Ottawa, Canada.

Spoke to Chief about lobsters and he is delighted to have few.

Suggest not more than two dozen at most, perhaps dozen would be better.

Can be sent any time now to seventeenth. Regards.

PA WATSON

I would like the President to have some before the season is over. If you will give me a hint later on I will see that another shipment goes forward.

Scotch is getting quite scarce up here but I am putting by a little so that I will have a moderate supply when next I make a trip to Washington, which I am going to do before long. Will try to let you know a day or two in advance.

With best personal regards,

Yours very truly,

A.N. McLean.

Dear General Watson:

Your kind note of the 18th has been received and I am glad indeed that the lobster arrived in good shape this time. There is no reason in the world why they should not always be in a fresh condition as they can be taken out of the water one day and arrive in Washington the evening of the next day.

I would like the President to have some before the season is over. If you will give me a hint later on I will see that another shipment goes forward.

Dear Admiral:

I am enclosing two photographs showing President Roosevelt. These pictures were taken in the summer of 1918 at Paulliac, France and show Mr. Roosevelt, as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, stepping out of an HS1-L seaplane. I am the pilot shown under the radiator of the plane. For your information, this was the first type of American built seaplane with a Liberty engine used in France. X203-a X249 X72-M

I thought that Mr. Roosevelt might like to have one of these for his collection and I would certainly like to have one autographed and returned to me for my collection if you could arrange it.

My dear President:

Uncle Sam is my love, He likes to kiss and he likes to hug, but he never falls for anything but love.

In peace you are President of these United States but in war your are Commander in Chief as well.

The red men were the rulers and then came the white man, but to-day it is a mighty land we call the U. S. A.

We celebrate your birthday by a ball, and in a Yankee way we have Valentines Day. Granting that you have a pipe and you would have peace, I inclose some Model Tobacco for you; not to smoke as whitemen do, but as the red men did when the COMMANDER IN CHIEF MAKES PEACE.

Your the President that I voted for, in peace and war and since its Leap Year I've got a right to say your MY VALENTINE, With love, Elizabeth L. Mansfield.

MADURO, Chas. L. - Director
S. E. L. Maduro & Sons, Inc.
Curacao, Dutch W. I.
March 20, 1944.

Let. to Mrs. Roosevelt, Willemstad, Curacao, (when she was visiting there) stating that when her husband visited their Island in the early part of the century he requested that above firm give him a small live goat to serve as mascot on his ship; this they did and later when Mr. S. E. L. Maduro was in Washington the President recalled the incident of the goat which, he declared, had been the source of much fun on board. Asks Mrs. Roosevelt to accept, as small token of Curacao and their firm, a medallion commemorating the centenary of firm in 1937. On 4/4/44 Mrs. R. referred above to the President with memo: "What have you been holding out on me all these years? E.R." Memo, 4/5/44, to Mrs. Roosevelt: "I have an alibi. The only time I was ever in Curacao in my life was in 1904 when I went through the West Indies on a Hamburg-American Line "yacht". I was accompanied by and thoroughly chaperoned by my maternal parent. I was never given a goat -- neither did anyone get my goat! This looks to me like a German plot! F. D. R."

old Kentucky, where you never blues. Where the Captains kill the is and the Colonels kill the booze. Blood, flows like water and bullets fly like hail,
Every pistol has a pocket and every coat, it has a tail. You start out in the morning to give your health a chance, And they bring you home at midnight with buckshot in your pants; They always hang the Jury but they never hang the

Dear Jim:

I am glad you have put down in permanent form an account of the observations you made on that memorable journey. I like particularly the informal character of the title -- TELL THE FOLKS BACK HOME. A mere glance at the table of contents shows what a treat is in store for me when I have time to read the book. Many, many thanks.

Very sincerely yours,

PRAYER FOR PEACE

That we may help each other's needs—
God of all power and might, give us release
From brutal wars and cruel deeds,
And grant Thy people, an enduring Peace.

Give us common sense and kindness—
Pure hearts, armored with the strength of ten—
Justice tempered with Mercy,
Faith in God, and in our fellow-men.

For all that is worth-while, today
In this great world of ours, we fight—and pray
For light to guide us on our way
To lasting Victory for Humanity.

A MOTHER'S PRAYER —
AND GOD'S ANSWER

(To Lt. B.R.S., Jr., and every Mother's son who is serving his Country)

With faith and courage and a quiet mind,
With clean-ness both of body and of soul,
I pray Thee, gracious God, to bless my son;
For these are needed things, in Peace or War—
If he would reach his goal through work well done.

All that you ask, dear Mother, I would give—
Your son is worthy, and has earned the right
To live; but he must give with all his might
And give, and give, and give—to pay the price
Of Victory, through noble sacrifice.

TO A TRUE SOLDIER

In times like these, that try men's souls
I think of you—
And all the hardships that may come
Both now and after.

