My dear Mr. Roosvelt:-

I have been waiting this opportunity to send you a very select box of avocados fresh from the ranch not far from Alhambra, near Whittier. There are several varieties, and all delicious. This young man is very proud of his trees and gathered them from the trees for me. They will ripen in a fiew days.

Remember to devide with your mother and your son James

You may expect them any day by express.

My dear Mr. President:

A relative of mine, George H. Donnan, of 309 Woodland Street in Nashville, has authorized me to present to you a walking cane which has been in his family for many years. He does not know its history. His family, as long as he can remember, have always referred to it as "the Thomas Jefferson cane".

As one of your enthusiastic admirers, it gives me great pleasure to send this cane to you by express today, with the hope that it will be acceptable and be placed in your collection.

My dear Mr. President:

As a former president of "The Harvard Crimson" (1912) and an enthusiastic small sail-boat man who has cruised the New England coast for many years, I am venturing to send you for your library a copy of the recently published "A Cruising Guide to the New England Coast." This book is the result of meetings of the Coastwise Cruising Club of Scarsdale, N. Y.

We feel particularly weak on that part of the coast in which, I understand, you are primarily interested - to the east of Mt. Desert. I have never cruised that section, so I was forced to depend on others for my information. I fear that our description of that section is not comparable with the balance of the book. As soon as time permits we intend to remedy that defect by a cruise beyond Campobello. Still, the members of the Club trust that you will find the book interesting and of possible use.

With hundreds of enthusiasts cruising these shores for the past sixty years, why hasn't this sort of a job been done before? President Eliot's son told me recently that when his father cruised Maine waters in the 70's the Government charts went only as far as Owl's Head. He could have written a real book on cruising!

Sincerely yours,

Robert F. Duncan.

My dear Mr. Danuff:

Thank you very much for your courteous letter of July sixteenth.

I am afraid we cannot arrange for you and your friend to present the plaque to the President personally, however. Since the beginning of the Administration it has been the policy for me to receive all gifts on the President's behalf, and I will, therefore, be glad to see you and your friend any time after September first, as you state that is the most convenient time for you to come to Washington.

As it is impossible now to tell just what the President's plans will be for September, or to know definitely whether he will be in Washington, may I suggest that you give me a little reminder around the latter part of August, at which time I can write you more specifically.

With all good wishes,

Honorable Marvin McIntyre,

Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. McIntyre:

Honorable James A. Farley wrote me on the 12th inst., that I should write to you regarding this matter which I had submitted to him.

On July 2nd, I wrote Mr. Farley regarding a very dear friend of mine, who is an artist, and a very fine wood carver. He has made a beautiful plaque of President Roosevelt. I think it is a wonderful piece of work and we would like to have the honor of meeting the President, to present this plaque to him.

I am a locality Mayor of the Kings Highway section of Brooklyn, and of course my friends and I were very active in co-operating with Mr. Farley, for the election of our beloved President.

I am leaving on a Western trip and I wonder if you will be so kind as to arrange an appointment for me and my artist friend, to meet the President some time after Sept. 1st,1937, at your and his convenience.

You may write me in care of Columbia Ribbon Co., 21 Washington Pl., New York City.

My dear Mr. Danuff:

Thank you very much for your letter of September second, which I found awaiting me when I returned to the city this morning from a brief vacation.

As stated in my letter of July nineteenth, I would be glad to receive the plaque on the President's behalf any time when it is convenient for you to call here at the Executive Offices. As you probably know, the President has tentative plans for a western trip, which may or may not materialize. In the event he finds it possible to leave Washington, it is quite likely that I shall accompany him. You will, however, be able to ascertain from the newspapers when the President is in Washington, and I would suggest that you arrange your visit accordingly.

As Mr. McIntyre is so busy just now with preparations for the President's proposed trip to the Coast, he has asked me to reply to your letter of September sixteenth.

He has directed me to tell you that he expects to be in Hyde Park with the President on September twenty-second, the date you propose coming to Washington to present the plaque to Mr. McIntyre.

