My Dear Mr. President:

The United Nations should have a flag in common.

We herewith enclose a flag which we think is symbolic for the aims of the United Nations.

In this war we fight for victory, not alone to make the world safe for democracy, not alone for survival but for LIBERTY; a cause far more precious to humanity than any other.

This flag we give to you and, if you think advisable you may give it to the United Nations of free men.

Most respectfully yours,

Mr. and Mrs. Reed O. Hulbert

WASHINGTON IS LIKE THAT

By W. M. Kiplinger

"I spent five years trying to get someone else to write this book," says W. M. Kiplinger of WASHINGTON IS LIKE THAT.

"No one wanted to tackle such a big job, and neither did I. But, finally, I did -- under pressure of the thought that the need for knowing and understanding Washington was getting more urgent.

"Late in 1940 I started, putting together what I knew, uncovering what I didn't know, getting some picked collaborators to contribute on subjects which they knew well, or which they could dig up. Some of these are members of my own immediate staff of newsgatherers, engaged in the week-to-week job of watching and reporting Washington. Some are newspaper correspondents, some are magazine writers. Several are authors of books, authorities on their subjects.

"The book is written for people. It is desirable that people not look up to Washington excessively, for the habit numbs the brain. And it is equally desirable not to look down too much on Washington, for that's a way of using only one eye. The aim of this book is to help people to look Washington square in the face, on a level, with both eyes, and see inside it as it really is."

Inspired by a Loving Heavenly Father, this flag of the United Nations of the world was originated, designed and made by Mrs James E. (Lara) Harbaugh of 2066 W. Macon St. Decatur, Illinois U. S. A. who was born eight miles west of Rushville, Schuyler County Illinois on November 25th. 1883, the daughter of William Sydney and Margaret (Green) Cunningham.

My Dear Mr President Roosevelt:

If this flag is worthy of your adoption the above information is for you to have for records and all you will need to say to those to whom you may show it is, that it was made for you by one of your good friends.

The material in it is not as nice as I would have liked but it was the best I could get in order to get the shades I wanted.

In selecting the colors to use I saw a magazine cover with the grouped flags of the United Nations and every flag in that group had at least one of the colors in this flag. They may not be the exact shades but I wanted to select shades that would blend nicely together.

I know there were originally twenty one Nations and that was the way I started to design it, then I read the speech of Lord Halifax at Springfield, Ill. and he stated there were now twenty-six, and I sincerely hope the time will come when all the Nations of the Earth will be united.

If this flag meets with your approval and any of the other Nations would like one I will be glad to make one for them if I can get the material. If you do not care for this one you may please have it returned to me.

Sincerely Yours

Mrs J. E. Harbaugh

Sends United Nations Flag To President Roosevelt

A "Flag of the United Nations of the World," which was designed and made by Mrs. J. E. Harbaugh, 2066 West Macon street, was sent to President Roosevelt yesterday.

Mrs. Harbaugh, who has worked about two months on this flag, incorporated the colors of all United Nations individual flags in this flag.

On the flag, which is made of taffeta, there are 26 red stars, representing the 26 United Nations, shown on a white background.

In each corner and in the center of the white field is a green shield. Across the shields, which represent honor, righteousness, justice, freedom and peace, is a yellow ribbon upon which is embroidered the name of the shield in red. Green was chosen as a symbol of hope and immortality, and yellow, stands for constancy and unity forever, Mrs. Harbaugh said.

To the right of the white field with the 26 stars and five shields is the white Christian cross on a red background.

to President Roosevelt yesterday.

Mrs. Harbaugh, who has worked about two months on this flag, incorporated the colors of all United Nations individual flags in this flag.

On the flag, which is made of taffeta, there are 26 red stars, representing the 26 United Nations, shown on a white background.

In each corner and in the center of the white field is a green shield. Across the shields, which represent honor, righteousness, justice, freedom and peace, is a yellow ribbon upon which is embroidered the name of the shield in red. Green was chosen as a symbol of hope and immortality, and yellow, stands for constancy and unity forever, Mrs. Harbaugh said.

To the right of the white field

Mrs Eleanor Roosevelt
Washington, D. C.

