My dear Miss Evans:

Your letter of December thirtieth has been received and what you say is again being brought to the attention of the appropriate officials of the War Production Board.

While your generous thought in sending the President that hand-knit jacket is genuinely appreciated, it is suggested that it be used by one of the convalescents you mention. Therefore, I am returning it to you under separate cover. x 807 9-E

My dear Mr. President:

As I expect to be in Washington during the week of January 17th and I have been requested to present to you an embroidery made by Jacob Lambert an Ex-Apprentice of the United States Navy, I am wondering if it would be possible to make an appointment.

This man has put this work of love on cloth consisting of a flag and your emblem as President of these United States and he feels as though he would not care to trust it through the mails and as I am to be there on official business he requested me to present it to you personally from the Ex-Naval Apprentice Association. 1-31-44

The President wrote to the Pasha thanking him for dates and telling him how much they were enjoyed. Said this thoughtful kindness is one of the pleasant recollections of a memorable trip. The President said he had hoped to have the pleasure of meeting the Pasha in December on his way back from Tunis, and he explained why he was unable to do so. Said he will look forward to seeing him some day in the future, either in Marrakech or in Washington. Sent good wishes for his health and happiness. ---- The President's letter is as per draft supplied by Mr. Summerlin, 1-27-44 in response to Miss Tully's request, 1-14-44.

Letter to the President dated 12/23/43.

Desires to forward to the President a souvenir from Cairo inasmuch as the President spent some time in that city during the Cairo Conference. The souvenir would be two pictures of Tunis and Cartagenna, two of the cities which the President visited. Feels that perhaps the President might desire to send a delegate from the Embassy to examine the pictures before informing the writer if he would be willing to accept the gifts. Writer commends the President on his fine work.

Dear Governor:

1. I took Mrs. R. with General Jarman to see the forgotten soldiers who are defending our shores from Florida to Maine. I think she agrees with me that Jarman is a top man who should not be lost behind a desk in Washington when the balance of the men in this defense work are shifted over-seas.

2. I am having a party for John Pehle with Dorothy Thompson, Helen Reid, etc.

3. George Fielding Eliot, who is one of your favorite commentators, has done a book called HOUR OF TRIUMPH which without saying that it is your kind of program, may have a great influence in the direction in which you are moving.

4. Isn't there something more we can do to help Jim Fly, who is one of your top public servants and who is taking the worst rap of all from the press, the radio and above all, from the continuation of Carey as counsel to The Cox Committee?

OBJECTS:

Sociability among women of mature years.
Scattering of sunshine among those who are shut in or lonely;
The general welfare of the community.

SLOGANS:

"I know something good about you"
"Winter is on my head, but Spring is in my heart"

Y.W.C.A. Auditorium Fourth Tuesday of each month

"We are grateful to J. J. Mottell and Lon E. Peek for their help and assistance in providing us with this roster."

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

THE AMERICAN CREED

"I believe in the United States of America and the government of the people, by the people, and for the people, whose just laws are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable, established upon these principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my Country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."

COLLECT

Keep us, O Lord, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding, and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight-forward and unafraid.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene, gentle.

Grant that we may realize that it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and know the great common woman's heart of us all, and O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind.

—Mary Stewart.

CLUB SONG

OH, ELDERBLOOM!

(Tune: "Maryland, My Maryland")

We meet today, in friendly mood,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom,
To tell each other something good,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom;
To talk of joy our hearts have known
Of happy days now long since flown,
And, in our hearts, sweet peace enthrone,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom.

Your woman's heart is filled with love,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom.
Your mind is like a treasure trove,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom.
You've weathered fifty years or more,
Good deeds you've rendered o'er and o'er,
Of memories, you have a store,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom.

So now, we pledge ourselves anew,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom;
Each day, some act of love to do,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom;
That we may grow, in heart and mind,
To ever seek and strive to find
The Godly part in all mankind,
Elderbloom, Oh Elderbloom.

(The words of this song were written by Hallie L. Nye of Long Beach, and dedicated to Viola McConville, who organized the Long Beach Elderbloom Club in March, 1932.)

