Franklin Roosevelt

Herr Roosevelt

Ich Sende Ihnen einen Plier welcher der beste Plier in der Welt ist. dieser Plier hat 3 mal soviel Kraft we der beste Plier jetzt an Market. Sie brauchen ihn nur selbst auszuprobieren dann finden Sie aus dass es wirklich so ist.

Werther Fresident

Ich wüchte in gerne auf den Markt bringen habe auch schon die Tools and Die dazu fertig um zu Fabricieren. Telefon and Electrican warten darauf dass ich heraus komme mit der vollen line an den Markt. Aber ich bin nicht im Stande es durchzuführen da ich 1931 alles verloren habe was ich hatte. Und das gross Kapital thut nichts für den kleinen. Ich weiss es ist ein Kampf zwischen Kapital und Covernment das Kapital will Sie bekämpfen aber ich hoffe Sie gehen als Sieger hervor

Herr Roosevelt Könnte ich nicht ein darlehn von der Regirung erhalten um die besten Plier in der Welt hier in Amerika zu Fabriziren und auf den Markt bringen

damit der import so von Ausland aufhöre und unser Geld in Amerika blieb, wo wir es nötig gebrauchen, den es giebt viele Arbeitslose welche gerne Arbeit möchten aber keine finden. den dass gross Kapital giebt ihnen keine Arbeit. Auch mich wollen Sie unterdrüken damit ich nicht zum Ziele kommen kann.

Herr Roosevelt

Bitte Sehen sie sich den Plier genau an und probieren sie ihn aus so werden Sie ausfinden dass er so ist wie ich ihn beschreibe. Ich will nicht blos einen Plier machen sondern eine ganz neue (kein) Sortirung welche alle nach demselben prinzieb gearbeitet sind alle doppelt übersetzung Z-B. Linemanplier Diegonelplier longnosplier und ville andere was die Telofon arbeiter und Elektrik arbeiter haben wollen, denn die warten mit grossen Schmerzen darauf dass ich mit meinen Plier auf den Markt komme. denn er hatt einen grösseren vorteil als die anderen Ordinäre Plier auf den Markt. Sie Arbeiten leichter und haben einen vielgrösseren ~~~~ Druk Kraft. Die Regirung selbst braucht viele Kraft Plier!

Warum sollen wir den besten Plier in der Welt nicht hier in Amerika fabrizieren, soll ich ins ausland gehn ich hätte eine gelegenheit dazu aber ich habe meine Familie hier und möchte nicht aus Amerika weg.

Ich bin ~~A~~r Naturalisirt und 25 Jahre in Amerika möchte auch mein ganzes leben hier zubringen.

Herr Rooseveld

Ich hoffe dass sie mich gut verstehen was ich gebrauche sind 10-15.000 Dolar um es durchzuführen Solte das Coverment es ablehnen vielleicht geht es in Privat Herr Rooseveld.

Dear Mr Presidnent,

I have been wanting to send you a word of incouragement for sometime past, But knowing how busy you are every moment could not get up courage to write and bother you with more correspondance such as I am capable of produceing,But I now feel I must offer you a word of incouragement and congratulate you on your true faithfulness to your people and Nation,

We have had a wonderful snow over most of the great Srouth eara, and it has settled the dust and given new hopes along with the new Farm programm, But the Foreign situeation has not cleared to any extent. according to the latest news despatches,

I may have said things in some of my personal remarks which I have taken up on my self to express through some of our local papers which I am going to mail to you under seprate cover. that you and your cabinate will not approve of, But I sincerely hope none has tended to weakin your prestage in any way, And I wish to assure

Dear Mr. McIntyre:

In all the ruck of discussion going through the press today, my mind keeps coming back to the chapter on Planning for Purchasing Power (page 210) in the book, "This Changing World - As I see Its Trend and Purpose" (Houghton Mifflin 1932-3), by Samuel S. Fels, the Philadelphia manufacturer and friend of the President.

We published parts of this book serially in Survey Graphic.

Mr. Fels was ahead of the times in what he wrote then; but it has occurred to me that his idea of a Federal Trade Board along new lines is immensely opportune ~~at this juncture~~. I fancy a copy of the Fels book reached the White House at the time of its publication; but am not sure; and in any event, I am sending you a copy of the book under separate cover, in the hope that you may put it in Mr. Roosevelt's hands at this crucial juncture.

Sincerely,

His Excellency Franklin D. Roosevelt.

