Dear Mr. President:

I am enclosing a booklet of our campaign cartoons put out by our state committee, and also some on "Legal Stealing." I only hope you enjoy them one-half as much as the artist and I did getting them up.

Most respectfully,

William E. Chilton Jr.

Best Gun Crew

By Ernie Pyle

IN NORMANDY—(By Wireless)—This ack-ack crew of mine is having its first taste of war. And after three weeks or so of it they feel that they are the best gun crew in the best battery of the best ack-ack battalion on the beachhead.

It would be close to impossible for a German bomb-remembering what they were doing a year ago today when they were in camp back in America. They all hope they won't have to go to the Pacific when the European war is over.

My crew are a swell bunch of boys. They all work hard and they work well together. There are

KENNIG, Mr. C. H.
President, The Hamilton Watch Company,
Lancaster, Pa.
Dec. 4, 1944.

9-6

Wrote to General Watson stating that he is bringing the President an uncased Marine Chronometer for his inspection. Would like to have the presentation for Dec. 14th. - -Presidential Memo for Adm. Brown dated Dec. 20, 1944, asking that a letter of thanks be prepared for his signature to Mr. Kendig. - -Notation - Judge Rosenman received chronometer and is now in the Map Room. - -The President on Dec. 21, 1944, replied that upon his return to Washington he learned of the present of the marine chronometer. States that for the rest of the war he shall have it kept in the White House map room and communication center where day and night watch is maintained. Further states that it will be a helpful reminder to all of what an important factor accurate timekeeping is in the conduct of modern warfare. After the war the President states that he will find a proper place for the chronometer in his library at Hyde Park. Expresses thanks for the thought and extends Season's Greetings.

Dear Mr. President:

Please accept, with our sincerest good wishes, these good, old-fashioned donuts that are being sent you with the compliments of the National Dunking Association. This organization was formed 6 years ago. It is non-political, non-commercial. Its objective is the "Encouragement of Good Cheer and Good Fellowship."

You are already familiar with the Optimist's Creed --"Keep your eye upon the donut, and not upon the hole."-- having made reference to part of it in recent addresses.

Donut dunking is universal. . .it is democratic. . .a humble symbol of The American Way. Our boys are served donuts after returning from, and oftimes during, battle. In the same spirit, the Donuts herewith are being sent you in the hope that they will bring you and your friends good cheer during today's "battle". . .while you are awaiting election returns.

Here's wishing you good luck. . .and happy dunking!

Respectfully,
NATIONAL DUNKING ASSOCIATION
Albert Coleman
Albert Coleman, Executive Secretary

P.S.--Incidentally, enclosed is an official membership card, rule book on dunking and dunking pin. We have over 1,000 chapters in the National Dunking Association, the majority of which are in USO Canteens overseas.

Official Association Rules for DUNKING

While dunking, like every other popular sport, is still enjoyed by millions of amateurs, one must turn to the professional dunkers for a truly thrilling display of grace and skill. To the professional dunker, every tiny gesture, every crook of a pinkie, has a significant meaning all its own.

The professional dunker has a keen sense of timing, and an accuracy of aim that is positively astounding. It is the aim of the National Dunking Association to introduce every amateur to the joys of professional dunking by teaching proper form, poise and technique. Here are the basic principles of correct dunking, which must be mastered before you can say, with a catch of pride in your throat: "I am a professional dunker!"

Step No. 1. Tuck a great, big (bigger the better) napkin under your chin, to protect you from any stray splashes. Once you have become expert, this will not be necessary.

Step No. 2. Break your donut in half. Dunking a whole donut at one time is definitely bad form.

Step No. 3. Pick up a half-donut tenderly between the thumb and the forefinger. The other three fingers must point daintily upward. Hold the half-donut poised over your cup of coffee, cocoa, tea or milk. You may sigh in rapturous anticipation.

Step No. 4. Proceed to swish the donut rhythmically in the beverage with a free and easy movement of the entire arm. Keep your wrist and elbow relaxed for a smooth, circular stroke.

Step No. 5. Your donut should be immersed in the drink for exactly two-and-one-half seconds . . . long enough for the drink to soak through the dunked portion . . . not too long or it will become soggy and break off.

Step No. 6. Remove the donut and hold it above the cup, permitting all the excess drops of liquid to drip, drip, drip back.