If you would care to bring the plaque instead to the Summer White House, at the Nelson House, Poughkeepsie, New York, one day next week before Wednesday, I am sure Mr. McIntyre would be delighted to receive it on the President's behalf. If this is not convenient, Mr. McIntyre has directed me to request that you place it in the mails and he will be glad to see that it reaches the President in good order.

Dear President Roosevelt:-

I took the liberty of mailing to you yesterday two small booklets. I would be glad to have you look them over at your convenience; or lay them aside. I have found the blue-covered one to carry a vibratory force that I do not comprehend- I do not know what causes it; but I have found that, by reading a few lines, then practicing the instruction given in the 19th Psalm- to send our lines "to the ends of the earth" or expand through the universe, the force is controlled.

You may understand better than I what this particular interpretation of the Four Gospel story means. To me it has meant an Initiate Pathway as taught thousands of years ago now coming into our racial-spiritual knowledge. This will explain to you the cause of my letter as related to these two Interpretations of my own experience.

With blessings upon your loyal, true service, I am

Truly and sincerely yours,

CARS CLASH, ONE HURT, ON HIGHWAY NEAR MELBOURNE

Chevrolet Sedan Demolished, and Truck and Load of Furniure Damaged About $450.

Raymond Vaughn's left arm was broken in three places and almost torn from his shoulder when he drove into a truck loaded with furniture a mile east of town on Highway 69 Monday night. His car, an old model Chevrolet sedan, was almost demolished. The truck, a '37 Model Chevrolet, was damaged about $200, the left rear spring being broken from the frame and the drive-shaft uncoupled causing the truck to turn over. The truck carried about $1,500 worth of household furniture which was damaged about $250.

The truck, driven by Roy Kennedy of Quitman, was enroute from that place to Mountain Home. The furniture belonged to Dr. A. L. Sewell, who was moving from Quitman to Mountain Home. Mrs. Sewell was riding in the cab with the driver. Two men were riding on the rear of the truck, but none were seriously injured.

Vaughn was immediately taken to a Batesville hospital for treatment. It is reported the arm will likely have to be removed near the shoulder. Vaughn is 32 years old and lives on a farm near here.

