Dear Mr. President:

Under separate cover we are sending you a copy of Principles for Peace. Kindly accept this volume with the sincere compliments and greetings of patrons of the Catholic Action Bookshop, Wichita, Kansas. The names of patrons who contributed to the purchase of this volume for Your Excellency are enclosed.

Principles for Peace contains selections from papal documents from Pope Leo XIII to Pope Pius XII on the subject of world peace. It was compiled under the auspices of the Bishops' Committee of the Pope's Peace Points, of which the Most Reverend Samuel A. Stritch, D.D., Archbishop of Chicago, is chairman.

Be assured of our prayers that Almighty God may continue to grant you the light and strength which are necessary in the discharge of the heavy responsibilities of your high office. On many occasions we have been edified by your insistence on our responsibility to God and His natural law, by your invoking of divine aid and blessing upon our beloved country, and by your efforts to assure for all men everywhere the free and abundant exercise of the natural rights given to them by Almighty God.

Dear President Roosevelt,

I am sending you a little crystal Bear for your birthday, a paper
weight for your every day use, the only kind of a California Bear I can send you, of course. But it represents not only my adopted State, but my state of mind, its crystal clear understanding of you and all your
policies, your greatness
in every particular and too, my devoted loyalty to you and Mrs. Roosevelt.
If you will bear with
me, I know I am a Bear.
Reason weight, too, I know
this very small insignificant present conveys so much (too much) meaning, and intimacy.

value being so small - yet I know to whom I am sending all this: to the best most wonderful
President - He the people have so had, and
the most understanding charitable man in the worlds - May you have many happier returns
of your birthday living
many years to bless
the world - He needs
you and will stand
by you and all your plans for our Country -

THE PRESIDENT

There is a lad in Washington who fills a man-sized job. To execute it is no fun—it takes a brainy knob. When plans go wrong the way along, and everything's awry—He is the one who gets the gong—at him the dead cats fly. It matters not what he may do—what action he may take—what benefits for me and you are planned so we'll be jake. It matters not that he may guide the nation wise and well—the critics rise on ev'ry side—give him partic'lar hell. And so the anvil chorus goes throughout this glorious land, and many are the prexy's woes—he's knocked and razed and panned. He has a job from worry free—without a grief or care—a job that brings with certainty a crop of nice gray hair. We think he would appreciate, sometimes, another tack—and how, maybe, 'twould stimulate—a pat upon the back.

Tuesday's municipal election because he is a pauper, was disclosed today.

Investigation showed today that the man's name was stricken from the voting lists by Harvey White, clerk of the board of registrars, voters, under an archaic statute which declares specifically that paupers are not entitled to vote. Knowing that his name had been taken from the voting list, the firm inmate reported at the time to ask for a ballot. He was told his name was not on the voting list. Inquiries revealed why.

The law under which the man is barred from voting is described in chapter 51, section 1, of the general laws. A competent legal authority informed the correspondent of the Daily News today that this law, passed many years ago, has been amended and that White is legally in striking the inmate's name from the voting list. The same authority pointed out that persons receiving old-age assistance, a form of public welfare, are not entitled to vote because the old-age law specifically guarantees the right.

Paupers, the nameless, the aged and infirm who go to the poorhouse, are indeed everything when they are denied the right to vote, are denied today. He pointed out that during their lifetime they are worthy citizens who have paid taxes and made contributions to the advancement of their community. He said that revision of the law is timely and only a matter of time before the people whose only crime is to sink to the level of poverty, which makes them eligible for public welfare, will be able to vote.

NORTHAMPTON PAUPER DENIED RIGHT TO VOTE

Name Stricken From Pollin
List Under Archaic Law
Never Repealed

Northampton, Dec. 9—An inmate of the city infirmary was denied the right to vote in Tuesday's municipal election because he is a pauper, it was disclosed today.

Investigation showed today that the man's name was stricken from the voting lists by Harvey White, clerk of the board of registrars of voters, under an archaic statute, which declares specifically that paupers are not entitled to vote. Not knowing that his name had been taken from the voting list, the infirmary inmate reported at the polls to ask for a ballot. He was told his name was not on the voting list and inquiries revealed why.

The law under which the man was barred from voting is described as chapter 51, section 1, of the general laws. A competent legal authority informed the correspondent of The Daily News today that this law, passed many years ago, has never been amended and that White acted legally in striking the infirmary inmate's name from the voting list.

The same authority pointed out that persons receiving old-age assistance, in form of public welfare, are eligible to vote because the old-age assistance law specifically guarantees them that right.

Paupers, the nameless group of aged and infirm who go over the hill to the poorhouse, are indeed bereft of everything when they are deprived the right to vote, an official declared today. He pointed out that during their lifetime they may have been worthy citizens who raised families, paid taxes and made important contributions to the advancement of the welfare of their community. He said that revision of the law would be timely and only fair to many people whose only crime in life has been to sink to the lowest depths of poverty, which makes them a public charge.

The President wants you to know that he fully understands and appreciates the justified feeling of pride with which you refer to your son, Joseph, and his service in the armed forces of our Nation.

Very sincerely yours,

Knowing your interest in sailing crafts, I am sending you under separate cover a copy of Mr. Lawrence Thompson's "The Navy Hunts The CGR 3070". It is a book that my son Joseph was the first rate on.

Columbia University Press has recently of mine entitled Argentine Constitutional Law (The Judicial Function in the Maintenance of the Federal System and the Preservation of Individual Rights). This book deals with a comparative study of Argentine and American Constitutional Law. The book also emphasizes the influence of American Constitutional history and decisions on the constitutional development of the Argentine constitutional system.

Mrs. Eben:

On February 26, 1944 we received a book "Argentine Constitutional Law" from the Columbia University Press. I believe the attached letter is connected with this book.

The file room advised me that no acknowledgement has been sent to Mr. Santos P. Amadeo.
