Hymn to Our Blessed Mother for Soldiers and Sailors

To Tune of "Mary Help Us, Help We Pray"

1. Mary help our valiant soldiers
Guard them all on land and sea,
Keep them ever near to Jesus
And sweet Mother, close to thee.

Chorus

Mary help them, help we pray
Help our soldiers night and day,
Bring us peace and, dearest Mother
Bring our boys home safe, we pray.

2. Mary help our wounded soldiers
Help those sailing o'er the main,
Pray that all be won to Jesus
Born through grief, to live again.
Chorus.

3. Mother, help the absent loved ones,
Ah, we miss their presence here.
Help our father, friend, our brother
Help them, guard them, far and near.
Chorus.

4. Help our priests, our Sisters holy
Help our Pope, long may he reign,
Pray that we who sing thy praises
May in Heaven, all meet again.
Chorus.

PRAY FOR PEACE!

To pray for peace is an obligation that rests with every Christian. Our Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, wants us to do so. He has urged Christians throughout the world to join in a "Crusade of Prayer" for Peace! Men and women, boys and girls, young and old are asked to storm Heaven beseeching a merciful God to intervene and to save us from this scourge of war and to restore peace and order to the nations of the world.

Centuries ago, on the first Christmas night, a message of peace was given to the world. It was announced by angels for it came from Heaven. That message was: "Peace on earth to men of good will." To be of good will is the first condition of peace, and to be of good will means that our wills are in conformity with the will of God. The will of man is in conformity with God's will when man recognizes God as his Creator, as the Author of life and the Giver of all good gifts. Such a recognition of God teaches a man that the greatest disaster in the world is to forget our Maker and to live our lives independently of Him. This rebellion against God is the worst evil in the world today. It is the underlying cause of all evil. When we pray for peace, we must pray in the spirit of the Church. In the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass there is a great prayer for peace:

And to keep in touch me says

"Lamb of God Who takest away the sins of the world, grant us peace." We pray for peace but only after the condition has been placed that the great disturber of the peace be removed, and that is sin. We must do all in our power to avoid sin in our own lives that by our example we shall lead others back to God. We must be people of good will for to such alone is promised the peace of the Prince of Peace.

If we are people of "good will" our nation will be a great one. People of good will come from good homes. A good home is a nation's sanctuary. It is a nation's first line of defense. A good home is the place where good citizens are trained. A healthy home life means a healthy nation. The security of the home must be insured. In order that the home be secure, the home virtues must predominate. Faith in God, the Author of life, must be taught and maintained by word and example. The discipline of the home must be based upon the fulfillment of our duties to God and to neighbor. Obedience, honesty, purity of life, temperance of life, and true Christian Charity are the virtues that are found in a good home. In praying for peace let each member of the family do his or her part in maintaining peace in the home and in helping to make our homes good homes.

Lasting peace must be based on justice. No true peace can come by disarming a foe or by crushing him. History teaches us this lesson. True Christian principles of justice must be reckoned with if a lasting peace will be established. Pius XII outlines these principles in five points:

1. The assurance to all nations of their right to life and independence. The will of one nation to live must never mean the sentence of death passed upon another. When this equality of rights has been destroyed, attacked or threatened, order demands that reparation shall be made, and the measure and extent of that reparation is determined not by the sword but by the rules of justice and reciprocal equity.

2. This requires that the nations be delivered from the slavery imposed upon them by the race for armaments, and from the danger that material force instead of serving to protect the right, may become an overbearing and tyrannical master. The order thus established requires a mutually agreed organic, progressive disarmament, spiritual as well as material, and security for the effective implementing of such an agreement.

3. Some juridical institution which shall guarantee the loyal and faithful fulfillment of conditions agreed upon, and which shall in case of recognized need revise and correct them.

4. The real and just demands of nations and populations and racial minorities to be adjusted as occasion may require, even where no strictly legal right can be established, and a foundation of mutual confidence to be thus laid, whereby many incentives to violent action will be removed.

5. The development among peoples and their rulers of that sense of deep and keen responsibility which weighs human statutes according to the sacred and inviolable standards of the laws of God. They must hunger and thirst after justice and be guided by that universal love which is the compendium and most general expression of the Christian Ideal.