RETIREMENT SYSTEM FOR TEACHERS WILL SOON BE OPERATIVE

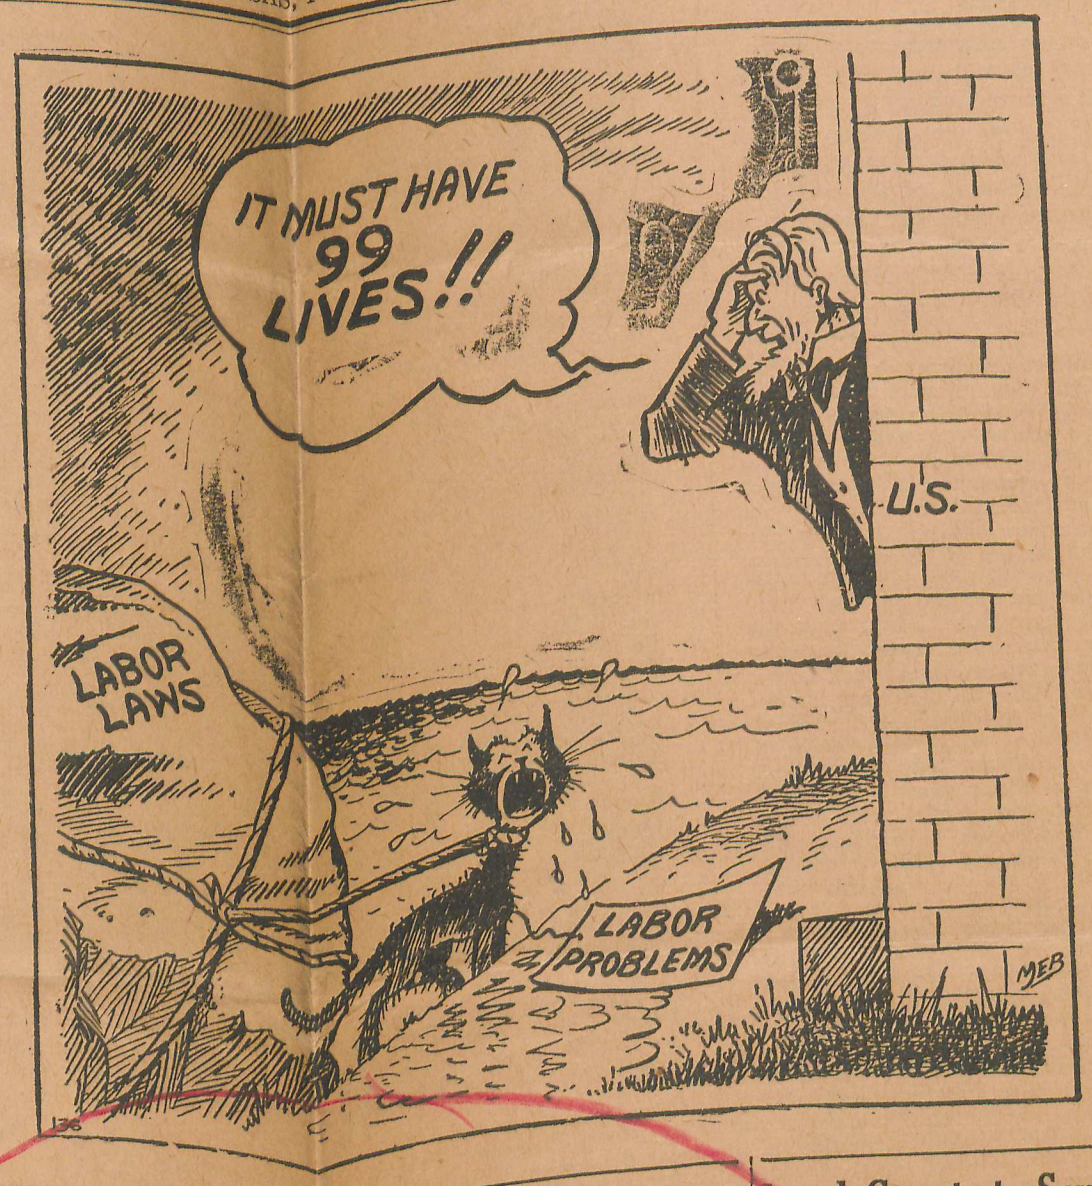
Arkansas Law Requires That All New Teachers in State Must Participate in System.

Little Rock---Arkansas's teachers' Retirement system, as provided by Act 266 of the 1937 legislature, will become operative with the opening of the fall term of school next September, Clifford S. Blackburn, executive secretary of the Teachers' Retirement Fund, said.

"Questionnaires to public school teachers have been sent out. When these have been filled out and returned, we will know to just what extent veteran teachers---those who were employed when the act became effective July 1---wish to participate in the retirement plan.

"The law provides that all new teachers, superintendents and principals from whom a teacher's certificate is required must participate in the system. Participation is voluntary for those in service before July 1."

There are 12,709 teachers in the public schools of Arkansas, statistics kept by the state Department of Education show. The fund secretary estimated that approximately 1,500 new teachers are employed annually. He predicted that "a very large per cent" of persons teaching prior to July will participate voluntarily. Reaction of numerous groups to which he has explained provisions of the law has



Local Farmer Sends President Choice Izard County Peaches

M. M. Dunn, who lives six miles west of here on the Sylamore highway, today sent President Franklin D. Roosevelt a dozen choice peaches from his one-acre orchard. In a letter by same mail sent to the President, Mr. Dunn said: "I just wanted to

NEGRO CLEARED OF MURDER CHARGE IN J. P. COURT HERE

Oliver Davidson Kills Roosevelt Brown at LaCrosse Sunday In 'Self Defense.'

Oliver Davidson, 20-year-old Negro, was acquitted in a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace J. O. Linn here Monday afternoon on a charge of murder of Roosevelt Brown, 30, at the LaCrosse church, six miles northeast of here, late Sunday afternoon.

