My dear Mr. Dillingham:

Will you please let me, at this late date, make acknowledgment of the two jars of fine Macadamian nuts which you were good enough to send to the President at Christmastime in 1933. I am indeed sorry that an acknowledgment was not forwarded to you before this, but the matter was evidently over-looked in the vast amount of mail received at that time.

You may be assured that the President was delighted to have the nuts. He is indeed grateful for your kind thought in sending them to him.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Pence:

Your letter of February twenty-first, with the enclosed copies of claim, has been received and I wish to advise you that the jars of nuts to which you refer were received in this office and acknowledgment was evidently over-looked in the mass of mail received at that time. I am forwarding a note to Mr. Dillingham today.

IN REPLY PLEASE REFER TO

Claims Dept.

To the President
Washington, D. C.

Sir:

On December 6th, 1933, Mr. Walter F. Dillingham, of Honolulu, had Marlou & Company send to you one bamboo tube with two jars of Macadamian nuts therein, valued at $6.20. Since no acknowledgment of the receipt of this package was ever received by Mr. Dillingham, he reported to Marlou & Company that he felt the articles had been lost in transit.

We are the parcel post insurers of Marlou & Company. We are enclosing two copies of our Loss Form which we should appreciate your signing and returning to us in the event that you did not receive the bamboo tube and nuts.

Yours respectfully,

Mr. H. McIntyre:

I can't describe how sorry I am that I cannot yet have the honor of making a gift to the Honorable President Roosevelt, that is, a bust of him sculptured by myself. After all the studying and work which I have expended in order to do so, my work and gift are not taken into consideration today.

I can't imagine all this, for a year and a half I have been writing to fix the day of the presentation, [to learn when] the President will be disposed to accept me [sic]. This has not as yet been possible for me.

I went personally to the White House in the month of January, 1935, and received no consideration at all, not even so much as to have a conversation with him. Then Mr. Slye [illegible] who knows whether I will succeed in obtaining quickly the presentation of this gift and again I have not succeeded, he advised me to put myself in touch directly with you. I have done so. I have written directly to learn the last decision for the presentation of this bust, whether I was to do it or was not to do it.

I suppose that the Honorable Mr. Roosevelt does not care for this souvenir of mine.

Dear Mr. President:

The public press carried a story some time back, to the effect you were gathering various issues of the national currencies.

If the small contribution enclosed will in any way offer you a relaxation from the affairs of state, would be pleased to have you accept same.

Altho these were mislaid in my homestead shack in Wyoming several years, they were found again, perhaps 35 years ago, in reasonably good condition.

We, of the white collar brigade, class of '93, especially in the last few years, have become converted to the great qualities of a fish-vegetable diet, with a good sun-tan covering the rest of our necessities.

It is a good old world just the same.

Colonel Marvin H. McIntyre,
Assistant Secretary to the President,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Colonel:

I am enclosing a letter from Dr. J. R. Binyon, President of the Roosevelt Men's Democratic Club of King County, perhaps the largest Democratic Club in the State of Washington.

Mr. Frank Dean, whose offices are in the Smith
Building in Seattle, is publisher of "The Roosevelt Reflector", which is devoted almost entirely to the interests of the Democratic party and the Administration.

Apparently, Dr. Binyon and the Roosevelt Men's Democratic Club, have decided to present to the President a year's file of "The Roosevelt Reflector". I am sure that this is a wholly spontaneous evidence of the affection that these men feel for the President. I think it would be proper, therefore, for you to advise Dr. Binyon and Mr. Dean that the file of "The Roosevelt Reflector" is being expected at the White House, and later, upon its arrival, cause some acknowledgment of its receipt to be made.

The Roosevelt Men's Democratic Club is made up chiefly of professional men and successful business men who operate local enterprises. My own opinion is that they represent a fine group of citizens who have no personal, but rather a patriotic interest in politics.

Will you advise me when this is done and send me a copy of any communications which may be sent in connection with the presentation of "The Roosevelt Reflector" to the President?

Yours very truly,

My Dear Senator:-

I am sending you, under separate cover, a year's file of "The Roosevelt Reflector", bound for presentation to the President.

Frank Dean has had so many compliments on his work and the way he presents the necessity of supporting President Roosevelt, that I thought it would be a nice way of bringing to the President's attention
the fact that we are endeavoring to do our part in upholding him.

Senator Burton K. Wheeler wrote a wonderful letter to a personal friend who had sent him a copy of the Reflector, stating that he was going to place that issue before the President himself; this, and your comments suggested to a number of our members that it would be more fitting if the President got a complete file from the club, thru you our senior Senator.

Last night at the meeting of the club,
by a rising vote, the members enthusiastically thanked Mr. Dean for his work and endorsed the action of sending the year's file of the Reflector to the President.

With very best wishes and thanking you
for your cooperation,

I am sincerely your friend

J. R. Binyon.

Honorable Sir:-

On Jan 1st / 35 I was granted pat' no 1986562 at Washington, D.C. for garden ornaments.

I wish to introduce them by sending out samples.
The first person I would like to have them
is you, Mr President.

I have made a special design for you, which I believe is suitable in your case.

It is a five point star & the colors are the same as the American flag.

