JOHNSON, Lt. Commander Lyndon H.
San Francisco, California
Filed: January 2, 1942

Wrote to the President stating that he is hopeful that they can work out plans for the consolidation of their youth agencies into a single training agency for defense workers. Says he is leaving for the West Coast, and when he returns will have a first hand picture. Hopes he may have a chance "to put in my nickels worth" before an order is issued. -- The President replied on Dec. 30, 1941, expressing thanks for the turkey which Lt. Commander Johnson sent to the President for Christmas. Asks Lt. Commander Johnson to run in and see him when he returns from the West Coast.

Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, President
United States of America
White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

I am mailing you a birthday present, which came off the press on the eve of my twenty-fourth year of study and experiment along the lines of psychology called CREATION OF PERCEPTION, HARMONIOUS AND INHARMONIOUS. It makes known the identity of the divine human laws you invoked in your fight with the inharmonious sense called infantile paralysis.

It is readily understandable that: Were it not for one's experiencing the sense evidenced by a self-expressing perception quality, he would have no knowledge of human existence; as, for instance, when sound asleep in bed, or under the influence of ether on an operating table.

Therefore, it must be a fact that: Whatever version of the Bible one reads, it primarily depicts the creation of different harmonious degrees of self-expressing perception quality, which in turn evidence to one his identity and the positive reality of the sense it manifests.

Not until humanity realizes that the degree of harmony evidenced by its self-expressing perception quality is invariably the same as is that of its knowingly or unknowingly selected self-discipline quality, will it have the incentive to develop the habitual practice of selecting the most harmonious.

When you started out to overcome subjection to infantile paralysis, your persistent progressive step-by-step selection of a more harmonious self-discipline quality naturally had to cause you to experience its similar degree of self-expressing perception quality. Hence, your self-caused freedom from that inharmonious sense.

The book I have sent you explains in detail how humanly divine law actuated in giving you that sense of freedom.

Not until members of the many different religious groups throughout the world fully realize the truth of those foregoing statements, will war materials be melted into plow-shares and pruning hooks.

Wishing you many happy birthdays, I remain

Most sincerely,

Ernest W. Josselyn

President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

Mrs. Clara Kutoff, a member of our Senior Auxiliary, whose patriotic impulses are such, that she felt she must do something to show the depth of her feeling, her sincerity and her passionate desire to "Help America", just purchased through the President of our Home, Mr. Samuel Tuch, $1250.00 of Defense Bonds.

She then made a gift to the Home of a handsome hand crocheted basket, with the Red, White & Blue ingenuously woven into the pattern on one side and the "Star of David" Hebrew insignia on the other in the blue and white colors of Palestine.

The basket was given to the Home with the express stipulation that it be presented by this institution to our beloved President Franklin D. Roosevelt and to Mrs. Roosevelt, as a testimonial of the regard in which they both are held and as a memorial to that noble mother of a great son, Sara Delano Roosevelt. It is our hope that it may be placed in the Memorial Library at Hyde Park, where it was shipped last Friday.

Trusting that this unique and attractive basket originated and made by Mrs. Kutoff, will be accepted and will give you pleasure, permit us to remain,

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. President.

My class of young married women use as their class symbol one of Virginia's tiny stones, which are tiny naturally formed rock crosses. Each girl is to keep one of these stones always with her so if the worries, sorrows or cares of life tend to make her cross she will remember what Christ suffered on the Cross for her and not be cross. So what ever we are called upon to bear can not compare with what He bore for us.

You have had so many cares physical, mental, National and now the greatest cares of all, as Commander-in-Chief of our fighting forces. We want you to have one of our Crosses and let it remind you we will ever be praying for God to Guide you.

Sincerely
Mrs. H. Preston Jordan

KNOW That VIRGINIA IS GOD'S COUNTRY

You have heard of folks where ever they reside, Boast, "This is God's Country," in tones of pride.
But Virginians don't boast, this is really true.
Just listen now, and I will prove this to you:
A long time ago, when Jesus Christ was crucified,
Even the Fairies in deep sorrow, wept, and cried,
In Virginia's Fairy-land where 'ere their tears fell,
Crosses in stone were formed to remind us all
And you may go and search this whole world around;
But in no other place can these crosses be found.
So this you can see, is a Virginians real proof,
That, our State, being God's Country, is the truth.
For these little crosses are not made by man,
But they are so formed in rock by God's own hand.