ELDERBLOOM CLUB

Its Origin and Purpose

The Elderbloom Club was founded in 1914 by America L. King, at Seattle, Washington.

When Mrs. King realized that the early, active years of her life were passing, she felt the need of companionship of women her own age, so she conceived and founded the "Elderbloom Club."

This Club has never been incorporated but, because of the love and high ideals which prompted its inception, it has become a power for good wherever a Club has been established.

Following are the principal features embraced by each Club when it is formed. As a Club grows, certain additions and changes are necessarily made, but no deviation from the principle of "seeking the good" is ever permitted; the all-purpose slogan being, "I know something good about you."

Eligibility—Any woman fifty years of age or over, or having gray hair. Other women may be made honorary members.

There are no dues.

Collections are love offerings to buy flowers for the sick, or for other purposes.

Club Flower—Elder blossom.

Club Colors—Lavender and white.

Insignia—Small bow of lavender and white ribbon or Elderbloom Club pin.

Meetings—Fourth Tuesday of each month. Business and program. Picnics, parties and sewing groups.

Opening or Greeting Slogan—
"I know something good about you!"

Closing Slogan—
"Winter is on my head, but Spring is in my heart."

Officers—President, first and second vice-presidents, secretary and treasurer.

Various committees and chairmen appointed by President.

Work—Calling on sick or shut-ins, sewing for needy, etc.

(Theme Poem)

I KNOW SOMETHING GOOD ABOUT YOU

Wouldn't this old world be better
If the folks we meet would say,
"I know something good about you!"
And then treat us just that way?

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy,
If each handclasp warm and true,
Carried with it this assurance,
"I know something good about you"?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If the good that's in us all
Were the only thing about us
The folks bothered to recall?

Wouldn't Goodness be more catching,
If we kept the thought in view
When we're meeting, greeting others—
"I know something good about you"?

Wouldn't life be lots more happy,
If we praised the good we see?
For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worst of you and me.

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
That fine way of thinking, too?
"You know something good about me!"
"I know something good about you!"

—Anonymous.

"Tho we travel the world over to find the beautiful, we must carry it with us or we find it not."

"The world needs more friendship in action."

ORGANIZATION OF ELDERBLOOM CLUBS

The Elderbloom Club is an organization of white haired ladies, or ladies who have passed the half century mark.

The officers of the Club consist of a President, Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. One of the distinctive features of this organization is that there are absolutely no dues.

At the first meeting when the organization was effected, lavender and white were chosen as the Club Colors, the emblem of the organization being a small, dainty bow of these shades.

The Club was organized for the purpose of forming congenial acquaintances, bringing cheer and encouragement to all of its members, and to assist in lessening the loneliness, which in many cases seems to be the lot of those who have borne the burdens and the toil of earlier womanhood years, and in advancing age are too often left without some purposeful interest in life.

Almost, if not foremost among the objects of this Club is the privilege of visiting the sick and especially the "shut-ins,"—those who are, for various reasons, unable to attend the meetings and are otherwise deprived of companionship of others of their own age. Another helpful way which has been developed among some Clubs is the pleasure and privilege of sewing for the needy, and otherwise helping in any philanthropic enterprises.

The meetings are held once each month.

The roll is called and may be answered in various ways, such as a quotation or current event, girlhood remembrance, a favorite poem or anecdote, name of some public person, etc. In very large Clubs, this takes too much time, but the Roll Call of members having birthdays in the current month, is a good substitute.

The foregoing plan of organization and object was arranged by Mrs. America L. King, (now deceased) of Everett, Washington, who is the organizer of the Club, and the plan should be read occasionally at meetings where new members are being taken in so that all may understand what they are joining.

Names, addresses and birthdays will be registered by the Secretary, and each new member should be given a small bow of lavender and white ribbon. Elderbloom pins can be had by sending to Mrs. J. Harrison, 543 N. 72nd St., Seattle, Wash.

