Dear President Roosevelt:

May I add my cordial congratulations to those of the thousands of your well-wishers. I am among those who believe that you have opened a new epoc which definitely and permanently marks the transition of our state from the status of a police state to that of a housekeeping state in which the welfare of all our nationals is the primary and dominant objective as it surely should be.

I am taking the liberty of sending you a copy of a work on PUBLIC PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATION which Mr. Kingsley and I have just brought out under the imprint of Harper Brothers. Knowing of your long standing interest in public personnel, I thought you might care to glance over the comprehensive program we have set up as the goal of a long range policy with respect to the public service.

With best wishes for a continuation of your success in defining and realizing a new goal for our national aspirations, I am

ERI (Catherine) TEKAKWITHA

"Lily of the Mohawks"

WHAT more fascinating than the story of Tekakwitha? Orphaned at four, unbaptized until twenty, and yet unsullied in vicious surroundings! She loved to revere a rude Cross in the forest against background of Indian village, palisade, wigwam, cornfield, trail, lake and river, war-dance, sorcery, riotous feast and tortured captive, all part of the romance. What a new thing it will be in the annals of holiness when she is declared Saint!

Favors attributed to the intercession of Tekakwitha

A clear case of cure of carcinoma of malignant type.

An unexpected cure of hip joint disease attested by a Protestant physician. —T. H.

A remarkable recovery from peritonitis after a ruptured appendix, the patient at the time unbaptized.

I have had asthma for years, and I feel sure Catherine has effected a cure. —Sr. M. E.

A very close friend of mine has had a wonderful cure (gangrenous foot) through prayer to Tekakwitha.
—Rev. Alfred E. Scully.

After a novena in her honor, I was restored to health from tuberculosis, which doctors had pronounced incurable.
—Sr. M. C.

I wish to announce three remarkable recoveries through the intercession of Kateri, "The Little Flower of the Mohawks."
—Rev. Patrick A. Reilly.

One half hour after Kateri's relic was applied to an infant who could retain no food the intestinal obstruction was removed. —Mrs. C., Dr. C.

Twice I was restored from an illness usually considered fatal, agranulocytic angina, by application of the relic of Kateri and am now practising medicine. —V. A. Nowicki, M.D.

A former Provincial of a Religious Congregation writes that he was relieved of stones in the kidney after an operation, which to all appearances had failed. —(Ed.)

Our Sister, ever since she began to wear the reliquary you sent her, is now going around the same as ever. She was given up as incurable. —Sr. M. H.

My nephew was in an automobile accident and was in a delirious condition for 49 days. Doctors had very little hope for him. All the family prayed. He is now well. Catherine did it. —E. S.

Mrs. E. H., whose son had an acute attack of endocarditis, resulting in leakage of the valves of the heart. wishes me to inform you that he has completely recovered. —Sr. M. R.

After being in a serious condition for seven weeks, with cerebro-spinal meningitis, and the doctors giving up all hopes of my recovery, I am now back to normal health.—R. W. McG.

I was given up for death after an operation, but relief came and I have since improved. My doctor signed this report and is sure no one but Catherine is responsible. —Sr. M. H.

The cure of an Indian woman at Shishigwaning, Manitoulin, of mouth ulcers of an incurable type reported by a Jesuit missionary (formerly a physician) as a result of the application of a relic of Kateri.

My grandson had a congenital affection of the stomach which seemed impossible to relieve. I gave him your relic. Since then he has improved marvelously, and has great devotion to his Indian Saint. —Mrs. E. J. McG.

Facing a semi-monthly (hospital) payroll of $10,000 with only $200 October 23, I asked the staff to make a Novena to Catherine asking for the payroll by October 31. She sent $10,000 and $6,000 more. —Sr. M. C.

A sister of an Indian missionary dying apparently of double pneumonia, her third experience, was restored to health the day after a picture of Kateri was placed over her bed and the community invoked the Indian maiden for her cure.—Sr. H., So. Dak.

