Dear President:

Under separate cover is your copy of the Capitol Page School Yearbook, which was published under the sponsorship of a Congressional Committee.

This is the first publication of its kind and serves as a beginning of the preservation or records of the institution of Congressional Paging. We expect to enlarge on this traditional material in later publications.

We would appreciate any comment that you should choose to make in its regard.

Thank you, Mr. Roosevelt!

The Honorable,
Franklin Delano Roosevelt, President,
These United States of America,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

Through our good Senator, Tom W. Connally, of Texas, I am sending you an Electric Clock, the Dial of which I invented, and since your Declaration of War Time, have incorporated that also into the Dial. The Dial is designed to give the Time and relative times in the various Time Belts from the Pacific Coast to the Countries in and around the Mediterranean Sea. You will note the first four inside circles of the Dial has two sets of Figures: The large outline figures represent War Time in the four zones of America, and the smaller figures represent regular Standard Time. The figures in the four outer circles represent the equivalent of Standard Time in the various Countries indicated.

I sincerely trust that you may find a use in your office or study for my clock, and that it will be of some benefit to you. I am preparing copies of the part of the Dial covering the United States, and will submit them very soon to the Army Air Corps, for use in all training Aircraft, provided, it can be used to advantage. This, of course, without thought of compensation. I feel that if the dial can be used advantageously by the Air Corps, that I will have contributed just a little more to my Country.

I have been selected to attend the Adjutant's General School at Fort Washington, Maryland, and I trust that while I am there I shall have a chance to meet you personally. I am scheduled to arrive there for the August Classes.

With sincerest best wishes for your continued success in our Battle for Victory, I am

Subject: Transmitting Scroll for President Roosevelt
from the "Circulo de Simpatizantes de Gran Bretana y Naciones Aliados", La Paz.

The Honorable
Secretary of State
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

I have the honor to refer to Despatch No. 118 of June 22 in which it was stated that the "Circulo de Simpatizantes de Gran Bretana y Naciones Aliados" (Club of Sympathizers with Great Britain and the Allied Nations) of La Paz was preparing a parchment for delivery to President Roosevelt.

The President of the Circulo called on me this morning and delivered the Scroll, which is transmitted under separate cover. In view of the fact that the Circulo is a spontaneous organization composed of those who genuinely desire victory for the Allied cause, I feel it would be appropriate in this case for it to receive a letter in reply signed by the President—something which can be framed.

There is transmitted herewith the original letter addressed to the President, together with a list of the names of those who signed the scroll.

Respectfully yours,

CIRCULO DE SIMPATIZANTES DE GRAN BRETANA Y NACIONES ALIADAS
CALLE SANTA CRUZ No. 37 LA PAZ - BOLIVIA

La Paz, June 22, 1942

His Excellency
Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States of America
Washington.

Excellency:

The "Association of Sympathizers with Great Britain and the Allied Nations" over which I have the honor to preside, has paid tribute to your illustrious person. The said function took place on June 19 in the "Club Bancario" of this city, a renowned democratic institution which associated itself therewith, offering its hall for the holding of the event, which consisted in the presentation of a parchment which it is my very great pleasure to transmit to Your Excellency with the signatures of those who represent the democratic institutions of Bolivia.

Let this be the opportunity to make known to Your Excellency the profound faith which we have in the final triumph of the allied nations over the reactionary powers and in the example which the American Nation, guided in its extraordinary destiny by Your Excellency, is giving to the world.

It is therefore a great pleasure for me to present respectful greetings to you.

Hon. President:

I am a defense worker at the Ford Motor Company, Detroit. But as I have had many years experience as professional wrestler and physical culturist, I have assembled in my spare time, this course on healthy living and self-defense----hoping it may reach the hands of every American boy and girl, and fulfill its purpose of promoting greater health on the home front.

I know our esteemed President is very busy indeed, but I hope he will find time to read this course on health. By so doing, I feel sure it will help him to closely watch and guard his own health---also that it will meet with his approval as a great aid to our people, both at home and abroad.

