Dear Sir:

You will find enclosed a manuscript which I have been working on for three or four years and while it is not complete, I was compelled to close it because of lack of time. However, it does express some of my ideas and not being in a position to carry out these ideas, I am sending it to you because you are, if they should appeal to you as being sound and proper.

After the war I surely hope we can put first things first - namely.

1. The moral and spiritual welfare of the people.
2. Their health
3. Public Sanitation.
4. Public Recreation.

If you can use even one of my ideas I would be eternally grateful and would feel I had been of some benefit to humanity.

Very truly yours,

Claud F. Harmon

For a good many years I have been

Dear Mr. President:

I am enclosing a copy of a little booklet which tells the story of the 90th Infantry Division since its arrival in Europe. The boys have experienced much and have fought under all manner of conditions. I thought you might enjoy reading about what they have accomplished to date.

The story has, cut rather badly by the editors to make it suitable for their pamphlet arrangements, but still reads satisfactorily. The inevitable clichés crept in in the same way. We feel it tells the story of the 90th fairly accurately. We pass it on to you on behalf of the men of the 90th.

Many thanks in the President's behalf for your card of birthday greetings and for your kindness in sending him the handkerchief and tie. I know that he will appreciate your friendliness and that your contribution to the Infantile Paralysis Fund will please him very much.

I am sure you will understand and will bear with us.

Mr. President:

The enclosed diagram is of the Hansen's Pen & Pencil Parker that I have perfected, please pardon the writer but under separate cover we have mailed to you one of the Hansen's Pen & Pencil Parker.

The purpose of this article is to provide an unusually simple inexpensive and advantageous device for holding one or more pencils and straight pens upon a desk or elsewhere, in such a manner that each pen or pencil will have its point well protected and readily accessible to the user, It is an indispensable friend of the buisy Executive or other persons who desire different colored pencils at his finger tips.

The Parker can be used in Motor Vehicles or Airplanes when cemented to the panels, no vibrashions of a vehicle can jar the pencils from the Parker.

When the Parker is on the desk to remove the pen or pencil you take hold of pencil with thumb and first finger, the second finger rest on the Parker, draw up on pencil with thumb and first finger. We trust that you will accept this Parker with our compliments.

Yours very truly,

My dear Mr. Early :

On November 23, 1943, I had occasion to write you a letter in connection with the above Book. This was the result of a personal letter which my old friend, Alistair Fraser, had written to you on November 19th. The idea at that time was that there might be a possibility of President Roosevelt endorsing the Book, as the entire proceeds were going to the Montreal Unit of the Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children. Later on Alistair Fraser sent me a copy of your personal letter to him dated November 25, 1943.

My very good friend, Eddie Rickenbacker, wrote a Foreword for the Book and the Introduction was written by the then Imperial Potentate of the Mystic Shrine, Noble Morley E. MacKenzie.

xP/7 2562 15,000 copies of the Book were published in the Fall of 1944, and I am very glad to say that it has received fine book reviews all across Canada and also in the United States. Our good friends in the Shrine in the U.S.A. have been very helpful in the sale of the Book.

I am sending you 2 autographed copies and hope that it will be possible for the President at some time to glance through one of them. The other copy is for your personal use.

My dear Noble:

Re - "SOUTHERN SKY TRAILS"

Year after year, crippled and deformed children find new life behind the big, sunny windows of the Montreal Unit of The Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children, situated on the slope of Mount Royal.

Hidden away from the eyes of the world, an endless battle for life and health is being fought with tireless energy. Withered limbs become straight and strong; feeling is miraculously restored to paralyzed nerves; and like a tree relieved of diseased and twisted boughs, the children blossom out into the full health and strength of youth.

One of our greatest privileges as Shriners is to help in this work of "making crooked limbs, straight".

Our Imperial Potentate, Noble Morley E. MacKenzie, tells you in his letter, the purpose of "SOUTHERN SKY TRAILS", and refers to the fact that I am personally paying the cost of publication and that all the proceeds will go to the Montreal Unit.

Capt. E. V. Rickenbacker has been kind enough to speak highly of the book itself.

In order to realize our objective of $25,000 for the Hospital, we are asking every Shriner to buy a copy of "SOUTHERN SKY TRAILS". Without leaving your easy chair, you will travel with me through more than 25 countries. There are about 30 full-page illustrations. The book itself is full cloth bound, and is a credit to the publishers.

Each year, our normal deficit is in the neighborhood of $25,000, which we have always been able to make up by intensive effort. Your assistance will enable us to balance our budget again this year, and you will know the real satisfaction of assisting in our work for crippled children.

Yours in the Faith,

Norman Holland

Mr. Norman Holland,
Vice-Chairman,
Shriner's Hospitals for Crippled Children,
1529 Cedar Avenue,
Montreal, Quebec.

My dear Noble Holland:

It has come to my attention that you are offering to present the entire proceeds from the publication of "SOUTHERN SKY TRAILS" to the Montreal Unit of the Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children.