INITIATION SERVICE OF THE ELDERBLOOM CLUB

To you who have sought entrance to the Elderbloom Club, is due some explanation of its aims and methods of work in the organization. To be eligible for full membership in this Club, one must have, as you probably know, gray hair, or be fifty years of age. Those who have neither may join as honorary members.

We call ourselves the "young people who have lived many years." There are no dues and no special obligations, but one is expected to attend meetings on the fourth Tuesday of each month and to induce others to join the Club.

The Flower, the fragrant Elderbloom; the colors are lavender and white. At the opening of each meeting, the President greets the members with "I know something good about you." The members return the greeting. At the close of the meeting the slogan is "Winter is on my head, but Spring is in my heart."

The special work for which the members seem particularly adapted on account of years and experience, is that of visiting some of the so-called "shut-ins" and those who are ill, taking to them some of the sunshine of life of which they have been deprived. Also to seek those who are lonely, for there are many of eligible age to join this Club, who have no special enjoyment whatever, and to make known to them that there is a place where they can meet with and enjoy the society of women of their own age, and where they will be most heartily welcomed.

If you conscientiously approve such work and are willing to assist in promoting its object, you will please signify by saying "I can."

Members, these ladies have met the requirements for admission into the Elderbloom Club. If you are satisfied to admit them to full membership, a motion to that effect is in order.

The motion is carried and you will be seated as members of the Elderbloom Club of————. I will now present you to the Club, and the Secretary will present you with a bow and with a card which will be a constant reminder of the day of the Club meeting.

(Names, addresses and birthdays will be registered by the Secretary or Membership Chairman, and each new member should be given a small bow of lavender and white ribbon. Elderbloom pins can be had by sending to Mrs. J. Harrison, 543 N. 72nd St., Seattle, Wash.)

"SONG OF MY HEART"

New Elderbloom Song, Dedicated to Cornelia Pollard
Words and Music by Gladys Comstock Smith

The days are passing
Fall is near!
Days are lovely
Bright and clear.

Then comes Winter
With her snow!
She brings her winds
Which blow and blow!

Now, it's Spring-time,
Flowers are due!
"I know something
Good about you!"

This is our secret,
May it never depart!
"Winter is on my head,
But Spring is in my heart!"

My dear Mr. Eriksen:

The President has asked me to thank you most heartily for your courtesy in sending him the original prints of the prize winners of your salon of photography. He is especially pleased to have the prints and wants you to know how deeply he appreciates the friendly thought which prompted this presentation.

Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt,

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Because of your interest in the nation's youth and encouraged by your kind letter, received at the conclusion of last year's Salon, I am mailing you the original prints of the prize winners in the National High School Salon of Photography.

The prints represent selections of the entries from all states of the Union and the Territory of Hawaii. They were chosen by a jury composed of: Joseph Costa, Halleck Finley, J. Ghislain Lootens, F.R.P.S., Lt. Commdr. Edward Steichen, U.S.N., and Kenneth Williams, A.R.P.S., and exhibited in eight of the largest cities of the United States.

The National High School Salon of Photography is an educational, extra-curricular activity, sponsored by the Board of Education of the City of New York. It is entirely self supporting but non-commercial. All the work in connection with the Salon is voluntary. No entry fees are charged and prizes in the form of War Bonds and Stamps are distributed to the winners.

I need not mention that photography and photographic processes play an important part in this global war. The youth of our nation has shown itself aptly prepared to step in and carry on the work as evidenced by these samples.

Will you kindly accept these as a gift from the National High School Salon of Photography, for I feel certain that you do approve the worthiness of the project.

Sincerely yours,

EINAR B. ERIKSEN

It is one of several types we manufacturer for the men of the United States Armed Forces. It is completely hand made in our small shop where we are working to do our part in the War effort.

We are employing Ex Service men of this war, who have been honorably discharged,and men who have some physical handicaps such as nervous condition, blindness and those unable to be in our Armed Forces.

Although we don't have an Army and Navy E we are doing all we can to make the best knife, which we feel is a most valuable piece of equipment for our boys.