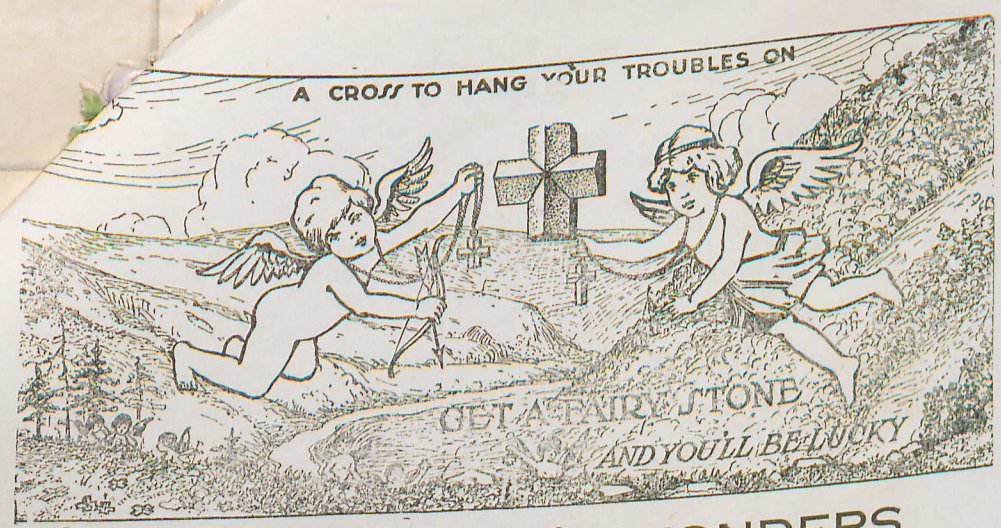

(The above isn't much good poetry but was done in a home sick heart when I was in Washington two weeks in 1940 while my husband was in Walter Reed Hospital when he died Aug. 29, 1940)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 18, 1925: Perhaps the most curious mineral found in the United States is Staurolite, otherwise known as "Fairy Stone", says a bulletin issued by the United States Geographic Survey. Staurolite is an iron-aluminum silicate found only in Virginia, the reddish-brown and brownish-black crystals occurring in well defined crosses. There is a commercial demand for the crosses as curios, which are worn as watch charms on one's chains in the manner of a locket or LaValliere —a demand stimulated by the quaint legend which is told of their origin.

A copy of the above legend, nicely printed, is enclosed with each Fairy Stone, making a suitable gift.

SERIES B

Legend of the Famous Patrick County, Virginia, Fairy or Luck Stones

In a quiet sunny glade, nestled among the rugged foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountain, in Patrick County, Virginia, a section made renowned by the fact that old King Powhatan once held undisputed possession there, was discovered a single quarry of the far-famed Virginia "Fairy" or "Lucky" Stones.

These little curiosities which range in size from one-fourth of an inch to 1½ inches, bear in the most unique form some shape of a cross which has been outlined by Nature's own hand. Many of them are of the St. Andrew variety, others Roman, while those most sought after are the Maltese.

In that weird spot, the only known place in the world where the little wonder-working gems are to be found, the good fairies flourished and had their workshop many hundreds of years ago. This you will probably say, was rather a strange place for Titania's subjects, but were you to visit this charming mountain region you would find every rock and tree infected with a glamour of romance.

As to the real origin of these little crosses of stone, comparatively nothing is known, as the leading scientists of the country have failed to throw any satisfactory light on the subject; but in that remote mountain section runs a very pretty legend to the effect that hundreds of years before King Powhatan's dynasty came into power, long before the woods breathed the gentle spirit of the lovely Pocahontas, the fairies were dancing around a spring of limpid water, playing with the naiads and wood nymphs, when an elfin messenger arrived from a strange city far, far away in the land of the dawn, bearing the sad tidings of the death of Christ, and when they heard the terrible story of the crucifixion they wept. And as their tears fell upon the earth they were crystallized into little pebbles, on each of which was formed a beautiful cross. When the fairies had disappeared from the enchanted spot the ground about the spring and the adjacent valley was strewn with these unique mementoes of that melancholy event.

