Sir:

At the request of our Chairman, Frank A. Godchaux, we are taking the liberty of sending to you under separate cover a case of our Mahatma rice in hopes you will use it in your Christmas turkey dressing, the recipe for which we attach.

Mahatma rice is our brand name for the new variety Rexoro rice, developed by the Federal Experiment Station at Crowley, Louisiana, a few years ago. This variety is so superior, it has become quite popular in spite of its' greater cost.

Mr. Godchaux will consider it a great honor if the White House turkey uses this Mahatma rice in its' dressing at this Christmas season.

I have the honor to remain,

MAHATMA TURKEY DRESSING

3 cups cold, boiled MAHATMA rice;
2 cups corn bread crumbs;
2 eggs; liver and gizzard of turkey;
1 minced onion;
1 stalk of celery cut small;
2 tablespoons lard;
1 tablespoon butter melted;
3 dozen oysters with liquor;
2 tablespoons chopped parsley;
1 teaspoon salt;
 $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon pepper;
1 cup pecans, chopped.

Boil giblets in water to cover, until tender enough to chop. Brown onions, giblets, parsley and celery in hot lard. To this add rice, corn bread, oysters, chopped or ground, and gradually add liquor and gravy left after boiling giblets. Add beaten eggs and melted butter, salt, pepper and pecans. Fill turkey with dressing and bake remainder in baking dish.

This recipe was given us by Roy Alciatore, the third generation of Alciatores in Antoine's, at 713 to 717 St. Louis St., New Orleans, Louisiana. This world famous restaurant was founded in 1840 by Antoine Alciatore. Jules Alciatore, son of Antoine, was proprietor for sixty years. Roy Alciatore, the present proprietor, is Jules' son. He began his apprenticeship in 1920 and took charge in 1930. Three generations of Alciatores have made Antoine's an American institution.

When we sent Roy Alciatore a package of our Mahatma rice, when it first came out in 1936, Roy sent us this recipe with a letter of appreciation for the quality of the rice.

Dear Mr. President Franklin D. Roosevelt and your wife and your whole family and every-

Christmas and a Happy New Year. I hope everybody will live next year to enjoy peace and happiness every year so the war will be over. Now I let you know where I am. I and my husband send you the Jewish New Year Card. And to you a gift. A Jewish prayer book for you The first prayer book with the tshoro yetheter and the velt.
I and my husband pray for you and your family and whole world so that the people will not have any more trouble.
You know Mr. President you have angels in heaven who take care of you and the whole family. Everything is true.
Mr. President I have a good idea. I'm old and so is my husband nearly 70 years
I know how to make the war over quick.
When you bomb Germany & Japan put White Pepper in bombs. The planes do not have to fly very high and the peppers will make them stop fighting quick. For Hitler Japan and Mussolini this pepper will get in their noses and eyes. Then they wouldnt have to fight and our soldiers could subdue them quickly and end the war.

Dear President don't laugh at me but I think this is a good idea for the war to be over.

My father in Lithuania was the biggest

Sent to House

January 14, 1943

My dear Mrs. Luce:

On Monday, January fourth, Congressman J. Buell Snyder personally brought in to me a little package which he told me came from one of the best dairies in the United States!

He explained that this pound of butter was your personal gift to the President -- a very practical sort of New Year's card.

The President asked me to be sure to thank you for your generous thought of him. Since I have a brother-in-law down home (Kentucky) who has a big Guernsey herd, I know what Guernsey butter is and what a delightful little treat it was.

Dear Mr. President:

My old friend Paul Tomanoczy who conducts a book shop in San Francisco, California, and who served with me in the United States Consular Service thirty-eight years ago, has sent this book for me to hand to you. You will note it is a rare First Edition 1656. He believes it to be the first translation in English, and that the binding is the original issue. He is sending it to you because of the recipe for coffee on the flypage which he says was written several centuries ago, about the time coffee was first introduced in England.

Dear Mr. President:-

Having knitted many pairs of socks for the soldiers and sailors,
I just had to make some for their Commander-in-Chief. I shall be honored by your acceptance of this small gift. You can make an old woman very happy by wearing them.

My dear Mr. President:

Knowing that even in the busiest time your interest never flags for books of the sea and of naval matters, I venture to send you, under separate cover, a copy of Admiral Mahan's THE LIFE OF NELSON, which we are just reissuing. It has been out of print for a number of years and that is the reason I thought it might have escaped your attention.

It was first published about 1897 and at that time was considered by some - even by members of your family - as being the "best of all naval biographies". So said Theodore Roosevelt and his opinion seems to be reinforced by the leading reviews of that time.

So I hope you may secure a certain amount of enjoyment from the copy which is going to you with our compliments.