My Belnoved Excellent President of the United States of America Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Congratulations in the Holy Name of Jesus on Your Birthday.

This morning in my regular prayer hour God Our Father put it on my heart to prayer for two hours for your complete healing, and god told me to pray on a handerchief which I anointed in the name of the Lord Jesus, according to The Acts of the Apostles Chapter 19- Verse 11-12. Read the following chapter Mark Chapter 11- Verse 22-23-24- Mark Chapter 16- Verse 16-20- and Exodus Chapter 23- Verse 25- This is marked on the enclosed tract of our healing, with a red cross. Read these scriptures I have given you with faith in The Lord Jesus Christ. Before you go to bed put this handerchief over ~~to~~ Your heart, with faith in Jesus and I believe with all my heart The Lord will heal you completely if. You trust in Jesus Christ. After your complete healing the way could be opened for me to go and pray for the children at Warm Spring georgia. I have prayed morning and evening since Dec 1st 1933 for you and the children at Warm Springs. God bless and keep your whole family.

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt
Washington, D. C.

Dear President Roosevelt:

Since your fifty-fifth birthday is only a week hence, I would like to one of your first well-wishers to extend birthday greetings to you.

Accept if you will, a copy of my first edition of"Triadate Appointment Calendar" book, as a sincere token of love and esteem for my President of the United States, of whom I am quite proud. When I listened to your recent Jackson Day dinner address, I could not help but express a silent wish, that I could return a hundred years hence and listen to the kind words that could and would be spoken about The New Deal President, who tried to be humane in his dealings with the Forgotten Man.

To my way of thinking Mr. Roosevelt, if your Administration had accomplished nothing more than the Bank Holiday, Housing problem, plus the Social Security and Unemployment measures to its credit, despite the World Depression, I can and will congratulate you at least on attempted good work, some well done and some failures.

Should you get an opportunity, in your very busy moments, to glance through my book, you will notice that I have attempted to co-relate the dates of the Gregorian with the Hebrew calendar. I have included all the legal and religious holidays of the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths. Also listed birthdays and anniversaries of prominent persons and events briefly in interesting foot-notes on the bottom of each page, while on the last two pages I inserted a chronological list of Presidents of the United States and a complete list of American Nobel Prize Winners.

Of course I would appreciate an expression from you, as to the merit of my attempt to join the religious and legal calendar into one harmonizing unit. Again wishing you the happiest of Birthday Greetings, I remain

One of your sincere citizens,

My dear Mr. President:

I was recently in your city for a week's stay, and was surprised to find that all of the restaurants and hotels were serving Florida grapefruit to the exclusion of Texas grapefruit. Feeling that the Texas fruit is greatly superior to the Florida fruit, I thought that the White House should at least have a sample of the Texas variety, and I am, therefore, taking the liberty of shipping you, by express, a bushel of Thompson pink-meated grapefruit, which I trust you will accept and sample and find somewhat superior to the Florida product.

Mr. President:

Knowing of your interest in our organization and the work we are doing, we are sending you herewith a frame of honey produced in our camp apiary, a part of our educational establishment.

There are ten enrollees in the class, meeting ten hours per week, evenings being devoted to discussion of the science based on Roots' book "The ABC and XYZ of Bee-Keeping," on week-ends work is done in the apiary where there are one hundred and twenty-five hives.

Our instructor is Karl Koenig, W. P. A. Counsellor who also teaches baking. The program is under the direction of Willard T. Day, Camp Educational Adviser, and the camp is Commanded by 1st Lt. Claus A. Tornell, QM-Res.

Respectfully,

John Kreitler, CC9-1100

Dear Mr. Roosevelt;

I'm sending you a drawing., that I certainly hope you will like. Im only an amateur artist, and get a big kick out of drawing for past time
It just crossed my mind yesterday to draw a picture of you., so here it is., of Course I have never had the pleasure of seeing you personally. But I have a good idea how you look, from movie previews, and news paper photos.

I am twenty three years old, six feet three inches tall, one hundred and sixty pounds., married and work for the U.S. Steel Corporation., at Fairfield alabama. The T.C.I. Rail Road Company..

I certainly hope you will like this picture, and if you don't like it., Please don't throw it away.

It took me approximately nine hours to make this picture. I do practically any kind of drawing have been drawing every since I was a kid. I got quite a few spankings in school, for drawing pictures of my teacher. you can imagine.

Hoping you like this little gift lots.

