For the triumvirate — Morgan - Du pont & Rockfeller - will do everything in their power - to throw obstacles in our way —

Their wings have been clipped.

The Sun-flower - as the emblem of their party - is most appropriate - for it has a rubber neck. Their reply may be - It follows the Sun — Its powers, caused the Great Drought!! etc.

Since I wrote last night by my brother Robinson Gibbons a life time friend of Thomas Day and I - They were boys To. gether in Columbia Tenn. Del.; as a Democrat Democrat.
In those days - Next York was the Key State. Just as it is pollitical so went the election.
To be defeated was defeated, in the event Cam Kaye is - by Queens - Woodward after words in Ny co, Tenn? and Harrison with. his. last - was out;
It was a lesson To The Democrats not to be too sure - So the Great Man came again into Office & of Course refused to run a third term. - Then unfortunately we had no strong man Until Wilson & now the Roosevelt - The three greatest and most courageous Men in my time.

My dear Mr. President:

Will you please accept this little gift from one of your loyal, devoted friends?

It is a tiny cushion filled with Palestinian grass. It, together with a "mezuzah", was sent to me several years ago by my venerable grandfather, may he rest in peace, who had it blessed by many great and pious rabbis.

The silk is from a dress I had which was the second of its kind. The second was even better than the first and so it seems fitting and significant to me. May your second term be even better than the first! (Better – how I wish I could say that word as you do!)

Grandfather believed this would help me to regain my health – and who shall say it didn't? At any rate, I am healthy enough now and happy in being permitted to serve in this great cause – your re-election.

An old friend and schoolmate was here just recently – Blanche Fairgrave Ombie – and that's when I enrolled for work. New role, new experience, new voter (way past 21!) for the New Deal under You, "inyirtzehashem"!

I am, dear Mr. President,

Yours faithfully,

Rose Fineberg Gordon.

Writes the President, enclosing gold coin, which he asks be accepted as a pocket piece. Believe the President's recent trip to Michigan climaxed the campaign. -- The President replied on Oct. 26 that he is really touched by his letter and by his generous kindness in desiring him to accept as a pocket piece the gold coin which accompanied it. Indicates that he cannot accept a gift of such value, but wants him to know that he is very, very grateful for the thought which prompted him to send it. Coin was returned with letter.

Dear Mr. President:

Under separate cover, I am mailing to you for your pleasure, a humidor and one-hundred cigars of my own make.

I do this as a gesture of deep appreciation for your human thoughtfulness of the masses of heretofore neglected American Citizenry of these United States of America.

I am very proud of the privilege I have enjoyed as a committee of one to have passed out two thousand of these cigars to individuals in your behalf for re-election.

With my sincere best wishes for your success to continue as our leader and the best of health.

My Dear Delano.

Just one short week from today, we Americans will march to the polls to reelect you to another 4 year term as our President of these United States, the Greatest and Grandest Leader that America has ever known. We love you because you love Humanity and as "Every crisis breeds its own master" certainly God Almighty has given you to lead us to a nobler finish. What do you think of this sketch "The Big Race" by Allen Turley a home town 21 year old N.R.A. worker?

See Buddy how I'd love as I've always wanted to be able to be honored by a hearty handshake by you and do hope that someday I will enjoy this pleasure. To the Hon. Franklyn D. Roosevelt,
President of the United States,

My dear Mr. President:

It has been a long time since Inhave troubled you, but I had to send you a ham, like I did October 31st., 1933, so you can celebrate your re-election on the 4th. Now if you remember, I predicted when you spke in Atlanta in 1928, for Al Smith, that you would be the next nominee, and would be elected by the biggest majority any President ever received. There in no doubt in my mind that you will be re-elected by a larger majority even that you received before, and will carry 40 States. A President who has saved this country from a revolution, saved the banks, railroads, insurance companies, kept people from starving, kept their homes from being confiscated, cannot be beat.

When you come to your Georgia home, I've got a bunch of Quail waiting for you. Hoping you will re-elected by a very large majority, and that I will have the pleasure of seeing you at Warm Springs, and that you will enjoy this small sweet ham that I am sending, on November the 4th.,

Dear Sir:

About two weeks ago, I had occasion to discuss with your cousin, Mr. Labusohr, the enclosed composite picture of our president, Franklin Delano Roosevelt and in accordance with his suggestion, I am forwarding the same to you and trust you will be good enough to present the same to our president, with the sincere best wishes of the writer.

In my opinion, the composite picture is both unique, odd and a self-serving declaration of our president's ability and character, both as a man and chief executive of our country. By this time the people of our nation have voiced their confidence in Franklin Delano Roosevelt, by their overwhelming vote in his favor, indicating their confidence and trust, based upon his past performances.

I trust that the enclosed sketch meets with your personal approval and incidently, I desire that you bear in mind that this sketch was not created nor intended in any sense of flattery or for publicity purposes, but on the contrary, represents the conscientious reflections of the writer, who is a co-originator of the same.