You being Commander-in cheif of our Armed Forces we would like you to have one as they are only made for men in the United States Armed Forces.

Writes to the President stating that at the request of Major George Fielding Eliot, they are sending him a copy of Major Eliot's new book HOUR OF TRIUMPH which they are publishing on March 21st. States that Major Eliot particularly wished the President to have a copy which he has inscribed for him.--On 4/4/44 the President wrote to Major Eliot stating that he deeply appreciates his thoughtful courtesy in sending him the personally inscribed copy of his new book "Hour of Triumph". The President stated that he is deeply touched by the laudatory sentiments in the inscription and trusts sincerely that the work will indeed contribute "to the task of building a world of peace and justice under law". He added: "That is a terse and forceful epitome of the cause for which we are fighting."-- On 4/3/44 Mr. Hassett wrote to Mr. Hitchcock thanking him, on the President's behalf for his participation in the gift of Major Eliot's book. (Pencil notation: "The President kept the book").

ALL AGREEMENTS SUBJECT TO STRIKES, ACCIDENTS OR CAUSES BEYOND OUR CONTROL. WE WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, NOR CAN ANY MATERIAL BE RETURNED WITHOUT OUR CONSENT.

I have today taken the liberty of sending you under separate cover a book which, if you have not read, will, I believe, repay the reading - incidentally affording you relaxation and also a somewhat first perspective upon one of the most remarkable characters in our early history. I trust that you will accept it with my best wishes.

It is a biography of that provincial lawyer who, as the dominant leader in a remote but critical sector of the American front, not only devised the strategy which successfully countered the ablest and most determined assault by the British to suppress our liberties, but later, with equal success contributed greatly toward formulating the political strategy and tactics which, at a time of almost insurmountable difficulties in sectional opinion, composed these divisions among the delegates to the Convention of 1878 and profoundly influenced the result of their labors.

The subject of this study, John Rutledge, has hitherto received scant recognition from American historians although in his career he exhibited preeminently that political philosophy which most clearly exemplifies the American spirit and which in these troubled times shine as a beacon of hope to guide our steps in our march toward a stable peace.

I venture further to say that I seem to discover a close analogy between your own political faith and practice and that of this almost forgotten, little understood or appreciated, but none the less preeminant statesman of our early national life.

With great respect, I am

Very sincerely,

JAMES D. EVANS

Writes the President that his brother, George Earle, has often told him of the President's collection of ship models and marine books. In view of the above thinks that the President might care for the enclosed History of Coastal Patrol Base 17. Thinks this is the only published history of the anti-submarine operations of these Units.--
The President, May 31st, wrote Major Earle saying he was glad to have the copy of the History of Coastal Patrol Base 17 and that he was sure he should find the volume very interesting when he had the time to read it.

EARLE, Lt. Comdr. G. H.
New York, N. Y.
June 4, 1944

Wrote the President, giving his opinion as to whether the veterans of this war should join the American Legion and - or - the Veterans of Foreign Wars or set up a new organization. Comdr. Earle thinks that if the veterans can join the above organizations with same terms and privileges as they take members of the last war, then no new organization is necessary or advisable, but if not, then a new one should be set up. Comdr. Earle tells the President about the two rings, one given to the President and one to Mrs. John Boettiger. He also tells the President that he has talked with many people since he saw him and in his honest opinion, he is certain of the President's reelection by a tremendous majority.----On 6/6/44, the President wrote to Lt. Comdr. Early thanking him for checking up on the veteran matter and also thanking him for the rings. The President's ring was put in the Charm Chest at the Library.

History has shown that Anti-Semitism is only a camoflage and a smoke screen. It is a prelude and cover up for persecution of the so called Christian by the so called Christian. For every Jew killed or persecuted thousands of the so called Christians were down trodden and killed by their own.

I often wondered why is it when a mortal gets the opportunity to attain immortality he muffs it????????

The President

Frank M. Elsasser
3112 Wilkinson Avenue
Bronx, New York.