The attached letter in Japanese is addressed to the President by one Hashiji Kakazu, P.O. Box 194, Kilua Kona, Hawaii. He starts out with deploring the German occupation of Austria and dwells upon the danger to humanity arising from the aggressive ambitions of nations. He encloses a statement relating to the subject "Key to World Peace".

The writer is evidently a crank and he mentions in his letter that persons have considered him insane. The letter is somewhat incoherent and the writer's thoughts are ill-expressed.

It is therefore not believed that the letter and its enclosure will replay translation or that any action needs to be taken in regard to it.

FORMULARY-SCIENCE OF HAIR CULTURE, AND COMICS IN THE LAW

IF IT'S ILLEGAL TO USE ENGLISH, HE'LL KILL LAW

Weber Hears Strange Act Is Still On Illinois Books; Book Tells Legal Oddities

Now, in Iowa, a one armed piano player may be seen—but not if admission is charged.

And in the same state ten-legged cows and horses with four tails are barred from exhibition.

Spitting into the wind is prohibited in Sault Sainte Marie, Mich. (where the wind blows a gale from the nor'east).

BAN ON PARK KISSES.

And the city ordinances of Chicago forbid kissing in public parks, and it is unlawful to feed a dog whisky.

These and other strange laws were being studied yesterday by State Representative Charles H. Weber. They are are contained in a book published by his friend, Attorney Lyman E. Cook of St. Louis.

Representative Weber doesn't want to put any of these laws on the Illinois statute books. He wants to get all such legal oddities removed from the law tomes—but particularly is he seeking the law, cited by Attorney Cook that says its illegal to speak English in Illinois.

Mr. Weber doesn't remember any such statute but he is asking Attorney Cook to prove that it exists—and if there is such a prohibition, then the Chicago statesman is going to have it repealed.

LOOKING FOR ODDITIES.

And meanwhile he is looking for statutes comparable to these:

An Oak Park ordinance that limits a house wife's baking output to 100 doughnuts a day.

The Nilwood, Ill., law compelling women to wear heavy petticoats

A compulsory Saturday night bathing statute in Barre, Vt.

The Maine law providing a fine for having one's shoe laces untied.

The Gary, Ind., ordinance barring all but the mayor and city council members from attending a theatrical performance or boarding a street car within four hours after eating garlic (except when garlic is prescribed for medicinal purposes and a certificate shown by the garlicee.)

Vážený pane,

podepsaná kancelář sděluje, že předložila panu presidentovi knihu: "Vzpomínky z mého života", kterou jste mu zaslal.

K danému příkazu děkujeme Vám za projevenou pozornost.

Za kancelář presidenta republiky:

Pan
Václav Kaňka-Průhonický
1637 Allpost Str.,
Chicago.

K 45. narozeninám Václava Kaňky-Průhonického.

Je teď právě čtyřicet pět let,
muže vzor, jenž o únavě neví,
v duši bujarého žáru vzlet, —
tak se přítel Kaňka nám dnes jeví.

Rodné Průhonice, v kterých květ mládí prožil, než jej osud tvrdý strh ve válku, kterou chvěl se svět, mohou právem na něho být hrdy.

Patnáct zemí shlédnuv, posléz přec obrátil se k břehům Ameriky, vábit' mladé ptáče zlatá klec;
uplatnil se zde však, bohudíky.

Činnost jeho ocenila již
velká řada vzácných osobností;
každý pak, kdo pozná Kaňku blíž, obdiv má pro mužné jeho ctnosti.

Z dvaceti svých amerických let plných deset let již novinaří, vyznačný jest jeho skvělý vznět, který z každé jeho práce září.

Knihou "VZPOMÍNKY" si postavil
Kaňka pomník, tím zvlášť cenný více, že v ní také vroucně proslavil rodiště své drahé, PRŮHONICE.

Do všech dílů světa kniha ta rozlétla se, odevšad pak vřelé přišlo uznání, a pilná ta práce našla pochopení celé.

Z Říma též, ze Města Věčného,
z Republiky, tehdy plné síly, odpovědi došly vděčného autora a projev chvály milý.

Kaňka stále pilně pracuje, mnoho článků vyšlo z jeho pera, stále nové plány osnuje,
od rána je čilý do večera.

Kéž si dalších zásluh dobývá na národa roli v hojné míře, nechat' dlouho ještě prospívá
lidu našemu a svaté víře!

Milý pane Kaňka!

