congratulations Sir.

I am sending you today, under separate medal, and bears the date July 4th 1776 in and the original piece was struck in that year.

I present this medal to you, my dear Sir, on behalf of the Nation. I hope you will keep it so long as life lasts. It is a slight

Huntsville, Ohio, Nov. 11, 1944

Mr. President:

11/16 ⁵⁰ adj
8/2/81 +4

It has been a mark of good taste on the part of the people of the United States of America to reelect you to the Presidency of the same. It would have caused me pain, if, at this grave hour in history, the people of this Nation had deserted you and the great ideals for which you stand, and for which you have so courageously fought. My congratulations Sir.

I am sending you today, under separate cover, a bronze medal, which was struck at the United States Mint at Philadelphia. It is known as the United States Diplomatic medal, and bears the date July 4th 1776 in Roman numerals, for American Independence, and the original piece was struck in that year.

I present this medal to you, my dear Sir, on behalf of the Nation. I hope you will keep it so long as life lasts. It is a slight and an humble token for one whose name and whose deeds must surely be surrounded with such glory on the pages of history.

If it was of solid gold, and if it bore the legend "Franklin D. Roosevelt, Friend of Mankind, Champion of Liberty," Sir, you have merited it and would become it. You will always be held in grateful reverence by people everywhere who cherish liberty, yes, till time shall be no more.

The Star of Peace is starting to rise once again and someday will shine with a full brightness. We hope, you and I, that it will not be dimmed for a long time to come.
Crushing blows are now being dealt to the tyrants throughout the world, and these same enemies of mankind will never have another chance to bring death and destruction upon the world. But there will be others in the future, who will bear watching.

Oh, sir, how sad are the scenes of war!
what pain, sorrow, and destruction! The mistakes made after Armistice Day of 1918, must not be made again, if peace is to be of great duration.

Sir, it is my hope to someday visit you at the White House, or at your Hyde Park home. If it were but for a few moments, would consider it worthwhile.

And now, in taking leave, allow me to quote the poet Lord Byron, when I say, that among statesmen, patriots, and benefactors of mankind, you are "the first, the last, the best, the Cincinnati of the West." Long may you live Mr. President, and God be with you now, and forever. I am, with esteem,

Very sincerely yours,

Huntsville, Ohio, Dec. 3 1944 (12/11/44)

My dear Mr. Early:

On Nov. 11th, I sent by insured mail to His Excellency, the President of the United States, the bronze United States Diplomatic medal, and also a letter under separate cover.

This medal I presented to His Excellency, on behalf of the Nation as a slight token of appreciation, and in recognition of his great zeal in the cause of liberty, and of his labours for the good of mankind.

Having received no acknowledgement of receipt of the medal and the letter which accompanied same, I have had some apprehension that perhaps they have not been received by His Excellency.

Sir, I am a great admirer of Franklin D. Roosevelt, and I just wish to know whether or not he has received the medal and my message to him. Will you kindly investigate, and inform me of your finding? I am, with esteem,

TO:
MacLEISH, Honorable Archibald,
Assistant Secretary of State.
December 21, 1944.

Pres. wrote following let.: "Dear Archie:- I have not had time to read 'The American Story' but I will begin it on Christmas morning as soon as the grandchildren leave my bed. I have got down to Page #23 and I wish I had heard it on the air because at the beginning of 'The Names for the Rivers' I see that you are older and more versatile than I thought. I am happy to know that you were in the sea shanty of Henry VIII, and that it was sung by 'a single voice.' You must let me know when you sing another narration. What a happy thought is contained in the book -- I might try the same method in teaching current American politics! I, too, know how to croon. I can still read your writing without glasses -- but then unlike Senator Bennett Champ Clark (D., Mo.) I am not yet a lame duck Senator! My best to you and Ada for a Happy Christmas."---Book sent to study.

DEMPSKY, Commander Jack
New York, N. Y.
Dec. 4, 1944.

Wrote the President expressing congratulations for himself and for Jim Flagg upon the President's reelection. Says that Mr. Flagg has depicted a scene from Jack Dempsey's fight with Jess Willard at Toledo, Ohio on July 4, 1919. Painting was unveiled at his restaurant in N. Y. States that a reproduction of the painting is being mailed to the President under separate cover. - The President on Dec. 11, 1944, expressed appreciation for the message of Congratulations which Commander Dempsey and Mr. Flagg sent. And he is pleased to accept that framed mural. Expresses warm thanks to both of them for their thought of him. - Pencil notation - Sent to Library.