About 8 years ago this correspondent, as Commander of the Herkimer Post of the Bavarian Riflemen, had the honor to present to the President, through the late Mr. McIntyre, the Star of the Herkimer Post and also, as a birthday gift, a first, original copper-plate edition of a masterpiece which an old family friend, Professor Paul Haertl from Bad Kissingen, Bavaria, had sent the writer for that purpose. The President must know the Professor well, as he has given outstanding service at Warm Springs.

Today the writer is happy to be able to send the President 2 prints, also contributed by Dr. Haertl, to add to his collection.

During the week of July 7-14, after 2 years of uninterrupted work at the Army Base at Brooklyn, he expects to employ his leave in visiting Washington and Mt. Vernon again for the purpose of offering a few historical relics to institutions or private persons there. These include: the original seal of George Washington, the last letter written by "Lady" Washington and the flag which was in the Washington Family for more than a generation. He has unfortunately lost a group picture taken on the occasion of a tea at the White House, representing the President and Dr. and Mrs. Haertl. He would have liked to have this autographed by the President as a keepsake for his 4-year-old son Ernst Rupprecht Maximilian.

Leider ist mir das Gruppenbild, das vor Jahren anlässlich eines Teebesuches im Weissen Hause mit Herrn und Frau Dr. Haertl und Ihnen, verloren gegangen oder abhanden gekommen und es hätte mich und meine hier geborene Familie sehr gefreut von Ihnen, Herr President, eines mit Widmung zu besitzen, wie es mir Dr. Haertl vor Jahren schon versprach.

TRANSLATOR'S SUMMARY OF COMMUNICATION

Language in which written: German

Date of communication: No date

Addressed to: The President

Name and address of writer: Frank M. Elsasser
3112 Wilkinson Avenue
Bronx, New York.

Substance of statements made by the writer:

About 8 years ago this correspondent, as Commander of the Herkimer Post of the Bavarian Riflemen, had the honor to present to the President, through the late Mr. McIntyre, the Star of the Herkimer Post and also, as a birthday gift, a first, original copper-plate edition of a masterpiece which an old family friend, Professor Paul Haertl from Bad Kissingen, Bavaria, had sent the writer for that purpose. The President must know the Professor well, as he has given outstanding service at Warm Springs.

Today the writer is happy to be able to send the President 2 prints, also contributed by Dr. Haertl, to add to his collection.

During the week of July 7-14, after 2 years of uninterrupted work at the Army Base at Brooklyn, he expects to employ his leave in visiting Washington and Mt. Vernon again for the purpose of offering a few historical relics to institutions or private persons there. These include: the original seal of George Washington, the last letter written by "Lady" Washington and the flag which was in the Washington Family for more than a generation. He has unfortunately lost a group picture taken on the occasion of a tea at the White House, representing the President and Dr. and Mrs. Haertl. He would have liked to have this autographed by the President as a keepsake for his 4-year-old son Ernst Rupprecht Maximilian.

Dear Sir

I write this short letter to sent it to you. I am Chief Silas My tribe is few, we are 65. We are feeling good & happy, because the Americain soldier kill all Japs here. Thank you very much Sir.

God bless America land that I love. Her men save Solomon Islands. Thank you Sir thank you very much. I tell you now, Americain help is good for my people, So I and my boys go over to help them some time. Some time they are come over to me on Sunday, and we have Church together in the love of God our King. Some time the Americain want my boys to sing, so I sent them to sing for them.

Again I say Americain good than the world. True love come from over there. It is good for me. Americain keep Solomon Islands. I sent a cain & a wooden girl to you, they are my present. I see here Americain are stronger than the Japs, so I hope very soon peace be still over us in the love of God our King.

Again I tell you, I am Chief & teacher Silas ETO. I call me myself I am your son, because we are all native here, like a child, we have no strong to fight for the Japs. We are in distress, but the Americain come to help us. It is O.K. Thank you Sir, thank you very much.

God bless America her men Save Solomon Islands, the land that I like.

These are my last words. After war I hope Americain keep Solomon Islands maybe.

