Trust Him

Trust Him when dark doubts assail thee,
Trust Him when thy strength is small,
Trust Him when to simply Trust Him
Seems the hardest thing of all.

Trust Him, he is ever faithful;
Trust Him, for His will is best;
Trust Him, for the Heart of Jesus
Is the only place of rest.

Trust Him, then, through doubts and sunshine;
All thy cares upon Him cast.
Till the storm of life is over
And the trusting days are past.

Hon^{ble} dear President.

Am writing you
letting you know how badly I feel concerning the war with Europe.
Indeed you have a very heavy cross to carry and I am sure our dear Lord will come to your aid
Due to the fact, you are a God loving and God fearing man. The loss of your good dear mother was indeed sad and cause for you to grieve but this I think far greater sorrow than any thing that has ever came into your life. Your 3
terms have been a heavy load
but you have carried them loftly
with faith in your maker.

CHRISTMAS BELLS 1941

By Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old, familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good will to men !

Then from each black, accursed mouth
The cannon thundered in the South
And with the sound
The carols drowned
Of peace on earth, good will to men !

And in despair I bowed my head;
"There is no peace on earth," I said;
"For hate is strong
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good will to men !"
Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead; nor doth he sleep !
The Wrong shall fail,
The Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good will to men !"

As the bells of this Yuletide ring out, may their glorious sound fill our hearts with happiness and strengthen our spirit with hope, courage and good cheer.

To remember our good friends at Christmas with Fruit Cake is a happy custom we have followed for years---and with it--- from our Salesmen, our Employees here at the plant, and Ourselves, go these good wishes :

MAY YOU AND YOURS ENJOY TO THE FULLEST EXTENT, THE MERRY SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS AND, MAY GOOD FORTUNE SMILE ON EACH ONE OF YOU THROUGHOUT THE NEW YEAR.

Sincerely yours,

John McGaulley

White House,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McIntyre:-

In the belief that our SNAPIT "Nite-Lite" affords an almost perfect blackout, and at the suggestion of our mutual friend, the Honorable Sol Bloom, I am taking the liberty of sending a quantity for use throughout the White House during our troublesome days and nights. These are being sent with our compliments.

The package is being addressed to you, and I will be grateful if you will see to it that the proper person in charge of distribution in the White House receives them.

With best wishes, I remain

Cordially yours,

My dear Mr. Steinharter:

I am just in receipt of your letter of December sixteenth and the "Nite-Lites". Thanks very much for your thought and Sol's as well. I shall be glad to see that they are distributed.

December 23, 1941

So far as I am concerned I hope that the only use we shall have for them, in my case, will be to keep the light out of the grandbabies' eyes.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

On December 15th we directed to you, for distribution in the Nite-Lites or any place you saw fit to send them, a box containing a quantity of our SNAP-IT Nite-Lites. We trust they will be safely.

M. H. MCINTYRE

We are pleased to advise that we are now receiving some blue bulbs, which we believe will afford a better blackout than the frosted bulbs and at the same time will furnish light to guide the footsteps at night.

A SOLDIER'S PRAYER At Taps and Reveille

O God of power and love, behold me before Thee this night (morning) to add my faltering prayers to those which a little child daily brings to Thee in my behalf.

Make me a soldier (sailor, Marine) worthy of the great cause for which we fight.

Give me strength when the going is hard.

Give me courage when danger is near.

In Thee I place my trust. Lead me through the perils of this war to the peace of that better world to which I have dedicated my life. But if the service of Thee and my Country calls for the sacrifice of my life, I only ask, dear God, that Thou be with me at that moment, confident that Thy peace awaits me in eternity.

sailors in the last big war.

I shall pray for you every morning and night. I am going to Communion and Mass for you once each week. I shall give up something I like very much one time each week for you.

Will you wear this little medal of our Blessed Mother? I am asking her to keep you strong and safe.

The other boys and girls are asking their soldiers and sailors to pray with them. I know you are very busy but will you say the prayer I am putting in my letter?

Our country needs you very much. I will pray that our Blessed Mother takes care of you. I am eight years old and I can pray very hard.

Good-bye, Mr. President,

PRECIOUS BLOOD NOVENA PRAYER

(TO JESUS, bleeding and dying on the cross, "we beseech Him to help us whom He has redeemed with His Precious Blood.")

Lord, Thou bearest me written in Thy hands in letters of indelible red, which are Thy most Holy Wounds, and to inspire me with confidence Thou gently sayest: "I have written thee in My Hands with the marks of My most Holy Wounds." Therefore, will I ever say to Thee: "Read, Lord Jesus, read that handwriting and save me through Thy Precious Blood."

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I have asked you for many favors, but I plead for this one. Take it, place it in Your open Broken Heart, and when the Eternal Father sees it, covered with the mantle of YOUR most Precious Blood, He will not refuse it, if, in His infinite and far-seeing wisdom, He sees it is best for my spiritual and temporal welfare. It is not alone my prayer, but Thine.

Dear Mr. President:

I am taking the liberty of sending you a representative picture of young America, one of the millions who are too young to understand, he and the millions of yet unborn future Americans whose future fate is in the hands of today's America, under your leadership.

Young America has faith in you, Mr. President, without reservations. Their future depends on what we Americans do today. We cannot and will not let them down.

Young America will appreciate your four freedoms in future years. Those freedoms will become a reality, God willing, when right backed by might, triumphs in one of the world's darkest hours.

I thought you might glance at young America once in a while, to get the satisfaction refreshed in your mind that Americans are solidly behind you, young and old.

We know you have no time to read letters, Mr. President, because we well know the size of the burden on your shoulders, but we thought you might like to know how we folks in the west feel under your leadership.

We wish you good health, Mr. President, and may God give you strength to carry on to a successful conclusion.