In praying for peace let us ask that these principles may triumph in post-war treaties.

In the midst of war let us not forget that we all want peace. We want a true peace that will last. We must recognize our obligation to work and pray in a true Christian spirit for peace and order among all nations of the world. This pamphlet is compiled in order to help you to pray in accordance with the fond desire of our beloved Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, for the intention of peace.

Send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created.

People: And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

O God, Who didst instruct the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit, grant us in the same Spirit to be truly wise and ever to rejoice in His consolation, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

those who put their trust in Thee: / mercifully hear the prayers of us, Thy servants, / that the evil designs of our enemies being defeated, / we may praise Thee with unceasing gratitude.

O God, Who dost stamp out wars / and vanquish the assailants / of them that hope in Thee, / help us when we cry to Thee, / that the ferocity of our enemies / may be brought low, / and we may praise Thee with incessant thanksgiving.

O God, Who sufferest not the nations that believe in Thee / to be shaken by any fear, / deign, we beseech Thee, / to receive the prayers and sacrifices / of the people consecrated to Thee, / that peace, the gift of Thy loving kindness, / may render Christian countries / safe from every enemy. / Through Our Lord Jesus Christ / Who livest and reignest one God / world without end. / Amen.

Prayer for Peace

(Ordered by Pope Benedict XV)

Priest and People: Dismayed by the horrors of a war / which is bringing ruin to peoples and nations, / we turn, O Jesus, to Thy most loving Heart / as to our last hope. / O God of Mercy, / with tears we invoke Thee / to end this fearful scourge; / O King of Peace, we humbly implore / the peace for which we long.

From Thy Sacred Heart / Thou didst shed forth over the world / divine Charity, / so that discord might end / and love alone might reign among men. / During Thy life on earth / Thy Heart beat with tender compassion / for the sorrows of men; / in this hour made terrible with burning hate, / with bloodshed and with slaughter, / once more may Thy divine Heart / be moved to pity.

Pity the countless mothers / in anguish for the fate of their sons; / pity the numberless families / bereaved of their fathers; / pity mankind over which broods / such havoc and disaster.

Do Thou inspire rulers and peoples / with counsels of meekness, / do Thou heal the discords / that tear the nations asunder; / Thou Who didst shed Thy Precious Blood / that they might live as brothers, / bring men together once more / in loving harmony. / And as once before to the

And do thou, O most holy Virgin, / as in other times of sore distress, / be now our help, / our protection and our safeguard. / Amen.

Prayer for Our Country

Priest and People: We pray Thee / O God of might / wisdom and justice / through Whom authority / is rightly administered / laws are enacted / and judgment decreed / assist with Thy Holy Spirit / of counsel and fortitude / the President of these United States / that his administration / may be conducted in righteousness / and be eminently useful / to Thy people over whom he presides / by encouraging due respect / for virtue and religion / by a faithful execution of the laws / in justice and mercy / and by restraining vice and immorality. / Let the light of Thy divine wisdom / direct the deliberations of Congress / and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws / framed for our rule and government / so that they may tend / to the preservation of peace / the promotion of national happiness / the increase of industry / sobriety / and useful knowledge / and may perpetuate to us / the blessings of equal liberty.

Prayer for Soldiers and Sailors

Priest and People: O God, I beseech Thee, / watch over those exposed to the horror of war, / and the spiritual dangers / of a soldier's or sailor's life.

GENERAL PRAYERS APPROPRIATE IN TIMES OF WAR

Prayer for Aviators

(To St. Therese, the Little Flower, Patron Saint of Aviators, Feast Day, October 3rd)

O St. Therese, Little Flower of Jesus, named by the Church as the Patroness of Aviators, pray for them. Thou didst say "I will spend my heaven in doing good on earth and after death I will let fall a shower of roses." These roses, as so many favors for thy clients, thou dost waft through the skies to descend gently upon those devoted to thee. From thy bright throne in heaven, turn thine eyes kindly toward them, that they, who fly like birds through God's firmament, may ever enjoy thy intercession and secure the graces they yearn for so ardently to strengthen them in life, defend them at the hour of death and lead them to a happy eternity. Amen.