Remarkable relief and restoration of a venerable Indian missionary from an ailment seldom curable without an operation at his age, but still at his labors in conditions rugged as usual, through Kateri, attested by a Protestant doctor.
—G. A. Artus, S.J.

My husband has been troubled with a skin disease ever since the war. When my little girl brought home the medal of Catherine, he put it on and we said the prayer. In less than a week there was not a sign of it. —Mrs. J. A. K.

When I got your letter about Tekakwitha, I said: "Look here, Catherine, I am in financial difficulties, my normal condition. I am going to say the three 'Our Fathers' and 'Hail, Marys' and 'Glory Be's' and the prayer every day. Send me $1,000 between this and Saturday." Two days later I received thrice the amount in a mysterious way. —Pastor, New York.

THE favors recorded in this leaflet are mostly remarkable cures, and but a few of the hundreds reported. The reports are enthusiastic. Knowledge of Tekakwitha inspires enthusiasm. It has inspired those in Rome who are examining the testimony and the documents submitted to bring about her canonization.

The petition addressed by our bishops and clergy at the National Eucharistic Congress in favor of the consideration of the Cause for Kateri's Beatification made a profound impression on the Holy Father, who is well acquainted with her life and virtues and keenly interested in the efforts to have her declared a Saint.

Evidence of a widespread belief in her holiness has great weight with those who will pass judgment on it.

It is worth-while, therefore, doing all one can for the canonization of this Indian maiden, America's own native Saint of the Wildwood.

Repeat daily the prayer under her picture. Make her known to your friends by distributing some of the articles mentioned below. They will bless you for learning about this extraordinary source of many blessings. If you prefer, send us their names with a slight offering to meet the expense of printing, postage, etc., and we shall make her known. For this purpose there are:

Leaflets like this (Nos. I and II).....25c. a doz.; $1.50 per 100 (Leaflet No. I tells of remarkable cures—No. II of receipt of money aid, occupations, etc.). Please signify which leaflet you wish.

Tekakwitha Life, by Wynne, 64 pages, 3 illustrations, containing in detail reports of 40 remarkable favors.....25c. a copy; 5 for $1.00

Tekakwitha Picture, colored.....13½ x 10 in., 40 cents; 4¾ x 3 in., 5 cents

Tekakwitha Medals...Oxid. silver, 15c.; $1.50 per doz.; aluminum, 50c. a doz.

Dear Miss Margaret,- Today I am mailing a small package, containing a leather handbag and other little articles which I made with my hands.
A letter to President Roosevelt, which I am sure you will read, then you will understand my needs.
Will you please see that he gets this package with letter in it?
You good folks up there don't know what a hard time some of us down here do have- I am poor, but honest and decent, and try to treat every body right.
After reading the letter to President Roosevelt, If you can or will help make some suggestions that will help me- I will assure you it will not be forgotten and will be more than appreciated, and if there should at anytime be anything in this part of the country I can do for you I will be too glad to do it.
Thanking you in advance and with best wishes and love for every body- Your friend-

Dear Mr. President:

Under separate cover, I have sent you a book entitled"Controlling Retailers" in the rather forlorn hope that one of your secretaries will find it worth calling to your attention.

It is an attempt to trace, thru a detailed study of one group, the importance to control legislation of what business men do about it. It is a careful, honest book. Of this last I may be reasonably certain since my opinions changed completely in the course of writing it.

Respectfully,

Ruth P. Mack

cause Im writing to
you. all my girl friends say Im crazy cause Im writing to you. There's one girl I go with and she's Rep. and were Dem. and she says that you'll never answer my letter and we had a bet, and I said you would answer and she says
you won't cause your not the kind to ans. and I was even crying the way she was talking about you & almost slapped her face. Cause

I like you very much and please believe me when I say very, very much. Cause I do and even mother likes you. When the election day was I was praying to "God" so you would win and
"God" heard my pray.
and he made you win. Im running out of words so I guess ill have to close and please answer.

yours forever
Rose Boudi

P.S. I almost forgot Heres a little some thing Im sending you its not very much but its something you could remember me
by. Please dont be angry with me Cause

I'm writing to you there isn't any one I like as much as you I mean my mother first & the family then you. and another thing I want to wish you a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year and to Mrs. F. D. Roosevelt and the family and tell Mrs. Roosevelt that I'm saying Hello to her and you both. I really must close Know and please don't forget to answer as soon as possibly and may "God" bless you & your family always.

