My dear Mr. President,

I am sending you by parcel post a "good luck" token, a horseshoe. + PPF 9-H

This horseshoe was made by my deceased father, Joel A. Atkins of Nashville Tenn. He was often called the "pioneer horseshoer of the South" As the medal enclosed with the horseshoe shows that it took first prize at the Louisville Kentucky Industrial Exposition seventy-seven years ago.

May I add that my father, a Kentuckian, was always an ardent Democrat and an admirer of the party's policies. It indeed means much to me as it does to many others to have a Democratic administration now when the needs of the people must be met.

Please accept this token with my best wishes for the best of "good luck" to you and your administration May God bless and guide you in your great task in leading this country out of the chaos in which it is

Dear Sir:-

My Dad has a "home-grown" canary he wants the Honorable Mr. President to have.

Would this gift be acceptable or has our President been deluged with canaries?

My dear Mr. President:

To-day while looking through a scrap-book, in which my sister keeps all the pictures of you and your family appearing in local papers, I came across a picture of you which I especially admired so I decided to see if I could draw your likeness and am enclosing the drawing which I sketched with ordinary lead pencil in about twenty minutes.

I think it a good resemblance and hope that you will like it.

I am fifteen years old and am a student at La Salle Institute, this city, I read all the news of your campaign and was very glad when you were elected. Things in our city seem brighter since you took office, and I wish you continued success.

I remain most sincerely yours,

My Dear Mr. President:

I hope you will accept the pipe which I am forwarding today under separate cover. The features of this pipe are entirely new and I think it may please you.

As one who was apprehensive of your ability to accomplish the vast needs of the American people I now wish to make amends. I hope your enjoyment of the gift is increased by the atonement.

Dear Mr. President:

I am struggling to get along and would be very grateful if you would find it possible to tell me whether or not you like the Truly Dry pipe which I recently sent to you.

Just mentioning the fact that you are smoking my pipe and like it, if you do like it and have no objection to my using the information in this way, will be very helpful to me. I have very little capital and have been unable to obtain more. So it is by merciful acts of God that I expect to exist.

If you do not care for the pipe your opinion will be just as welcome.

"Easter Greetings" This Hebrew calendar first month is known as "Nissen", but the head of all remains for the Hebrew New Year Holyday Greetings.

"Israel" remains United all over the world, loyal to the country of their adoption, they link within a chain in all generations- 100% Americans (no 50/50).

"Israel's" recent protest was the "Voice of Jacob", United we stand to Orthodox Judaism, an echo here, there, and everywhere.

Wherever Israel settled, they brought Torah- Talmud and Blessings to benefit civilization.

"Israel's" prayers includes a thanks-giving praise for the welfare of our worthy USA. President and Cabinet officers, and to inspire our lawmakers and counsellors with wisdom and understanding- to lead our nation in the paths of Peace and Blessings and Prosperity.

Gt.Britain "Chancellor the Hon. Chamberlain" expressed that our God Blessed Roosevelt has Wrought miraculous change in USA.

May our country be blessed for all Religious faith refugees,who seek shelter under its lucid banner.

ACTION is now in order to revise our Immigration Laws, the Biblical past years of Famine,Depression and Crisis,was a Blessing in Disguise to reopen the arteries of traffic and commerce.

Every Selective Immigrant with funds coming to citizen relatives will become an asset to the unemployed, to expand business, fulfill Real Estate vacancies, also an outlet for surplus industry, a new deal for the Glory of God and the Brotherhood of Man.

Grandpa H. I. J.

My beloved President F. D. Roosevelt:-

Sir:- Enclosed Jewish "charm" for your prolonged years, a new life of Health, Peace, and Happiness- Prosperity awaits your administration.

My dear Mr. President:

May I send to you with my compliments a copy of a drama which Sir Herbert B. Ames and I have just written on the "Case of China and Japan Before the League of Nations."

Since Mr. Matsuoka is soon to have the privi-ledge of calling upon you, this dramatization, in which he is one of the chief characters, may interest you.

The text of this play is made up of excerpts from the Verbatim Records chosen with great care in order accurately to present the attitude of the various nations. I shall be much grati-fied if you care to glance this over.

May I add that your vigorous action with regard to national and international problems is winning the applause of Massachusetts voters. Perhaps those who did not vote for you are most outspoken in their approval.

Dear President Roosevelt:-

The Riverton Lions Club takes pleasure in sending to you as a souvenir a Fifty Cent piece of scrip.

Our local bank closed its doors last August;so after the first of the year,the Lions Club issued scrip which was secured by assignments of deposits in the closed bank.This provided the community with a reasonable amount of money,which other wise was tied up in the closed bank.This scrip passes at par in this community and surrounding territory.Since scrip is issued only to the amount of 5% of the assigned deposits;it is amply secured.

