Dear Mr. Foster:

January 10, 1939

This will acknowledge your letter of January eleven and I regret that the White House policy forbids the President's criticism or comment in any way on any of the literary works which are presented to him from time to time. As the President has not from this source since he has been in his present position I am sure you will understand his position.

Dear George:

Thank you for my most useful

Subsequently, one evening when visiting Gus in his room and we sat there talking together, I learned that you had kept this little book on the stand by your bed and in the evening would read it.
This, of course, naturally pleased me.

I am writing at this time hoping that possibly you will write me a little note and tell me whether or not you still read this little book, whether or not you still enjoy it, and whether or not you feel it has a real message for those who are willing to follow a certain regime to maintain good health.

In reply to this letter I wish that you might personally sign it. I will certainly not use it other than personally confidential, but I would like to get your opinion on this little book and I would like to have it personally signed by you that I may keep it in my scrap book.

Incidentally, may I say to you that I miss Gus Gennerich a great deal. He and I had learned to love each other. At the time when his sister passed away I recall his sadness.

I hope that I may hear from you, and incidentally would state that if you are interested in birds and have about the White House grounds, these little feathered friends, I would be glad to send you a book I recently published on, 'Birds'.

Sir:

Due to the social unrest in many countries abroad and its effect reflecting on our shores I have been prompted to create a Laminated Cellophane Du Pont Cellulose Film American Flag, one that radiates an unusual brilliancy and will not become dusty or soiled no matter how long it may remain in one place.

This Flag is not intended for outdoor display as it will not withstand the elements.

I trust you will accept this Flag and find a place for it.

Wishing you and your family a very Happy Holiday.

Wrote to Miss Le Hand saying that Mr. Yoshinori Matsuyama has come to this country, acting as Envoy, bearing a message from Mr. Takeo Iwahashi, President of the Light House (the Japanese Foundation for the Blind) to the President of the United States. Said that Mr. Matsuyama's mission is not officially from the Government of Japan but direct from the Light House to Mr. Roosevelt, and he has a present for the President - a Filmphone, - the first talking book for the blind, a new invention in Japan. - Mr. Stephens asked if the President could dictate a message to Mr. Iwahashi. --- Referred to Mr. George T. Summerlin, State Dept., by Mr. McIntyre's Memorandum of Feb. 9 saying "Will you please advise? I think you might see him."

Cordially yours,

Eli Felsh

I will ask you please to disregard the "cut" in the wood. This particular cut gave me plenty of trouble, as the wood itself is a solid piece of wood - no glue or anything else.

I will also request that you handle this bottle with care, because I did not have the proper wood and tools to make this better.

I would not hesitate to say that at this time when we have to build airplanes in a great hurry, an idea similar to this would help increase the production.

I would like very much to have your comments.

Your Excellency:

You will receive under separate cover a copy of "Education," the sixth chapter of an eleven-chapter work called "WHAT FOOLS THESE MORTALS BE!" It has been published in this crude form because I have no other means of bringing it forth and -- it must be published.

You will hardly agree with the chapter, but you have a right to read it, as it criticizes the status quo severely, though justly.

Of course you must refuse public comment. However, if you read it twice you will be forced to admit its veracity -- indubitably you will find it highly engrossing. I will be more than pleased to submit the entire book in manuscript form for your inspection on request.

Wishing you the success you deserve in attaining your meritorious objectives, I am

Letter to the President, re non-receipt of reply to gifts sent to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt in August 1938, two volumes, "Journeys with the Lamplighter" and "The Prelude to Happiness". Comments regarding efforts to erect monument for her children in form of a "Therapeutic Pool" in aid of crippled children. This spring the N.Y. Philanthropic League, sponsored by the United Order of True Sisters, Inc., would like to give gala concert at Carnegie Hall to help raise funds for the monument and Mrs. Farkas invites the President and Mrs. Roosevelt to participate in this benefit concert. Asks possibility of setting aside a "Crippled Children's Day" on September 14. Encloses invitation to a tea given by writer in behalf of the N.Y. Philanthropic League on Sept. 14, 1938 and contribution to the Foundation. In reply, Mr. McIntyre says that there is no record of the gifts at the White House and regrets the President's and Mrs. Roosevelt's inability to attend the benefit concert.

