My dear Mr. President:

Since you were so helpful in bringing about a return of legal beer to this country, I am taking the liberty of sending to you a couple of cases of National Premium Beer.

(2) From a technical standpoint, this beer is claimed to reach the acme of present day brewing and we deem it a privilege and an honor to bring it to your attention, with the compliments of our company.

My dear Mr. President:

As a representative of the Rice-Belt of Louisiana,

I am pleased to send you herewith three packages of Louisiana rice.

Rice, as you know, is one of the five basic agricultural commodities included in the 1938 Agricultural Adjustment Act and is one of our most wholesome and nutritive foods. This is some of the finest rice grown in America and I am sure you will enjoy any of the tempting recipes listed in the inclosed Rice Recipe Books.

Mr. President,

Sir:

Wishing to be of some service to my country, and knowing the importance of light weight and the value of articles of a non-freezing nature especially for Arctic exploration, I beg you to accept and consider these samples of Rhododendron cutlery, which have the qualities above referred to.

Nature has provided plenty of material, and I am an expert whittler, and would consider it an honor to be asked to equip an exploration party with any thing in this line they might order.

Please let me serve you.

Dear Mr. McIntyre:-

ackd 6/11/38 mma

Some months ago an article appeared in "The Philadelphia Inquirer", in effect that books devoted to history, or containing historic references, would be accepted for THE WHITE HOUSE LIBRARY.

While genealogy is only of special interest to those mentioned, a work of this character, compiled by invitation of the Historical Publication Society of Philadelphia and recently published, contains a number of references to events in the colonial period, the War of the Revolution, "THE ROOSEVELT PURCHASE-SCRIBA PATENT", (Onida County, New York,), the war between the States, etc.

Therefore, thinking --- for its historic features --- it might be acceptable, it gives me pleasure to forward a complimentary copy under separate cover.

Very respectfully,

F. de Sales Dundas

Substance of statements made by the writer:

He is sending to the President (by Miss Alcira Lopez, who will soon come to Washington) several books of which he is the author, as a tribute to Mr. Roosevelt, who, he feels is not only a great statesman and friend of Argentina, but the great champion of democracy and of the union of the American continent.

In 1935 he suggested the establishment of the "Ternario Americano", i. e. the union of the three Americas in a single block, to confront the imperialist nations of Europe.

Excelentísimo Señor:

Por intermedio de la Señorita Alcira Lopez Ibarburú que en breve irá a Washington me he permitido hacer llegar a sus manos varios libros de los cuales soy autor, como un obsequio al eminente estadista americano y gran amigo de la República Argentina, mi país.- Como escritor y publicista me he ocupado reiteradas veces en hacer resaltar su obra de gobierno y sobre todo sus ejemplares actitudes y sus admirables manifiestos en defensa de la democracia y de la unidad del continente americano.- En 1935 yo sugería por primera vez la formación del "Terminario Americano" es decir, la unión de las tres Americas en un solo block para enfrentar en un día talvez no lejano a las naciones imperialistas de Europa.-

Ruegole aceptar Excmo Señor, este sincero homenaje en testimonio de mi admiración y alta estima.-

Saludo al Señor Presidente con mi mayor consideración y particular aprecio.-

My dear Mr. de Leeuw:

The President has asked me to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of May twenty-eighth and to thank you for your courtesy in sending him a copy of your recently published book, "Holland, Crossroads of the Zuider Zee".

I regret to advise, however, in response to your request, that it is not possible for the President personally to comment, in any way, on the many publications that come to his attention with almost every mail. I am sure, upon further consideration, you will appreciate his situation and will be good enough to excuse him.

To
The President of the United States,

Dear Mr. President:

It was a pleasure to me to forward to you my latest book "Holland, Crossroads of the Zuider Zee" which was published a week or so ago, and which, I hope, you will accept with my best compliments.

It must be a satisfaction to you to read about your ancestors' homeland and a place where the democratic ideals, for which you and your illustrious forbears have so steadfastly fought, have remained intact. Your special attention is drawn to the Oud-Vossemeer chapter, in which I have again described the "van 't Rosevelt" relics and which continue to attract great numbers of traveling Americans.

I guess, it may be too much for me to hope to receive a personal note from you as to your personal reactions to my book. If, however, Mr. President, you can find the moment, amidst your manifold duties, to let me have a line, same will be given a prominent place in my clipping-book and will not be for publication, so I promise.