Our community is carrying on in spite of the depression and we are looking forward with confidence to better and brighter days.

Please accept this with our best wishes.

Sincerely yours,
Riverton Lions Club.

My dear Mr. McIntyre:

Under separate cover I am mailing today a box of giant strawberries grown here in Walton county, Georgia, as a gift to the President from Mr. Robert V. ("Uncle Bob") Johnston, superintendent of the student-cultivated farm at the Georgia Vocational & Trades School here.

"Uncle Bob" asked me to mail them for him, and to explain that they are a token of the love, respect and admiration in which Mr. Roosevelt is held by Walton county people.

These strawberries are a story in themselves. Some of them measure five inches in circumference! Yet they are as sweet and delicious as the smaller variety is supposed to be. Mr. Johnson and his student aides grow them intensively on a one-acre piece of land at the school.

Already this one acre has yielded 425 gallons of these huge berries during the past 1½ weeks! Before the end of the season (which runs for about 6 weeks), they expect to have gathered more than 1,000 gallons. Disposed of at local grocery stores, they bring sixty cents a gallon, or a total for the season of about $600--more than many farmers take in from a one-horse farm.

Thanks very much for your letter of May 4th, and permit me to convey the President's thanks for the box of giant strawberries. They arrived in excellent shape and were delightfully tasteful.

Even more interesting is the story of how they are grown, particularly that they get $600 for the product of an acre, "more than many farmers take in from a one-horse farm."

We showed the strawberries to the boys outside - after luncheon,- it would have been dangerous before luncheon.

mention was made of the great amount of White House mail - sometimes 4000 letters daily, which as your secretary, Mr. Howe probably has to have answered. I hope he wont bother to answer this one, and that'll lighten his load a tiny bit. I know you appreciate the book, and so, don't fail that you must write and tell me so. It's giving the American people a tremendous thrill to do nice things for the most popular president they've ever had and I, in my small way, am standing in line with the nation.

To his Excellency the President of the United States

My dear Mr. President:

Sometime ago I ordered a "Humpen" in Nürnberg for the best President the United States ever had in the White House. It came today and with it brew from the Freiherrlich von Tuchersche Brauerei, of which I always had a lot on top before the War.

I hope, that when nobody will bother you, you will sit in front of your fireplace, in a large easy chair under the model of that fine sailing ship,(of which I have quite a collection,) and have a cold bottle filled into the above, and let your mind go back about thirty five to forty years, when you sat "mit einer Studenten Kappe auf der Seite des Craniums," trying hard to captivate Caesar and other fascinating subjects of your curriculum, and after draining the first one, sing all by yourself or with another good scout, if I knew his name, I would order another one, " O alte Burschenherrlichkeit, wohin bist du geschwunden, nie kehrst du wieder goldene Zeit, so froh und ungebunden, vergebens späne ich umher, ich kenne seine Spur nicht mehr, O jerum, jerum, jerum, O quae mutatio rerum, and of course Gaudeamus und ergo bibamus. Wenn dann die Seelenwanderung stattfindet, dann setze auch ich mein Seidel an meine Lippen, und leere ihn auf den tüchtigsten Menschen der Welt, welcher die richtige Kraft und das Rückgrat besitzt, welches all den anderen gefehlt hat.

May God bless you, Mrs. Roosevelt and the Children, a mighty fine team!

WE ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR ACCIDENTAL LOSS OR

Please give my kindest regards to the President, and say that, as a Manufacturer, I see encouraging signs on the business horizon; but still believe that Government Franchises to Manufacturers to make the thing they can best make, as proven by their years of experience, and the recognition, which they have won in making a definite Product, this Product not to be made at less than cost; but to be made at a fair profit with United States Government sanction and approval; would put thousands of people, now out of employment, back to work; and Manufacturers would not be fighting each other, with cut throat competitions, as at the present time; and there will be a lessening of similar, or inferior, Products of the same kind, on the market, as many large Manufacturers, who succeeded in producing one good Product, for which their factory is best known, are now making a large number of inferior Products, which cannot compete with the Product in the same field, which the specialist Manufactures.

With Best Wishes, I remain,

Sincerely and respectfully yours,

J.W. Johnston

P.S. They used to teach us, at College, that it was not good usage to use "got" to express necessity or possession.

However, President Roosevelt's use of "got" to express necessity to end the world wide depression, Premier MacDonald's approval, not to mention the approval of the French Premier and Italy's approval now makes G-O-T good usage, I'll vow.