Not even in the old world, with its quaint and curious lore, is a more beautiful legend to be found, and just how it originated no one knows, but for more than a century thousands of people have held these little crosses of stone in more or less superstitious awe, being firm in the belief that they will protect the wearer against witchcraft, sickness, accidents and disasters of all kinds.

Every stone is in some shape of a cross, and millions of people are now wearing them in various forms of jewelry.

It is well-known that ex-President Roosevelt and ex-President Wilson, also other prominent people of this country, as well as some of the crown heads of Europe and prominent officers and men in the European war carried one or more of these little lucky pieces tucked snugly away about them.

See "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine," by John Fox, Jr. (page 174). The lover gives his sweetheart one of these stones, and you will note the luck it gives them.

For the President of the United States.
In care of Mr.Stephan Early,Secretary.

Dear Sir:

I am a tailor,located in Saint Louis,Missouri,and a devoted citizen (naturalized) of this country and a sincere admirer of our President.For years past I have longed to accomplish my heart's desire which is to make him a suit of clothes; I would have liked to present it to him on his sixtieth birthday, but realize that it is already too late. I should like to make it an Easter gift instead. I hope it will not seem too presumptious to ask you if you could secure his exact measurements (possibly with Mrs.Roosevelt's cooperation)or even a discarded suit that still fits him and send me one or the other. I shall send it in due time and naturally return the discarded suit as well,if you should send it. You cannot imagine what an honor this would be for me if I can fulfill this ambition. I am considered an expert tailor and would give it my very best work. Enclosed are five dimes for the cause,the number of members of my immediate family.

Gratefully yours,

Stefan Jurisic

P.S. The discarded suit would make my work easier as measurements taken by someone else are not always dependable.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

+314

I have taken the liberty in sending to you an Estonian Victory Prayer Rug for your husband's 60-th Birthday, with a VV for Double Victory, "Victory in War, Victory in Peace", with God's help.

You may be interested to know that the V for Victory was already used in Estonia in I2I9, when Waldemar the Victorious of Denmark landed in Northern Estonia, pushing the German Knights to the South. (See my book "Russian Influences on Estonian Literature", pp. I6, I7).

Võit is the word for Victory in Estonian language, and V was first used in Victory belts for the Chiefs during the War times, but never a single V. Until the acceptance of Christianity a double V (VV) was used for Võit Vanemale, (Victory to the Elder or Chief of the Army). After the Danes introduced Christianity in Northern Estonia, (Middle of XIII Century), the Estonians added third V to their Victory sign, this is to say, VVV for Victory in the name of God, Son and Holy Ghost.

During every battle the Vanemad unfastened their belts, knelt on them, and prayed for Victory.

The first Victory belts were braided from roots and grass with various V designs, but when Estonians added to their early pastoral pursuits the early knowledge of such handicrafts as weaving, the Victory belts were hand woven, and in later years different designs of Victory belts were woven together into Victory Prayer Rugs. (In these rugs often VV and VVV are both used or combined).

Please examine the Victory Prayer Rug I have sent your husband, and you will find a V design running through the whole rug.

Notice also that this rug has no wrong side, both sides are right sides, this suggests that there should be only right in one's heart as well as in all his doings.

This Estonian Victory Prayer Rug is hand woven, (from the Estonian own wool and flax), at the Tartu Art School, Estonia.

All the Estonian Presidents, during the time of Estonian Independence, used these Victory Prayer Rugs over the back of the chair, which they used the most.

With best wishes and a big VV, I am

Respectfully yours,

Dr. Elizabeth Judas.

In a recent letter I spoke of my father having served in General George A Custer's brigade. Co. F 3rd N. J Cavalry. "The Butterflies"

I am the fortunate possessor of an original photograph of the General. While I have seen many pictures of him, I have never seen any like this one. Certainly I do not think it has ever been published. I believe it to be a rare one.

