To: The President of the United States,
Franklin Delano Roosevelt,
White House,
Washington, D. C.

My Friend:

In the last election on November 5, 1940, I had made a vow; that if Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt was elected for a third term, I would make him an Indian gift with my own hands, and since he was reelected, I am now carrying out that intention by sending him 10 arrows, 1 bow, and one quiver. These articles are all made by me, and I hope that you will accept my humble offer as a gift to fulfill my vow.

The six bone arrow heads represented arrows used by the Indians about 800 years ago, and the four other arrows represented those used by the Indians after Columbus came to America when they had the use of metal. The wooden part of the arrows are made from the branches of a wild cherry tree that grow locally, and the bow is made from ash tree also local tree. Some of the feather used are eagle feathers and the others are turkey tail feathers.

My good friend I give you these so you may show them to your many good friends. I am now 70 years old and a poor man.

Respectfully,

William Gay.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

I am expecting to be in Washington on Monday the 27th and Tuesday the 28th of this month in order to discuss with my national director of the Writers' Project the possible usefulness our program might be in providing defense educational material for the public schools. I am vitally interested in this work, and in connection with it, I am also interested in the possibility of a series of photographs to be used, if you approve, in relation to your speech of October 24th which you were kind enough to send me some weeks ago.

Is there the slightest chance of my being able to talk to you for about five minutes on either Monday the 27th or Tuesday the 28th? Perhaps this is an unheard of request from just a private citizen. If it is possible I would be more than grateful.

I am enclosing under separate cover our new book, DRUMS AND SHADOWS, just released by the University of Georgia Press. I hope you will like it. I think we were very fortunate in the jacket comments.

Dear Mr. Early:

Inclosed is a copy of a letter that I wrote to the President some days ago. It will explain itself.

My trip to Washington has been delayed. I find now that I will be in Washington on the 6th and 7th of February. I know that my hope to see the President for a few minutes on the 27th or 28th of this month was requested at a very busy time, and on very short notice. I now hope that perhaps my being in Washington on the 6th and 7th of February will make it more possible. If there is any chance of my seeing him for a few minutes on either of these days I will be more than grateful.

Very sincerely,

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt
President of The United States
Washington D. C.,

Dear Mr Roosevelt;

I am taking this opportunity of writing you, with reference to the craftmanship work of one of most loyal and ardent Democrats, namely Mr John Gallo of Clinton Avenue, Oakdale, Pennsylvania.

Mr Gallo in his spare time for the past eight months has worked and completed a very wonderful and hand carved, framed picture of you, our most able servant.

xP.P.7.
9-P

The approximate size of the entire frame and picture would be three or four feet square. The wood is all hand carved and around the entire frame he carved forty-eight stars, representing the forty-eight states, out of lead and silver. On the top of the frame he has carved and worked in wood an American Flag.

Personally I have never seen a better piece of craftmanship of this type of work.

Now comes our problem, Mr Gallo very, very earnestly insists, that I as Democratic Chairman of Borough of Oakdale, contact you in some manner to see that you receive this picture as his gift to you.

Mr President, the people of this locality have all practically viewed this picture and I know they would be more than gratified to know that you will accept Mr. Gallo's gift.

Hoping you will find time to give this matter a few minutes time, and wishing you and your family a most Happy and Prosperous New Year, I remain.

Very truly yours
J. Dale Gamble

Your Excellency:

I, as an American citizen, have long been a great admirer of Yours and as such, am taking the liberty of sending You my heartiest congratulations on Your forthcoming birthday.

It is my fervent hope that You enjoy a long life of happiness and health and that You will continue the great humanitarian work which You have so capably performed to date.

I am a cripple and as such have plenty of time on my hands. As an amateur, I have drawn a picture of You when You were Young and just starting out in Your career and am sending it to You as a gift for Your birthday.

Although I would like to enclose more, my financial condition is such, that I cannot possibly do so.

I enclose a dollar bill as a modest contribution to the Infantile Paralysis Fund.

I do hope that You will accept my modest gift and that You will extend to me the honor of Your personal autograph, the receipt of which would make me a very happy and appreciative man.

Again let me say may God bless and protect You and Your dear family and Keep You all in good spirit.

Transfer Pattern No. 6824

COPR. 1940, HOUSEHOLD ARTS, INC.

Color Chart

This pattern contains a wall hanging to be embroidered in simple stitches on a smooth surfaced linen, upholsterer's satin, unbleached muslin, pongee, cotton poplin or any similar material and lined with a similar material in a matching or contrasting color. It may be interlined with flannel to give it more body. A medium weight wool, six strand cotton or rayon floss may be used for embroidery.

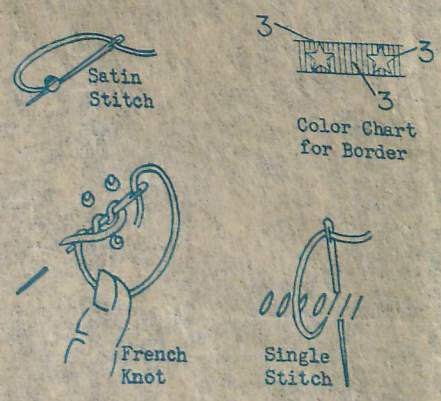

MATERIAL REQUIREMENTS: 5/8 yard of 36 inch material if the same material is used to line it; 5/8 yard each of 18 inch material for front and lining, if different material is used; for interlining the same amount; wool, cotton or rayon thread in each color to be used; bias binding.

