Dear Mr. President:

A special volume of the Golden Book of the Jewish National Fund was presented to you through Senator Alben W. Barkley.

It is my pleasure and honor to transmit to you, Sir, under separate cover, a Golden Book Certificate which has just been received from our Head Office in Jerusalem.

The pupils of the Tifereth Sforad School of Kansas City, Mo. have entered your name in the Golden Book, which will forever repose in Palestine, as an expression of love and esteem for your humanitarian efforts in behalf of the persecuted Jews and as an expression of hope that the doors of Palestine will be opened wider.

It is the hope of Jews throughout the world that through your great efforts a Jewish Commonwealth will be established in Palestine.

Sincerely yours,

IN THE RECORD

THE SAGA of mankind's struggle for freedom is being written anew in letters of fire and blood. Each of the freedom-loving peoples, suffering and fighting for the victory of the common cause, is contributing to the soul-stirring record pages which bear its national imprint.

NOT THE LEAST dramatic among them—nor less significant to a world at war and to the vision of a just peace—is the epic of Jewish suffering in the conquered lands and of Jewish hope and fortitude in Palestine.

THIS UNWAVERING faith in democratic victory and in the fulfillment of a great ideal is emblazoned in the achievements of the Jewish National Fund and on the pages of its Sepher Ha'Zahav—the Golden Book. It has fittingly been described as the Eternal Record of An Imperishable People.

Part of the imperishable record: a page in the Golden Book of the Keren Kayemeth.

You Will Be Proud to Have The Golden Book Certificate

THIS IS AN INVITATION to you to obtain a Golden Book Certificate for yourself, for any member of your family or for someone you wish to honor. An inscription in the Golden Book may be secured on the basis of a $100 gift to the Jewish National Fund for the acquisition of one Victory Acre. Inscribing the names of men and women in the armed forces of the United States is a particularly fitting tribute to them.

IN DAYS TO COME, you will look with justifiable pride on this inscription. This Certificate (reproduced on page 1), beautifully engraved and inscribed in the name of the person who has thus been honored, will be an everlasting testimonial of the contribution or of the event in the life of the individual, of the family or of the community.

MAKE THAT NAME or event a part of the record of an imperishable people! Help to redeem an Acre of Land in Eretz Israel!

ACT NOW! FILL IN DETAILS ON THIS COUPON!

Part of the imperishable
record: a page
in the Golden Book of the K e r e n Kayemeth.

THE PAGEANTRY and tragedy of modern Jewish history—and of world history—during the past four decades are chronicled on the pages of the Golden Book.

SINCE its inception in the days of Theodor Herzl, the Golden Book of the Keren Kayemeth has served as a Jewish Order of Merit which has been conferred upon the great as well as the humble. Kings and Presidents, Prime Ministers and Rulers, Scientists and Poets, Martyrs and Heroes and common folk have been inscribed on its pages in recognition of their achievements, in appreciation of their interest and friendship or in acknowledgment of their support for the cause of Zion Rebuilt.

PRESERVED for all time at the headquarters of the Keren Ka-yemeth Le Israel in Jerusalem, the six volumes of the Golden Book contain a stirring record of our time. Ten inscriptions to a page, five hundred pages in each Book, our people's Roll of Honor contains the names of many thousands of men, women and children and brief descriptions of the special occasions—joyous or solemn—upon which the tribute was paid them.
Relatives or friends have honored them by associating their names with the reclamation of Israel's Land. Communities and organizations have in the same manner paid an everlasting tribute to their leaders or to eminent civic figures and non-Jewish friends.

EACH ENTRY, made on the basis of a $100 gift, enabled the Jewish National Fund to redeem one acre of land in Palestine as the common property of the people. Thousands of acres have thus been added to the cultivable land areas of the Jewish National Home.

TODAY the pages of the sixth volume of the Golden Book are open for the gifts and inscriptions of those men and women who buttress their faith in the victory of the democratic cause by helping to deepen its foundations at a vital sector of the worldwide front.

EACH ACRE of land acquired by the Jewish National Fund in Palestine since September, 1939, has been an added contribution to the war effort. The new land has helped to increase the Jewish National Home's agricultural and industrial output. This has been a factor of considerable importance in supplying the fighting forces which drove the Axis from the Middle East.

EACH NEW ACRE which is being added to the national land possessions

serves the purposes of Victory.
Each dunam which extends the area of the Jewish National
Home enlarges Palestine's capacity to admit,
to absorb and to rehabilitate the survivors of the anti-Jewish massacres in Europe.