Prayer for Sailors

(To St. Brendan, Patron Saint of Sailors, Feast Day, May 16th)

St. Brendan, holy mariner, fittingly called God's Voyager," who didst zealously spread the gospel through long and arduous voyages, intercede for them with the "God of the Waves," that they, too, may cherish the gospel of salvation. Grant that through thy intercession they may be led safely through all perils of the sea till they are led to the land of eternal life. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for Those at Sea

O God, Who didst bring our fathers through the Red Sea and carry them in safety through the overflowing waters, singing praises to Thy Holy Name, we humbly beseech Thee that Thou wouldst preserve Thy servants journeying by sea from all dangers, granting them a tranquil course and the wished for haven.

Prayer for Our Soldier Comrades

Save Thy servants trusting in Thee, O Lord; send them help from Thy holy place. Show Thy face and they shall be saved; be their defense in the day of battle. Arise, O Christ, and help them; deliver them for Thy Name's sake.

Prayer for Those at Home

Grant, O Lord, to my parents, brothers and sisters the smile of Thy love. Grant them all the grace to serve Thee well in this life, that we may all meet in the life to come. Amen.

Prayer for the Dying

Acknowledge, O Lord, Thy creature not made by strange gods, but by Thee, the only living and true God: for there is no other God beside Thee, and none that doeth according to Thy works. Make glad his soul, O Lord, with Thy presence, and remember not his old sins and excesses which wrath or heat of evil desire may have aroused. For although he hath sinned, he hath not denied the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost, but hath believed, and hath had a zeal for God, and hath faithfully adored the Creator of all things. May the heavens be opened to him. May the Angels rejoice with him. Into Thy kingdom, O Lord, receive Thy servant. May St. Michael, the Archangel of God, prince of the heavenly hosts, receive him. May the holy Angels of God come forth to meet him, and conduct him to the city of the heavenly Jerusalem. May the blessed Peter the Apostle, to whom were given by God the keys of the kingdom of Heaven, receive him. May St. Paul the Apostle, who was counted worthy to be a vessel of election, assist him. May St. John, the chosen Apostle of God, to whom were revealed the secrets of Heaven, intercede for him. May all the holy Apostles, to whom the Lord gave the power of binding and loosing, pray for him. May all the Saints and Elect of God, who, in this world, suffered torments for the Name of Christ, intercede for him, that, loosed from the bonds of the flesh, he may attain into the glory of the heavenly kingdom, through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Into Thy hands, O Lord, I commend this spirit.

O Lord, Jesus Christ, receive his spirit.

Holy Mary, pray for him.

Holy Mary, mother of grace, mother of mercy, do thou defend him from the enemy, and receive him at the hour of death.

Come to his assistance, ye Saints of God: come forth to meet him, ye Angels of the Lord, receiving his soul, offering it in the sight of the Most High.

Prayer for the Church and for All Civil Authorities

Let the light of Thy divine wisdom direct the deliberations of Congress, and shine forth in all the proceedings and laws framed for our rule and government, so that they may tend to the preservation of peace, the promotion of national happiness, the increase of industry, sobriety, and useful knowledge; and may perpetuate to us the blessing of equal liberty.

We pray for His Excellency, the Governor of this State, for the members of the Assembly, for all judges, magistrates, and other officers who are appointed to guard our political welfare, that they may be enabled, by Thy powerful protection, to discharge the duties of their respective stations with honesty and ability.

We recommend likewise to Thy unbounded mercy all our brethren and fellow citizens throughout the United States, that they may be blessed in the knowledge and sanctified in the observance of Thy most holy law; that they may be preserved in union, and in that peace which the world cannot give; and after enjoying the blessings of this life, be admitted to those which are eternal.

Finally, we pray to Thee, O Lord of mercy, to remember the souls of Thy servants departed who are gone before us with the sign of the faith, and repose in the sleep of peace; the souls of our parents, relatives and friends; of those who, when living were members of this congregation, and particularly of such as are lately deceased; of all benefactors who, by their donations or legacies to this church, witnessed their zeal for the decency of divine worship and proved their claim to our grateful and charitable remembrance. To these, O Lord, and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we beseech Thee, a place of refreshment, light, and everlasting peace, through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Prayer for the Sovereign Pontiff

V. Let us pray for our Pontiff, N.

R. The Lord preserve him and give him life, and make him blessed upon earth, and deliver him not up to the will of his enemies.