Mr. Stasser

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States,
White House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President: PERSONAL

Inclosed herewith you will find a book entitled, "That Man in the White House." It has some historical statements; for instance, on page 1, President or Dictator, citing some instances in connection with President Washington, President Lincoln, President Jefferson, President Polk, President McKinley, President Woodrow Wilson. You probably have already had a copy of this book, or, of course, from research, have this information. But it struck me as being a mighty fine answer to some of the opposition's statements about your being a dictator. As an illustration, it would appear that President Lincoln pledged the United States for $250,000,000 and paid out $2,000,000 without authorization of Congress.

Also inclosed is column of Westbrook Pegler, published in the Fort Worth Press on September 7, 1944, which is a Scripps-Howard newspaper. This article is so dirty and so vicious it cannot help but react. It is a disgrace to any newspaper to permit any columnist to write an article of this type. If this has not already been called to your attention, I am sure you will appreciate getting it.

I listened in to the Republican candidate's speech last night, and it appeared to be one of those ghost-written, Manhattan, canned speeches, full of falsehoods. The speech of the candidate himself sounded like to me on the radio a sixteen-year-old boy delivering a valedictorian address at a junior high school graduation. Not one line of statesmanship was in his remarks. It was, though, a very vicious attack upon the Administration.

The statement of the Republican candidate that the biggest depression that the world had ever known had taken place in your administration, of course, fell flat, even with his own audience, with their synthetic applause. The people know better than anybody that Hoover brought about the depression. The statement quoted from General Hershey is one that will hurt, unless it is denied. I read the newspapers closely, and I have never read any such statement coming from General Hershey, and it is patent on its face that it is a lie; but unless it is answered by someone in authority, including General Hershey, it is going to hurt.

As you know, I do not often write you, nor worry you, because I know you are busy.

The newspapers down here quote that you agreed with Governor Stevenson on his plan for two sets of electors, anti and pro Roosevelt electors. I hope you have not done this, as we believe that we are going to control the September 12 convention here at Dallas, and as a matter of fact, what the Roosevelt-haters and anti-administration people want is two sets of electors. That will wreck us in Texas and probably be the cause of Dewey carrying the state.

With great respect, I am,

Most sincerely yours,

PEGLER

Opium Trade Profit Gave One Roosevelt Financial Security

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

MRS. Roosevelt's autobiography, published several years ago, is one of my favorite books and every time I dip into it I am tantalized by the atmosphere of luxury pervading the story and the author's iron reticence concerning the sources of the Delano fortune.

Now I think I understand.

The old gent, Warren Delano, President Roosevelt's grandfather, was an old-time opium smuggler, a member of something rather like our own rum row which operated off the New York coast a few years ago. The ships ran the stuff from India into China, whose Emperor had seen the ravages of the drug among his people and was trying to saw them off.

Mr. Pegler

You have to do a great deal of studious reading to get at the facts, but if you are patient you find in 'Lawrence Kearney, Sailor Diplomat,' written by Carroll Storrs Alden, in 1876, this statement: "In 1834, when 25, Warren Delano went to Macao...and in the following year, was made a partner in Russell & Co. He was one among American merchants who, with British merchants, were imprisoned by the Chinese in the walled-in area of Canton, the event which led to the so-called opium war.

"Since 1800, traffic in opium was illegal in China. The Emperor Tao-Kwang directed the suppression or importation and use under penalty of confiscation and death."

Alden was head of the department of English and histor yat the U. S. Naval Academy.

MRS. ROOSEVELT, incidentally mentions vaguely the fact that Delano lived in China many years and was a member of Russell & Co.

Commodore Kearney, the subject of the book, served 54 years in our Navy. The Commodore, in his papers, says Delano was our vice consul in Canton, and later, says "small assistance can be had from the commercial agent of the United States in Canton who is a member of a firm deeply interested in this nefarious traffic."

In a volume called the "Clipper Ship Era," by Arthur H. Clark, who commanded several ships in the China trade, it is written that the British had a monopoly until certain American firms horned in, attracted by the tremendous profits to be made by the exploitation of the Chinese addicts. He mentions several ships and says "these vessels, owned by . . . Russell & Co., soon controlled the opium trade and became known as opium clippers.