The original I have was given to father by Mrs. Custer herself. It was taken by Mora, N. Y city. I am an amateur photographer and I think I have made a good copy, one of which I enclose.

I have made this print for President Roosevelt. If you think it fitting, and think he might like to have it, would you be kind enough to see that he gets it please?

I do not wish in any way to trespass on the time of men whom I know to be as busy as our beloved President and yourself, and I want no particular recognition of this simple little gift unless you feel that Mr Roosevelt would like to have it in which case of course Id like to know it, otherwise please dont trouble to answer.

Thanking you, and please dont fear that I shall write further this becoming a nuisance

President and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

Mrs. Clara Kutoff, a member of our Senior Auxiliary, whose patriotic impulses are such, that she felt she must do something to show the depth of her feeling, her sincerity and her passionate desire to "Help America", just purchased through the President of our Home, Mr. Samuel Tuch, $1250.00 of Defense Bonds.

She then made a gift to the Home of a handsome hand crocheted basket, with the Red, White & Blue ingenously woven into the pattern on one side and the "Star of David" Hebrew insignia on the other in the blue and white colors of Palestine.

The basket was given to the Home with the express stipulation that it be presented by this institution to our beloved President Franklin D. Roosevelt and to Mrs. Roosevelt, as a testimonial of the regard in which they both are held and as a memorial to that noble mother of a great son, Sara Delano Roosevelt. It is our hope that it may be placed in the Memorial Library at Hyde Park, where it was shipped last Friday.

Trusting that this unique and attractive basket originated and made by Mrs. Kutoff, will be accepted and will give you pleasure, permit us to remain,

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. President:

I have in my possession a beautiful welded American Eagle made of non-ferrous metal. I have been told that this eagle is so artistically formed as to be a near masterpiece. It weighs only seven and a half pounds and has a wing spread of forty inches.

I would like to present this American Eagle to you, Mr. President, to place in a suitable location in honor of the bravery of our fellow Americans at Pearl Harbor and in commemoration of your diamond jubilee. I have though of having the following inscription placed on its base:

My dear Mr. Jacobus:

Miss Tully has referred to me your letter of February 20th, as I arrange all the President's appointments.

I am sorry that it will be impossible for you to present the eagle to the President in person, as you suggest. Since the outbreak of war, however, the President has been so pressed for time that he has delegated me, in my capacity as appointment secretary, to act on his behalf and receive all gifts. If, therefore, you care to make the trip to Washington under these circumstances I shall be glad to receive the eagle from you at any mutually convenient time. If you care to ship this gift in my care I shall be glad to see that it is brought to the President attention. I will, of course, await your further advice.

With all good wishes and assuring you of the President's appreciation of your thoughtfulness, I am,

Although I wrote you on February 6th, 1942, I did not receive your reply until the 18th of this month. I now find that in order to properly complete the plate and stand approximately one week will be consumed. I therefore find it impossible to present the American Eagle to our President until such time.

In order to safegaurd such Eagle and assure myself that it will not be damaged in any way in shipment, I intend to bring it personally to the White House.

I am indeed sorry for this delay but find it unavoidable.

After doing so, I hope to have the pleasure of personally making delivery to you of the American Eagle.

Dear Miss Tully:

If you will recall, I wrote you during February, 1942, and after some correspondence with you and Mr. Watson, I donated to our President on March 2nd, 1942, a beautiful American Eagle. In view of the occupation of our President, Mr. Watson's assistant accepted same for Mr. Roosevelt.

At that time, I requested from such person that he advise me where such Eagle would be placed and if it struck the fancy of the President, I would expect a letter from him with his personal signature. Todate, I have not received same.

I would appreciate your advising me whether this Eagle has been seen by the President and whether it has been placed in any designated spot and if so where it has been placed.

Sincerely yours,

Wm Jacobus

My son Lee, aged 20, left his job and has enlisted in the armed forces. Before entering a military life, he collaborated with me in compiling and editing the enclosed sets of 64 United States Poster Stamp Flags and Albums, which I have published.

