Dear Mr. Mrs F. D. Roosevelt.

I heard Mrs Roosevelt talk on the radio, the other night and I think it was a great speech for any mother who as a first lady of the land of the brave and the free stick could carry on the way she does. is one of the greatest women on earth, today, Because she as done, more than her share to win the war. here there and every where.

It is a great exampble for the rest of the women to follow. Because you have all your family away this Christmas fighting for a just cause so that the rest of the people may enjoy a Merry Xmas. And I pray to God that you and Mrs Roosevelt.

My dear Mr. President:

On November 27, the Catholic Church celebrates the feast of the Miraculous Medal. It was on that day in 1830 that Our Lady appeared to a little seminary Sister of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul and commissioned her to have a medal struck similar to the apparition. Blessed Mother asked that on the Medal there be printed the prayer, "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee." She promised great graces to those who wear the Medal and pray to her.

The Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, composed of our eighty-five high school boys and girls, prayed fervently to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal during November and offered all the prayers for our beloved President of the United States. We said the little prayer of the Medal 20,076 times and assisted at 1039 Masses and received Our Lord in Holy Communion 677 times.

Surely Our Blessed Mother has heard our petitions and will grant you the graces you need in your multiplied duties.

Yours respectfully

WARREN A. ARTHUR
SEATS FOR THE MIGHTY

WHAT an inspiring thing it is to be alive today, when the idea of flight through the air, which has passed through twenty-four centuries of violent twists and turns, skepticism and dull indifference, finally emerges before the eyes of the awakened millions, to be heralded as the greatest military, economic and political necessity in the history of mankind.

And—just think—the great, vital aircraft industry has barely reached the end of its beginning.

My Dear President and Mrs. Roosevelt:

During the holidays, I inscribed the names of my sons now in the air corps, on a very beautifully designed "Honor Scroll", emblematic of the loyalty and sacrifice of millions of other sons now fighting for all they've learned to respect and revere.

It occurred to me that you, the parents of four sons now in the service, might appreciate one of these "Victory" scrolls in the quiet of your own home, - a daily reminder of, and forever perpetuating, the loyalty and sacrifice of those so near and dear to you.

the peace and happiness they are going to win for all.