Witnesses testified that Davidson killed Brown with a rock after Brown had first started at him with a club, and being disarmed, then ran after him several yards, throwing a rock at him. Brown was hit in the left side of the head and died immediately. The affair came up over a dice game in which a 15-cent-bet was involved.

Davidson ran away after the killing, being pursued for half a mile by Brown's brother. Sheriff W. E. Billingsley and deputies and others hunted for him throughout the night. He came in and gave up early Monday morning saying he spent the night in a tree near the scene of the killing.

Brown's wife died of fever a little over a week ago, and he is survived by four small children.

Arkansas State Police Almost Self-Supporting

Little Rock--(UP)--The state police department in a report made public this week showed that in fines collected after arrests had been made that the department was almost self-supporting.

The department reported having made 620 arrests during June the fines for convictions totaling $12,690.

The sale of 35-cent drivers' licenses is the source of revenue designated for salaries and expense of the state police.

Items of Interest In Days Gone By

The following items appeared in the Times June 1, 1916:

W. M. Halbrook has been appointed postmaster at Zion.

Bread every Friday at Mrs. Medley's store.

The young people were entertained at the home of Mayor Powell Tuesday evening.

Mining is at fever heat at Anderson now. Jack Shelton dug out a six ton boulder of high grade ore last week. Dr. Hinkle has put out 225 tons of ore on his land since Christmas.

J. W. C. Gardner of Tuckerman is visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Landers, here this week.

Dr. Henry Smith of Oxford was in town on business Monday and made the Times office an appreciated call.

R. E. Landers of Mt. Olive and County Agent Dameron attended a program of Arkansas farmers at Little Rock Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

prove to you what these hillsides in Izard county, Arkansas, will produce when given proper cultivation. I request thft you hand at least one of these to Secretary Wallace."

Mr. Dunn has already sold over $65 worth of peaches and about $20 worth of plums from this year's crop. In addition to this, he has several hundred cans of fruit and preserves put up "on the halves" by neighbors. He has some of the finest peaches ever grown in this section, and gets ties that ripen each month from June to October, inclusive, and he has been able to produce the finest peaches from grafts onto matured wild plum trees.

The small orchard is used mostly for experimental purposes and home consumption, and was not put out as a commercial enterprise. But Mr. Dunn says he has found it such paying proposition that he recently put out another orchard of 700 trees on another part of his homestead.

Short Sketches of Happenings In All Parts of Izard County

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Fudge of Harrison visited here last week end.

Bob Baker and son, Don, recently returned from several weeks visit with relatives in Texas.

Dear Mr. President:

Under recent date, we shipped you ten cases of DR. PEPPER. These were shipped complimentary for use of yourself and household, in that so many members of the Texas Delegation in the House had requested us that you be supplied with DR. PEPPER at all times as you may desire.

For over fifty years this healthful beverage has been sold constantly in the State of Texas and in the past ten years it has been received with great favor throughout the Southeast and Southwest. Due to the arduous and strenious tasks of your office, we are sure the food value contained in Dr.PEPPER will be a beneficial stimulus to you at the low ebb times of the day when the body needs energy stimulus. Dr. PEPPER contains only one fruit juice, natural flavors, lemon acid, carbonated water and invert sugar. Because of the invert or pre-digested sugar used, practically all of this food beverage goes immediately into the blood stream as energy units thus furnishing that stimulus called for.

Nothing is contained in DR. PEPPER in any manner whatever that is artificial or imitation.

At all times in the future we shall consider it a privilege and pleasure to supply and keep supllied you and members of your family and household with DR. PEPPER complimentary.

We beg to remain,

Respectfully,

I am taking the privilege of presenting to you a copy of my late father's work on the "True Boundaries of the Holy Land" (1917), as the present question of the boundaries of Palestine is closely interwoven with it.

High authorities have pronounced this work"a scholarly and valuable addition to Palestine geography and Biblical literature". I trust it will merit your interest.

