Dear Sir;

I am sending you a picture that I drew of you in pencil. I know you are a very busy man but I hope you will have time for this humble letter. I am an amateur artist and this is the first time I ever sent a picture to anyone such as yourself.

People that saw the drawing said I should send it to you, that you would like it as a gift, they thought.

I made this drawing from a picture much smaller, that was given away by the Democrats with compliments of George White, our present governor. I would send that picture to, but I want it to make another one of you so I can have it in my room. I feel ashamed sending the picture without a frame, but I didn't have the means to do so.

I have had very little training in art due to the fact that I couldn't go away and study because of money. But I have kept at it and learned a bit by myself. I am unemployed now, so in my spare time I draw, when its possible.

I hope that maybe some day you could see a place for an artist, or an amateur. If so I would appreciate very much hearing of such an opportunity.

Mr. Louis McH. Howe, Secretary to the President,
The White House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Howe:

My good friend Mr. Lionberger Davis, of St. Louis, recently wrote me that he would be in Washington and would see President Roosevelt on the twenty-fourth of this month or next Wednesday. I do not know whether he will dine with the President but in the event that he does I would appreciate it if you could see that he is served some of my trout. Today I shipped a box of FRANTZHURST RAINBOW TROUT to the President and they should arrive in Washington Tuesday evening.

I had the pleasure of spending considerable time this summer with Mr. Davis and I thought it might prove a pleasant surprise if he should happen to dine at the White House and find some of my trout on hand.

I trust the President may enjoy trout occasionally as the season will soon be closed for Public fishing.

The elections will soon be held in this State and though normally a Republican I shall vote an almost entire State Democratic ticket and I feel safe in predicting that the vote in Colorado will show conclusively that the President's policies are still strongly in favor by the majority of the American citizens. Even though we have not a particularly strong Democratic candidate for Governor he will be re-elected by a large majority and with the possible exception of two men the entire State Democratic ticket should be elected.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

I enjoyed my talk with you very much, Sir, and I need hardly tell you that I will do all in my power to help to promote good relations between our respective navies.

I think we are agreed that we must be free to protect our respective interests - If we really work loyally together we ought to be able to ensure the peace of the world.

Our problem of protecting India, Australia, New Zealand, and our Eastern interests, in addition to our vast trade across the oceans - with two Latin races athwart our line of communications through the Mediterranean, is a desperately serious one. I think your sailors realise it and that the Treaty of London deprived our Navy of the power to carry out its responsibilities - apart from the part that the two Latin races are unhampered by its ties.

When we returned to New York, I found a cable from my publisher to say my book was out and well received. Dalton's who are buying out the American Edition, are sending you a copy which I hope you will honour me by accepting. Our war meeting comes with the next volume.

With respectful remembrances from my wife and myself, I am,

I have taken the liberty of sending you my prayer book, which we Jews of the Reformed group use on our High Holy Days.

In it, at the page marked by the ribbon, you will find pages on social justice that may appear familiar.

In any event - in your "spare moments" - I trust you will enjoy some of the inspiration that we Jews obtain from the old champions of social justice.

(National Negro Hymn)

Words by James Weldon Johnson Music by J. Rosamond Johnson

Lift every voice and sing
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

The Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,

My dear Mr. President:-

I thought you might be interested in receiving a copy of the speeches made by some of the men of the "All Star Team". It seems to me that even the great position of The President of the United States carries with it certain definite penalties. One of them is the denial to you of the privilege of watching the members of the team in action.

This Convention, which was tremendously important, to the recovery of the Nation, provided an opportunity for four real players to do a grand job -- and they did.

One of the most important developments in the past few weeks is the steadily increasing realization on the part of the important group in industrial management, that you have organized a real team, and not just a few stars. When all of us realize that it takes "a team" to win games, then we will really be on our way. I am sure that time is not far distant.

With every assurance of our earnest support, I am,

Respectfully yours,

Dearest President:

I haven't any money
because I am one of twelve children & I am 15 years old. You know how much it takes to take care of us all. I can't send you a Christmas present
but I hope you'll enjoy
this picture of yourself.
That I drew of you. Well
I have better Christmas wishes
for you,

My dear Mr. Field:

The President has received your note of recent date, with the accompanying gift for Mrs. Roosevelt. While your thoughtfulness in sending the ring is appreciated, it is felt that it cannot be accepted. Therefore, it is being returned to you herewith.

I want to thank you very much in the President's behalf for your holiday greetings.

Very sincerely yours,

M. A. Leland

President wrote - "I am sure I hardly need tell you how happy I was to receive the Flag which was flown from the HOUSTON during the cruise last summer, together with the card which accompanied it. This will be one of my real treasures and I hope you will thank everyone who had a share in the thought and in the preparation of the Flag. My best wishes to you all for a very Happy New Year."