Step No. 7. And now the sweet climax! You swerve the donut in a graceful curve toward your mouth, and close your teeth tenderly over the dunked portion. At this point it is both proper and only human, even for professionals, to close your eyes in ecstacy and smile dreamily.

Step No. 8. Repeat the above process until all the donuts on the table are simply fond memories.

A final word on how not to dunk. We find that these words of caution are necessary to assist amateur dunkers whose inexperienced eyes are deceived by the apparent simplicity of dunking when beautifully executed by an expert. By all means avoid these treacherous pitfalls of dunking:

1. Don't forego a napkin under your chin if you're a novice at the sport.
2. Don't plunge a whole donut in your drink.
3. Don't (please don't!) splash, or slosh your drink over into your saucer.
4. Don't hastily pass the dunked donut from cup to your lips.
5. Don't dunk in your saucer.
6. AND DON'T GET YOUR FINGERS WET!

"Dunk, yes dunk!
But please take care
To keep your fingers
in the air!
The Donut only must get wet . . .
Or else it's not good etiquette!"

We have no record thus far of the receipt of the cake to which the writer makes reference.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt,

I am sending you this Holy Bible for a Christmas present. I heard your wonderful speech in Boston stating that you were a christian. I am asking you to please read the 23rd Psalms over the radio at your inorgoration I also would like for you to read the 6 chapter of Revalations and you will find out what the cause of this war is. There will be no peace until the people return to ....

God. Because he has taken peace from the earth.
Prayer and faith in the all mighty God is the best weapon of all. When we pray we say our father
and not my father so that means that we all are sisters and brothers in Christ.

Yours truly

I take the pleasure in writing to you, our fourth term President. I have many reasons to be glad because of an omen, "Lucky Tillicums" which I received in Washington, D. C. in 1933 at your inauguration. My husband, Captain Michael J. Callahan of St. Louis Police was sent to Washington, D. C. for the inauguration. I went with him as a guest of Jack Cocran. I received four "Lucky Tillicums". Cocran gave me two and others gave me two more. That made the four terms.

I took them with me everywhere I went at election time and showed them, "he can't lose". Election day I put them on the table and told the judges here he is, and don't any of you lose any sleep tonight. "Our President can't lose".

I'm sending you the "Lucky Tillicums", may they always be good luck to you.

May God bless you always in your hard battle ahead to peace.

Dear Madam:

Permit me to present to you with my complements, this St. Jude, " Stick of Martydom ", to be used in the time of stress or strain, particularly the kind of which you and your husband, Our President, are now experiencing. Also to be used to defend your self from your enemies and help you to fight your bat--tles and overcome all obstacles.

The colors, Red, White and Blue, are for Victory; White for virtue and peace; Green is a symbol of plenty, abundance and success, and purple, which I was not able to get, but want you to know that they have been blessed from on high, by our Savior, Jesus Christ, for strength. I want you and the President to use these sticks in the name of The Father, The Son, and The Holy Ghost, asking St. Jude to fight your battles, and work out those conditions that surround you, in speed.

Please accept this, as a blessing from God.

Brig. Gen. Robert H. Dunlop, Acting the Adjutant Gen. War Dept. Wash. D.C. on 12/28/44 wrote Maj. Gen. Watson forwarding communication addressed to that office, transmitting an article of native handicraft, Marianas Islands - a Chamorro Canoe. The natives in the Handicraft Dept., Civil Affairs Section, Hdqs. Island Command, Saipan, had constructed by one of their Yap men a canoe they wish presented to the President as an expression of their appreciation for deliverance from the Japanese....the canoe has not been rec'd. at the War Dept. (att. orig. let. of 12/7/44 from Maj. Gen. Jarman; Biography of the Woodcarver and the Story of the Chamorro Canoe.)

Gen. Watson on above date, 1/20, wrote "Sandy" stating the Pres. asked him to express to him and through him, to the natives in the Handicraft Dept. of the Civil Affairs Section, Saipan, his appreciation for the miniature Chamorro outrigger canoe sent him by the Natives of Saipan. The canoe arrived at the White House in fine shape and will be sent soon to the F.D.R. Library at H.P. where it will be welcomed as a most interesting addition.....Canoe sent to the LIBRARY.
