Dear Mr. Early:

I have been teased by a number of my friends about writing to you, and they think I am scared to write, but after giving the matter quite a bit of consideration I have decided to write.

The reason for my writing is, I have been an ardent admirer of the President since way back in 1933 when I was only a child; I would take up for him in all the school arguments. From right there on I decided to keep a scrap book on his life, and I would like

Do you have any idea that this could be arranged.

My dear President Roosevelt -

2/18/48
To kindly accept the enclosed book - marker as a token of our sincere esteem we have for you. We deeply appreciate all your kind efforts in preserving the freedom of our beloved country whom I am proud to call my forefathers helped to form. So often have I remarked what joy and pride must be that of the 56 signers if they could see and hear what the "Scorn" of 13 States has grown to be the Mighty Oak of our 166 years of age.

None must ever now describe their joyful feelings. How true to-day is the meaning of one line of "Columbus the Gem of the Ocean" author Francis Hopkinson a maternal foe. Said line as follows:-

"The noblest of men to thee." These 56 men and the men in the service appealed to God, their peers men acquainted, and as will our ancestors all our Altho prayers be answered as it was during the early days of our country. God grant Peace still come down and remain enduring is our heartfelt prayer.

The approaching Lenten Season will have a great significance for us as our new Bishop Charles James Woot of the Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania is a relative of whom we are so proud.

May this find you, your dear ones in the best of health. Best and most sincere wishes to all. God bless and keep you all safe is our heartfelt prayer.

Sincerely yours,

BYRD, Rear Admiral Richard E.,

February 26, 1943

Writes to the President enclosing that portion of the South Polar chart showing the Franklin Roosevelt Sea and the Franklin Roosevelt Islands. Says, "Your four islands are the southernmost ones in the world." Adds that the National Geographic Society is getting out a new map of the world which will show the President's sea.-- On March 1, 1943 Admiral Byrd wrote to Miss Tully telling that he is sending to her a framed map showing the Franklin Roosevelt Sea and the Franklin Roosevelt Islands; says he would appreciate it if she will present this to the President with his compliments. States he is also enclosing a letter telling about the map. Adds that his secretary, Miss O'Malley, is delivering this map to Miss Tully, and that she is also bringing the Pledge of Loyalty to the President as of Dec. 9, 1941 and a Petition to the Governors as of March 8, 1933. States that he wants the President to know - now that he may be sent overseas at anytime - of the many times he has done his best to strengthen his arm.--Attached is an unsigned, undated note to Miss Tully written on Bureau of Aeronautics letterhead (apparently by Miss O'Malley) indicating that the writer is leaving some photographs for her at the White House gate, and that Admiral Byrd asked her to explain that he would like to have returned to him the Pledge of Loyalty and the Petition to the Governors after the President has seen them. The writer also stated that Admiral Byrd asked her to show Miss Tully the enclosed copy of a letter (letter of introduction - "To Whom It May Concern") written by Mr. William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor, in which the latter expresses his high regard for Admiral Byrd.--On 6/18/43 the President wrote to Admiral Byrd thanking him for the framed South Polar chart, from which he has learned the location of those southernmost islands bearing his name. The President added: "This, of course, has more than the usual interest for me, and another pleasing feature is the fact that I have such a good neighbor -- 'Marie Byrd Land'".