Please accept, Mr. President, the expressions of my profound respects,

Dear Mr. President:

I am sending under separate cover a walking cane that I made from wood that was salvaged from the reservoir at Pickwick Dam on the Tennessee River. I hope that you will accept it as a token of my admiration of you and of my appreciation of your great work.

For several months I worked as a carpenter at Pickwick Dam. From the reservoir there I selected the walnut and the holly wood that I used in the cane. Both the material and the handiwork come, then, from that region that owes so much to your administration-- the Tennessee Valley.

Your sincere admirer,

J. H. Stinson

Dear Frank,

In as much as I was thinking of you when I conceived the idea for this Apron, I think it only becoming that you should have the first one of the perfected article that has been produced.

I hope that you will find it useful and that it may add to your pleasure and comfort while fishing.

All this in spite of the fact that I never did get that promised fishing trip with you. Maybe this will refresh your memory for some future date.

We have been getting some wonderful Tuna and Broadbill fishing off the Jersey Coast this year and the prospects are for a banner year.

Met an old friend of yours the other day who wished to be remembered to you, Commodore Robert Forshaw as also did Eckford, who is laid up, poor fellow with a broken leg, the result of an argument with a taxi.

Here's hoping that you tie into some big ones. If you want some real sport, hook into a leopard shark and you'll have some real fun.

Dear Mr President:

During the last Presidential Election one of my sons was a firm believer in your policies and worked faithfully for your Re-Election. He convinced me with many others that you were the person to be the Head
Executive of our country.
I have read with interest accounts of your actions in our daily newspapers.

Nearly a year ago I had a dream of you which I haven't been able to forget.

I dreamed that you came to me dressed in an Eastern Star Regalia and asked if there was a chapter of that Order in your district. I replied that there were two chapters but that I had not yet been able to find them. You then took off part of your Regalia and fitted it around my neck and bade me to remember you as president.

Since the dream continually preyed on my mind I decided to try to make a quilt for you.

After getting the material and making preparation to begin work on the quilt I was taken to the Hospital for a Goitre operation and of course that delayed my completing it.

I am a colored Widow seventy four years of age so if the quilt does not show perfect work you will understand why.
I did my best. I wanted to do something for you and that was what I could do best. I feel happy now that I have finished it.

The Quilt pattern is,
"Snow on the Mountain."
An Emblem of the rugged Mountain which humble Ruth traveled from the Land of Moab to Bethlehem with her Mother-in-Law Naomi.

As Ruth lay at the feet of Boaz, so I should like to Bow at your feet by presenting to you this Quilt as a gift and a token of my great esteem for you as President.

May God Bless you
for your untiring services

My dear Mr. Donaldson:

Please let me acknowledge and thank you, in the President's behalf, for your letter of October thirty-first. Your courtesy in sending the President an advance copy of "Capitalism in Crisis" by James Harvey Rogers is sincerely appreciated.

I regret to advise, however, that it will not be possible to comply with the request made in the last sentence of your letter. He receives, of course, innumerable publications but ever since he has been in his present position, he has pursued a policy of not commenting upon any of the works submitted to him. In these circumstances, I am sure you will understand why he could not deviate from this course in the present instance.

Sir:

An advance copy of CAPITALISM IN CRISIS by James Harvey Rogers, to be published October 25th, has been sent to you and I hope you may be able to give it early attention. Professor Rogers has, we feel, taken a position in this book which is of national importance. He points out the persistent world drift toward state capitalism which has speeded up greatly during the depression; he analyzes a number of important reasons why the capitalistic order is no longer functioning effectually in the United States; and he indicates a number of common-sense, liberal remedies for saving what is left of it. In his final chapter he suggests that the Czechoslovakian crisis and its bitter aftermath may bring as a by-product an important advantage to this country. Few other incidents seem to have stirred the American public so greatly, and Professor Rogers sees as a net result the realization of the direct competition between our economic order and those of the dictatorships. If he is right, he opens up an American movement leading back toward the center and away from both extremes.

I hope, as I say, that you will agree on the importance of this book and that I may count on your interest and cooperation in bringing it before the American public.

Faithfully yours,

Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt,

Dear Mr. President:

Like million of other Americans, we are hoping that you have a most enjoyable holiday while in Warm Springs, and that you return to Washington fully refreshed. For that reason, if no other, we would not under any circumstances wish even to intrude to the point of writing, did we not know your Secretarial staff capable of deciding the whether or not this communication should pass on to you.

