Dear Mr. Roosevelt,

Mother and I join in sending to you our "Heartiest Congratulations" and
"Best Wishes" for a very Happy Birthday, and many, many happy returns of the day. We also so sincerely hope this finds you and yours in the very best of health. Just a little Birthday gift will be reaching you a little belated - since some has as yet not been received by us through the mails from Concordia Publishing Company - and we are, indeed, so sorry that some will not be in your possession on time for your Birthday.

At this time, we also wish to so gratefully thank you for your so deeply appreciated letter of January 4th. Also wish to so highly congratulate you in behalf of your so excellent Inaugural Address heard over radio - and how good it did seem to hear your voice again.

How we did wish it might have been possible to have been there --
this year to see the Inauguration Ceremonies, but we hope sometime in the future to be able to see our noble President and the First Lady of the Land - and the White House.
How delighted we would be to possess
one of the Inaugural Programs should there still be any available - and would
so much appreciate knowing Address
from which same could be sent us C.O.D.
and kindly accept our most gracious
thanks in advance.

With all sincere, continued
Best Wishes and kindest Regards from us both -

We remain, as ever,

Mr. President:

After listening to your very interesting Fireside Chat of Sunday, December twenty-ninth, I was inspired to write the two enclosed songs. After having written I was impressed by the fact that both songs should be widely sung: "I'M SURE WE'LL WIN" to be featured by the soldiers in Camp, and "TRUE TO OUR COLOR" to be sung in schools and wherever patriotic songs are sung.

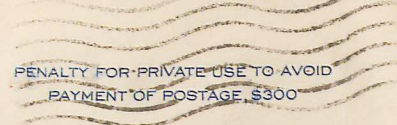

In order to accomplish this in the shortest possible time I knew that I would have to have assistance from one in authority, so I decided to go to the source of my inspiration- you.

My apology to you for the imperfect home recording, and voice. It was the only way I had for you to hear my songs. Please use a Philco Beam of Light reproducer for playing the record.

Sincerely yours,

Marion Morgan.

My dear Mrs. Morris:

This will acknowledge the receipt of your note of January sixteenth.

I regret very much that it was not possible to arrange for you to present the Flag at the time of the inauguration. If you will send it to me, I shall be glad to present it to the President with your compli-

Each year I sell hundreds of pounds of fruit cake and preserves to members of the United States Army here in San Antonio at Fort Sam Houston, Kelley and Brooks Fields. One of San Antonio's foremost department stores buys my cakes also.

Sends Flourless Cake to President Wilson

President Wilson has probably received many cakes and pies from all parts of the country, but it is doubtful if he has ever tasted a flourless cake until last Christmas. Mrs. Maika Machet, who carries more than a hundred different kinds of recipes for cakes and preserves in her head, sent a huge chocolate cake, made without flour, as one of its ingredients. She now has a letter from J. P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, thanking her in his behalf for the cake.

Mrs. Machet, who is a Russian by birth and a Texan by adoption, lives on West Commerce Street. She came to San Antonio from Odessa, Russia, about nine years ago with her husband and little children. Long before Texas knew her, she had won distinction as a cake-maker. At Paris, Vienna and Petrograd she won first prizes at the expositions and has papers to show for it. She has also taken first honors here in San Antonio for preserves and cakes.

When the Woman's Press Association of Austin heard of Mrs. Machet's reputation as a cake-maker, they wrote her a letter asking that she donate a cake for the bazaar held yesterday and Tuesday at the Capital City. Mrs. Machet complied with the request and sent—or rather took it up her self—a white, flourless cake. The object of the bazaar, it was declared, was to raise funds to create a scholarship in the State school of journalism. The cake brought splendid results, Mrs. Machet said.

Mrs. Machet has been called "a natural born cake-maker." She is always studying new methods. Not from books, but practically. Whenever she sees a new kind of cake, she asks for a piece of it, takes it home, analyses it and then sets to work—not to duplicate it, but to improve upon it. "So many persons are afraid to experiment with ingredients," said Mrs. Machet. "They are afraid to try this and that new thing in a cake, and feel that they must follow the same old recipes. I do not. I like to try new ones of my own, and I very seldom fail."

She has mingled Russian recipes, which she knew before she came over here, with new recipes she has learned. She has made many cakes, she said, that she will defy anyone to tell their ingredients. Yet many of them are cheaper to make than if according to recipes in books. Her fruit cake and flourless cakes are her especial pride. How they are made is her secret.

"I shall not tell, now, how I make my cakes. I give many of them away. People enjoy them. Some day I shall leave a book to the world with all my recipes in it."

Prayer to Our Lady Immaculate

Most holy Virgin, who was pleasing to the Lord and became His mother, immaculate in body and spirit, in faith and love, look kindly on the wretched who implore thy powerful patronage. The wicked serpent, against whom was hurled the first curse, continues fiercely to attack and ensnare the unhappy children of Eve. Do thou, then, O Blessed Mother, our Queen and advocate, who from the first instant of thy Conception, didst crush the head of the enemy, receive the prayers which, united with thee in one single heart, we implore thee to present at the throne of God, that we may never fall into the snares which are laid out for us, and may all arrive at the port of salvation; and, in so many dangers, may the Church and Christian society sing once again, the hymn of deliverance, of victory, and of peace. Amen. (300 days, once a day)

The Memorare

Remember, O Most gracious Virgin Mary! that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, and sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother! To Thee I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O mother of the word incarnate! despise not my petitions, but, in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen. (300 days, each time)

Prayer of St. Alphonsus M. de Liguori

(To be said before a representation of Our Lady)
Most holy and Immaculate Virgin! O my Mother! thou who art the mother of my Lord, the queen of the world, the advocate, hope and refuge of sinners! I, the most wretched among them, now come to thee. I worship thee, great queen, and give thee thanks for the many favors thou hast bestowed upon me in the past; most of all, do I thank thee for having saved me from hell, which I have so often deserved. I love thee, lady most worthy of all love, and, by the love which I bear thee, I promise ever in the future to serve thee, and do what in me lies to win others to thy love. In thee I put all my trust, all my hope of salvation. Receive me as thy servant, and cover me with the mantle of thy protection, thou who art the Mother of Mercy! And since thou hast so much power with God, deliver me from all temptations, or at least obtain for me the grace to overcome them. From thee I ask a true love of Jesus Christ and the grace of a happy death. O my mother! by thy love for God, I beseech thee be at all times my helper, but, above all at the last moment of my life. Leave me not until you see me safe in heaven, there for endless ages to bless thee, and sing thy praises. Amen. (300 days, each time)

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. (300 days, once a day)

Mother of love, of sorrow, and of mercy, pray for us. (300 days, each time)

Our Lady of Lourdes, pray for us. (300 days, each time)

Mary, our hope, have pity on us. (300 days, each time)

Blessed be the holy and Immaculate Conception of the most blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God. (300 days, each time)

Sweet heart of Mary, be my salvation! (300 days, each time)

Mary, Virgin Mother of God, pray to Jesus for me. (100 days, once a day)
