No. 8, 8 Blades 11 in. wide.....$6.50

Instructions for Using the Ideal Double Cutting Hedge Trimmer

In trimming the sides of the hedge hold the trimmer steady to the hedge as shown in the picture below, keep moving steady along working both ways. In trimming the top of hedge let $\frac{1}{2}$ the weight of trimmer rest on hedge, moving the trimmer steady across the top of hedge catches majority of the trimmings. These trimmers have eight blades and are made of very best material, being of tool steel, oil tempered, thus holding a good edge and easy to sharpen and can be adjusted by loosening or tightening the bolts on cross bar. KEEP TOOL WELL OILED.

Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt,

Dear Mr. Roosevelt,-

Yesterday and the day before I spent in New York City.

From hundreds of store windows came the message, "Have Faith."

It was easy to remember that faith is the keynote of my little "Nine Out of Ten Say 'Yes'", written under a pseudonym and only within the last two weeks turned out- in characteristically good shape- by the Printing Office of the Yale University Press.

It is my pleasure- Mr. Drummond joining me- to send you herewith, with our compliments, an autographed copy of the book.

We have taken the liberty of calling attention to five short paragraphs on pages 40 and 41 that emphasize a thought of possible inspirational quality.

Quick reading of them you may find worth while.

Further tax on your time- during the vacation respite- we don't want to impose.

Very sincerely,

My Dear Mr. Roosevelt:

I could never express in words my appreciation of the sublime manner, in which you have conducted this affair from the beginning, up to, and including the present time. you are indeed praiseworthy for your moral courage and for your everlasting patience under the manifold difficulties which were continually straining you ~~to~~ you just pushed them one side and laughed them away.

you should be and I believe are, admired and loved by everybody for all that you are, and for what you have done for the country.

I sincerely thank you Mr. Roosevelt and all those ladies and gentlemen who have diligently worked with you day and night and have like yourself freely given their valuable time in order to make the N. R. U. a success. I hope it will prove a success.

I don't just see the need of my writing any more letters concerning this, as those priests have told about me, because I may use different words but the substance is ever the same. It is bound to be, because I have only one story.

It is immaterial to me the number or quality of sins they have me booked for, I am just sailing along with the sweet consolation that I have always led a good clean life. That thought is good enough for me.

They have scandalized the public right, and in their deceitful manner tried to blame me for sins that grew on their own soil. I had no more to do with the condition they have allowed their minds to fall into than the man in the moon, because I have never given them or any other person the slightest reason for such wicked thoughts of me.

Mr. Roosevelt, what I am about to say is not for you to take offense at. I am just speaking of things as they are. When a person has an impure mind and is looking for trouble he is sure to see what a pure-minded person could never think of seeing.

Now for instance, take a pure-minded person and an impure-minded person walking along together and say they happen to meet a good person with a pure mind, well, take the impure-minded one, and in case he is looking for trouble will see, what he, in his own filthy sees, while the other person with the pure mind could look at that same person, forever, and see nothing wrong, in other words, if a person's mind was what it should be, they could see goodness where goodness is, but if their own mind is filthy, then they will see filth every time.

Let those priests remember that just as long as they and theirs continue to harbor such thoughts of me, it is to the detriment of their own souls. They hurt my dignity of course, but my soul thank god is undisturbed.

Those men must know they have gone wrong, they are allowing people to think wrong things of me and are letting pride interfere with what they know to be their duty before god.

✓ I am having a picture painted for you and I hope you will like it. I meant to do something for you long ago.
 I hope you will overlook my negligence.

" TOOK ACTIVE PART "

Word comes from Los Angeles that Charles W. McMorran, newspaper writer and traveler of that city was prominent in connection wi-with the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS' CONVENTION held there recently. Mr. McMorran is a NATIVE of ST JOHN, a son of the late JOHN McMORRAN who was a successful SHIP BUILDER AND IRON MERCHANT here many years ago, as a member of the firm of McMORRAN & DUNN and later McMORRAN & PRITCHARD. He is a former contributor to the ST JOHN GLOBE."