In closing, kindly accept my deep appreciation for your cooperation in placing this picture in our president's hands or calling the same to his attention and with kindest regards both from myself and Mr. Labusohr, permit me to remain,

Very truly yours,

Ralph A. Gold

Dear Mr. President:

Having read in the Washington Post of November 12th and 13th, a somewhat sketchy account of the Delano Family history, I am moved to send you the enclosed brochure, which was printed for private distribution by my mother, Mrs. Harley Calvin Gage, in 1910.

As you are descended from the fourth son of Philippe de Launoy, Lieutenant Jonathan Delano, and I from his second son, Dr. Thomas Delano, the lines running back from our mutual ancestor Philipse, who came to this country in 1621, are, of course, yours as well as mine.

It is also highly probable that some others of our ancestors were neighbors and friends in the distant past, as my ancestor, Joseph Pratt, moved from Hempstead, Long Island, to Dutchess County in 1759, where he was one of "The Great Nine Partners", his estates comprising the site of the present City of Poughkeepsie.

I am taking the liberty of enclosing printed extracts from some of the many letters my mother received

Dear Mr. President:-

The girls of our special sewing group have requested that I act as their spokesman in extending greetings and good wishes for a most successful administration during the coming four years.

Every one of the young women are victims of infantile paralysis, most of them fearfully handicapped. But that handicap has not dimmed their smile nor sapped their courage. They ask only the opportunity to work. We are happy to be able to provide, in an humble way, such an opportunity. Here, in a comfortable and pleasant workroom, the girls make a variety of new products, the sale of which help to provide the revenue with which we carry on. Please accept from the girls, a tie for yourself and a luncheon set for Mrs. Roosevelt. Each one of the girls had a part in the making of them.

Permit me to take this opportunity of extending sincere congratulations, in which mother joins, upon your glorious victory. Mother has been especially interested in your achievements. She was born in Poughkeepsie and often recalls the experiences of years ago when, as a young girl, in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor and their two sons, Robert and Douglas, the latter for whom I am named, she often met your parents.

With every good wish, believe me,

Cordially yours,

Dear Mr. President:

I believe that the year 1937 will bring back the NRA again, as soon as you go into office for President a second term.

I have designed a new NRA poster and instead of having a blue eagle I have made it a gold one in your honor, to be President for a second term. In your first four years as President your NRA poster read "We Do Our Part", and your next four years it will read "We Did Our Part and We'll Do It Again".

Uncle Sam represents the nation forging ahead inspiring the people with good faith.

I believe that is all I have to say as the poster is self explanatory in every detail and I hope that you will like it ,and will consider myself very fortunate if you choose to use it.

May I thank you in advance whether you use it or not.
Hope to hear from you real soon and sincerely hope to have the letter signed by you Mr. President to keep for a memory.

Sir: I have sent you under separate covers, an oil painting of yourself. it is not because it is any too good, but it is to show you ~~do~~what a man, who is on a wheelchair can do, without ever having taken any lessons in painting, never went in an Art Studio, or having seen an artist's painting.

I was born in 1891 at Salmon Falls, N. H., my name is Alfred Fardiff. I was three years old when my father died, at seven my mother married Remi Gagnon at Salmon Falls, N. H., thereby changing my name to Alfred Gagnon. At the age of nine we came to Manchester, and established residence. Some 4 years later while I was attending school at St. Mary's I became sick with rheumatism. I was treated by Dr. Eugene Larochelle but it seems that they didn't know what I had. I was soon to learn that I had to take to a wheelchair, with no hope of ever walking again.

I have been on my chair for the past 32 years, and if it hadn't been for my religion, I would have had taken my life many a time.

My pastime is to do some painting and reading. My friends bring me to the movies in Summer, and it is there that I learend to know you in the news, and if you dont mind my saying so, I applauded you always.

I consider you as a friend, for I have quite a few pictures of you in my room.

Wont you think that I should be encouraged just a little? Even if it was only an autograph as a token, if not it wont stop me from admiring the more.

You will find my picture enclosed with yours.

Hoping to hear from you I beg to remain,

Respectfully yours,

Alfred Gagnon

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I hope you had a lovely vacation. All the while you were in South America I was hoping you'd come to the White House so I may write you, but now that I've got a pen in hand I don't know what to write. I was very glad you were elected President of the United States again. Enclosed is a picture I ~~took~~ transformed from the paper of you. It isn't very

My dear Mr. President:-

I am enclosing herewith my 1937 calender bearing your portrait. I ordered a supply of these calenders prior to election day, as announced in the East Chicago Globe of October 30-1936, the clipping of which is also enclosed herewith.

My business has reflected my confidence in your administration, and I am truly grateful for all you have done to improve the economic conditions of our country.

With all good wishes for your continued health and four more years of successful governmental administration. I am,

Sincerely and respectfully yours,
Proprietor,