My Dear Mrs Roosevelt.

On March 25-1942 I mailed by insured parcel post, a package to our President, containing a flag which I originated, designed and made, representing the United Nations of the World like the enclosed picture. The postal Clerk pasted the envelope containing the letter to our President, on the lower left hand corner of the package. I have not heard that he received it.

I know he has so many very important matters to look after that probably he has not had time to examine it and read the typed explanation of the meaning which the symbols and colors represent that I had sewed and pinned on the back of it.

I marked the package "personal," thinking there would be no doubt as to his receiving it, but since it has been almost two months I fear it did not reach him, and I am hoping you will do me the favor of asking him if he did receive it. If he did not I would like to notify the Post Office to see if they can find it.

If he did receive it that is all I want to know for I know that when he has the time he will examine it and let me know if there are any changes that should be made or if it is worthy of his acceptance. Perhaps at meal time or before retiring you might have a chance to ask him about it.

We have an only child, a son whom we are expecting to be in service soon, and every thought and stitch was put into that flag with Love and a Prayer that we may soon have Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men. I believe the United Nations is a major step in that direction. With our beloved President leading the way for a better understanding of the principles for which our dear men are now giving their lives.

Dear Mr. President:

We know your hobby is philately but we hope you will accept a specimen of our hobby - Liguus (tree snails) of Florida because of its unusual markings.

These snails are found nowhere in the United States but that portion of Florida below Ft. Lauderdale on the east coast and Naples on the west coast. They live on the hardwood trees in the hammocks of the Everglades and Keys. Of the thousands we have collected, this one was prized highest because of our Flag which the animal designed on his shell. Old Glory shall ever wave at top mast as even Nature has painted. The other flag can be called whatever you desire but there is no doubt about the top one.

We hope you will find a place for this shell among the many things you have collected thruout your life.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Higbee.

Dear Sir - I am only one of the millions of grateful citizens in this land of the free. A very insignificant person truly but one who has the great privilege of saying what she thinks.

First I want to say how much I admire you & your able leadership. There is no doubt that you are a man of destiny but Mr.

President be sure you have absolute faith in God. As a Christian I feel that this is God's war and if we realize that we should do every thing possible as far as we can but trusting always in His mighty arm for He is the only One who can deliver us from our enemies.

In days old when great leaders were faced with momentous problems of state or country as you and Winston Churchill are faced, ^{with} today they consulted God's prophets and through them were given divine insight. And "God is the same yesterday, today & forever."

There is in our city of Los Angeles a wonderful man and I do not think he is unknown to you. He is Dr. Clem Davies who has traveled all over the world and put in 19 years in research & study of the Bible. There may be others as sincere as he but for culture & insight in what is happening today according to the Word of God I have never heard his equal. He speaks to vast audiences every Sunday in 3 services, each one of 1500 people and twice a day on the radio. I sincerely believe that if you would get in touch with this godly man he could reveal to you many things through the scriptures what the united nations should do in these dark hours. I have only met him once but from every report he is surely a man of God. I am sending you one of his booklets - "The Course of the Conflict" & "The Shaking of the Nations". Please read them Mr. President for I feel that I was led by God to write to you and I hope you will not hold it as an imposition on my part.

Let me say that our boys in the service are reading Dr. Davies' booklets & calling for more. In them they see just what they are fighting for and what a privilege it is.

May we all do our part in this war is my prayer, for this is God's War.

May God's richest blessing be upon you Mr. President.

Sincerely -

Mrs. Daisy Harris

Dear Mr. President:

With this mail we are sending you for your personal enjoyment one of the first copies of a thrilling book. I know that you cannot sit down and look through this magnificent pictorial portrait and read Donald Moffat's gripping text without experiencing a quickening of the pulse -- a thrill of pride and of faith.

Although it's story, as you will realize, is powerful and overwhelming, it is the most beautiful of the many beautiful books it has been our privilege to publish. Fittingly, the subject is that which is now, more than ever, closest to our hearts -- our own country, our native land, the land we are fighting for! Few of us are really fully aware of the tremendous scope and variety of the physical aspects of this our country; the great open spaces, the peaceful villages, endless fields of grain, tremendous mountains, roaring rivers, quiet streams and wooded lakes.