Dear Mr. President:

Several months ago you gave utterance to some remarks concerning the direct primary. I am taking the liberty of sending you under separate cover a copy of a booklet published by myself in 1925, entitled "Repeal The Direct Primary." It attracted considerable attention at the time, but since then little has been heard of it. In some respects it is doubtless not up to date, but for a number of years my time has been taken up with other matters.

I am also sending you a copy of the January number of the Journal of Social Philosophy, containing an article entitled "Gierke and The Corporate Myth." It touches on some fundamental problems with reference to the bearing of Fascism upon labor organization.

Together with these you will receive a copy of my recently published translation of a work by the celebrated Gierke.

It is my hope that you will find these items of some interest.

Very respectfully,

Bernard Freyd.

Washington, D. C.

My dear Miss LeHand:

This is to introduce Miss Alma J. Flanagan from Massachusetts, who has been doing some very fine work for the Government. Among her activities she has written a little story on the romance of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, in which she makes mention of our President.

Through you - Miss Flanagan would like to present a copy of her story to the President.

I feel certain you will enjoy meeting this young lady and I think you will find that you have many things in common.

Hope you have been well and enjoying these delightful spring days.

My kind regards and good wishes

Very sincerely yours

My dear Mr. Lichtman:

Your letter of April nineteenth has been received and your courtesy in offering to send the President one of your "World's Fair" hats is sincerely appreciated.

May I advise, however, that the President cannot accept gifts unless it is understood in advance that there will be no publicity in connection with their presentation.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt

If, in view of the above, you still desire to present the hat to the President, his head measurement is $7\frac{1}{4}$ ".

Very sincerely yours,

Excuse our liberty in writing you. As you will see, we are manufacturers of men's hats. We have made a certain type hat which in our opinion is very different from any other type made before. It is the "World's Fair" hat. It was made for the President, and we have named it "The President's Fair Hat."

Mr. Jerome Lichtman,
Famous Hatters Corporation,
257-265 Greenpoint Avenue,
Brooklyn, New York.

The Honorable Grover Whelan has accepted one of our hats. We would like you to have a similar success to the New York World's Fair. We appreciate it if you would let us have your head measurements so that we may fit you correctly.

We apologize for any inconvenience and look forward to your favorable reply.

The President has asked me to thank you for your good letter with enclosure in the form of a reproduction of a painting by "Dandy" Flynn, the Irish Channel poet and artist.

While your generous motive in offering to present this painting to the President is greatly appreciated, I must advise you that our White House policy is to discourage the bestowal of valuable gifts on the President. Since this is the policy it is not felt that the President could make an exception in this instance. Orleans Irish plan to hit Hitler action

Declaring that "something drastic must be done to let Hitler know what the world thinks of his wholesale pillage and slaughter," George (Dandy) Flynn, Irish Channel poet, announced yesterday a movement of Irish of the city for a "monster indignation meeting" to protest the Fuehrer's persecution of the Jews.

A committee is being formed, Mr. Flynn said, to complete plans for the mass demonstration which he feels is necessary to prevent Hitler from "getting away with his outrages." A list of prominent Irish-American speakers is being drawn up for addresses at the meeting, Mr. Flynn said.

"The entire world as aghast at the almost unbelievable cruelty of Hitler and his cohorts," said Mr.

Flynn, "and the entire citizenship of New Orleans is thoroughly aroused by reports of wholesale executions which are nothing more nor less than cold-blooded murders. Even the worst days of the Spanish Inquisition would be mild in comparison to the bitter and unwarranted measures taken by Hitler against an entire race of people."

"Dandy" Flynn, "the poet of the Irish Channel" and also an artist, is the painter of the above picture. It depicts President Roosevelt in the center with a figure representing hate or war on the left and another figure as that of love and peace. The picture is not named but Flynn thinks he will call it "Meditation." It was finished recently.