"They all made a great deal of money for their owners until they were superseded by steamers."

In another book, called "The Opium Clipper," Basil Lubbock writes that the head partner of Russell & Co., of which Delano was also a partner, was "directly responsible for practically all of the American clippers in the opium trade."

In a pamphlet published in 1853 by Nathan Allen, called "The Opium Trade," there is a footnote which says, "This (Russell & Co.) is the only American firm as far as we can learn, engaged in the traffic. And what is the amount of capital invested we have no means of knowing. The same censures which are applied to the English should also be meted out to all Americans engaged in this traffic."

In an earlier pamphlet, Allen wrote: "There is no slavery on earth to be compared with the bondage into which opium casts its victims. There is scarcely one known instance of escape from its toils when once they have fairly enveloped a man."

ROBERT MONTGOMERY MARTIN, in a book called "China, Political and Commercial," published in 1847, describes a rendezvous of more than 30 opium boats at Canton and says "at Canton, the foreign residents, with two or three uninfluential exceptions, are all identified with the opium trade." He also says "an American firm, Russell & Co., have four (opium ships) on the coast and three between India and China under the American flag."

Delano died in 1898, leaving a personal estate of $1,338,000. He had married twice and was the father of nine children, among them, Sarah Delano, who married James Roosevelt and became the mother of Franklin D. Roosevelt. As Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt reveals in her life story, the family lived richly and without toil and traveled abroad at will during a period when only the very well-to-do could afford European travel.

When the President's mother died, the state transfer tax appraisal filed at Poughkeepsie indicated that the fortune had been kept almost intact. The family had had boats, country mansions, town houses, servants and horses down the years and still Mrs. Roosevelt left $1,238,361, of which $20,000 was invested in Government bonds and $10,000 in war bonds.

My dear Mrs. Evans:

The President is delighted to have that beautifully embroidered, framed copy of the Lord's Prayer which you left at this office recently. He more than appreciates your friendly thought in wanting him to have this product of your own handwork and has asked me to extend his hearty good wishes to you.

Very sincerely yours,

MEMORANDUM FOR GENERAL WATSON:

Because you were delayed and Mrs. Evans was pressed for time, she asked if I could accept this gift for the President. I did so as your assistant.

Mrs. Evans asked that the picture be presented to the President with the message that she wants him to know "this is a gift from the poor people, who love him just as much as the rich. On the way across the country, it was shown to the poor class of people and they all thought it would be a fine thing to give to the President." She hopes he will like it.

I'm from Nashville, Tenn., and for past several years have been employed in the Coast Guard Service.
You'll kindly and very humbly for me place this tribute on the President's desk. x P179-T
He may object to this tribute being stamped on an elephant's hide (real), but he has skinned the beast so many times and is about to repeat the just performance again, that I think it very appropriate. I'd send a piece off the hide of the animal that Pegler represents, but because of it's offensive odor the mails ban such. In the minds of the oppressed Peoples of the Earth his memory will remain green and bloom hopefully, long, long after such men and women have been forgotten save the odor they leave behind.

Knowing the President's hobby is collecting boats, he wonders if he would be interested to have one. It is a hand embroidered likeness of the U.S.S. Flagship, Ohio, and embroidered by a Japanese lady about 35 years ago when the "Ohio" was docked in Japan. Writer is leaving for Washington on Tuesday Oct. 24th, and will bring it to the President, should he let him know.

On 10-20-44 Miss Tully wrote to Mrs. Stockmar that the President would be delighted to have the likeness of the U.S.S. Flaship Ohio, and suggests she contact her by 'phone upon her arrival in Washington.

Now before the election and a very important election it is, I feel like sending it to you.

I pray that the Allmighty God gives you all it is written on that token.

On the center of the star of David is written in hebrew „Mazel" which means in english luck.

May good luck and good health be your lifelong companions. amen.

I wish you to know that most of the people I know love you and pray for your health and success.