FAIR IS OUR LAND! Indeed it is: great and strong -- here caught in many moods by our country's greatest etchers and photographers. Edited by SAMUEL CHAMBERLAIN from thousands of magnificent prints so beautiful that rejection became a heartbreaking task. The finest collection of etchings and photographs on America yet issued, fittingly printed in matchless gravure.

We feel that every American should own and treasure this book for graphically it cries out: "Here is what we are fighting for."

Very sincerely yours,

RAILWAY EXPRESS AGENCY INCORPORATED

UNIFORM EXPRESS RECEIPT—NON-NEGOTIABLE—TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The provisions of this receipt shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the consignor, the consignee and all carriers handling this shipment and shall apply to any reconsignment, or return thereof.

2. In consideration of the rate charged for carrying said property, which is dependent upon the value thereof and is based upon an agreed valuation of not exceeding fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment in excess of 100 pounds, unless a greater value is declared at the time of shipment, the shipper agrees that the company shall not be liable in any event for more than fifty dollars for any shipment of 100 pounds or less, or for more than fifty cents per pound, actual weight, for any shipment weighing more than 100 pounds, unless a greater value is stated herein. Unless a greater value is declared and stated herein the shipper agrees that the value of the shipment is as last above set out and that the liability of the company shall in no event exceed such value.

3. Unless caused by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for—

- Difference in weight or quantity caused by shrinkage, leakage, or evaporation.
- The death, injury, or escape of live freight.
- Loss of money, bullion, bonds, coupons, jewelry, precious stones, valuable papers, or other matter of extraordinary value, unless such articles are enumerated in the receipt.

4. Unless caused in whole or in part by its own negligence or that of its agents, the company shall not be liable for loss, damage or delay caused by—

- The act or default of the shipper or owner.
- The nature of the property, or defect or inherent vice therein.
- Improper or insufficient packing, securing, or addressing.
- The Act of God, public enemies, authority of law, quarantine, riots, strikes, perils of navigation, the hazards or dangers incident to a state of war, or occurrence in customs warehouse.
- The examination by, or partial delivery to the consignee of C.O.D. shipments.
- Delivery under instructions of consignor or consignee at stations where there is no agent of the company after such shipments have been left at such stations.

5. Packages containing fragile articles or articles consisting wholly or in part of glass must be so marked and be packed so as to insure safe transportation by express with ordinary care.

6. When consigned to a place at which the express company has no office, shipments must be marked with the name of the express station at which delivery will be accepted or be marked with forwarding directions if to go beyond the express company's line by a carrier other than an express company. If not so marked shipments will be refused.

7. As conditions precedent to recovery claims must be made in writing to the originating or delivering carrier within nine months after delivery of the property or, in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and suits shall be instituted only within two years and one day after the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof.

8. If any C. O. D. is not paid within thirty days after notice of non-delivery has been mailed to the shipper the company may at its option return the property to the consignor.

9. Free delivery will not be made at points where the company maintains no delivery service; at points where delivery service is maintained free delivery will not be made at addresses beyond the established and published delivery limits.

Special Additional Provisions as to Shipments Forwarded by Vessel from the United States to Places in Foreign Countries.

10. If the destination specified in this receipt is in a foreign country, the property covered hereby shall, as to transit over ocean routes and by their foreign connections to such destination, be subject to all the terms and conditions of the receipts or bills of lading of ocean carriers as accepted by the company for the shipment, and of foreign carriers participating in the transportation, and as to such transit is accepted for transportation and delivery subject to the acts, ladings, laws, regulations, and customs of overseas and foreign carriers, custodians, and governments, their employees and agents.

11. The company shall not be liable for any loss, damage, or delay to said shipments over ocean routes and their foreign connections, the destination of which is in a foreign country, occurring outside the boundaries of the United States, which may be occasioned by any such acts, ladings, laws, regulations, or customs. Claims for loss, damage or delay must be made in writing to the carrier at the port of export or to the carrier issuing this receipt within nine months after delivery of the property at said port or in case of failure to make such delivery then within nine months and fifteen days after date of shipment; and claims so made against said delivering or issuing carrier shall be deemed to have been made against any carrier which may be liable hereunder, have been made against any carrier which may be liable hereunder, the date when notice in writing is given by the carrier to the claimant that the carrier has disallowed the claim or any part or parts thereof. Where claims are not so made, and/or suits are not instituted thereon in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the carrier shall not be liable.