Will you please accept these SYMBOLS OF UNITY with my compliments? These flags and what they stand for are symbols representing parts of the whole, which is our National Flag. They are visual evidence of the willingness of some 135,000,000 people in 48 different States to live in harmony and peace.

Yours for a Victory in 1942!

President Franklin D.Roosevelt
The White House
Washington,D.C.

Dear Mr.President;

The writer appreciates,that you are terribly busy and very likely wishes that you were twins several times every day.

I was a 1st Lieutenant,37th U.S.Infantry in the other War and want to naturally help again.

I believe,that I have found a way to assist you in a large measure at the present time and also for a long time into the future.

The enclosed book "AMERICAN DOCTRINE" is quite self explanatory and it is proper time that we all considered it with the reverence that is it's due,and again,now IT can do a really big job for you and the Nation.

All American Doctrine is in this book and it is the First Time that it has ever been published complete between two covers,without many other unimportant subjects,that really took away from the reverence that should go with American Doctrine. The Constitution is printed in good type, which is very unusual. And please note,that this book is built to be a permanent book in the home(Future Amendments,Dates for the termination of the Declarations of War,etc.) also,please note the pages,World War No.1 and World War No.2.

No one could possibly HONOR the men in the Army and Navy MORE than by writing their names in a book,with all American Doctrine,where the pages have been provided for that purpose to keep for posterity in each family. After all,they are not unlike those other men that were at Bunker Hill and at Valley Forge,only then they were fighting for us to have the very same thing,that we are now fighting to continue to have--American Doctrine.

"AMERICAN DOCTRINE" is set up and done properly in every respect befitting American Doctrine,because the entire World is looking for and depending upon Our Principles to insure the future for all of us and our children's children. American Doctrine is going to become increasingly more important which is very proper because,as far as is generally known,with the adoption of The Constitution(1787)The United States Of America was The First Free Country in The World.

It is quite outstanding,that never have The Mothers of our Army ever received any recognition for their great sacrifices and in most all cases,they do take it awfully hard from the beginning of each man's service and have nothing at all to cling to,but words and newspapers,but the really deep hurt still remains.

Actually in nearly all cases they lose sight of what her son is fighting for and what all civilization can lose if we fail in this War. Consequentlty, The Mothers should feel very Proud indeed,that she through him is helping to save American Doctrine,and she would with a good and proper copy of American Doctrine.

"AMERICAN DOCTRINE" through it's pages,World War No.1 and No.2 practically makes every family a living part of American Doctrine,which is as it should be and there will never be another time,ever,to make such a lasting contribution to help make Better Americans and Better Citizens for the Future Generations.

If every Mother or Wife of the men,who have gone or been called upon to serve Our Country received an Autographed Copy of "AMERICAN DOCTRINE" from you Mr.President it would make all of them and the men in service appreciate better,"WHAT WE HAVE AT STAKE IN THIS WAR".

It would help all of the men and their mothers and the entire Country would cheer such an action on your part,for "Not Forgetting The Mothers" as busy as you are.

It would help the Morale of The Nation in a most outstanding and very proper manner,particularly with your War Message regarding Japan and your very wonderful Radio Address to The Nation of December 10th in the homes of Our Men in Service.

The writer feels that,this is a very worth while program and also quite definitely feels,that the first thought of such an idea regarding some proper recognition of The Mothers or Wives of the men who stand between American Doctrine and Our Enemies should come from The President.

The writer quite naturally has many plans for "AMERICAN DOCTRINE",but am holding all of them in abeyance to your wishes.

I could stop all sales and make "AMERICAN DOCTRINE" an exclusive book according to your instructions and could handle it entirely from Boston and accomplish so much,for The Nation,for The President,for The Mothers and The Men in Service,at a very small cost per copy.

"AMERICAN DOCTRINE" is very timely and fits in very perfectly with your,Proclamation of,"I AM AN AMERICAN DAY" May 17th.

Would appreciate receiving your early advise or instructions.

Very confidentially and very sincerely,yours

J. L. Johnston

Mr. Stephen Early,
The White House,
Washington, D.C., U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Early:

I have just been reading with a good deal of interest the new rules adapted by the White House staff, including President Roosevelt himself, in limiting the amount of several foodstuffs to be consumed at the White House.

