I quite realize that you are a very busy man and that it is only about a thousand-to-one shot that you will see this letter. However I am selfish enough to hope that you do see this and that I get a personal reply.

I have been a shut-in for three years but I have my radio and the newspapers and I follow national events with intense interest. Have always been a conservative Republican of the old school and lots of your program I did not at first approve of. However, since you ^{have} proven beyond a doubt your sincere desire to improve conditions for the general mass of the population, I find my confidence in you and your administration is growing stronger every day. I am enclosing a little N.R.A. puzzle which I made. May God bless you and yours and grant success to your great recovery program. Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Melton:

Your letter of August twenty-second has been received and I want to thank you in the President's behalf for your kindness in sending the picture and chart to him.

An application so general in character as the one you make renders it more than usually difficult to be of assistance. It might be well for you to make application for some specific place and file it with the head of the department having jurisdiction, so that it will be available for consideration when the appointment in question is taken up.

My dear Mr. President:-

Filed 9-6-33

Following your inauguration and realizing the financial condition of our country, you at once proclaimed one week's moratorium for banks.

After studying over the moratorium situation, and the banking business at that time being the greatest question before our American people, as sales manager of Campbell-Sheffield Dairy Company, I prepared a sales talk on this subject, outlining your wisdom in the matter, and the great benefits our country would derive by co-operating with your plans.

Of course, many things I said are not included in this chart. I was showing this to a banker friend of mine and he suggested I send it to you, therefore, I am sending it under separate cover. Rec'd

You perhaps will call to mind a letter I wrote you just after the death of my brother, Ira E. Melton, who died January 27th of this year. This letter, I understand, was placed in a special file for which I thank you. I did not send in, however, an application at that time but I would appreciate your earnest consideration of me. Most of my business life has been in the clothing business, twenty years of which time I was a clothing and gents furnishing goods merchant in Sedalia, Missouri, operating one of the very finest stores. I am very familiar with this line of merchandise in every way, shape and form and am qualified to handle any kind of a purchasing position or anything connected with that particular line.

will be the means of stabilizing the whole country and bring back again to us the new prosperity.

At the suggestion of some of our friends, I am also sending under separate cover a picture of eight Melton Brothers taken at Sedalia, Missouri, all business men there at the time, during the last campaign of the late Woodrow Wilson. This is the Melton Brothers double quartette who composed and sang songs for the Wilson campaign. We received a card of thanks from the Secretary to President Wilson for our services in the campaign. Another brother, H. M. Melton of Houston, Texas, does not appear in the picture. There are also four sisters in this family, all married to Democrat husbands.

We have always been strong supporters for our party and have done all we could to promote its cause. If you desire to keep this picture, you may do so but if you do not, I would appreciate its return.

Thanking you for your consideration of these subjects, I am

My Dear Mr. President : -

Please accept with my compliments the copy of " EASTERN PHILOSOPHY FOR WESTERN MINDS " which is being sent to you under separate cover .

Certain aspects of the book may prove to be of personal , individual interest to you , apart from your broad interest in advancing the welfare of humanity at large . This applies particularly to Chapter V of Part III , wherein there is material of possible value to one who has made the gallant fight against a physical handicap that you have made and still are making .

Your manner of handling the stupendous task imposed upon you shows that you are receptive to any idea that gives promise of working out for the common good . Perhaps in this volume of ancient truths you may come upon a seed-thought that can be nurtured into helpful , constructive action .
May success continue to crown all your efforts .

Yours respectfully

Miles seems to love his President. When we received our July

It gives me very great pleasure to send you in the same mail a portrait rendered in pastel. The photo of yourself on the cover of the July 1st issue of the Literary Digest served as model. Should you or the First Lady honor me by bestowing a moment's notice on it, I kindly beg for leniency in criticism for it is the humble effort of a young aspiring artist who has but a year's high school drawing.

