Dear Mrs Boettiger.-

I wrote the President rather a long letter Nov. 5, 1944, enclosing a picture of he and his mother & it was really tragic for both of them as it was only a child she had taken him to hear Josef Hoffman at the Metropolitan Opera & never make his debut on a piano & should have sent it to Hyde Park as the President was there at the time. I marked it personal. Have written three times since in regard to it & am sure would not stray as I have it go astray. Am sure quite anxious & would you kindly find out from your Dad & bring to my K. Greetings

What greeting shall I send you
As I think of you today?
For the wish that I would wish you
Goes beyond what I can say;
Yet unspoken thoughts rise heavenward
In the silence, when we pray.

I will breathe my intercessions
Before God's altar Throne
And the best ~~wish~~ I can wish you
Shall be told to Him alone
And the best thought I can send you
Is from Him, and not my own.

And your name shall be remembered
In the Blessed Presence there
Where remembrances are sacred
And each memory holds a prayer
And where loving thoughts shall leave you
In a loving Father's care.

'Ripples' Enid Woman's Book Of Poems

Ethel Belle Morrow

"Ripples", a book of poetry and prose by an Enid writer, Ethel Belle Morrow, has just been published by the Burton Publishing company of Kansas City.

'The poems express sentiment and are without depth but if they offer hope or give happiness to somebody then I shall be repaid," Mrs. Morrow says of her book.

Mrs. Morrow is the wife of Ben C. Morirow, 1106 Wynona, and as a wife and mother has her family and home as her first interest but gives freely of her time to her church, civic and garden club work. She has been actively connected with the First Presbyterian church many years and her husband is teacher of a Bible class that bears his name.

The collection of poems express the thoughts of a mother on a wide range of subjects including war, peace, members of the armed forces, the attack on Pearl Harbor, and tributes to neighbors and friends. There are poems to her daughter, Lieut. (jg) Grace Morrow of the WAVES, and Mrs. George Aderhold. Others express the author's sentiments on Easter, Christmas and other special days of the year. Travel, news of the day and children caught the author's interest for poetic interpretation.

Mrs. Morrow ended her book with a series of articles which she has entitled 'Prosaic Bits of This and That". These include an essay on "Home Defense" inspired by the addresses of Churchill and President Roosevelt an hour after the bombing of Manila. Another is a "Sermon for Mothers of Little Children." In an article 'Ben as a Soldier," Mrs. Morrow pays tribute to her husband and to the late Peter Asplund, who was his employer.

Art work for the book, including the outside lettering and drawings inside the cover, were done by C. E. Batchelor.

Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. President—

This note may seem strange to you but is written in all sincerity, and, because of your great understanding, I dared take this step. There are few, outside of my Faith, which is Roman Catholic, to whom I would send a blessed medal. But, if I explain, I feel you will understand.

When the United States entered this global war two of my nephews were in line for service. So, according to the customs of my Faith, I made many visits to my church weekly to pray for an early allied victory with an honest peace and especially for the boys and girls in the service and most especially for my nephews. So, I then included you and your family asking our Lord and his divine Mother to give you and yours good health, protection and clear vision. To all of mine I gave these same types of medals to be carried with their change as a pocket piece. On one side is a replica of "Our Mother of Perpetual Help" and on the other side is one of St Anthony. I feel sure ~~that~~ anyone who carries such a medal, accompanied by my continued daily prayers, ~~that~~ he or she is especially under the care of divine guidance. And now that you plan another visit with

Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin feel you need protection in travel, good health, and exceptional vision.

I hope you will not feel I am exceeding the correctness of such a request. If you do not wish to carry this as a pocket piece, I shall understand, but wish it could be returned to me as I would not wish to have any article that has been blessed, be mislaid or lost. I write this note in confidence and wish for no notoriety.

I shall continue to pray for your continued good health, protection and clear vision for we never needed it any more than we do at this minute - also a very successful journey.

This may all seem strange to you but is very real to me. If more people understood the part Faith plays in the drama of life we would not have wars —
would not even need medals.
Please accept this humble offering in the spirit in which it is sent.

I share the great honor
& remain

Most sincerely,

Mrs. William J. Butler

Dear Grace Tully-

Recieved your letter of thanks in behalf of the Presdit for those dolls- I never expected to hear from him, in regards to those dolls. I am so pleased and so happy, about the letter of thanks, I only wished he had put his signature, in his own hand writing, or should I say his full name- I would like to have my children keep this letter, in remembrance of him, and of what I sent himcould there be any possiable way of having him in person, put his own name to this letter in his own hand writing, if so

Originals sent with badges to Hyde Park Library. 3-13-45 R.L.S.

