Dear President Roosevelt,

I am sending you a gift which I think is beautiful.

The box attracted my attention so much with the beautiful colors and it fascinated me so much I could not resist sending one to you and Mrs. Roosevelt as it has the view of the White House and grounds in delicate colors, and it is also surrounded by a picture of every president from George Washington up to the present day of our own Franklin D. Roosevelt.

I would appreciate very much to have you answer if you could spare the time to address the envelope in your own hand writing as I would like very much to keep the envelope with my stamp collection.

Thanking you and wishing you and Mrs. Roosevelt a merry

President Franklin D. Roosevelt,
Washington, D.C.

Dear President,- Your Christmas message based on "Love thy neighbor as thyself" has been prodding me for several days to write a suggestion which may appeal to you, and might be of far-reaching helpfulness.

People are naturally religious and hungry for some simple standard to follow. Abraham Lincoln said, "Whenever any church will inscribe over its altar, as its sole qualification for membership, the Savior's condensed statement of the substance of both law and gospel, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself" that church will I join with all my heart and all my soul."

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, "On these two commandments hang ALL the Law and the Prophets." But no president except you has been willing and fearless enough to accept these two commandments as the basis of his activity, so the suggestion is that on your personal stationery there be your mark, a small design of three lines like this  which represents your ideal, the two commandments. Curiosity would spread the meaning of this mark with no effort on your part.

This mark was copyrighted by me in 1926. I have used it as my guide and reminder, and you are welcome to it should you care to use it.

I have written a book entitled "The Meaning Of The Mark" and this together with the popular seller, "It Works" have been mailed to you in case you care for more information concerning this little known but significant emblem.

With sincerity of purpose, I am,

Your servant,

Mr. President:

Rec'd

Subject: To present you this picture which I selected from the Holy Book for this present condition, which is

"The Light of the Christianity"

1. In this picture are three colors: red, white and blue. This is a lovely U. S. American flag of Hope and Peace to the world by the Blue Eagle.
2. Glory to God in the highest, and on earth Peace and Good will toward men. Luke 2:14.
3. The Lord's prayer in Aramaic, the language which Christ spoke, saying: Give us bread, our need today.
4. The word of the cross is the Power of God, for the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved, it is the Power of God. I Cor. 1:18.
5. The door of mercy that was closed for the world, but the Lord looked down from Heaven upon the children of men to see if there were any that did understand and seek God. Psalm 14:27. Now he finds that that man which seeks mercy in the U. S. A. is F. D. Roosevelt. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. Matt. 5:7.
6. 1934 Years ago our Lord Christ called the laborer to join with him because they were suffering from all kinds of conditions. So that voice we are hearing from the NRA in 1933-1934.

Respectfully,

Benjamin Jacobs

Dear President Roosevelt:

Enclosed herewith is a genuine Christmas Gift, a remembrance to you and yours from Mrs. R. M. Johnston, mother of Mrs. Ethel J. Ryckman, Superintendent of the Pioneers' Home, which is the only institution of its kind in the United States where aged Pioneer men and women, those who helped blaze the trail into the State of Arizona during the Indian war days, are GUESTS of the State.

Mrs. Johnston is 75 years old and yours is the tenth cake which she has baked for Presidents of the United States.

We know you will enjoy it.

Frankly, we wish you could see the smiles, and the happy spirit which exists in this locality among the men on C.W.A. work.

If the time ever comes again, when you can visit this wonderful little city, out where the west remains, we want to show you some of your projects, many of which will last so long as time.

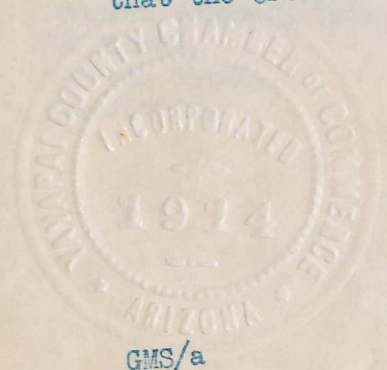

We are in the Heart of Arizona's Wonderland, but fifty miles south of Isabella Greenway's ranch home.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt
Washington, D. C.