The star is for the U.S Navy, which you, represented in the past. The colors are for the government which you are now the head of.

I am taking the liberty Mr President of sending to you, twelve samples by parcel post for your inspection & approval.

Wm. Buckley

Bushley

and it would afford me great pleasure I would deem it a high honor if you, would receive them as a present from me.

The ornaments I, ^{am} sending to you, are intended for decoration of lawns such as edge of paths & around the base of a tree, bush, large rock on lawn, summer house, flower beds &c.

The ornaments are made of beads in solid colors & also in clear glass.

They are in cases in bowls, with cement, & the beads are threaded with heavy brass pins bent at the ends in the cement in the form of a hook & can't be pulled out without breaking ~~the~~ up the ornament. In closed find sample of pins bent.

The bowls are of three sizes $5\frac{1}{2}$, $6\frac{1}{2}$, & $7\frac{3}{4}$ also in three colors, Brown, green, blue.

The making of this article has been a hobby with me for the past two years, & is all done by hand. I have not sold, or even tried to sell, nor have I given away any article of this kind. You are the first to receive any.

Buckley

I would like to sell my Pat' & my reason for doing so in on account of my age.

On Dec 25th next I will be 70 years of age & feel it is to late in life to start a new business.

This article can be used in many ways,
such as signs, coat of arms, name of estate
on lawns, or on bare earth beds, also on stone or cement buildings, & in many other ways

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

June 19, 1935

My dear Colonel McIntyre:

The French Ambassador has called at the Department to leave with me an autographed copy of a book entitled "La Guerre sous les Mers" which the author, Mr. Edmond Delage, Editor of "Le Temps" and Manager of the Compagnie Générale Transatlantique, desires to present to the President.

Mr. Delage was a member of the French delegation which recently came to the United States on the maiden voyage of the NORMANDIE and with that body was received by the President on June fourth.

I shall be much obliged if you will deliver the volume enclosed to the President whose thanks and appreciation will be conveyed to Mr. Delage through the American Consulate General at Paris.

Sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR
THE STATE DEPARTMENT

FOR PREPARATION OF REPLY

F. D. R.

F. D. R.

I am proud to see the honor of handing this mission to you. I should, however, have been very happy to express to you the admiration of an ally's highest official. The crisis which has thrown the world into chaos, after the war imposed upon us by German aggression, appears to us, as far as concerns
the United States, as a new crisis of adolescence in the significant drive of your nation toward the future.
We believe you will overcome this crisis, and I ask your permission, Mr. President, to tell you that I am sincerely wishing, with all French citizens, that your war-time efforts will be crowned by definitive success.

Henri Chardon.

TR: :MCS.

Mr. President:

I asked the French Ambassador, M. de Laboulaye, to offer you a copy of the mémoire which I published in 1924, in the Carnegie Endowment Collections, on the organization of the Republic for peace.

Since that time, many things have changed, and now, several of my ideas call for modifications; in the aggregate, I believe they are still correct as far as concerns my country.

I was not bold enough to ask the honor of handing this mémoire to you myself. I should, however, have been very happy to express to you the admiration of an elderly French citizen. The crisis which has thrown the world into chaos, after the war imposed upon us by German aggression, appears to us, as far as concerns the United States, as a mere crisis of adolescence in the magnificent drive of your nation toward the future. We believe you will overcome this crisis, and I ask your permission, Mr. President, to tell you that I am sincerely wishing, with all French citizens, that your very noble efforts will be rewarded by definitive success.

Henri Chardon.

My dear Mr Early:

It gives us great pleasure to forward to the President an Air-Check made of his address to the Graduates of West Point.

KMTR broadcasted the speech
this morning and for those of our radio audience who were unable to "tune in" at 6:15 AM we are repeating the broadcast by means of the Air-Check tomorrow, June 13th at 10:00 PM with publicity in all the newspapers to that effect.

Sincerely,

Victor E. Dalton

I have not yet had the opportunity of visiting the White House but this Sunday morning I walked around the grounds outside, and was deeply impressed by its beauty and spaciousness.

I have traveled a great deal but this is my first trip to Washington. As I have little time I have to combine my business
and pleasure.

I like the beautiful architecture here. It is inspiring. I have written
two poems, as a result,

And felt upon my brow
the soft caress

Beautiful city, of buildings
tall,

Within the grandeur of each hall —

In blocks of marble and
of stone,

There breathes a great,
majestic tone.

I hear this song of history,

And feel the subtle calm
and power

Behind the simple dignity —

A strength to meet the hour!

There is music here, and beauty,

The Potomac — and the trees —

Mr President:

From the depths of the sea
oftimes during a storm are cast up shells which contain precious pearls. This, that inspired me and resulted in a miniature portrait of you, which I executed in oil on a pearl sea shell.

As the storm casts up its precious treasures, so too from the depths of the depression has risen a man, natural human and understanding, precious and indispensable to us all.

The Nation as you know appreciated your great worth and hence have named my painting "The National Pearl".
The beauty mark which God placed on your cheek has been left unpainted allowing the natural pearl to shine thru. Again I want to thank you for the very human way you have treated so many unknown and struggling people including artists like myself and hope my little gift, which I am mailing under separate cover will receive its due reward of admiration.

Very truly yours