12. It is hereby agreed that the property destined to such foreign countries, and assessable with foreign governmental or customs duties, taxes or charges, may be stopped in transit at foreign ports, frontiers or depots, and there held pending examination, assessments and payments, and such duties and charges, when advanced by the company shall become a lien on the property.

June 24, 1942

President, Franklin D. Roosevelt,
The White House

Dear Mr. President:

Under separate cover, I am mailing to you two volumes of the messages and papers of Woodrow Wilson and one volume entitled "The Pope Speaks." The edition of Wilson's works I am sending has long been out of print, and it was difficult to secure copies of this edition. Most book stores said there was great demand for Wilson's books, and that it was almost impossible to secure these works. I hope you will keep these volumes in a handy place for reference in the trying days you are going through.

President Wilson's Fourteen Points remain the primary basis of peace. This War is but a resumption of hostilities since the War of 1914-1918 was never settled. The terms of the Armistice of November 11, 1918 were never consummated. The guilty few who struck down President Wilson should be named and punished. Until this is done we will never win the peace after the present War. Unless the United Nations begin a powerful moral offensive we will not win the War.

We cannot very well assume moral leadership as long as we allow those who struck down our Commander in Chief to go unpunished. I have been trying for twenty years to have this little group named and exposed, to vindicate the honor of this nation. It is evident my efforts so far have failed. (See enclosed letters)

After those who destroyed Wilson's great peace work have been repudiated and punished, it may be possible to launch a great moral attack and end the war. We have probably lost our right to decide the principles of the peace, because this country allowed a little group to violate the most sacred mores of civilization by striking down our own victorious war leader. Even savages do not do that.

Peace may be very near. It would be a fine thing and a master surprise stroke of state if this country and Great Britain gave to his Holiness Pius XII full power to formulate the principles of the peace. This would strike Hitler a terrific and unexpected blow, since so large a part of Germany, Austria, Italy, France and other nations under his domination are Catholic. It is inconceivable that the Pope would formulate a peace favorable to a tyrannical state. Besides the United Nations need not be placed under strict obligation to accept the formulated peace of his Holiness. But by giving him authority a start toward a just peace can speedily be made.

It is evident you do not care to assume charge of the moral offensive for the United Nations. Being a good executive, you could well enlist the help of the Pope.

Very sincerely yours,

Elizabeth Heiser.

O. JOHN ROGGE

Which of the Fourteen Points were actually carried out?

Of those not carried out, who or which nations failed in their obligations? Did Russia, Japan, Great Britain or U.S. fail?

Did we have freedom of the seas? Does Russia think so?

Were economic barriers removed? Was an equality of trade conditions established among the nations associating themselves for the maintenance of the peace? Which nations did not associate themselves for the maintenance of peace?

on disarmament
Did Point IV. refer only to the Central Powers?

Were colonial claims weighed according to the standards given in Point V? Were there any hearings or open forums at all on questions of colonial claims. Point V states ALL colonial claims must be adjusted on this new basis.

HAS ARTICLE 6 ON RUSSIA BEEN CARRIED OUT? DOES RUSSIA THINK SO?

This Article or Point 6 constitutes the best statement of the relationship of the Occident to the Orient in existence of ~~that we have~~. Russia based on the principle that is East and the U.S. is West. "East is east, and west is west" ~~is the~~ central principle in Point 6 on Russia. Like other important parts of the "Fourteen Points" this one on Russia has not (until very recently) been carried out. This is the longest, and most meticulously worded of the "Fourteen Points. It can be used as a basic principle in all U.S. relationships with the Orient.

XIV The last of the "Fourteen Points" provided for an association of nations under specific covenants for the purpose of affording mutual guarantees of political independence and territorial integrity to great and small states alike.

XIV THE UNITED STATES WAS PRIMARILY RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS POINT NOT BEING CARRIED OUT.