My dear President Roosevelt,

Robert Johnson, a student enrolled in the deaf department of the Marinette Day School is sending you a portrait, which is done in oil and copied from your photograph.

Robert is the son of a rural family, who has had very few

Dear President Franklin D. Roosevelt;

I am writing you again, as I am puzzled. I sent you a portrait as a Christmas gift and have been anxiously waiting to hear from you ever since.

I know you are a very busy man with so many hard problems to solve in times like these so have been patient.

But there was an article in my home town paper Monday Feb 26th stating that I received a letter of thanks from the President for the portrait I sent you as a Christmas gift.

If you sent me a letter I never received it. When my friends and teachers congratulated me on it, I told them I never received your letter. Now can you blame me for being puzzled?

I painted this picture during my spare time at home and none of my teachers knew as thing about it until I had it completed and ready to send to you, and they were very much surprised and praised me for my work. I had this picture in mind since you were elected as I greatly admire you for I have read so many wonderful articles about you. I save all your pictures from magazines and the papers, and in most of them you look at me with a smile. I love that smile.

Clark.

I am somewhat handicapped due to my hearing but am in hopes of having that corrected by having treatments. Four years ago I took six treatments and was able to hear as well as any one, but couldn't afford to continue on account of this depression, but hope to as soon as conditions better.

I love my work and ^{am} thankful for my talent and hope to make a name for my self some day by working hard and perseverance I feel confident I will reach my goal.

I hope to hear from you in the near future and will be more than pleased for I will keep your letter always, as I will frame it and how proud I will be to show it to my friends and relations.

With best of wishes in all your undertakings.

I beg to remain - One of your admirers,
Robert G. Johnson

Dear Mac:

As outlined to you over the telephone this morning, I am sending the rug which was made by the women of the Jackson County Emergency Relief Committee, of which Mrs. Herbert V. Jones is County Chairman and Mrs. E. E. Porterfield is Executive Secretary. The Administrative offices are located at 1022 Baltimore, Kansas City, and the work was done in the work rooms of Mrs. May H. Bryan, Director of Relief for Jackson County Division of the Civil Works Service.

I am told the ladies have given much of their time in order to have the rug finished for President Roosevelt's birthday, and they desire that the gift be presented to the President with the pledge of their loyalty in the reconstruction program.

Your Excellency:

We are sending you a Birthday Greeting present consisting of a bottle showing two samples of Nevada gold dust. You will note the band of Utah silver around the bottle neck.

By looking at it in a regular way, a very fine gold dust may be seen. By turning the bottle slowly, being careful not to shake it, you will see the specimen of flour gold adhering to the glass.

This gold came from twenty pounds of gold ore mined by us about 200 feet underground, the rock being crushed to the consistency of flour and then panned, and shows what can be done by old time panning in getting fine flour gold without the use of quick silver.

With our heartfelt wishes for a long and healthful life, we are

I placed no value, I only insured it so you would receive it in good order.

It was no great effort on my part to design and put together the few pieces that form the details, and I do pray you keep it, Please. Just think of me as a truthful and hard-working American.

My wife has been heart-broken since we received your letter, and begs for you to keep the gift.

my dear Mr. Roosevelt,

I am sending you a walking cane as a present for Easter.

Please accept it from me.

I was going to send it in a box but I was afraid that someone who is jealous might put something else inside the box.

Because in my town everybody is jealous that I am writing to you.

In our town the Super from the carpet mill is ruling the whole place.

The Super is angry at me and he did not give my daughter work yet. She is 17 yrs. old now who is good friends with the bosses those people only work. It is a heavy time for me in this town. I received a new law that not to write to you anymore but I am writing to you, and please do not tell anybody about me writing to you.

Please write me back if you have received the walking cane. And please write me if I can send letters from another city.

Now please excuse me for troubling you.