Among these items is sugar. If agreeable and acceptable to Mr. Roosevelt, I will send him free of ald expenses, and under no obligations of whatever nature, enough sugar from Brazil to take the place of the sugar that is lacking.

There is plenty of sugar here. There might be at times some difficulties in transportation, and sugar here is refined in powdered form, not grantulated as in the States, otherwise there will be no difficulties.

Now I am going to ask a favor of you. The American Red Cross here is an up and coming outfit, with about 95% of the American women working every day, knitting, begging, selling, and doing everything possible to raise money.

I wonder if it is possible to get a donation from President Roosevelt in the form of a signed photograph of himself to be sold at a public auction in the American Red Cross rooms here. Aside from the intrinsic value of the photograph itself, it would be of an even greater value in adding to the prestige of the American Red Cross here in the eyes of the Brazilians.

I know that Mr. Roosevelt is just about the busiest man in the world, and I will leave the matter entirely in your hands, but see if you can wangle it. I will also appreciate it if you will convey my personal regards to Mr. Roosevelt, as he knows me well, having been classmates together for four years at Harvard. It would add greatly to the value of this photograph if Mr. Roosevelt could also add "For the American Red Cross of São Paulo, Brazil".

Thanking you for a reply, I am,

Yours sincerely,

John T. Jones.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt
President of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

Our mutual friend - James Montgomery Flagg, with whom we constantly work on posters for The American Red Cross and the United States Marine Corps, forwarded to me the other day the very rough color visual of a poster, which is attached.

In Mr. Flagg's own words "I Had a Brain Storm Today" -"I thought of a poster to wake the last sleeper in America. There still are some drowsy ones. It has no picture - it's one word WAR! "

Mr. Flagg visualizes this poster thought on 24 sheets, one sheets, window cards, auto stickers staring our citizens in the face from millions of spots and claims it would be a "psychological shot-in-the-arm!"

In bloody red...the one word.

Maybe he has hit upon something, at any rate I am passing it along for what it is worth.

Respectfully yours,

William Carlisle Johnson.

Dear Miss LeHand:

A few years ago you were kind enough to convey two messages to the President for me. One concerned his attitude in regard to state medicine and the other was a request for his picture for my office. The office was at that time the center of a republican stronghold. The President kindly sent me an autographed picture and gave me reassurance regarding his views on state medicine. This in turn enabled me to refute his unjust critics on this subject.

Realizing that he has been under tremendous strain and has great responsibilities ahead I am mailing under separate cover to you a little book which I wish you would give to him. I have just recently published this book and feel that all executives who are under great pressure might do well to read chapter four. The views stated therein might not be entirely in accord with those held by the President, especially as I know that he enjoys smoking, but I do feel that some of the suggestions might enable him to conserve his energy and strength for the very important tasks ahead of him.

We are all very appreciative of the wonderful leadership and wish to help him in every possible way.

Use this CODE MESSAGE to Mary

TEN DOTS AND A DASH

Ten dots and a dash ! call for help ! Ten short beads, then a long bead. This is the code by which to get a message through to Mary.

The Rosary is Mary's "private wire" by which we may reach her in any emergency.

Oldest portable sending-and-receiving-set in existence, your Rosary Beads extend from the Cross at the beginning of one Rosary, to the Cross at the beginning of the next. Like spiritual telegraph poles they form a direct line of communication between ourselves and Mary...

Great spiritual telegrapher was St. Clement Maria Hoffbauer, who declared that on emergency calls to the sick and the dying, as he hastened through the streets of Vienna, he would be telegraphing a call for help — ten dots and a dash — to Mary on his Rosary.

Take his saintly word "I met with success in every instance."

Today's Rosary Mysteries . . . . . JOYFUL

1 The ANNUNCIATION . . . The Angel Gabriel announces to Mary that she is to be the Mother of God. He salutes her "Hail, full of grace". With the same words we salute Mary, ten times in every decade we pray. Let our prayer be that Christ may again be born—His Peace ! born—by intercession of Mary—in the hearts of men.

