President Franklin Delano Roosevelt,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

As we have been informed by the ranking - and rival - commentators in Canada that the news-photography coverage of the Quebec Conference, and your historic visit to Canada's capitol by Canadian Motorist was the most complete that appeared in any periodical of this Dominion, and as the same issue carried on its cover a photograph taken on the felicitous occasion of the ceremony in which the University of London honored itself in honoring you, it occurred to us that you might like to see a copy of the issue. One is, therefore, attached.

Possibly it should be added that Canadian Motorist is the official publication of the Canadian Automobile Association, the counterpart and ally in this Dominion of the American Automobile Association, and that, since the declaration of war, it has devoted the preponderance of its space to war and war-effort photographs. Its photographic coverage of Their Majesties' Royal Progress, in Canada and the United States, was unequalled in this country. His Majesty and Prime Minister King most graciously expressed grateful appreciation of the latter.

Respectfully,

CANADIAN MOTORIST

My dear Mr.McIntyre;

Your kind letter of November 24th. to hand, same carefully read and noted.

Believe me, that is most generous of you to so kindly help me to obtain "spot" in our Nations's present War effort;
and, am sound and healthy, ready, willing and able to go anywhere, and can be depended upon to do my utmost in whatever capacity I may be assigned; I have just the finest references that any man could possess, and can assure you that Senator Lister Hill, a good Friend of mine wrote me only last week, advising; "Please know my dear Friend, that I have my eyes and ears open in your behalf, and am anxious to help you in any way I can." I also have the assurances of Congressmen, Joe Starnes, John Newsome, Percy Priestly, along similar lines;

Am an "aggressive" public speaker; a capable Editor of over fifteen Years standing; a Past Commander of the American Legion, Past Department Chaplain for Florida of that Organization; and, if you happen to know of anything where sound capable man is needed;
will greatly appreciate your kind courtesy.

I sent you the enclosed "picture" to keep ' I felt you might like to have it in your files; and, also have one or two unusual pieces of silver in safe deposit box in Birmingham, Ala. and when I return there, will be happy to secure same and send you, as I am sure you would enjoy them.

Thanking you most sincerely, I beg to remain,

My dear Mr. President:

Your publisher had the good fortune and happy experience of being asked by the State Department to make a trip around Latin America this last summer in the interest of developing cultural relations. It was a magnificent experience, and I am hopeful that the trip may be productive of results.

While we were in Sao Paulo, Dr. P. de Balmaceda Cardoso, of Rau Sen. Paulo Egidio, 15, having rather selected me as the spokesman of the group that went down there, introduced himself and handed me the enclosed book which, as you will see, is inscribed to your good self.

As we were traveling by air, it was impossible for me to carry with me this and the hundreds of other books which we acquired. I, therefore, availed myself of the opportunity of having the books forwarded by our embassy service. The book has finally come to hand, and I have pleasure in forwarding it to you.

With all cordial greetings,

Faithfully yours,

9-C

Writes to the President stating that they have followed his long and arduous trip with the greatest interest; expresses the gratitude of his countrymen, particularly for what the President is doing for them, stating that they realize that it will be due to the President's efforts and marvellous leadership that France will live again. Describes a clock which marks the time in the different parts of the earth where "the glorious American armies are fighting - a clock which therefore will mark the hour of victory", which he is sending to the President with his best wishes to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt for Christmas and the New Year.--On 12/23/43 the President wrote to M. Cartier stating that he is thrilled to have that wonderful clock, and that he is taking it to Hyde Park to put on the west mantelpiece in the big library where he can always see it. He expresses his interest in the different times of world capitals, and he expresses the hope that "soon, very soon, I hope that Paris will resume her place among the free capitals of the world." President extends New Year greetings. (Pencil notation indicates that "Clock went up on train with the President.").

See P.P.F. 5111 Sept. 27, 1943 Mr. Edlavitch wrote to Gen. Watson saying that he was sorry that his choice of words in prev. let. conveyed the wrong impression by implying that a limitation was placed on the use of the gift. He states that the champagnes were not to be used in any particular way and the fact of presentation shall not be mentioned in any way in advertising. On 11/9/43 Gen. Watson ack. let. stating that the wines will be gratefully accepted and he shall see that they reach the proper custodians at the White House. On 12/21/43 Gen. Watson sent thank you let. to Mr. Edlavitch for the wines; states that 3 cases were set aside for personal gift to the President; one case to Mike Tully; one to Mrs. one to Roberta Harrows; one to Harry Hopkins and one to Gen. another expression of the continuous which President Avila Camacho here in Mexico, D.F., México, October 15, 1943.