Our Father, Hail Mary.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Prayer to St. Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the malice and snares of the devil. We humbly beseech God, to command him: and do thou O Prince of the heavenly host by the divine power, thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits who roam through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Victory

O God, the Author and Lover of peace, Whom to know is to live, and to serve is to reign, protect Thy suppliants from all assaults, that we, who trust in Thy defense, may fear no armed hostility. Through our Lord.

Thou art the God that alone dost wonders: Thou hast made Thy power known among the nations. V. With Thy arm Thou hast redeemed Thy people, the children of Israel and Joseph. V. Ps. lviii. Deliver me from my enemies, O my God, and defend me from them that rise up against me.

Protect Thy people, O Lord, and preserve by never-ending defense those who trust in the patronage of Thine Apostles, Peter and Paul. Through our Lord.

Prayer to Implore Peace

Ant. Give peace, O Lord! in our days; for there is none other that fighteth for us, but only Thou, our God.

V. Peace be in Thy strength, O Lord!

R. And plenty in Thy strong places.

Let Us Pray

O God, from Whom proceed all holy desires, all right counsels and just works: grant unto us, Thy servants, that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be devoted to Thy service, and that, delivered from the fear of our enemies, we may pass our time in peace under Thy protection. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pope Pius XII's Prayer for Peace

Our Father Who art in Heaven, our God and our Protector, turn Thine eyes upon Christ Thy Son. Behold the crimson marks of His wounds to which He was brought through love of us and obedience to Thee. Through these wounds He willed to be our advocate and peacemaker in all our sorrows.

O Jesus our Saviour, speak to Thy Father and ours. Plead with Him for us and for Thy Church, yea, for all mankind purchased with Thy Blood. Thou art the King that giveth Peace. Thou art the Prince of Peace. Thou hast the keys of life and death. Grant peace and eternal rest to the souls of all who are caught up in this whirlwind of war and swept unto death. Some are known, others unknown. For some tears are shed, for others there are none to weep. Some have been buried beneath the ruins of towns and villages; others have shed their blood on the field of battle, on the torn hillside, in the ravines or in the depths of the sea. Let Thy cleansing Blood stream down upon them in their pains. Let it wash their garments and make them bright, so that clad therein they may be found worthy to be gladdened by the sight of Thy face.

Do Thou Who were ever the loving Comforter of the distressed, Who didst weep at the tears of Martha and Mary bereaved of their brother, give to those stricken by the calamities of War the peace which is born of consolation, of resignation and of succor. Grant peace to the exile, the fugitive, to them that wander unknown, and to the wounded. They look to Thee. Dry the tears of wives and mothers, of orphans, of families who have none to care for them. They would fain hide their tears. They eat the bread of sorrow, enduring hunger and cold and cheerless homes. They break the bread for the little ones whom they have led to Thine altars in some lowly shrine, there to pray for a father, a brother, dead, wounded, or lost to them. Comfort all with Thy heavenly gifts and with the consolation and succor wherein charity is so rich and fruitful. This, Lord, Thou canst inspire in noble hearts who see in their wretched and suffering brethren those whom they love because fashioned to Thine own image and likeness.

Grant unto all who fight such heroism as will lead them to accept even the supreme sacrifice in defense of their country. Grant them that noble sense of humanity that would not do to others, in any event, what they would not wish done to themselves or to their own nation.

Let the love of Thy divine Spirit reign and conquer, so that a right and ordered peace may be given once more to peoples and nations. Let our prayers be pleasing and acceptable to Thy heart ever meek and humble. Be all the more merciful to us because of the many Masses which the Church, Thy Spouse, bowed in adoration, lovingly offers through Thee, Eternal Priest and Victim, to God the Father.

Speak to the hearts of men. Thou hast words which search and shake the heart, enlighten the mind, soften anger and drive out hatred and revenge. Say the word that can still the storm, give healing to the sick, light to the blind, hearing to the deaf, life to the dead.

