Dear Sir!

I'm little too late, to Congratulate you on your election. I thought you will be too busy to read them all. It makes me very happy, that you will be our leader for next 4. years more.

Before election I wrote you that I'm sure you will be elected. Thanks god my wish came true. The only wish I have now, to meet you Mr. President in person some day.

Mr. President I made for you hand carved wood a picture, which I'm mailing to day.

70 FIFTH AVENUE

Recd
December 17, 1940.

Dear President Roosevelt,

I want you to have this copy of The Spiritual Diary, a book that it has been my privilege to compile and edit. I feel that you are partially responsible for this book's existence--that is, it was you who, perhaps unwittingly, gave me the courage to carry through. For a long time I have wanted to prepare such a book, but it was not until I read your statement last spring (in answer to Doctor Jerow) in which you urged a return to religion that I had the courage to go ahead. Even then I approached the task--and it was a task!--with some trepidation. However the response from ministers throughout the country was immediate and most heartening.

And so The Spiritual Diary grew from an idea into this book. A glance through the index will give you an idea of its scope. The Spiritual Diary, I feel, is unique in the fact that its pages have been prepared by active clergymen and religious leaders of all denominations and from all parts of our country. It is a book of daily devotionals designed expressly to meet present-day needs.

The contributing authors having agreed to waive royalty rights, it has been decided to donate royalties to the Department of National Religious Radio of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America. This, I feel, is as it should be, since the aims of these programs are so similar to the aims of this book--to stimulate interest in religion.

One more thing I would like to add--quite a few of the ministers whose pages appear are now serving as Chaplains in our army camps. They tell me that they are using this book in their services. They feel that it has a particular appeal to youth. Having two sons of draft age, this is naturally very heartening to me.

With sincere respect and admiration, and my gratitude for all of the kind things you are doing for our boys--a feeling that I am sure every mother must share--I am

Dear President Roosevelt:

Under separate cover I have sent you some of my paintings of the homes of Will Rogers, and Eddie Cantor, as a Christmas remembrance, since I am conscious of the fact that you enjoyed the sayings of these two humorists.

In that connection I might mention the fact also that I lack only a little of having my Ph D degree with a major in Humor, and now have 2,000 type-written pages of poems, monologues, dramatic broadcasts, and photo-plays that are ready for publication.

Perhaps I had better give you a sample by saying that I hope you believe I know as much about art, as a frog knows about a crook in a microbe's hind leg, or as much as a tadpole knows about his near relative the North pole.

that caused the paint to split in the middle.

When I wrote last I was very anxious

My dear Mrs. Huebner:

The President has asked me to thank you for your very kind letter of congratulations. He appreciates the spirit which prompted you to send him the rose and wants you and the members of your family to know that he is deeply grateful for the friendliness and good will which your letter conveys.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr President, I hope you will not feel I am acting too forward
in addressing you on your most wonderful day of your entire life however I do not wish to bore
you with a long letter, therefore I shall get to the point at once
and make this letter as brief
as possible. I have ten children and we were hoping and praying
you would be re-elected. Thank
The Good Lord you have!

We live in the suburban part of Philadelphia and the weather
is brisk and seems so much colder
than the city. We have a handsome American Beauty rose bush which only blooms for the entire month of June. July
the bush looks practically dead.
Yesterday two gorgeous roses

received one, and due to it blooming on "your" day I felt it was something like your self. It seemed like a miracle
to see roses while the bush
appeared completely asleep
for the winter season.

You have our humble prayers
in all of your undertakings.

May God Bless You in

YOUR BIRTHDAY COMES BETWEEN JANUARY 21st AND FEBRUARY 19th

You were born under the influence of AQUARIUS
which is the sign of the Truthseeker or Scientist.
Your ruling planet is URANUS, the God of Invention.

SATURDAY is your most important day.

Your lucky GEM is the Sapphire.

Your FLOWER is the Tulip.

Your COLORS are blue, bluish-green and purple.

You will succeed through your great reasoning ability and your clarity of vision. You are naturally lucky in financial affairs. You are a strong lover and when you have found the right mate, you are intensely loyal. You should be successful in any occupation pertaining to designing, music,
nursing or agriculture.

Hon. Franklin Delano Roosevelt,
President Of The United States,
Washington, D. C.

Honorable Sir:-

During the last Democratic National Convention, which I had the privilege and honor to attend, I was presented with the button I enclose herewith.

While I prize it highly, I feel that perhaps, you would appreciate having it as a matter of "souvenir," and because of this feeling I take the privilege of enclosing it herewith.

Believe me, Mr. President, when I say: "MAY GOD BLESS YOU, TODAY AND ALWAYS."

Most Sincerely,

Maximilian E. Huhnke