Believe me,

My dear Mr. President:

Always cordially and faithfully yours,

During a conversation with President Avila Camacho several weeks ago, the substance of which I have already conveyed to you in my letter of October 2, he mentioned that during your stay in Monterrey you had expressed an appreciation of some Mexican wines which were served during the dinner. He said that he had taken much pleasure in getting together some Mexican wines and that these were ready for shipment, as he wished to offer them to you and hoped that you would get some pleasure out of them. He asked me as to the best method of shipping the wines. In view of the fact that the railways are very much over-burdened, and as we have an occasional Army transport plane returning from the Canal Zone not fully loaded, and as occasionally a Pan American plane goes North for repairs and cannot carry passengers on such a trip, I told the President that I was sure I could arrange for the transport of the wine from here. He expressed great appreciation of this. I am therefore arranging for the transportation North of the wines, which will consist of about eighty-eight cases, at a convenient opportunity by Pan American planes which would otherwise be going North empty.

The wines should arrive at the White House sometime during the next three weeks or so.

I am

The President

I am merely sending you this word so that you may know when these wines arrive that they are another expression of the continuous thought which President Avila Camacho here has of you.

The Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt
President United States
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

In this war, America's tuna clippers are fighting ships. They proved that in the South Pacific - running the supplies through to hold the early bridgeheads. They serve at home, too, bringing back food essential to victory.

Something of the spirit of this industry at war has been captured in this original painting by Ben Franklin, California artist.

In sending this reproduction to you, may I extend the season's greetings and share with you the hope that peace on earth will soon again be the privilege of free men.

Sincerely,

Jack Crivello, Managing Partner
Sun Harbor Packing Company

P.S. Reproductions of this painting personally signed by Mr. Franklin have been limited to 60 copies of which yours is number 1.

HYDE PARK
NEW YORK

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT:

MR. ELMER DAVIS AND OTHERS HAVE PROBABLY MENTIONED TO YOU THE WORK I AM DOING, IN ACCORDANCE WITH YOUR GENERAL DIRECTIVES, TO HELP EDUCATE OUR PUBLIC OPINION ON THE PROBLEMS OF WORLD PEACE, WHICH IS MY LIFE WORK. I HAVE DEVELOPED AND PRESENTED TO THE PUBLIC A NUMBER OF CONCRETE SOLUTIONS DEALING WITH THE COMING WORLD SETTLEMENT, WHICH HAVE BEEN FAVORABLY RECEIVED, AND WHICH FIT IN THE GENERAL FRAMEWORK OF YOUR NOBLE PLANS. I HAVE STATED REPEATEDLY MY ADMIRATION FOR YOU AS ONE OF OUR GREATEST WAR PRESIDENTS AND MY HOPE THAT YOU WILL PROVE TO BE AN EVEN GREATER PEACE PRESIDENT.

IN TRAVELING UP AND DOWN THE COUNTRY ON LECTURE TOURS IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROBLEMS OF THE WORLD SETTLEMENT, IT HAS BEEN MY EXPERIENCE THAT THE PEOPLE ARE SEEKING A CONCRETE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES, AND THAT MILLIONS OF AMERICANS, ESPECIALLY THOSE WHO ARE NOT AFFILIATED WITH ANY POLITICAL PARTY, WILL GAUGE THEIR VOTES ON THE BASIS OF CONCRETE PROPOSALS AND SOLUTIONS.

WHEN THE PROPER TIME COMES I HOPE IT WILL BE POSSIBLE FOR ME TO PRESENT TO YOU AND TO OUR GOVERNMENT THOSE SPECIFIC IDEAS WHICH HAVE STOOD THE TEST OF PUBLIC OPINION AND OF A NUMBER OF LEADING INTELLECTS IN THIS COUNTRY.

MEANWHILE I WOULD CONSIDER IT A GREAT PRIVILEGE IF YOU COULD FIND TIME TO READ MY BOOK, "TOTAL PEACE", WHICH I AM SENDING WITH MY COMPLIMENTS, AND WHICH DEALS SPECIFICALLY WITH SOME NEW APPROACHES TO THE FOREIGN POLICY OF OUR COUNTRY. MAY I ASSURE YOU, MR. PRESIDENT, OF MY BELIEF THAT YOUR ALL-TOO-PRECIOUS TIME WILL NOT HAVE BEEN WASTED IN SO DOING.

MOST RESPECTFULLY YOURS,

Ely Culbertson

Dear Mr Roosevelt, <sup>Waddy</sup>

With our approach
ing Christmas, again
we send our best
and heartiest greetings
for a real good old fashioned Christmas
as the first few
wise men realized
when they gave their gifts and bowed at the manger - Not in some costly palace

like the wise men who are real and belong to him does - Let us apprehend each other and share our secrets
together, such secrets
that are sweet as honey
and meat - The enemy is strong where we are
We are trusting God
to settle him - Pray
He does and God does for us good always.
Thank God for all
He has been so good

most humble place
where God was - veiled to their eyes - in the baby, but enshrined
on a throne no monarch could apprehend or approach - who filled their hearts
as no one ever could and revealed His Heavenly self and treasure to them. The years which will be wonderful to remember in history as well

as experience of all His wonderful works
and deliverance to us so we can celebrate
His Wonderful Birthday
with gladness, joy
and promise of all good to come and One who will fulfill it.

So why not rejoice
in so great a Saviour
and Lift Him High.
With the love, prayers