The peace amongst men which Thou wouldst have is dead. Raise it once more to life, Divine Conqueror of death. Grant that there may be calm on land and sea. Make an end of those whirling blasts in the sky which, in the light of day or in the darkness of night, hurl down on unarmed people the terrors of fire, destruction, and slaughter. Grant that justice with love in Christ may hold the scales lest the balance fall unevenly to this side or to that. Let every injustice be made good. Let the rule of right be restored. Banish from the hearts of men all rancor and ill-feeling. Grant to us the serene vision of a new prosperity pleasing to all the world. Grant to us a well-ordered, righteous, and lasting peace, so that mankind, joined once more in brotherhood, may go forward through the ages, one human family in search of the noblest ends, beneath Thy gaze. Amen.

Dear President Roosevelt:

Having a huge admiration for you, personally, and knowing your liking for original things, I am enclosing a duplicate (almost, for no two could be alike) of a costume pin I made up on the spur of the moment for a young friend. You have one of the only two existing in the world.

It is an oak chip to be worn high up on the lapel.

The significance is: I'VE GOT A CHIP ON MY SHOULDER FOR UNCLE SAM! I WANT TO FIGHT!

I hope you will like the idea, and will wear the pin just once for me. I shall like to think that this trifle casued you to forget the cares of State for a fleeting moment and that you may get a little bit of "kick" out of an Ozark memento.

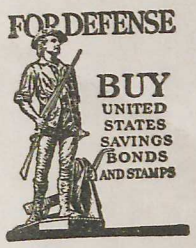

Here's holding up your hands to a successful conclusion of the fight.

Dear Sir:

Our nine year old son, Keith has asked me to send you the plaque of General MacArthur which he made from a cheese box.

Since the death of his beloved cousin, late of the Army Air Corps, General MacArthur has become one of his favorite artistic subjects, shared only by two other cousins who are on convoy duty with the United States Navy.

We are extremely, however humbly proud of Keith's artistic gifts. He has been drawing pictures, making model airplanes and so on since he was four years old. The plaque is something of a departure from his usual endeavors and the first one he has made.

With every good wish for your good health and continued successes, we are

Your letter of September seventeenth, with the enclosed clipping, has been received and I want to assure you that your generous offer is sincerely appreciated.

While the President is grateful to all of those who desire to present gifts to him, he does feel that his acceptance of them should be limited to tokens of small intrinsic value and that he should not accept articles of considerable worth or gifts of handwork on which the donor has necessarily spent a great deal of time and personal effort. Neither does he feel that he should accept articles that have been made at great personal sacrifice.

Honorable Sir:

With this letter is a copy of the September issue of Modern Packaging. The feature article, "Closures and the Bottleneck", is an overall study of the glass and closure situation which gives a comprehensive perspective on a very critical situation.

The importance of this subject will warrant your taking a few moments out of your busy program to read this article. It was prepared with full sympathy for those who are charged with administering these difficult problems.

When you have read it, we shall appreciate your suggestions, as we are sincerely endeavoring to help the war effort in every way we can.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

As a boy in the year 1889 I came connected with the old firm manufactured of Davids Ink and was connected with the firm for 36 years until 1925. Since them I have tried to go on my own - representing manufacturers of astrides (?) used in the stationery line. Dear Sir:

I am sending to the President, under seperate cover and addressed to you, a copy of my booklet on the Confederate States Cruiser ALABAMA. The booklet was put together to go with the model of the ship I recently presented to the Naval Academy Museum at Annapolis. Six copies were made up. I once heard that the President was particularly interested in the ALABAMA and I thought he might like a copy of the booklet for the marine section of his library.

If you think he would be interested in it and the opportunity presents itself I would appreciate it if you would call it to his attention.

Yours sincerely

FLAG OF THE ALLIES

It is not suggested that this flag should supplant our own flag or the flag of any sovereign nation, but rather that it should fly with those respective flags as a symbol of Unity and Solidarity of the Free Nations of the World.

It is not presumed that this design would be the ultimate or final design of such a flag. It is rather, Merely a way of presenting an idea (perhaps a controversial idea) in a tangible form to find out what public reaction would be to such an Idea.

The idea of such a flag was engendered by the suggestions from various sources that some sort of federation or league continue after the duration. Such suggestions have come from various sources -- The Atlantic Charter, Vice President Wallace's Speeches, Clarence Streit's book "Union Now", and other National Figures.