Obdržel jsem knihu: "Vzpomínky z mého života" Vámi sepsanou a v nádherné vazbě vydanou. Pro nával jiné práce nemám dosti času jí pročítati a pak o ni referovati. Snad se mi někdy později více času dostane. Pro zatím blahopřeji k Vašemu úsilí, zanechati po sobě jakousi psanou památku pozdějším pokolením že Václav Kaňka také v Americe žil a svými silami se přičiňoval v řeči i mravech, hlavně v náboženství svých zbožných předků se uplatniti a jiných svým příkladem ku podobné snaze povzbuditi.

Zatím trvám

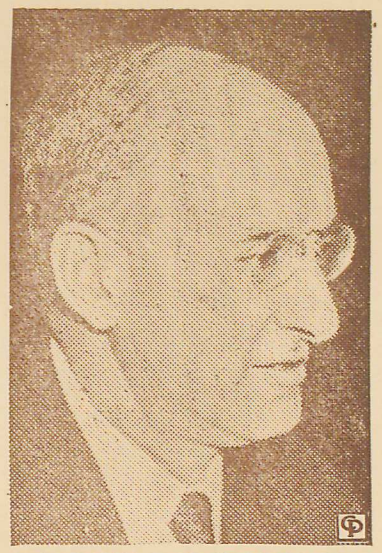

v dokonalé úctě

zcela oddaný

A Czech Book In All Countries of the World

"Vzpomínky z mého života"

(Memoirs of My Life)

BY

VACLAV KANKA - PRUHONICKY

This Czech book was sent out all over the world, to all rulers of all countries, mayors of all capital cities of the whole world, to many high dignitaries, universities, schools, libraries, institutions in America as well as in the old country, and all thanked for this Czech book written and published by the author himself.

Our Czech name is well represented in the United States of America, numerically and qualitatively alike, for we have a whole lot of excellently trained and prominent newspapermen who see to it that a good knowledge of the Czech name be spread all over America.

One of these popular Czechs is our newspaperman, Mr. Vaclav Kanka-Pruhonicky, who after 20 years spent abroad does not forget his native country. To commemorate his 20th anniversary of residence in America as well as the twentieth birthday of the Czechoslovak Republic, Mr. Kanka published a book unde his name "Recollections from my life". ("Vzpomínky z mého života".) This volume contains remarkable details as to customs and habits in the vicinity of Prague, the capital of Bohemia, and also as to important events involving Czechs in the United States of America.

This unique book contains 416 pages in a handsome binding, with numerous photographic snapshots taken at various ecclesiastical, social and political occasions, and pictures of author's numerous prominent friends both here in America and in the old country.

It was our author's sincere endeavor to collect pictorial material with reference to important events here as well as across the ocean, where he met many well known persons occupying leading positions or playing important parts in our life. At the same time, Mr. Kanka was successful in portraying his beautiful and widely known birthplace.

Mr. Vaclav Kanka-Pruhonicky arrived in the United States 20 years ago and now resides in the St. Procopius parish in Chicago. Born at Pruhonice, near Prague, January 27, 1896, young Kanka, after graduation from public and high schools, during the first world war, was drafted into the army and enlisted with the 8th regiment of rifle shooters with which he was dispatched to the Balkans where he spent several months with the telephone and telegraph division of the regiment No. 306 at Alessio. After his return from Albania Mr. Kanka served at various other military posts until the 28th day of October, 1918, the final day of the world war.

In 1919 Mr. Kanka entered the School of Forestry in Prague, but after a year and half of studies left for America, the land of his dreams. August 15, 1920, he left Czechoslovakia and 13 days later he landed in New York, and immediately went on to Omaha, Nebr. A year later he returned to Czechoslovakia. Several months later he left again for the United States and went to Chicago. His first job was with Sears, Roebuck & Co. where for ten years he worked as "shipping clerk". At the present time he is employed by the Czech Catholic Daily "Narod" in the capacity of business representative and reporter. In 1923 he was married to Miss Elizabeth Molik in the St. Procopius church and lives at 1628 Allport Street.

The best proof of Mr. Kanka's eminent qualifications was offered by the special numbers of the daily "Narod" of September 2, 1934, published for the Czechoslovak Sporting Festival, the Cermak Memorial, and May 12, 1935, published for the Golden Jubilee of the arrival of the Bohemian Benedictines of Chicago. These numbers were the most voluminous ones in the history of the Daily Narod and were deposited in the Library of the National Museum in Prague.