2 The VISITATION. Mary, herself with Child, hearing that Elizabeth is about to give birth to St. John, hastens to the aid of her cousin. Dedicate this decade to the prayer that Mary will hasten to the side of so many mothers and children in distress in war-ravaged lands.

My Lady's Fighting Men

This is a story out of medieval times, which should inspire us in the fight today. A knight was riding to a tourney. As most knights did when they went into battle, he wore on his arm the gauntlet of his lady love. It was a Rosary; and he would dedicate his feats of arms this day to his Blessed Lady Mary.

Before reaching the tournament, he stopped at a church. And so absorbed did he become in the praying of his beads, that, when he would come to the end of one Rosary, he would be at the beginning of a next. . . . When he had again mounted his horse, and was approaching the combat field, he met spectators coming from it. The tourney was over. And the knight was amazed, for here were these people cheering him. For what? For his victories that day.

It seems that a knight wearing My Lady's Gauntlet ! her Rosary tied around his arm had won all the prizes. And our knight realized that while he had been praying, Our Lady, herself, had fought his battles and won for him the victory.

That same knightly gauntlet is in your hands, as today you pray your Rosary. Not all of us can fight on the field of battle, but, for those who ardently pray Mary's Rosary, she rides forth ! to win our victories.

His heels clicked sharply together as he saluted Mary. . . . In our own hearts today, is there such thankfulness ! love ! admiration ! for our Blessed Mother, as this sailor showed, in his splendid tribute to her ? 4 The PRESENTATION of JESUS. In obedience to Jewish law, Mary and Joseph present the Child Jesus in the Temple. Simeon, the high priest, gives thanks, "because my eyes have seen . . . salvation." When we present ourselves at Mass, we also "present Jesus in the Temple", we, too, fulfilling a Law of God — the Law of Expiation, whereby we offer His Innocence to wipe out our guilt.

5 FINDING of JESUS. After searching for Jesus, three days, Mary and Joseph find Him in the Temple "about My Father's business" . . . answering questions. Seek Jesus in all you do. He is there. He is there in every trial, every job, ready to sanctify all that we do. What must we do ? Simply recognize His Presence in all that we do.

The Nation's Rosary Defenses

Laid end to end, how many Rosary Beads would it take to form a wall of defense around our country ? But, of course, it isn't only the quantity of prayers said, action" each day . . . what a satisfactory line of defense this must be in the sight of God.

Mary's promise: "Ask my Son anything in my name, and He will give it to you", means that she can as easily save a nation, as save a soul. Pray with confidence in Mary. Keep your Rosary constantly with you.

It is first-aid equipment for the nation, because it means God's aid. It is the kind of front-line action which puts us on God's side in the fight.

Think of each bead you pray, as being just as solid an aid to the war effort as a sandbag! just as effective as if each bead was a mine, [as our picture graphically illustrates], putting these United States in a state of God Defense.

David's Bead The young American Army goes forth — a David . . . not lacking a pebble in his hands. That pebble is the Rosary Bead, each a pebble as powerful as David's . . . hurled at the Goliath of War.

Rosaries have been hard to get, for our armed forces, because captive France — from which most Rosaries used to come—cannot make Rosaries any more. She can only say her Rosary with her chained hands. They had to be carefully untangled, separated, sorted, mended. The call went out for "menders of Rosaries." Few answers came. In America, it seemed that no one knew how to mend Rosaries.

Then, in many Catholic homes, mothers volunteered to learn to do the job. So that, today, in many a mother's hands throughout the land, special little steel pliers are deep in this new job, mending Rosaries instead of stockings or socks . . . knitting together the "David's Beads" which their sons will carry forth into battle.

Honorable Sir:

During the time another Roosevelt occupied the White House Mr. Jones was a private stationed at Fort Crook, Nebraska, During maneuvers at Fort Riley, Kansas, on the Pawnee Flats, in 1906 our President Theodore Roosevelt inspected the troops — and one of the biggest thrills of Mr. Jones' life is that he accidentally was one of the men to whom the President put a question as to how he liked the army

Now another Roosevelt, (you, our present beloved President) occupies the Executive Mansion. and we all have a high respect for his desire and ability to do all he can for the welfare of the American people, and to continue and exalt the standards and tenets upon which this country was founded a good many years ago.