In the design of the flag here submitted the following ideas are symbolized:

A. The torch, of course, stands for Liberty (Might also be construed as symbolizing enlightenment.)

B. Each star represents one of the 28 free nations of our alliance.

C. The 4 points of the stars represent the 4 freedoms, as expounded by the Atlantic Charter:

1. Freedom from fear
2. Freedom from want
3. Freedom of expression
4. Freedom of religion

D. The arrangement of the stars in a hollow square has no particular significance except to the design, e.i. so that stars may be added or substracted without altering the design to a great extent. (The "Hollow square" of stars around the torch might be construed as a symbol of united solidarity in the guarding of "liberty", but was not originally so intended.

If this flag, or any other flag were adopted as an allied flag, there is small danger of it supplanting any of the national flags, which time and tradition have given a sentimental value, which no new design may match, except through the same long process of use.

Until such time, at least, this flag is suggested as supplementary and subsidiary to the various national emblems, with the thought it may grow in significance with the passage of time.

GAYNOR, William T.

Oct. 21, 1942.

Writes to the President saying he had been told that the President's father or his uncle, or both, steered the ice boat which raced the early Empire State Express, as shown in the illustration marked in the attached folder, which Mr. Gaynor wrote for the New York Central. Says he has seen the ice boats in the museum at Hyde Park and it has occurred to him that it might be appropriate for him to donate the original magazine clipping, suitably framed, for exhibit near the ice boats unless perchance the original painting is available to the President. Says if the President is interested that he will forward the framed illustration to Hyde Park or as the President may suggest.----------
Miss Tully, Oct. 23rd, wrote to Mr. Gaynor thanking him on behalf of the President for his letter and saying that the President would be delighted to have the original magazine clipping framed for the Library at Hyde Park. Miss Tully said the President also wanted him to know that it was his Uncle, John A. Roosevelt of Hyde Park, who steered the "Icicle" which raced the early Empire State Express.

Dear President Roosevelt:

I am sending you an extraordinary novel which we shall publish on October 27--THE THREE BAMBOOS, by Robert Standish. We are very much excited about this unique book. I don't know who the author is, but if you read the preface, you will see that he spent a number of years in Japan. The last two paragraphs of the preface interested me when I read what Mr. Grew said in Toronto last week. It seems to me that the book gives a very clear picture of the kind of planning and determination which we are fighting in the Japanese. I believe the book will interest you.

My dear Mr. President:

Enclosed is a facsimile of a wishing well which was used successfully in the campaign to collect funds for the fight against infantile paralysis. Same has been patented by me, and all patents transferred to the National Foundation and accepted by Mr. Basil O'Connor.

Last year, when I had the pleasure and honor of meeting you personally, I noticed that you had several mementos on your desk. That observation gave me an idea, the result of which is this wishing well, knowing that the fight against infantile paralysis is near and dear to your heart.

With kindest regards, I am

Yours for Victory,

Dear Mr. President: —

I take pleasure in presenting you, herewith, a complimentary copy of my "Sun-Path Dial," — a gadget I devised when teaching astronomy in a Chicago high school.

It has occurred to me that the boys in our training camps and at the front, especially those preparing to fly, would find manipulation of the Dial a fascinating way of acquainting themselves with the daily and yearly movements of the sun with reference to the horizon of different latitudes which determine seasons and climate.

There is no end to the questions the Dril will answer regarding the time and place of sunrise and sunset and height of the noon sun and length of twilight in mid summer, midwinter and at the equinox dates.

For Example:—

Where and when does the midsummer sun rise and set for Londonus? How long is their midsummer twilight? their midwinter twilight?

Where does the midwinter sun rise and set at Moscow? How long is their midsummer twilight?

At what latitude do the evening and morning twilights connect, so that daylight fades out until midnight and then brightens up until sunrise?

In what direction and how high is the midnight sun viewed from North Cape, Norway, June 21?

At what latitude is the sun above the horizon continuously for two months in summer and continuously below the horizon for two months in winter?

When and where does the sun rise at the north pole and set at the south pole?

In what direction and how high is the noon sun viewed from the north pole June 21?

Why are the days and nights equal the year round on the equator, with the sun rising directly east and setting directly west and passing Beside astronomy I taught U.S. History and civics at the Hyde Park high school, Chicago.