Praying for our President's continued good health, and that our Lord will be his guide in these dark days, I remain,

Yours for greater health

OLD GOVERNOR'S MANSION
MILLEDGEVILLE, GEORGIA

This building was erected by act of the Assembly in 1838 at a cost of $110,000.00 to house the Governors of the State of Georgia when the capitol was moved from Louisville, Ga.

Eight Governors of Georgia resided here until 1868 at which time the Capitol was moved to Atlanta.

The walls of the mansion are thirty-eight inches thick at the base and twenty-four inches thick at the top, and contain enough brick to build a modern sixteen story skyscraper.

The tradition reads that a tunnel was built from under the steps of the mansion leading to the old Capitol for use by the Governor in times of emergency. As far as known, no one has ever discovered this tunnel, and if true, it was probably filled long ago when the streets were built.

It is now the home of the President of the Georgia State College for Women and is still one of Georgia's most sturdy and historical homes.

Writes to Mr. Early to the effect that she has a painting which she would like to present to the President because she feels that at this time, especially, it would have an interest for him. The painting is of the Prime Minister's Cabinet Room at 10 Downing St; the work of Rankin who, the writer has been told "is ranked next to Walter Gay as a painter of interiors". Mrs. Chanler adds that another exactly similar painting by the same artist is in existence, and she has secured one of these. The subject of this picture is now a twin Cabinet Chamber to the one in the White House. Asks if she may have the honor of sending the painting to the President.--Under date of 1/13/42 Miss Tully wrote to Mrs. Chanler stating that the President would be perfectly delighted to have the painting of the Prime Minister's Cabinet Room at 10 Downing Street.

See P.P.F. 3669

On September 24, 1942, Mr. John Goodrum Miller of New York wrote to Miss Tully, saying that he learned that Mrs. Chanler had sent a painting to the President and she had never received acknowledgment of same and as a lover of good paintings he would like to know if it was received. MAJOR H. HYSLOP
SECRETARY - MANAGER

August 31
1942

President of the United States
Franklin D. Roosevelt
White House, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

On Saturday, August 29, in connection with South Haven's sixth annual Peach Festival, we had a judging of the best peaches grown in this vicinity, and a bushel that was selected as the finest, was shipped to you by American Railway Express.

These peaches are from the orchards of Mr. Donald Barden, R. F. D. #2, South Haven, Michigan. We trust that they arrived at the White House in good condition and know that you have found them to be very tasty and desirable.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Major H. Hyslop

According to instructions from your good friend, whose name is shown on the address label, we are today shipping, by prepaid express, a Gift Box of Colorado's famed Grand Valley peaches, selected especially for you. We hope that you will enjoy them as thoroughly as we have enjoyed filling this order.

When the peaches arrive, we would appreciate your immediately opening them, note their condition, have the expressman sign the inspection slip which will be found just inside the top cover, and return it to - W. M. Wood, Secretary, Chamber of Commerce, Grand Junction, Colorado.

An expression from you regarding the peaches - their appearance, flavor, etc. - will be most helpful to us. 3,000 carloads of these Colorado peaches are shipped annually to the Nation's most discriminating markets.

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,

Dear Commander,

When a busy man writes to an exceptionally busy man it behooves the busy man to be brief.

I am mailing you today under separate cover an autographed copy of American Soldier Ballads. I believe that you will enjoy reading the contents. As Commander in Chief of our Army you will understand the soldier language used in compiling the various verses.

If you can find the time some evening to read what I have written I feel sure you will 'savvy' ALL that is contained in the lines. If, after reading, you sincerely feel that my effort has been worth while, I would be deeply appreciative, if you will write me a personal letter, signed by your actual self, telling me just how the book appeals, so that I can place it on the first page in the book now containing letters from commanding generals and Chaplains, whom I have met during my tour of our Army Camps. My only son, Bill Jr. age 13 years, will eventually receive this book from his Dad and because he will, his failure to find a personal letter from the Commander in Chief of our Army, would be vastly disappointing to him, particularly so, when that Commander in Chief has been instrumental in winning a smashing victory over ALL of the Axis powers.