I say a prayer—and somehow feel
That all your faith and courage
And your clean-ness—will sustain you.
And all my tears, long since un-shed,
Drop into poetry—
Sometimes my laughter.

With hope as anchor,—
And your guiding star,
God keep you safe and well and strong,
And bring you back home—
As you are.

When we seek for the best things in Life
That bring us contentment and beauty
Real happiness is ours—until

TOO DEEP FOR TEARS

Wherever you are, whatever you do
I stand by to help you, all through the years.
Steadfast as knotted Pine—enduring too,
With thoughts that lie too deep for tears.
Remember, dear boy, when you have "the blues"
Those we love truly, we never lose.

But when you feel too much alone
And must go forth into the dark of night,
Reach out and grasp the hand of God—
And He will give you light.

THE POWER OF PRAYER

Prayer is an attitude, I've learned—
And all its efficacy and its power,
By perfect trust in God, is earned—
By constant thought, and practice every hour.

I'm getting on to seventy years
With faith and hope and lack of fears—
And Know God answers Prayer.

At sunset, with the last great call
May we pray these meaningful words of St. Paul,
"I have fought a good fight, I have kept the Faith,"
Be merciful, Thou Lord of all.

O, Prayer at Dawn, go far and wide—
And then again, at Even-tide.

ETERNAL VERITIES

I thank thee, Lord, that I have known
The quiet hour before the Dawn
When stillness broods o'er all the Earth
And the new day is seeking birth.

O'er Hell Gate span, I first beheld
The radiant glory of the Dawn.
And while I lay in silence, pondering
The mystery of a borning day,
The streaked sky in blend of tones sublime,
And all the eternal verities laid bare—
Across the mystic deep, a call to Prayer!

At evening, when the work of day was done
I sought the sunset sky—and watched
Those phantom pictures made by wind-blown clouds
Across a deepening pink and purple glow,
Remembering some worthy effort made,
Some tiny service rendered to a friend—
And the great spirit of Contentment came
And breathed into my heart, a song.

L'ENVOI

Though friends pass on and time is long
And sorrows come battalions strong,
These memories to me belong—
The Prayer at Dawn, the Sunset Song.

LET US HAVE PEACE

(Prayer for 1944)

"O, when shall all men's good be each Man's Rule
And universal peace lie like a shaft of light across the land
And like a lane of beams athwart the sea!"

Thus sang the poet, many years ago
Praying for peace and progress in the world.
And still, today, the people cry, dismayed—
"More light! More light!" 'This true, we are afraid.
We needs must see—to understand
How best to help our fellowman.

But when the chiming Christmas bells
Again ring out their joyful peal,
We pray that in a world distressed,
All nations' strife may be at rest—
And all the earth, both far and wide,
Proclaim a glorious Christmas-tide.

And on and on, down through the years
I know that we shall hear them still,— Resounding bells throughout the world
Proclaiming triumph over fears,
In harmony our dream fulfill—
Peace on the earth, Good Will!

And earn the Peace, that will endure.

My dear Miss Stiles:

This is just to confirm our conversation regarding the miniature which you will so kindly present to H. E., the President, in my behalf.

This is the work of a very humble artist from my country, Victor Moscoso, who told me of his desire to present me with one of his works in order that I might judge what he can do. I told him that I would like very much to have him make President Roosevelt's picture, and he did so, taking it from one he had from a newspaper.

Thanking you again,

Dear Mr. Early:

I take the liberty of enclosing a talk made a few weeks ago by my son. Since it may be of interest to the Executive Officers I would appreciate it if you could have a member of the staff go through it and note especially its recommendation of a top council in the social sciences.

With very cordial regards,

Sincerely yours,

Oscar F. Mayer

My dear Mr. Alexander:

It was kind indeed of the officers and members of Miami Chapter No. 14, Order of Ahepa, to send the President those fine mangos. He asks if you will not be good enough to express his hearty thanks to everyone concerned for this thoughtful action.

The President is sincerely grateful for your prayers and I want to assure you that your letter strengthened his heart and soul.

Very sincerely yours,

Grace G. Tully

Dear Mr. President:

We are very proud of the Victory Garden Program we have carried on in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as one of the War Services to civilians provided by the State Council of Defense.

We have recently produced a Handbook on Victory Gardens, which promises to meet a very extensive need. With the intent of sharing this contribution with other states, I am sending herewith a copy of the Handbook to you with my compliments.

Very sincerely yours,

Edward Martin

My dear Governor Martin:

The President has asked me to thank you for your letter of June thirtieth and for your kindness in sending him a copy of the hand-book, VICTORY GARDENS. It is gratifying to the President to know that the citizens of Pennsylvania are so interested in Victory Gardens and realize that these gardens are helping immensely in the handling of our war food program.

Very sincerely yours,