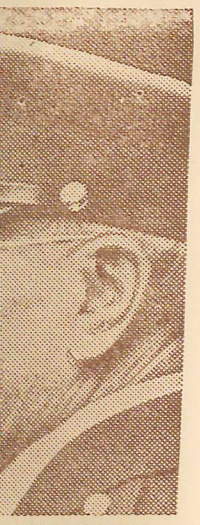

Mr. Kanka wrote interesting recollections of the Hon. Anton J. Cermak, the first mayor of Czech descent of the City of Chicago, and of the first President of the Czechoslovak Republic, T. G. Masaryk.

In his 45 years Mr. Kanka rose to a prominency in the social life, as shown by his close relationships to outstanding American and Czechoslovakian persons of the political and cultural world. The late Mayor A. J. Cermak, as well as the late Dr. Francis Soukup, President of the Czechoslovakian Senate, were among his most devoted friends.

As soldier and tourist Mr. Kanka traveled in 15 European countries. In 1925 made pilgrimage to Rome and was received in audience by Pope Pius XI. All his varied experiences are contained in his book "Vzpomínky z mého života."

Václav Kaňka prodělal celou světovou válku a byl na albánské frontě. Po válce vstoupil do lesnické školy v Praze, kterou studoval rok a půl, načež po prázdninách, dne 15. srpna 1920 odejel do Ameriky. Jako voják a turista procestoval patnáct evropských zemí. Dvakrát byl návštěvou ve staré vlasti v roce 1925 byl návštěvou v Římě u Svatého Otce Pia XI. Ve svých 45 letech dosáhl význačného společenského postavení, jak to dosvědčuje jeho významné dílo, jeho česká kniha "VZPOMÍNKY Z MÉHO ŽIVOTA", která je nejrozšířenější českou knihou, neboť šla takřka do celého světa.

Eugene Cardinal Pacelli, Secretary of State to His Holiness, begs to express the paternal gratitude of the Holy Father for the message of devoted homage addressed to Him on the occasion of His eightieth Birthday Anniversary, and to convey to the sender, in pledge of abundant grace, the Apostolic Benediction of His Holiness.

SVATÝ OTEC PIUS XI.,
děkuje Václavu Kaňkovi za blahopřejný projev k jeho 80. narozeninám,
a posílá mu své apoštolské požehnání.

SEGRETERIA DI STATO
DI SUA SANTITA'

The Secretary of State to His Holiness takes pleasure in expressing the sincere thanks of the Holy Father for the devoted message of good wishes and prayer sent Him, and in conveying, as a pledge of abiding divine grace, the paternal Apostolic Benediction of His Holiness.

SVATÝ OTEC PIUS XII.,
děkuje Václavu Kaňkovi za blahopřání k Novému roku 1941
a posílá mu své apoštolské požehnání.

LEONARDTOWN, MARYLAND

INTIMATE GLIMPSES OF Old Saint Mary's

By GEORGE MORGAN KNIGHT, Jr.

With introduction by Harry W. Nice, Governor of Maryland

After ten years of diligent research George Morgan Knight, Jr., imbued with the great historic background St. Mary's County contributed in the building of our country, offers his collecion of historic and traditional untold happenings.

When Leonard Calvert, with his band of setttlers disembarked from the Arc and Dove on March 27, 1634 on the spot which is now St. Mary's City, they could not realize that they were laying the foundations of our National history on this spot.

The Toleration Act, later fully incorporated in the constitution of the United States, born at St. Mary's City; the idea of the Monroe Doctrine crystallized at Piney Point on the lower Potomac by the president; the probability of bottling up of Lord Cornwallis's fleet in the Patuxent River by Lafayette, and many other historical and exciting incidents of history have been interestingly recorded.

The visits of Washington, Lafayette, Webster, Clay, Calhoun and others of historic note have been set forth in a truly human vein by Mr. Knight.

Aside from historical significance, many unusual facts of early life in St. Mary's County are disclosed: the picturesque steamboats; the oxen teams which are still in use; the colonial manors, many of which are still owned by the descendants of the original settlers.

The forty chapters are intensely interesting, not only to those fascinated by life in early Maryland, but to the reader at large. Architects as well will find a generous store of interest in the reproductions of the historical manor houses in St. Mary's County—forty-four illustrations, photographed by the author, mostly of the old manor houses.

Governor Harry W. Nice has caught the fullness of this work with the following words which appear in his introduction of the book:

> "Much of the quaintness of colonial life still is discoverable in St. Mary's County and the charm and the beauty of that section makes it a Mecca for lovers of the complete and the ideal in life. It is seldom that a region is fortunate enough to have its natural beauty and the spirit of its traditions so lovingly and carefully memoralized as is done in this unusually entertaining volume.