Your task, we believe, is one of the most difficult in the world today, as all democratic nations and freedom-loving peoples look to you for leadership. Your responsibility is great, but with the help of God it is our honest opinion you will be able to carry on and achieve the desired end for all peoples who look to God and the United States for their guidance in these times.

We have the utmost faith in your leadership.

attached to this letter we are sending a sampler which I have myself made, and which we think in these times of stress and warfare very nicely divides the creed of the Axis Powers from that of the United Nations by the declaration that:

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

We know God in his Infinite mercy will continue to make this motto a definite prophecy with reference to our country — the Good Old U. S. A.

that he gave to athers and if they can do a thing so can I if I try hard enough. I know a lot who have had more schooling than I have had but today can not read or write.
Just because they forgot what they learned and never tryed hard enough to learn more. They just give up instead of trying I had to master it I can sew knit crochet any thing read any instruction because I figured if athers could do it so can I and that is why I know after we have won a victory I will be a success at any victory because I have faith in my self but I want to be able to keep my freedom to and that is why I want my country to hear my songs now I can write plenty more and I dont need them if they will help in some small way or big way it will be all a good american could ask for I have a son in there and I want to do it for him and all the rest of them there are some who say I am foolish to write to you that you never see the letters or my lyric that they just are thrown in a waste paper Basket but I dont belive that I know you will listen to the voice of all the people no matter if they are big a small because you are the voice of the people. so will keep writeing songs for uncle Sam until we have won a victory and we will hopeing I can keep on writeing bigger and better songs for Uncle Sam.

little hunkys for the First Lady I know they are not much but I would like for her to have them because I think she is a grand Lady am using the ruled of paper to save paper.

Im a Patriotic yankey

Im a Patriotic yankey and its mighty Proud I am of a Land thats called the usa and a guy named uncle sam but Im not Just Patriotic thats easy in a Land thats free from now on Im a fighting yankey until we've won a victory

2nd part

Im a fighting Patriotic yankey of the usa
and anything my uncle sammey says with me is quite OK Im Just one of the million for we're a hundred MILLion strong and a hundred MILLion yankey mr.
Hitler cant be wrong we're marching marching on to victory. fighting fighting for our Liberty we've got a swell Commander by the name of uncle sam and it wont take us long to win with him in full command for he's marching marching in every yankeys stride fighting yes fighting by every yankeys side

See those Plains a flying hear those mighty cannons roar will that means mr HitLer the fighting yanks are at your door
Im a son of a son of a Patriotic who fought and died for Liberty and I dont intend to Let no axies swine take it from me So we're marching marching on to victory fighting fighting so all men can

My dear Mr. Jarvis:

Permit me to thank you, in the President's behalf, for the booklet, which accompanied your letter of September twenty-seventh. I know he will appreciate your courtesy and will be grateful for your kind personal expressions.

Very sincerely yours,

To My President:

All my life I felt I wanted to write to or talk to a President of these United States. During the last war I was old enough to be a great admirer of President Wilson, I read all I could about him and if my memory is correct saw him during a visit to Detroit.

At last I feel I have cause to write to you our President, who needless to say we have all admired and loved now with whom we are fighting shoulder to shoulder in this our battle for survival.

May I respectfully

submit the enclosed booklet of stories I have written during the past six months These books are now being printed in Los Angeles funding their way into schools, lodges, U.S.O. centers and various other organizations.

I have this day submitted them to Monsignor Kennedy of St. Mary's Catholic Cathedral here in Salt Lake. He has placed a small trial order for distribution in the schools. I have also submitted them to the Elders of the Mormon Church who have agreed to submit them to the Public school dept of the State of Utah for their approbation.

I mention these incidents to show how readily the public seems to accept them.

I pray you will see fit to add this one booklet to your library. This to me would be a signal honor and would make me feel that perhaps this desire to contact Our President of these United States had at last been fulfilled.

Sincerely yours