After graduation financial reverses and the death of my father suddenly snatched me from the threshold of higher learning and brought me to the work bench. I am candling eggs nearly four years now as the farm did not yield the interest and taxes in these trying times. In my overtime I do everything from driving the tractor, shingling the barn, and painting pictures! Year after year my mother hoped to sell my farm in order to complete my education but "Old Man Depression" knocked the valuation of property down so low that our equity, which represents a small fortune is now very slim, indeed. It is, moreover, very trying for one with sky high ambitions to be tied down to a daily routine of monotonous manual labor for a wage that scarcely suffices for the necessities of a meagre existence.

So we're still patiently waiting and putting all our hope and trust in you, Mr. Roosevelt, to bring back better times and with them opportunities for the struggling and ambitious. Very respectfully yours, Mary McCreary.

The daily papers have been carrying news reports of conferences in Washington with representatives of the various governments in South America for the purpose of establishing better trade relations with these people. It was my privilege to visit the countries of Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil four years ago as a trade representative of the Sacramento Region Citizen's Council and as a result there followed the Pan-American Reciprocal Trade Conference in Sacramento, in 1931.

My dear Mr President:—

When you came into Cape Cod Bay and had us all thinking you would run up to the dock, at least, we were all there to greet you. And of course we were disappointed in not being able to present various little trinkets we had. Mrs Helen Kuttner and I, managers of the Ship Model and Hooked Rug Shops being among the greeters are therefore sending our small offering in to day's mail - a Cape Cod nap and one of Long Island with our compliments and confidence.

Very sincerely

Your letter of August thirty-first to the President has been noted with sympathetic interest and I am indeed very sorry that I must send you a disappointing reply. There is no provision of law appropriating funds for pensions of the kind to which you refer.

It was good of you to send the enclosed medal to the President and I want you to know that he is most appreciative of your thought of him. He is also deeply grateful for your prayers.

Hon Franklin D Roosevelt
Dear President Roosevelt I am seeking information concerning monthly pensions for Widows who are unable to earn a livelihood. I am a Widow having lost my Husband 9 months ago.
my husband was in the Government Service 40 yrs when he died. Nov 4th 1932.
I got his Pension in a lump Sum of Ten hundred $18.26 I am anxious to know if there is some way to provide a monthly Pension to pay my rent buy coal and some thing to eat as I am unable to work on account of being injured 4 yrs ago by a hit and run I have been crippled and in poor health. ever since that time there are days I can hardly get around and then for awhile I can do pretty good. that is why I am appealing to you. hoping you can find a way to help me as I have no income to look to. I thought you might be able to help me by finding out if the Government wouldnt give me a small pension every month to take care of me as long as I live. and why I am asking this great favor of you. is because this bill was pending in congress long before my husband died I do not know if it passed since the death of my husband or not. I would like to keep my little home if possible. as I was married 37. yes when my husband died. as you can see I am used to a home of long standing I will be very grateful to you if you can help me along that line as my husband was in the service so long and as this pension fund has only been a matter of a few years I shall be very grateful if you can give me any information concerning this letter I thought I might be considered as my husband had a good record in

The Post-Office entering there steady, until he passed away at the age of 60 yrs.

I also thought as my husband died while still in service I might be considered a small pension monthly as I can not earn a livelihood for self and have nothing to look to for support, I thought I would write you, and I feel Dear President if there is any way along that line to help me you

Sir:

May we have the honor of presenting you with a copy of a recently published book entitled, "CHICAGO - THEN AND NOW", which is at once a relic of the early days of that city and a moving story of its development.

We wish to call your especial attention to the part one of your illustrious predecessors - Abraham Lincoln - played in the early days of the city.

May we also hope that you will enjoy reading it.

Very truly yours,

The old order of things are changing here, I believe thru your wonderful capability, I am an old Shoemaker one of the late unemployed, I could think of no better way to help N.R.A than make these implements and Rules of Play and send you the first set, I could think of no name that sounds better than Yours, and should this game give you a little recreation and pleasure I will feel I am doing something towards helping N.R.A along.

I may say the handles of the mallets are of willow gathered from the Banks of the Spokane River the heads and Pucks are from

Spokane Valley apples & cherry trees the club bag is made from Red Cross flour sacks (a relic of the
