Honorable President Franklin Delano Roosevelt:

My dear President:

I am honored and priveleged to forward to you part of an ancient Holy Bible, printed in the year 1660 in Amsterdam, Holland, on the occasion of your sixtieth birthday.

May I take this opportunity of expressing my hope and trust, as an American citizen, in the final success of our tremendous task on behalf of freedom and liberty.

I am certain that our beloved country the United States, with the allied countries will triumph over the dark and brutal forces.

I base my predictions on the following utterances from Psalms 37:14 and 37:15 I quote:

2.

Psalms 37:14

Because

"The wicked have drawn out the sword and have bent their bow, to cast the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conduct."

Psalms 37:15

Therefore

"Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken."

nine children.

Dear Mr. President:

Please accept my humble gift, I am many happy returns of the day. My gift is a bit soiled, embroidered same, thirty seven years ago. I felt abler hands than mine could put it right again. Hope it will give you pleasure, also a sincere prayer, for the great movement you sponsor;

Infantile Paralysis,

If every stitch, were a dime

A formidable weapon might be designed,
To lay low this monster peril

Infantile Paralysis,
That steals, like a thief, in the darkest night,

From our fellowman, their rightful strength, to live, and move and have being, among mankind,

May God, in his everlasting love and care,

In some, wise deserving mind;
some where, some how,

Bless, and bestow knowledge, and

To conquer, and destroy this foe, forever

"American Beauties."

Old Abe, our own American Eagle, mighty king of birds,

Sharp eyes, over our waving old glory,
Fiercely, and jealously, his vigil keeps,
Double Daring, to wrest it from his taloned feet,

Many the challenge, saw he go down in defeat,

Since America was born, fought for
and won,

For the Brave, and the Free,
With a firmer grip, "Our Stars and Stripes."
Unyieldingly, now he holds.

Screeching defiance, to every Foe, that would destroy,

An even greater United Nations, American Beauty Roses Red, for our mourned, heroic dead,

Loyal defenders, of land, and sea, and air,
In tender tribute, let them bloom forever,

"Lest we forget,"
The living too, shall know their

Dear Mr. President:

Recently in a San Francisco store window two paintings appeared one of you, and the other of Mr. Churchill. The window made such a great impression on me that I took a color picture of it. The enclosed is a Minicolor print of the result, I thought you might like to have.

I feel this window is one of the many ways we of the United States are trying to show how much we love and respect you and Mr. Churchill.

FEAR STALKS THE VILLAGE

By Ethel Lina White

Author of "The Wheel Spins", "Some Must Watch",
"She Faded Into Air", etc.

"I am one of twelve", says Ethel Lina White, "and the motto for every large family is 'God for us all--and the devil take the hindmost'. I certainly think that being one of many is excellent training for the future, as it makes a swelled head a physical impossibility. In my case, it meant a jolly childhood and youth. We lived on the borderline of Wales, and we had Welsh nurse-maids whose lurid stories probably were excellent training for a future thrillerwriter."

Miss White's newest mystery story is FEAR STALKS THE VILLAGE. In the last letter received by her publishers she remarks: "As I write, you have heard the sirens in New York. I pray you'll never have bombs. It may be a pleasant thought that we had four months' continuous bombing and are not a penny the worse."

Dear Mr. President -

Governor Lehman designated Sunday, February 8th, to be observed as Poland Day in New York State.

In this connection I take the liberty of sending you under separate cover a carton of White Eagle cigarettes which are manufactured by us under a license granted us by the Polish State Tobacco Department.

A royalty for the use of the brand name is paid to the Polish Government on each package, which aids in their war effort against the axis.

I trust you will enjoy smoking White Eagle cigarettes and it is my hope that you may adopt this brand as a favorite smoke.

As White Eagle cigarettes are not, as yet, on sale in very many stores in Washington, although I understand United Cigar Stores stock them, should you desire more, I will be very glad to forward them to you.