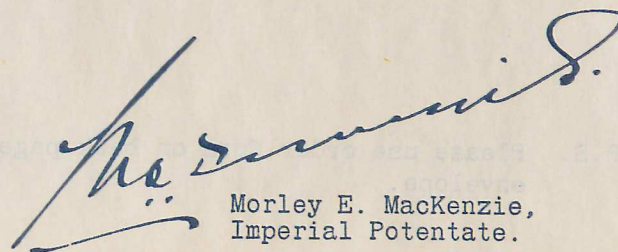

It was my good fortune to have had a recent conversation with Noble J. Harry Spence, the Potentate of Karnak Temple. He tells me he has already read a copy of "SOUTHERN SKY TRAILS" and he mentions that this publication contains a vivid word picture of your hundreds of thousands of miles of flying in some forty-seven countries, but more particularly regarding a 30,000 mile continuous air trip around North, South and Central America.

Not only has this been most interesting to you, but I would suggest that you are perhaps the most air travelled business man in America; and for you to put this in word form and at your own personal expense and turn over the entire proceeds to the Montreal Unit of our great Hospital undertaking, is most commendable. I know from conversation with the Board of Governors of the Montreal Unit they are deeply grateful for your devotion over a period of many years, as a member of that Board. You have always given untiringly of your time and energy.

This effort is just one more indication of your charitable make-up and I personally cannot see how anyone can afford to miss the opportunity of purchasing a copy of "SOUTHERN SKY TRAILS". Certainly the price per copy is a very small amount, when one considers the good that is being accomplished. It answers a two-fold purpose. A Shriner becomes the possessor of something which he will be proud to have and display to his friends; and the purchase of which will have helped tremendously to carry on the work in connection with our splendid Unit at Montreal, which we love to call our "Temple of Babies' Smiles".

I commend you, Norman, on this very outstanding undertaking on behalf of those who cannot provide for themselves and I recommend the purchase of this publication to every Shriner in Canada, as well as those members in the Eastern section of the United States, from which come children who are treated in the Montreal Unit. I earnestly hope that you will receive, as you so rightly deserve, whole-hearted support.

Yours very sincerely and in the Faith,

Morley E. MacKenzie,
Imperial Potentate.

10 ROCKEFELLER PLAZA, NEW YORK CITY

Norman Holland, the author of this book, is one of those extremely rare individuals, who, though he lives in a business world, is not limited by it. He is a man who refuses to be earthbound; a man who proves that today's business man can be as interesting as those creators of the fine arts.

In a sense, Mr. Holland is a pioneer. At least, he is in the front rank of those few persons who have travelled extensively - in fact internationally, by air transport. Other men have travelled as extensively as Mr. Holland, but few have returned and written such an absorbing account of what was seen and encountered enroute.

The author of this book made a continuous trip of 30,000 miles by air; 2,000 miles by steamship; 1,000 miles by train and 2,700 miles by motor, passing through or stopping at 25 countries. He has a story to tell, and he tells it well.

During the course of his air travels in the United States, the author travelled over Eastern Air Lines, Inc. from Miami, Florida to New York City. Of this trip, Mr. Holland wrote in part: "My night flight from Miami to New York, over Eastern Air Lines, made such an impression on me, I stayed up nearly the whole night, jotting down notes on a pad." He continues with a most vivid description of his impressions of the flight.

It is not only gratifying but inspiring to those of us in the air transport industry, to find someone like Mr. Holland so impressed with air travel that he is anxious to divulge his enthusiasm and interest to those who have not had the opportunity to experience the comforts and advantages of this latest mode of transportation.

Naturally, the romantic side of the industry is a secondary thought to air transport operators as, first and foremost, consideration must be given to improving operating efficiency, and rendering greater service to the travelling public.

In the last few years, air transport service has made it possible to travel from the Atlantic to the Pacific in a matter of hours. Both the Atlantic and Pacific are being spanned by giant planes.

And with the rapid advance and progress being made in plane and engine design, we are thinking today in terms of a man leaving New York City Friday night to spend a weekend in London or Paris, and being back in his office in time for business Monday morning.

And so it is with enthusiasm that I commend "Southern Sky Trails" as a work which, I feel certain, will take its place in the vanguard of pioneer books written on travel achieved to a great extent by air transportation.

Sincerely,

Eddie Rickenbacker

While we will be prepared to mail receipts if asked for, we are quite sure that our Nobles will realize this requires not only time but extra mailing expense, and our endeavor is to keep the cost of the work down as much as possible. Our good friends in the Shrine will understand that when we have to deal with some 10,000 to 12,000 names, the work entailed is very heavy, particularly in these days of short staffs. We expect to start mailing these books about October 9th.

Dear Mr. President,

Please accept this oil painting as a birthday token of our Love, Pride and Devotion to the Noble and strong character it represents.

May God Bless you always and continue to give you Strength, Wisdom, and Courage to meet and solve the trying problems you are called to judge. May you find comfort and be rewarded in knowing that we the people of this Great Nation are united in one desire and one purpose, - the preservation and protection of our Democratic Way of Life. To that end we shall fight together till Peace on Earth and Good will towards men reign again.

The World shall always Honor, Respect, and remember our Great President, who by his Leadership, strong character and high Ideals has become the hope and the Friend of the World. And so I dedicate this humble painting of a Great and True American as the Friend of all Nations. "My Friends."

Dear President Roosevelt,
While I was coloring
Easter eggs for members of my family, I looked down and saw Tuffy, my little cocker, watching me as though he wanted one too. So, I decided to put his name on one of the eggs. Then a B25 flew by,
reminded me of
trip in a bomb