Major General Robert C Richardson, Jr., made it possible for me to visit our Army Camps. At 60 years of age I am a bit too old to keep step with our REAL soldiers, but as a veteran of the First World War and a member of the American Legion, I am still, in spirit, one of them and you can rest assured that I will 'carry on' until victory is assured.

With kindest personal regards and the sincere wish for your continued good health for many years to come,

I am, Very Sincerely,

Frank B. Camp

The Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. President:

The ~~Committee~~ for National Morale, of which I have the honor to be President, has issued a publication called "White Book of the United States Foreign Policy".

This publication is being sold for 25¢ on newsstands throughout the country and its purpose is to provide an over-all statement, in simple terms, of the record of the foreign policy of the United States for the past ten years. As with the other publications of the Committee, this is a non-profit making enterprise, the charge being sufficient merely to cover the expenses of publication and distribution.

It is the belief of the Committee for National Morale that this book will provide for the average American reader a strong, factual support for his faith in the justice of the cause in which he fights. It is our hope that it may in some measure serve to uphold your hands through the perilous days which lie ahead of us, days in which not only the people of this Republic but the free peoples of all the world must look to you for leadership.

A specially bound personal copy of this book is being forwarded to you under separate cover and the members of the Committee join me in hoping that it will meet with your approval.

I am, Mr. President, with every good wish,

Very respectfully yours,

George Fielding Eliot

Dear President,

Your address to the Medical students, in which you spoke of the great loss to our country thru accidents has prompted me to send
this idea to you.

The conservation possible of man, woman, and child power; plus the incalculatable saving in time, material, money, sending a pair in the package attached. Please try them on. See how small, how compact, how cheap and easy it is to be safe. (the rabbit fur we glued on).

The reflectors could be tiny batteries for some places - (fog, blackouts, army camps, etc) mostly reflectors - polished material, marbles - there are many ways of working out there as well as the bands - plastic bands, covered wire - zig-zag as the spring for holding electric flatiron cords.

No new machinery is needed - no further training of machine operators.

ILION, NEW YORK

The spring bands are already made or machinery available. as is that for the attaching of "ears".

One accident prevented would pay for the making of thousands. They could be on the market and saving lives in less than 30 days.

The problem of getting them over to the public need not be too great. Insurance companies could give them as premiums. A loose leaf page added to each catalog or slipped into each letter from Sears

Roebuck or Montgomery
Ward; a big pile near
the front of the "5410".
Schools could distribute them through the Safety
Patrols. As for the adult work, I am sure Du Pont
and other defense plants
would give one to each employee - especially night workers.

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt
President, The United States of America
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear President Roosevelt:

As a member of Selective Service Board No. 1 of this Crawford County, Illinois, I am herewith enclosing a booklet, "I am an American". Although the salaries of this Board are none and it doubles every month, we are carrying on, trying to do this job, which we have found to be the "biggest" job we have ever had in our lifetime.

I am enclosing this booklet to you because we purchase these in gross lots and present each Inductee one of these booklets on the day he is inducted to take with him into Service.

We also talk to our inductees and tell them about service gained from experience in World War One and advise them about their insurance and other rights. Might I add that we have been reliably informed that we have more men from Crawford County, Illinois, which by the way, is the oldest County in the State of Illinois, many of our inductees coming from old pioneer stock, commissioned, non-commissioned officers and in training school, than any other County in the State of Illinois in accordance with the population.

Our Representative in the National Congress from this the 23rd District of Illinois, Laurence A. Arnold and also Hon. W. W. Arnold of this city, Representative from this district for 14 years, now a member of the Tax Board of Appeals, is in Washington.

I wanted you to know how Selective Service is functioning and what we are trying to do out here in the Central part of the United States.

Sincerely

Crawford County Local Board No. 1

Letter to Mr. Early, enclosing newspaper picture of she and her first crocheted American Flag, which she would like to present to the President in person. Adm. 9/29/42 by Mr. Watson, advising that the President would be delighted to have the flag, but he cannot accept it in person. Mr. Watson told her he would be glad to receive it for the President or she can mail it.