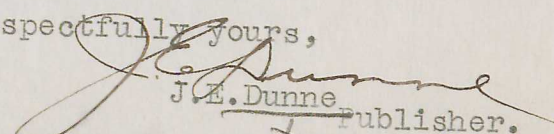

Having strayed far from the field of my own activities, I have prepared a small book entitled "Heil Hebrew--A Gentile Salute". This humble effort has been dedicated to a beloved friend in New York, L. N. Rosenbaum, whom I know for years has been one of the most enthusiastic exponents of your administration. Feeling so deeply for the anguish of my friend due to the treatment of the Hebrew in Europe, I felt I would like for him to know my sentiments, and at the same time protest as a Gentile to all of this brutality to the Jews. In fact days ago I wrote you in Washington in appreciation of your words in behalf of this noble race. I did so because so many of the citizens inspired undoubtedly through ulterior motives always are heard in Washington, while those countless of us Americans who are with you do not raise our voice. Not to burden you with correspondence, but rather to let you know of the support of the majority has always been the reason for writing.

Please understand, our beloved leader, that I am not sending you this book with even the thought of acknowledgment. It is only an amateurish effort, written while my heart was literally bleeding for these unfortunate fellow-beings, and yet somehow carrying a faith that with you in the White House all would come out well. You are in my opinion the great humanitarian of all times, and through you the stricken people of the world will be assisted.

From you I want nothing but the opportunity to serve, and to have you believe that I am representative of millions of other Americans who have abiding faith in your course and will follow.

Respectfully yours,

J. E. Dunne

BERNE, Lewis Alan - Pres., International Union, Federation of Architects, Engineers,
New York, N.Y., Chemists and Technicians, Dec., 1938

Sends Mr. McIntyre a letter stating that the members of his organization are assembled in convention in Wash., D.C. and send to the President an honorary membership in their organization as well as the important tools with which they earn their livings, the symbol of their professions - the drafting board and the T-square. Feels that the President as architect of his summer cottage at Hyde Park, and in a broader sense, designer of the houses for the American people through a functioning housing program, is welcome to their organization. -- Sends pamphlet. -- On Dec. 12, Mr. McIntyre thanked Mr. Berne on behalf of the President for the gifts and the honorary membership. -- On Dec. 7, Beryl Gilman wired Mr. McIntyre asking for a Presidential greeting for their convention to be held at the Hotel Raleigh on Dec. 9-11, and asks about presentation of honorary membership card. -- Office memo indicates that Mr. Gilman was coming in on Dec. 9 to present membership card to Mr. McIntyre. -- President's letter of greeting, dated Dec. 8, to Mr. Gilman is attached. -- On Dec. 9, Mr. Gilman thanked Miss Bachelder for her help.

Dear Mr. President:

I am giving myself the privilege and the pleasure of sending you and Mrs. Roosevelt a copy of the private edition of my father's anthology. I know he would have wanted you to have one of them. In his last years he was a staunch, if characteristically critical defender of the New Deal and shivered many a lance in your behalf against the boiled (and stuffed) shirts in the Links Club.

When Secretary Ickes spoke for us here, I asked him to convey to you personally our pledge of present and future support in your magnificent fight for the under-privileged. We have been able to organize the entire motion picture industry behind your administration, from the rank-and-file on the sets up to, if not including, the studio executives.

We were agreeably surprised at the success of our radio broadcasts, educational films, stumping, etcetera in the state campaign. Our dramatization of the issues by top-notch performers and writers represented something new in campaigning. With proper handling, we feel that it can be made a vital factor nationally in 1940, when the real battle is joined. In the meantime, we are taking the lead in organizing the various liberal forces in the state behind an intensive educational program.

There is a staggering amount of work to be done. California's political heart is in the right place, but its mind is apt to wander.

We were delighted that Jerry Voorhis came through the recent unpleasantness stronger than ever, and feel that Lee Geyer will make up in part at least for the loss of Byron Scott. Downey can be depended upon to maintain a sturdy liberal philosophy. Organized labor and informed liberals had a lot more to do with his election than did the Peculiar Pensioners.

Melvyn Douglas and I will be in Washington some time this winter to discuss plans for 1940 with other liberal groups and with the National Committee. We hope that you will give us the privilege of calling on you then.

With all best wishes to you and Mrs. Roosevelt for a Merry Christmas, a Happy New Year and a reasonably reasonable Congress,

Sincerely,

Philip Dunne