Sincerely Yours,
Mrs. Agnes Jakoboski

My Dear President:

It is my understanding that you welcome constructive ideas, therefore I hope your secretary will hand you this epistle which is to advise you that probably during next week, you and your secretary will each receive a copy of the Reverend Leslie C. Kelly's small book entitled "The great plan." This book contains undoubtedly and by far, the greatest plan ever conceived or put in force, to make absolute prosperity for all time, and under his plan, all forms of graft, bootlegging, racketeering and theft of money and robbery thereof would be completely wiped out; also the multitude of young girls rustling on the streets via prostitution for a living, would be entirely stopped.

You are eminently correct in saying the old order of things is done. You know also that democracy and capitalism have failed and most certainly a drastic change must be brought about soon or we will have a repetition of what occurred in Russia, and at that Russia as well as Italy have no unemployed. This Nation is standing on a slumbering volcano. The Government appropriations can never take care of all the unemployed. It is only temporary relief for a portion of the distressed and the Government can not support them indefinitely and democracy and capitalism can never bring back prosperity and hold it. You promised a new deal and are tremendously popular and well loved by the Nation at large for the great work you are doing and I am positive that if you decide to inaugurate Rev. Kelly's plan you will be heralded as the greatest man on earth since Christ; also I feel certain that Christ approves of Rev. Kelly's plan of Government which is a mile ahead of the Soviet system; under his plan, narcotics and kidnapping would also be wiped out. There would surely be a shortage of labor in all lines as well as a shortage of doctors and dentists. There would be no more civil actions in Court. All other countries would in due time adopt this form of Government. I view you as an innate Christian and very desirous of ^{doing} all that is possible for the suffering millions and therefore I feel certain this book will appeal to you and I surely hope that you see fit to declare a National emergency and inaugurate this system which surely would be a NEW DEAL for everlasting prosperity far greater than this Nation has ever known. The liquor situation is serious. The bootleggers are selling stuff for $1 per quart which is far superior to many of the Blends, and with a tax of $2 per gallon on rectified stuff (legitimate) how can that compete against good bootleg stuff at $1 a quart? But certainly under Rev. Kelly's plan, the bootlegger perishes—and so does all graft, narcotics, theft of money or robbery thereof, prostitution and poverty. Every man woman and child would have plenty. Poverty would be impossible.

I have travelled more than 250,000 miles over all English speaking countries and spent 5 years on the Justice Court Bench at Boise, Idaho without ever having been reversed by the State Supreme court; thus my opinion of Rev. Kelly's plan ought to be worth something and I say it is a God send.

With kindest personal wishes,

Faithfully yours,

Lawrence Johnston

Miss M. A. L. Hand,
Private Sec'y to the President,
Dear Miss L. Hand:

I have been wondering if the copy of my book "Franklin D. Roosevelt's Colonial Ancestors, Their Part in the Making of American History", which I inscribed to him as President-elect and sent to him March 1st, ever reached him.

My wish had been that the first copy be sent by me to him. The publisher, as the book was written by a native of Boston, published in Boston, and showed the descent of Franklin D. Roosevelt from many prominent early Bostonians, wished a copy presented also at once to the Mayor of Boston. The Mayor was unable to see me, so his copy was left with one of his secretaries.

At that time, the papers were telling of the precautions taken with all packages addressed to the President-elect, and the secretary suggested that the book for Mr. Roosevelt be entrusted to him, and he would see that it reached its destination before March 4th, as I wished it to surely

When my publishers told me yesterday that a copy of the book had been sent by them to you on an order from a book seller on Long Island, it appeared to me that my presentation copy had never reached its destination.

I began my research over a year ago, began the book last March, had it nearly done before the nomination, ready for a publisher before the election, and was therefore pleased that it ^{was} published before the inauguration, and also anxious that my book reach its destination as promised before March 4th.

Respectfully,
Alvin Page Johnson.

Dear President:

Attached to this letter is a combination crayon-water color photograph, which was copied from a small picture by W. E. Johnson, head janitor of the Forsyth County Court House, Winston-Salem, N. C. Johnson, who is a colored man, age 40 years, has had no training in art, but has shown considerable talent in free hand drawing. I am sending you this photograph as a recognition of his ability and faithful services to the county. He has taken a special interest in our CWA and FERA programs, always lending a helping hand whenever the opportunity affords itself. He would appreciate personal acknowledgment from you.