I am sending you a sofa pillow allready for use. This is a present from a woman seventy-one years old. I was born in 1862. Cyril so. My father was in the Southern war. Under President Lincoln. His name is Isaac Joyner. He was in Company G. So I was born in the time of war. I hope that you and Mrs. Roosevelt will like it. My eyes have begin to fail me so please excuse it. We moved from Iowa, in 1924. We bought us a lot - costing $400. We had it almost paid. And when Hoover got in. Depression started. Then my husband got laid off. We built us a small house. And it isn't finished on the outside. But we manage to get along. He was laid off then. And the tax accessor and assessed our home so high. That we couldn't pay our taxes. You know from that they are still to pay and nothing to pay with. And I am getting to old to start another home. I would like to get an answer from this. Letting me know whether

Record

Dear President Roosevelt:-

In the next few days you will receive a picture of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and a prayer which is recited at the Jesuit Church in New Orleans, at nine services given on Tuesday and Friday, each week, all through the year. At the beginning of each of these services, Very Rev. Facundus G. Carbajal, pastor of the church, who has asked God's blessing for your special intention as your will note inscribed on the pictures I am sending, appeals to the congregation coming from far and near! to recite with him, the Lord's prayer, to ask God to bless you, — our beloved President — in the most momentous time of your Life; to guide you, to enlighten you, in the gigantic task which confronts you, and to crown your efforts with success, in the years to succed, as they have been in the early days of your administration.

Last but not least- we are asking God to send us "Peace and Prosperity"

Your Policy to the present time leaves no doubt in the mind of the people that your name will go down in history, as one of our greatest Presidents-

One who has saved Our Country from the worst catastrophe ever to happen-

With your great mind, your determination and your will-power, you have already conquered the World which is amazed at your quick action in all matters-

Dear President Roosevelt, may the picture, also the prayer, I am sending,

be agreable to you; may they cheer and brighten your Life, should a few clouds ever darken it-

On the prayer, I have taken the liberty to paste, in the upper corner, a likeness of yourself, which I clipped from one of our local newspapers. the picture was taken with the Finance Minister
T. V. Soong of China and your son
James Roosevelt.

The picture of the Sacred Heart, was blessed on the day of your Inauguration, March 4th, and the prayer on President's day, April 30th.

On both occasions, I have received Holy Communion, to ask God, to shower His choicest blessings on you,

I have gathered some of the sunshine you have scattered over our Southland into this Dresden plate quilt I am sending to you and Mrs. Roosevelt under separate cover.

I have workers old and young from all walks of life in my sewing room at Clinton, S.C.--some who only a few years ago were most comfortable and some who have never known comfort. We work together in the same room, and are happy in it.

We are Democrats and are proud of our President and his wonderful work.

There is no greater service than to pull this distressed, depressed world together again, and we believe you can do that.

You have our prayers, and our thanks for the many things you have done and are doing.

JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Hon: Franklin D. Roosevelt
President United States of America.
Whitehouse
Washington, D.C.

Most Hon: President:

Under separate cover, we are sending you one of California's Redwood Trees which has been planted in the first spade full of dirt removed in connection with the ground breaking ceremonies of the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge. This first spade full of dirt was removed by Governor Rolph from Yerba Buena Island which is the connecting link of the bridge.

To commemorate this event, it is our wish that the tree be planted at the capital as the nucleus of a garden to be made up of trees and plants embedded in soil taken from projects started on the vast recovery program. Thus the garden would be a living memorial to the wonderful project which has been undertaken during your regime which has been instrumental in bringing about economic recovery.

The Junior Chambers of Commerce of the bay area have all joined in making this ceremony a national affair. The bridge when completed, will unite the cities of San Francisco and Oakland and bring out a closer relationship in all ways.

In behalf of this organization, I want to extend to you, our best wishes in the future as well as our gratitude for the fine services you have rendered in effecting the legislation which has taken place during the past months.

Yours very truly,

Dear Missy:-

What a silly idea to send me salts for a bath, when you know I wouldn't use them.

These people, however, wish to send to the President some bath salts in order to save him carfare to California and eliminate a trip to Warm Springs.

I think it is especially up to you to write a note of thanks, and as you are bathing these days- why not use some yourself.

Dear Colonel Howe:

The thoughts of the Officers of this Company are, we believe, in line with the thoughts of every good American, in respect to the President and his health. We realize that he is under a terrific strain, and we believe that we may be able to do something that will, in some way at least, increase his reserve of energy.

We are familiar with the fact that the President from time to time, makes trips to mineral springs and we are therefore, suggesting that we would be happy indeed to send in your care, a case of PASRO. This is a liquid concentrate of the famous Paso Robles Sulphur Mineral Hot Springs, which are located at Paso Robles, California. In this way, the President could, at his convenience, use the concentrates in his own bath, thereby creating the same effect that he would get by going to the springs themselves.

In making this suggestion to you we wish very clearly to point out that in no way would the acceptance of the PASRO by you, for the President, be used by us as an advertising medium. As a matter of fact, that is far from our thoughts as the only thing we wish to accomplish is that we may be of some service to the President.

Trusting that we may hear from you and that you can see your way clear to having the President from time to time enjoy the benefits of the PASRO bath, we are