Please dear President take good care of yourself dont take unnecesary risks. We need you this country needs you.

I would be honored if you keep this token for good luck among

Your souvenirs ...

My dear Mr. Eisenbrand:

Many thanks in the President's behalf for your very kind letter of October eighteenth and for your friendly words of confidence in his leadership.

It was thoughtful of you to write about the portrait you have painted and we regret exceedingly that his schedule was such a close one that it was not possible to arrange for him to see it. It was gracious of you to offer to present the portrait to the President but, as much as he appreciates your generous thought, he simply does not have any more room for items of this nature. I know you will understand and will accept my assurance that your kindness and your expressions of good will are deeply gratifying to the President.

Dear Mr. President :

First, I want to express my gratitude for your aid in indirectly securing for me my present job as Painter at the Philadelphia Signal Depot. This was in answer to my letter of April 23rd, 1941, which you so graciously acknowledged.

Now the object of this letter is to inform you that I have painted your portrait (which is held in high esteem by the opinions of many persons) and, if I am presuming too much; to have you view it.

This could be done without too much inconvenience on your part; as I understand that on October 27th you will be in Philadelphia to make an address at Shibe Park (21st St. & Lehigh Ave.) while the portrait is at 22nd & Lehigh Ave. (one block west) at Annex No. 1 of the Phila. Signal Depot, (in the cafeteria). If you should desire to possess it, I shall be honored to present it to you.

In closing, permit me to repeat (from my last letter) that in my humble opinion, I consider you to be the greatest statesman; the highest and noblest man of all times in our American History. It is destiny that you are (and will be) the one selected and capable of "guiding the Ship of State thru these perilious waters" of today.

My dear Mr. President:

I sincerely believe the following suggestion would materially help to promote lasting, friendly relations between the peoples of the U. S. A., the U. S. S. R. and mankind the world over - without which a lasting peace is impossible.

Print and promote the circulation of Leo Tolstoy's inspired, but little known, book entitled "Twenty-Three Tales". This book should help any fair-minded reader to realize that a Russian is very like our new neighbor next door, that he possesses an unusual amount of common sense and the more we get to know each other, the better we like and understand each other.

The proceeds from the sale of this book and the contributions which it might help enlist, could be used to further friendly relations everywhere, particularly in Russia.

I am, dear Mr. President,

Fraternally yours,

MEMORANDUM
Dec. 16, 1944

Two aeroplane models sent the President by Curtiss Wright Corporation, Research Lab. Plant #5, Buffalo, N.Y. in accordance with request of Mr. Adrian Smith The P-40 model is 14½" X 12" X 9" and the Commando or C-46 model is 18" X 13" X 9½" both of these models have metal stands with name plates att.

Miss Tully wrote Mr. Smith on 12/13 thanking him in the President's behalf for those two fine aeroplane models for his collection.....correspondence with the models sent SERIES "B".

On Nov. 23, 1944 Louis Johnson wrote Gen. Watson enclosing letter from G.M. "Monte" Williams. (no inclosure rec'd.) States a few days ago Mr. Williams sent the Pres. a model of the C-46 transport plane and P-40 Pursuit.plane. Also mentions Mr. William's suggestion the Pres. might be interested fro M.P a model of the R-3350 Cyclone engine.....On 11/27 Fanny Statler, Sec. to Mr. Johnson wrote Gen. Watson enclosing the letter of 11/20 to Mr. Johnson from G.M. Williams, which was omitted in let. of 11/23. Mr. Williams in his let. to Mr. Johnson said he is having the Wright Aeronautical Corporation prepare a model of R-3350 Cyclone engine for the Pres. collection.

On 12/27 Gen. Watson wrote Col. Louis A. Johnson, Clarksburg, W.Va. advising him the Pres. rec'd. the model of the C-46 and P-40 sent him by Mr. G.M. Williams. He was more than happy to have them for his collection and will be delighted to have the model of the Cyclone engine which Mr. Williams spoke of in his let. Gen. Watson regretted he was away when Col. Johnson was in town.