The Balfour Declaration,the San Remo Covenant, the Mandate mark forward steps towards the Jewish Homeland - may we not hope that another forward step is now in the making by inspired world leaders,for peace and security between the descendants of Isaac and Ishmael?

Thanking you,in advance, for any attention you may give to this subject and with high regard and esteem for your character and courage, wishing you success, I am

Dear Mr. Roosevelt

I It was very considerate of you to write that personal message to every worker on the unemployment report card.

My line of work is in the Commercial Art field. I would be very pleased if you would accept a sketch of yourself done by yours truly.

Just how should I address it so you yourself would receive it.

Thanking you in advance for taking time to read this, I remain

Dear Mr. President,

Take heart; "it is the fate of prophets to be stoned". You have done a matchless job; you amide the great trials which come to all of us have shown dauntless courage-- I beleive you to be a beautiful christian; a Leader of no ordinary type; a Statesman, a man who knows statecraft, a Genious, a spark of divinity faned into a blaze.

Please Mr. President, forgive me for assuming to address this word of cheer to you; but my heart has been tuched. I remember "the confussion of faces" when you took the raines of Government into your hands, and by the grace of God led an army of bare footed men, women, and children out of the wildreness of depression. "Good luck have thou with thine honor; ride on! and thy right hand shall teach thee terable things."

God bless thee Mr. President, and forgive me for pouring out the sadness of my heart for you.

Frat., and sincerely yours,

President Franklin D. Roosevelt,

Washington, D. C.

My dear President:

I apologize for thus infringing on your valuable time and attention, but I wish to introduce myself to you briefly by this means, for the following reason.

I live in the little town of Shawanee, Tennessee, one mile from the Lincoln Memorial University. I am a poor man with a large family to support. I have one leg off and am thereby handicapped in working, of course, and as a result I spend much of my leisure time in making walking canes. I make these by hand from young growth of cedar which grows near the junction of the three states of Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky and near the said University.

I am sending you today by parcel post three copies of these canes which are models of the years 1935 to 1937 inclusive and ask that you kindly accept the same with my compliments. I hope you will admire and appreciate them.

If you should desire to give me something in return it certainly would be highly appreciated and of course badly needed, and if you should not so desire to give me something please keep them any way with my compliments.

Very respectfully yours,

H R. Hobbs.

Honorable Sir:

I have noticed by the papers that you are still having some trouble with your gums. I really admire you and I wish that you get rid of your gum troubles at least.

You have some many national problems to solve and I like to solve one of your personal problems. For this I have mailed to the White House this morning some preparation, which I beg you not to be afraid to use, according to my instructions your gums troubles will be over with only one application.

The preparation penetrates through the pores of the gums and destroys bacteria it rebuilds the gums makes them firm and healthy and tightens the teeth, please use it I am sure it will give you comfort, I suggest however that the preparation be tryed on some one elses gums first just to see how it works, the gums may be healthy or not, it would be better to use it on pyorrhetic gums.

Hoping that my remedy will give you a great relief, I remain, Honorable Sir, YVONNE DE SAINT-CYR, descendent of Admiral Duquense (under Louis XIV) is the daughter of Count Henri de Saint-Cyr, Procureur General in New Caledonia.

After a five year sejour in Tahiti "the parfumed" Yvonne de Saint-Cyr came back with her treasures—100 paintings colorful and picturesque. One was bought by the French Government and is displayed at the Museum des Colonies in Paris and the other one in the Ministere des Beaux Arts. She was only 23 years of age at this time.

She has had a large exhibition in the Galleries Georges Petit Paris, presented by the "Premier of France" in 1932.

In New York her successful career continued by two exhibitions in the Wildenstein Galleries, and she illustrated her book, "Madame Tahiti" at Dutton. Next year, as in the past, she will return to Tahiti to pass two months holiday. Portraits are now her new idea.

Yvonne de Saint-Cyr desires to paint the beauty of everything and to find the divine peace. Three times around the world, she has discovered that only in Tahiti will peace be found.