NOTE by C. W. McMorran:

The St John GLOBE has now merged with the above group of newspapers. My father, as above spoken of retired from his most successful iron and ship-building business and removed, with his family to the southern climate of Hightstown, Mercer Co. N. J. where, upon his death, he was accorded a memorial service by a union of the 5 churches there, the Sunday evening following his funeral. The year I left the WALDORF-ASTORIA HOTEL, N Y in 1917 and came to California, Governor Fielder, of New Jersey, gave me his official (with the state seal) reading in part: "Mr. Chas. W. McMorran is a newspaper writer, world-traveled who has resided in Hightstown, this state for 33 years. He has a large acquaintance among the foremost men of this country whom he counts as among his personal friends. I commend him as one worthy of trust."

I owned and occupied "MAPLEHURST" the finest property out there Have now a 17 ton monument in the Cedar Hill Cemetery there, standing in center of a 6 double lot plot, surrounded with a ground stone walk. Have resided in San Francisco and Los Angeles past 15 years.
Was 4 years a U S Government Treasury representative of Internal Revenue which I entered to make a financial survey of the state of California and resigned with attestations of the government in official letters of my CLEAN AND HONORABLE RECORD. I examined the banks, trust companies and corporations and members of the STOCK EXCHANGES as to their stock issues in stock selling and issues, for the government and THAT is the reason I went with the government-- the first time I was ever on a salary.

I am making these statements SOLELY FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES, as showing my standing and NOT otherwise. As I have been in a new field, I want my record known.

President Charles H. Randall, of the Los Angeles City Council writes:

"I knew Mr. McMorran in his newspaper capacity, while I was a member of the House in Washington, D. C. two years. He has been fo-past 6 years one of our respected citizens."

President V. H. ROSSETTI, of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank and Harry Chandler, publisher of the Los Angeles TIMES, are also among my references here.

My dear Mr. President:

I am sending you in this mail, several pamphlets about the Jewish problem in Europe, and also Mowrer's book. I hope you will enjoy perusing them when you have the time. I really think the Mowrer book is the most informative of any book I have seen on the question.

Again I want to tell you how much I enjoyed last evening.

I telegraphed Secretary Wallace that I would be in to see him, and just received an answer that he would not be in Washington until Saturday, so I will not go there, but I have sent the message you gave me about their not sending anyone to the August twenty-first Conference, to both him and Cordell Hull.

With kindest regards,

Yours very sincerely,

It gives me great pleasure to present you with this historic cane made from a piece of wood taken from the Cleveland hickory pole erected by the Northampton County Democrats, in 1884, in our public square at Bath, Pennsylvania, and which I helped to raise to a height of 100 feet.

As you see, the cane is three feet and one and a half inches long, studded with vulcanized rubber of different colors, in which is imbedded a coin of 1884. I want this fine old relic of the early days of Grover Cleveland to serve the man who is showing wonderful leadership in the affairs of our great nation.

No group of trees has higher qualities than the hickories and President Jackson's many good qualities gave him the sobriquet "Old Hickory".

As a member of the Democratic Executive Committee of my county, let me say that I have voted twice for Grover Cleveland, twice for Woodrow Wilson, and hope to vote twice for Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Mr. Stephen Early,

The White House,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Early:

Referring to your letter of August 7th to Mr. McCall, may I assume that the book addressed to President Roosevelt has not had time to go beyond your files. If I am correct in my surmise, would you mind returning it to me with the enclosed postage? I expect to call at the White House in October and I should like to have the book to take with me. ||

In passing may I say that I am a woman, and at the moment a cooperating Democrat, who admires President Roosevelt's courage and energetic vision.

Far back in history I conducted a campaign for conservation of human life, publicly endorsed by President Wilson, and so I know the value of cooperation. During this campaign I served on Mayor Mitchell's traffic committee, and was directed to give a talk on conservation of human life to the commanding officers of the Police Department of New York, in the Trial Room, Police Headquarters. On this occasion I brought together by my personal invitation the heads of all the city departments in accord on one subject! During the campaign I had the unwearied cooperation of the press of the United States, Canada and London.

In 1920 I made a survey of the Port of New York, for Mr. Thomas E. Rush, and recommended the establishment of a Free-from Customs-Zone in a port of the United States.

In the summer of 1923 I found homes for five hundred slum children on farms in New York State. In this work I had hearty cooperation of churches, the press, civic and social organizations along my route.

