfort and guide you in your daily life, the problems of which must be so vast that we citizens cannot even imagine their burdens.

There is no word of human comment. This "Digest" is verses from the King James Version of the Holy Bible.

There would be no one thing that would aid us as much, in our work of spreading God's word as a letter from you that you are using this copy. We realize we are asking a great deal, our only excuse is that you will be aiding God's work.

The many thousands of our Foundation will all be grateful for any word you give Americans,through us,to turn to Christ will all problems.

Dear Miss LeHand:

At the request of Mr. Carter, who is connected with Shady Oak Farm in some sort of capacity, I am shipping to you today some of our special Shady Oak Pecans. I want to tell you right now I am sure glad to get rid of these nuts. They grew so big this year that already a half dozen of my pet squirrels have broken their backs trying to carry them up trees. Everything else on our Texas Farm has, also, grown big this year - from turkeys to steers.

The boss has been kicking a little bit about what he calls "our farm deficit", but he doesn't understand. Take our neighbors, Lem and Zeke, who live up the creek. They just sign blanks and send them to Washington and wait for a check from Santa Claus, but he won't even let me keep a fountain pen on the place.

But I'm glad I have a job, and I'm glad we had a fine growing season. I'm also glad that I live in America where we have so much to be thankful for that it now fittingly requires two Thanksgiving Days to fully express ourselves.

While crops out on the farm have been pretty good, circulation down at the Star-Telegram has been mighty fine and it is now over 175,000 daily with over 135,000 Sunday - the largest in Texas. Although I wouldn't mention it to our editors, I find that a lot of people actually like to read our newspapers. And nearly everybody in the Lone Star State listens to our Radio Stations WBAP and KGKO, but I'll stop for fear you might think I'm bragging.

Yes, we are getting along pretty well.

Trusting you are the same, I am

Sincerely,

Hired Hand