" 'To him who in the love of Nature holds communion with her visible forms'; to the student of the early history of our Nation's making; or to him who in slightest measure can feel the nearness of a true poetic soul, 'Intimate Glimpses of Old St. Mary's' will be indeed a treasure. The fascination sustained successively by each of its forty gem-like chapters, whether by reason of interest in history or by reason of pure enjoyment of intimate anecdote, is a distinct after-impression that is proof enough of its value as a literary composition.

"Ten years of earnest research have produced an unusually valuable thesaurus of historical data collected from those whose records and memory might have passed with their own demise and have brought into one place a collection, valuable to the antiquarian and inspiring to the student. Mr. Knight's love of St. Mary's and his ability to portray the life and feeling of the times when the old Colonial Manors were erected is reflected in a most charming and delightful description.

'I am not only grateful for the pleasure the reading has given me, but I commend it as a distinct addition to the literary lore of Maryland."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

George Morgan Knight, Jr., born at Wrightsville Beach, N. C., lived 20 years in Petersburg, Va. and attended school there. Twelve years ago he moved with his parents to his father's native home, Leonardtown, in St. Mary's County, Maryland.

From his mother, a Baltimorean and decendant of Lord Murray, half brother of the ill fated Mary Queen of Scots, James Wilson, signer of the Declaration of Independence and the United States Constitution, and Alexander Wilson, poet and naturalist, and co-worker with Audubon, the author inherits his desire to write; and from his father, a native of St. Mary's County, whose ancestors helped settle the Maryland and Virginia Colonies, comes the determination to see things through.

All during his boyhood he was constantly surrounded with reminders of the historic past of Virginia and the part she vividly played in the settling of America. Under this influence, he became greatly absorbed in the Romance of the Colonial planters.

Realizing the need for the present volume he carefully photographed and gathered the data about the colonial homes and historic spots from his neighbors and friends whose ancestors had handed down to them the personal happenings of the yesteryears. These cover the periods preceeding the Revolutionary and Civil Wars, and are accurately recorded in a most human way.

Long training has fitted the author to produce this book about St. Mary's, "the mother county of Maryland", and preserve the material for posterity. His contributions to the Richmond Times Dispatch, and Richmond News

Leader have been invaluable for the experience they afforded. He is now correspondent for the Washington Evening Star, Baltimore Sun, The Associated Press, Philadelphia Inquirer, New York Daily News, Globe Photos; also his work has appeared in the first issue of Life's new magazine, and an English magazine, "THE FIELD" of London, King Features Syndicate, and a number of other publications.

This volume, handsomely bound in red natural finish cloth, corresponding with the color of St. Mary's County and marked in genuine gold with the Calvert Coat of Arms, will be quite an addition to your library.

There are forty-four reproductions, mostly of the famous old manors of St. Mary's County which were photographed originally by the author, throughout the book. These plates are highly interesting for their historic as well as architectural value.

Dear Mr. President:

I am taking the liberty of sending you under separate cover an advance copy of one of our forthcoming books: THE FAR EASTERN POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES by A. Whitney Griswold. We have recently contracted with the Institute of International Studies at Yale University to publish a series of original studies of American foreign policy which they are in the process of preparing. Professor Griswold's book is the first of this series.

We are planning to publish the book December 1st.

To His Excellency,
Honorable Franklin Delano Roosevelt
President of the United States
Washington, D C

Dear Mr President:

Enjoyed your talk over the Radio this afternoon as I have always enjoyed all of your chats.

A Divine Providence planning things it's own way has given to the World a President of the United States at a time when a good level head and good horse sence (which he fortunately possesses) are imperative to the well being of the people of all Nationalities.

During the year 1492 Spain launched it's inquisition. That same year a Divine Providence led Columbus to the new land thereafter to become known as the Americas.

Today World Jewry must look to America, the United States and to you the man of Destiny to find new hope and inspiration. A new lesson in Tolerance is being taught. Humanitarian instinct is ~~being~~ being tried.

The modern Pharaohs may yet be plagued as were those of biblical history. The story is not yet told. I am enclosing herewith a small token of my appreciation of your good self. It is a Mezuza. Upon the doorpost of every Orthodox Jewish home is to be found the Mezuza which aside from it's religious significance, protects that home from evil.

With all good wishes. I am,
Sincerely,

SAM T KAUFMAN.