Bethlehem's Echo

THE star that once shone
in the East
The Christ-Child's birth to tell,
Shine on thy way this Christmas time,
Its gladness with thee dwell.
May perfect peace and holy joy
Within thy heart abide,
And our Saviour, through the years, Thy footsteps heavenward guide.

A Blessed Christmas

ALL Christmas peace be thine,
With joy abounding,
And His deep love divine Thy way surrounding.

A Holy Christmas

MAY God bless your un-your desires, and may all your days be passed beneath His divine shelter.

A Christmas Wish

I SEND you this little Christmas card
To wish you the old, old wish
That God may ever bless

THE WINDSOR REVIEW

The way we do things in Missouri

VOL. 61 WINDSOR, HENRY COUNTY, MISSOURI THURSDAY NOV. 5, 1936

RE-ELECTED BY DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE; CARRYING ALL STATES BUT TWO.

Roosevelt and Garner

ROOSEVELT AVALANCHE

Democrats Carry All But Two States—Maine and Vermont To Landen.

The amazing sweep of the Roosevelt landslide shook the nation, with only two states, Maine and Vermont, remaining in the Republican ranks. The victory of President Roosevelt in Tuesday's election marks the high-tide of political results in the U. S. He recorded the largest popular vote ever polled and with the largest majority ever recorded for any candidate, he will go into office with the largest electoral vote ever given to any president. Mr. Roosevelt will have 523 electoral with only the eight votes of Maine and Vermont left to Gov. Landon.

President Roosevelt's majority in Kansas is expected to run well over 50,000.

Major Lloyd C. Stark, successful business man and civic leader, was elected governor of Missouri—his first political office—by a large majority, virtually keeping abreast the national ticket as did the entire state ticket.

Hon. R. T. Wood was re-elected to Congress from the Sixth District by a majority of approximately 6,000 in the eleven counties comprising the district.

All county Democratic nominees won their races by majorities of twenty-four hundred and up.

Henry County Vote

Henry County went Democratic at Tuesday's election by a large majority. Following we give the complete unofficial totals in Henry County, the Democratic candidate being listed first in each case:

Dec. 20, 1936.

My dear Mr. Early,

Thanks you for your letter of November 14 in which you said that you would bring my letter of November 13 addressed to the President to his attention. It was a busy time but I know that when you can you will let him read it.

I am sending a small package addressed to you. It is for the President. Will you please give it to him? I do not know how I can repay you for your kindness; but out of my Appreciation Fund of Good Wishes you have a large part.

The package needs a little explanation- the poetry possibly too! It is a wooden elephant, ~~ridden~~ by one Santa Claus, in a cellophane bag ~~with~~ cut out of the States, Maine & Vermont that Santa is returning to the President as a Yule offering. I hope that he enjoyed it as much as I did - fitting it and trying to compose poetry in blank verse, very blank I'd say. It's all in fun.

I was sorry about the passing of Gus Gennerich. I really know what it would mean. My husband has to lift me out of bed, to my feet into a chair. He steadies me as I walk. I can't go downstairs; he brings me my meals and because of 13 years constant attention habit - makes it a little easier. Others have tried to help me but he has the knack and strength and does it unobtrusively. Sometimes I shudder when I think what might become of me if he were not here. People tell me I am brave because I look cheerful and interested in life but - he is the brave one because so much of the burden is on him. I endure the pain of arthritis but - he is inconvenienced so you see I know what the loss of a devoted helper would be.

Best wishes to you for Christmas and the New Years.

Yours truly,
Anna Stewart Miller