January 16, 1945

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,
president.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find a badge I wore at the inauguration of Cleveland and Stevenson on March 4, 1893. The day was very nasty, very cold and stormy. Many of the delegates returned home with bad colds and some died. Just think the "tired Old Man", as my friend from Michigan called you, was but ten years old. Also you will find a badge worn by me at the Convention at Rochester at which Convention we nominated you for Governor and sent you on your way to Washington. I can remember that Convention as if it were yesterday when we arrived from Long Beach. The hotel was crowded and I was told that they had Warm Springs on the 'phone begging you to run for Governor. After hours of pleading late that night you broke down and consented to run. You know what happened -- you were elected and the Happy Warrier was defeated. Mr. President, have you ever thought what would have happened if you had declined. The old saying is, "there is a destiny that shapes our end, rough hew them as we may." Maybe you won't want to keep the badge because of the Tammany connection, but I am proud of being an old Tammany man. My grandfater, after returning from the War in 1812, joined the Society. It has lost much of its power, but I know lots of good honest men who did and still belong to it. Sometimes I laugh at Mr. Dewey. One would think everything good, pure, etc., was in the Republican party. Seems to me that Platt Odell and a few more knew how to play the game. We have a good vote in down state -- then the good and holy would get together and count the dead ones up state. Result another Republican elected. Do you remember Berd S. Caler. He was elected. I remember we paraded around 125th Street election night in celebration only to wake up next morning to find out the dead ones were counted again and Caler was defeated.

Sometimes I run over to Washington. I have never visited the White House. After all the excitement is over would you let me know how I can see the inside of the White House.

Mr. President, I often wonder why you prefer Washington to that grand old place at Hyde Park.

Take good care of yourself and may the Good Lord watch over and guide you.

Sincerely yours,

453 West Chester Street,
Long Beach,
Long Island, N.Y.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Please accept the shirt I am sending, with a prayer of thanks to God for giving to this country the greatest President and Wife it has ever had.

The fourth term is only a part of God's plan to give, not only this country, but the people of the whole world a better appointed by Him, who seasons his chosen ones in many ways, that they may prove through endurance that God lives, loves and rules.

In the four hard years ahead, President Roosevelt, humanity's friends, will stand firm and so will fulfil the purpose for which he was born.

Sincere Christmas greetings and congratulations upon your re-election. Never have I been more proud of any deed than of having returned my vote for your continuation in office.

I hawe sent to you, Sir, a china figure of a Scotty. The piece was made at the Royal Doulton potteries and was kept in their permanent gallery of prized pieces.

When I first saw it there, I asked if it would be possible to secure a duplicate for you because of your attachment to Fala. I was informed that this was impossible since none had made in well over two years. However, Colonel Cecil Noke, the director and a good friend of mine, took the figure from their gallery in order that I might send it to you.

Dear Mr. President,

Everyone was very excited when they heard that you were coming to San Francisco for the Peace Conference in April. I was very thrilled to hear it too.

I have been wanting to write a letter to you for a long time, But I didnt think you would get to see it. I hope you will receive this one. My mother says if you dont try anything you dont know how things turn out.

We had a paper drive and I collected 500 pounds. There was another drive at my school and I collected 1000 pounds. I am in the fifth grade at St. James boy's School I also sing in the choir.

I am starting an autograph collection of famous people. I have a few autographs which my mother got for me when she went as a guest of Edward Arnold at the premiere of "Sutter's Gold". She was asked because she is the great-grand-daughter of John A. Sutter. I am the great-great-grand Son. Among my autographs are Edward Arnold, Lee Tracy, and Gene Kerchalt. I would Be very proud and honored to have your autograph.

I wish they would use page-boys to run errands like they do in the Senate. I saw a picture once about Senate page boys. Perhaps that way I could get to see you.

If I don't get to see you I would still be very happy if I receive a little note telling me you received my letter.

I will close wishing you the best of health and may God bless you and take care of you.

Maybe you wont want to keep the badge because of the Tammany connection but I am proud of being an old Tammany man my grand father after returning from the war of 1812 joined the Society - it has lost much of its power but I know lots of good honest men who did and still belong to it

Honorable Franklin D. Roosevelt,
President.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find a badge I wore at the inauguration of Cleveland and Stevenson on March 4, 1893. The day was very nasty, very cold and stormy. Many of the delegates returned home with bad colds and some died. Just think the "tired Old Man", as my friend from Michigan called you, was but ten years old. Also you will find a badge worn by me at the Convention at Rochester at which Convention we nominated you for Governor and sent you on your way to Washington. I can remember that Convention as if it were yesterday when we arrived from Long Beach. The hotel was crowded and I was told that they had Warm Springs on the 'phone begging you to run for Governor. After hours of pleading late that night you broke down and consented to run. You know what happend -- you were elected and the Happy Warrior was defeated. Mr. President, have you ever thought what would have happened if you had declined. The old saying is, "there is a destiny that shapes our end, rough hew them as we may." Maybe you won't want to keep the badge because of the Tammany connection, but I am proud of being an old Tammany man. My grandfater, after returning from the War in 1812, joined the Society. It has lost much of its power, but I know lots of good honest men who did and still belong to it. Sometimes I laugh at Mr. Dewey. One would think everything good, pure, etc., was in the Republican party. Seems to me that Platt Odell and a few more knew how to play the game. We have a good vote in down state -- then the good and holy would get together and count the dead ones up state. Result another Republican elected. Do you remember Berd S. Caler. He was elected. Dear Mr. McLean:

Thank you so much for your very nice letter of March third. Of course, I remember you very well. I remember the very nice visit I had with you in Pa Watson's office.