On Nov. 23, 1944 Louis Johnson wrote Gen. Watson enclosing letter from G.M. "Monte" Williams. (no inclosure rec'd.) States a few days ago Mr. Williams sent the Pres. a model of the C-46 transport plane and P-40 Pursuit plane. Also mentions Mr Williams's suggestion the Pres. might be interested for H.P. a model of the R-3350 Cyclone engine.....On 11/27 Fanny Stutler, Sec. to Mr. Johnson wrote Gen. Watson enclosing the letter of 11/20 to Mr. Johnson from G.M. Williams, which was omitted in let. of 11/23. Mr. Williams in his let. to Mr. Johnson said he is having the Wright Aeronautical Corporation prepare a model of R-3350 Cyclone engine for the Pres. collection.

On 12/27 Gen. Watson wrote Col. Louis A. Johnson, Clarksburg, W.Va. advising him the Pres. rec'd. the model of the C-46 and P-40 sent him by Mr. G.M. Williams. He was more than happy to have them for his collection and will be delighted to have the model of the Cyclone engine which Mr. Williams spoke of in his let. Gen. Watson regretted he was away when Col. Johnson was in town.

My Dear Mr. President,

My dear Miss Tully:

It has been my pleasure to have been able to supply to the American For In compliance with your memorandum of December 22,

1944, I am returning herewith the White House file concerning the gift of two toy bears sent to the President then to send to their folks at home.

by Mr. James McIvor, of Sydney, Australia.

The appropriate American consular officer has been requested to convey to Mr. McIvor an expression of the President's thanks and appreciation for the courteous gift.

Trusting that this small gift will give you some pleasure.

Sincerely yours,

Very respectfully yours,

My Dear Mr. President,

It has been my pleasure to have been able to supply to the American Forces in Australia a large quantity of toy Koala Bears.

These lovable little creatures so symbolic of Australia have crept into the hearts of your American boys almost as much as they are loved by Australians and, in consequence, have been much in demand by them to send to their folks at home.

I would consider it an honour if you would accept from me with my sincerest compliments, two of these toy Bears which are made from the skins of the Tasmanian Rock Wallaby which is practically identical with the fur of the Native Bear. The toy itself is a replica of the Koala Bear both in size and shape.

Trusting that this small gift will give you some pleasure.

Very respectfully yours,

James McIvor.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt
White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

Under separate cover we are sending you a framed picture depicting "Christ at the Peace Table", an idea which was conceived by the president of this concern, Mr. Carl T. Swenson. It has won very favorable comment since its limited distribution.

Any comment you have at this time will be greatly appreciated and we trust that the spiritual guidance exemplified in this painting will become a factor when the nations gather around the peace table.

With kindest regards and wishing you all good things, we are,

Yours very truly,

MORGENTHAU, Hon. Henry Jr.,
Washington, D. C.,
Dec. 19, 1944.

Writes the President and Mrs. Roosevelt saying that Henry Morgenthau, 3rd, has sent six magnums of Pommery 1929 champagne, which is for the President.--The President, Jan. 9th, 1945, wrote to Lt. Henry Morgenthau, 3rd, saying he was thrilled with those magnums of good old Pommery 1929 which was sent to him for Christmas. The President said Lt. Morgenthau's Father and Mother were both in on New Year's Eve and they had hoped to crack open the champagne for the occasion but someone had already hidden it away even from the President. The President said he now had it safely under lock and key and that he was most grateful for it.

On above date, Miss Tully wrote to the Studio, saying that we received from them, three framed verses with a card bearing the name "Aaron." As we have nothing in our files to indicate who he is or where he lives, she wonders if they might be able to give us this information. — Original letter of 12/1, from Miss Tully was returned with this pen notation on bottom: "Dec. 22 We just learned this framed motto was sent to you by Mr. Aaron Gold 901 Walton Ave Bronx 52 N Y". — On 1/5/45, Miss Tully wrote to Mr. Gold, thanking him for the framed mottos. — One framed motto given to Brady — one to GGT for President and the third one to Mrs. Bonsteel.