I assisted in the establishment of the Walter Hines Page School of International Relations at Johns Hopkins University of which my brother, Mr. H. S. Phillips, is Florida Trustee.

In 1928 I studied traffic problems abroad, interviewing Police Commissioner Chiappe of Paris, and the Minister of Transportation of London, who invited me to join a group of inspectors of the safety first work of the London Omnibus Company, where I spent an afternoon.

I assisted in the organization of the Florida State Game Protective Association, and studied the politics of the State with my brother, Mr. Herbert S. Phillips, United States Attorney for the Southern District, appointed by President Wilson.

Governor Scholtz offered to create a department for me in Tallahassee if I would assist in political education for women in Florida. I told him I would return to my work in the art world where there are few disappointments.

I mention all this to show you that my experiences give me sympathetic understanding of all the problems pressing now upon everyone in the White House and the Administration.

It gives me pleasure to assure you of my sympathetic support of the glorious program under way and to wish you all the best.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Mr. Johnson:

We have had as a "Relief" guest of the Institute all Winter an old windjammer sailor by the name of Otto Lang. I knew him as far back as 1898 when he was sailing under the American flag on some of our Clipper ships. He is the only seaman living, so far as I know, who is able to do really remarkable rope work. At my suggestion he has made an oval picture frame for the President, and I want very much indeed to have him given an opportunity to present it in person. Knowing Mr. Roosevelt's love for the Sea, and having been given to understand during the last few days that he has instructed Federal Relief shall be furnished to seamen this coming Winter, it seems proper that I should make this effort. It occurred to me that this might be accomplished while you are his guest.

I could arrange personally to take Lang to Hyde Park and motor to the President's residence at a time to be arranged. It would take only a moment for the President to receive the gift and to say a kindly word to the old man who is one of the few of his kind left. My dear

An officer stopping in the Building was conversing the other day regarding President Roosevelt's recent Radio Address. In continuing he said - Do you know why this country will weather the storm? Not because the Republican Party is out, not because the Democratic Party is in, but because there is a seaman at the wheel. When things go wrong, where does the President go? To sea. When he sends an emergency call for the Cabinet, where do they meet? On ship. Sure we'll pull through.

My dear Mr. McManus:

This will acknowledge your letter addressed to the President.

I am sorry to tell you that the President leaves here on the nineteenth of August and every minute of his time is taken until then. Of course he would be delighted to have the little pictures if you cared to leave them.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Musolino:

Your letter of August eighteenth, addressed to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt was received after their departure to their summer home for their vacation. I am sure they will greatly appreciate your courtesy in sending them the cushion to which you refer, and I want to thank you heartily in their behalf for your kindly thought of them.

Very sincerely yours,

My Dear President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

I have possibly procrastinated in congratulating you upon your remarkable popularity during the late election, but I wanted to advise you I was sending you a cushion which I have been working on for sometime.

Please believe I was prompted to make this for you and Mrs. Roosevelt through my love for two so kind and thoughtful of the little ones and helpful to our fellowmen during your few months in office.

Wishing you every success with your administration, I beg to remain with best wishes to Mrs. Roosevelt and your good self.

Most Sincerely
Frank Mussolino

My dear Mr. Muse:

Your letter of August twenty-fifth has been received and I beg to thank you in the President's behalf for writing. He is pleased to accept the beautiful Colonial bedspread which you were good enough to send him, and deeply appreciates the thought which prompted your act.

The President is indeed grateful for your assurance of cooperation.

Very sincerely yours,

LOUIS McH. HOWE

To Our Hon. dear President, ^{Recd 8-30-39}
Just thought

I would take the liberty of sending you this medal as a lucky talisman.

It is called the Miraculous Medal of Our Blessed Mother Mary.

No matter where I go or to whom we talk about our beloved president is I see he working miracles and then it just came to my mind if

Could get a miraculous medal to send to our president. And as later I was visiting a convent a nun gave me a medal and it was just the one I wanted for you. I didn't say anything to any one about it as I don't want any one to think I am a fanatic but I do know our Blessed Mother will do wonders to help our own Miraculous President so I do hope you will keep it as a talisman