EMBROIDERY THREAD YARDAGE AND COLOR KEY: The approximate amount of each color thread used is given. Wool comes in 1/2 ounce balls of about 25 yards or in small skeins of about 6-1/4 yards; rayon floss comes in skeins of about 4-1/2 yards; six strand cotton comes in skeins of about 7 yards. Approximate yardage for each color is given. 1--black, 5 yards; 2--gray, 3 yards; 3--deep blue, 27 yards; 4--medium blue, 3 yards; 5--pale blue, 7 yards; 6--gold, 14 yards; 7--bright red, 14 yards; 8--deep red, 11 yards; 9--purple, 2 yards; 10--deep brown, 17 yards; 11--medium brown, 10 yards; 12--tan, 3 yards.

TRANSFERRING PATTERN: Cut the hanging from pattern. Pin it securely in place on a 16 x 20 inch piece of material, printed side down. Lay the material on a padded surface (an ironing board will do). Try out heat of iron on trial motif. Press over hanging with a moderately hot iron.

EMBROIDERY: Do the embroidery in the colors suggested in the Color Key in the following stitches: single lines, single stitch; broken lines, running stitch; continuous lines, outline stitch; dots and letters may be worked in satin stitch or work dots in French knots, letters in single and outline stitch. The difference of lines in Color Chart is just to make the placing of colors easier; the heavy broken lines indicate bright red; the dotted lines, deep blue; the light broken lines, gold and crossed lines, deep brown. When finished with embroidery press the hanging on the wrong side, laying it on a Turkish towel or other soft padding. This makes the embroidery stand out.

FINISHING HANGING: Cut the lining the same size as hanging. If it is to be interlined, cut the flannel the size finished hanging is to be. Cover interlining with hanging. Baste lining to back of hanging. Slip-stitch lining in place. Cut four loops of binding 2½ inches long or make bias strips, fold them and make a narrow strip ¼ inch wide. Sew a loop at each end of top edge; sew on the two others at equal intervals.

Dear Mr. President,

I am ten years of age, and I am in the sixth grade in Public School 85.

My hobby is sketching pictures. I have drawn many pictures of flowers, animals, and children. This is my first attempt at portrait work. I have chosen you because you are the best and most handsome president we ever had.

This is my opinion of you. I enjoy

My dear Mr. Gentry:

In Mr. Early's absence on a cruise with the President, your letter of March seventeenth has been received. When he returns you may be sure that he will make the sketch available to the President, which you enclosed.

Meanwhile, I want you to know that we have no record of any previous letter or sketch having been received from you.

Let me thank you, in the President's behalf, for your friendly thought of him.

Very sincerely yours,

Ruthjane Rumelt

Dear Mr. Early:

While visiting in Washington some time ago & noticed that the Capitol building was being painted.

It occured to me later, knowing the Presidents interest in the National debt, that it would be amusing to show him on one of the scaffolds assisting with the painting.

I subsequently sketched this idea and submitted it to the many magazines in which my cartoons appear. When it did not sell, mention what

I sent the sketch to you. To date I have never received acknowledgement.

I wondered about this, for a friend of mine dashed into my quarters recently proudly displaying a letter from you, and informing me that the Presidents mail is always answered.

Hence, I am enclosing another sketch, which was also submitted to the magazines - unfortunately too late, for many of the editors were pleased with the idea.

I hope the President will be pleased as well.

respectfully

Thurston Ensley

Dear Miss Rumelt: This is to call attention to your letter of March 21, 1941 in which you advised me that upon Mr. Early's return to Washington you would call his attention to a cartoon I sent to the President. Of course I appreciate that there are more important things for the President to see in these drastic times. However, since your letter also advised me that Mr. Roosevelt did not receive the first cartoon I sent him, I had hoped that he would see this one.

sincerely yours Thurston Gentry.

Dear President,

Wanted to send you these two small items long ago but have been deep in a novel script I call The Roots Go Deep. It is a gentle tale of American living as has to deal with the farm and wide horizons about fields of wheat, near pasture-edges.

I consider your Administration very much like the years Lincoln knew. As a Lincoln student I've noticed many striking parallels.

Good luck to you always.

Dear Mr. President,

I have been an ardent admirer of you and your entire family for many years. My family have been democrats as far back as my grandfather in Sturgeon Bay which is mostly Republican.

I have been extremely interested in politics since I was in the third grade and it has been my hobby while I have had to stay at home bringing up my three children.

The reason I am writing this letter is because of an article, I once read, stating that you have a collection of books on sailing. I suppose you have the one I possess but if you haven't I would dearly love to give it to you.

It is called "The Ledge Anchor"

Dear Mr. President:

We have recently completed a very interesting assortment of genuine photographic views of Chanute Field, Rantoul, Illinois.

The photographs themselves definitely prove that our country is marching forward, showing to the world that we can as a democracy adequately defend ourselves.

We are sending this set of photographs under separate cover via parcel post, because we know you will not only welcome the chance of seeing last minute pictures, but will certainly be proud of the actual achievement as President of the United States.