We were all shocked and distressed at the sad news of Pa's death. He was a grand person and we shall all miss him very much, particularly the President.

You are more than kind to want to send to the President shipments of fish from time to time. As you know, the President is particularly fond of lobster and I know he will be delighted to have some of the Canada variety which is especially delicious. Will you be good enough to address the package as follows:

Mr. Morgan Geiss
1834 L St. N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Pa gave me some of those delicious smelts which you sent to him shortly before he left on the trip to the Crimea. He said "they were the finest smelts he ever had eaten" and I agreed with him.

The President had a very interesting and, I think, successful trip and returned to Washington in fine spirits. He asks me to send you his grateful thanks and best wishes, to which I add mine.

Very sincerely yours,

Miss Grace Tulley,
The White House,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dear Miss Tulley:-

You probably remember meeting me in Washington with General Watson on one or two occasions. We received the news of the death of the General with great sorrow. He was a great friend of mine over a period of years, and I always visited he and Mrs. Watson when I went to Washington.

My home, as you probably know, is on the southern shore of New Brunswick near Campobello, and I have known the President, as a friend, quite a long time.

The last year or two I have been in Ottawa as a dollar a year man but expect to be through here before very long. We have large quantities of fish in New Brunswick caught in the area around Campobello where I am interested in a large fish plant. I have been sending certain fish, when they were in season, to the White House for a number of years. First, I used to send them to Colonel McIntyre, whom I had met at Campobello and knew very well. Later I sent them to General Watson. What I would like to know now is, would it be alright for me to send them in your name, and you could pass them around as General Watson did. The lobster season is on now, and I would like to send some fresh lobster, if agreeable.

We were all so glad to read in the Press that the President came back from Yalta in robust health. His unprecedented service to mankind will not be forgotten in a thousand years, and we think as highly of Mr. Roosevelt in Canada as the people of the United States, and we do hope that he will be granted the best of health to finish the greatest job that was ever given to any statesman.

With kind personal regards to the President and yourself, I am,

Yours very truly,

Dear Miss Tully:-

I want to thank you sincerely for your kind letter of March 13th.

As lobsters are in season at the present time, I have given instructions for a shipment to go forward early this week, so they should arrive any day now, and you can pass the word on to Mr. Morgan Geiss to be on the lookout for same. I might say these lobsters come from near Campobello and they should be very good ones, so I trust you will all enjoy them.

My dear Mr. McLean:

Those wonderful lobsters arrived in perfect condition, and I turned over half of them to the President and Mrs. Roosevelt. They had them for lunch the other day and enjoyed them immensely. My family and I had a lobster feast, so you can see how many people you made happy. This takes to you the President's, Mrs. Roosevelt's and my grateful thanks for your thought of us.

Pa's death has left us all very sad. He was such a fine person and we shall all miss him very much.

I do hope that the next time you are in Washington you will be sure to come in and see us.

For you are "friend" to every citizen of the United States — I am sending you a medal of Mother Seton. Will you carry it and say the Lord's Prayer every day that she may be canonized? Also ask her to pray, that you may be entirely cured. "Mother Seton, Servant of God, pray for me," is the prayer that has obtained at least two first-class miracles, cures of hopeless cancer and paralysis. PRESIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM FOR
ADMIRAL BROWN
April 11, 1945.

"I think this is all right. I would put my copy of the bronze casting in the Library at Hyde Park. It would, of course, be owned by the Government."----Memo. of 4/9/45 for the President from Adm. Brown stating that Senator Theodore Francis Green called him to say he had promised the Gorham Mfg. Co, of Providence, R. I., to ask whether President would accept a bronze casting of a model they have made of the hoisting of the flag at Iwo Jima as shown in the now famous photograph. Senator Green informed Adm. Brown that company does not seek any publicity and that they wish to make only two castings - one for Pres. and one for General Vandegrift. As not more than 10 pounds of metal are involved in the two castings Adm. can see no objection. Adm. believes Post Office Dept. is pretty well fixed on idea of a stamp of same design to commemorate Marines' war service.----Copy of Adm.'s memo. attached to file.

Dear Mr. President:-

Please accept this flag with our assurances of esteem. One like it, hanging on the wall of our office, has served as an everpresent reminder that John T. Clark and Son's first duty during this war is to the Flag and to the men who are carrying it on all of our world-wide battle fronts.

With every good wish for your continued good health,

Faithfully yours,

Dan McKetrick.