The Open Gate

THE COVER of the sixth volume of the Golden Book (above) is a masterpiece of modern Hebrew art. Symbolically it portrays the Open Gate of Hope beyond which stretch verdant hills and fruitful valleys of Eretz Israel on which a new, heroic and glorious Jewish life is being created.

FOR BEYOND the suffering and anguish of the war gleams a light that illumines a vista of victory and freedom, of life and progress in a world reconstructed in peace and justice in which the Commonwealth of Eretz Israel will take its rightful place among the family of free peoples.

Dear Mr. Roosevelt,

I wonder if you would accept a gift from me, which I know you would enjoy very much. I am just a small butcher, but I make a sausage that I prize very highly. I dry them in the winter and they are very good. I would like for you to have some for breakfast one of these mornings.

Please forgive and allow me to tell you about an old farmer out here in the country. He went home one night drunk, and he woke up the next morning about 3 o'clock very thirsty, so he gets up and walks out across the yard barefooted to the old well and draws him up a bucket of fresh water, and after drinking all he can hold, he walks over to the corner of the yard to the old dinner bell which sits on a high pole by the smoke house, so he pulls the cord and the bell begins to ring, which can be heard all over the plantation, in a few minutes all his negro hands was there in the yard with him, wanting to know what had happened, he says, boys, I want you to drive out my mules and give them some of that water, it is the best I ever dranked. - I can't call in all my nabars, because my sausage isn't as deep as the well.

As my reference, I give you Mr. E. B. Doyle, U. S. Marshall, Macon Ga., I put meat on his table nearly ten years.

If you will accept a package of these sausage, free, as a good will, please let your secretary drop me a card stating that it will be alright, and I will mail them to you.

You need not write a letter after receiving them, as I know you are a busy man these days.

Always your friend,

Guy Johnson

JOHNSON, Mrs. Harold P.,
(Mrs. Marion L. Johnson)
Woburn, Massachusetts.
February 18, 1945.

Wrote to the President stating that her husband, Harold Penderter Johnson, Harvard 1905 and one of the former editors of the Harvard "CRIMSON" died Feb. 13th, 1943 - lists bound copies of "CRIMSON" which he left - offers to give them to the President. ---3/8/45 Miss Tully replied stating it was especially thoughtful of her to write the President about those bound copies of the Harvard Crimson. He asks Miss Tully to thank her and to say that he would like very much to have them as he does not have any of these numbers. President was distressed to learn that her husband passed away in February of last year. He did not know it and he feels very sorry about it, as he realizes what a great loss she has sustained.

My dear Colonel Johnson:

The President thanks you most heartily for your kindness in sending him those old photo-graphs for his collection. He is especially glad to have them and wants you to know that the friendly thought which prompted this presentation pleased him a great deal.

WINANT, Hon. James Gilbert,
U. S. Embassy, London, England.
March 4, 1945.

Wrote to President stating that in Barrie's (Sir James Barrie) great Rectorial Address to students of St. Andrews he told them quite frankly that he could not provide them with a staff for their journey in the world that lay before them but perhaps he could tell them a little about it, "how to use it and lose it and find it again, and cling to it more than ever." "You shall cut it," he said, "as is ordained, every one of you for himself, and its name is Courage." Ambassador Winant, in trying to find an XMAS present for President found George Washington's walking stick which he gave to Jerome Bonaparte. It carries the 13 stars which symbolize the unity of the original 13 states. Cane is a gift to President personally - not for any museum - because President symbolizes to him personally the charming virtue - Courage.---3/15/45 Isadore Lubin sent letter to Mrs. Eben in re above cane which he (Mr. Lubin) brought the President from Ambassador Winant. States that the big pistol is a German Walther, 9 mm., .38 automatic, taken from the body of a German officer in a pillbox in the Trier area on 2/19/45. Little pistol was given to President by Board of Directors of Fabrique Nationale, Mr. Joassart of that Bd. made presentation in honor of his visit to WH on 4/20/44, as member of Governing Body of International Labor Organization.---3/16/45 President wrote to Ambassador Winant saying he most certainly was made happy by his gift of George Washington's cane. It is most interesting for its association, but it is also a remarkably well preserved piece of wood, considering its age. Says cane is ear-marked for his own personal things at Hyde Park and not for the Library. Concluded letter by saying: "Poland seems to be acting up again -- or, more correctly, the Russian Foreign Office."---Mrs. Eben's note says: "Mike Reilly is holding pistols and cane so they will reach H. P. ok---I am going to turn all of the attached * over to Mike and forget about it." *Original correspondence.
